Folks,

You may have already received this but we want to make sure everyone has a chance to hear the new information about the 2019 assessments coming via this webinar on Thursday. It will be repeated on Monday April 8 at noon Pacific (separate notice coming for that webinar).

Attached please find reference documents including the new Targets and other information on the Mitigation, Prevention and Protection mission areas.

I look forward to speaking with you about this soon.

Good Afternoon,

Please forward this invite to your state, territory, tribal, and UASI partners. On Thursday, April 4, 2019, FEMA will be hosting a Webinar on the Release of the 2019 THIRA/SPR Targets and Methodology Update. During this webinar FEMA will review the Prevention, Protection, and Mitigation standardized targets for the THIRA/SPR, provide an overview of additional updates to the THIRA/SPR methodology, discuss available tools and resources to help communities complete the THIRA/SPR, and address questions from participants. FEMA will also record this webinar and make it available to communities that are not able to participate live. FEMA will also host this same webinar a second time on April 8, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. ET, but participants do not need to attend both.
