Upon my arrival, I observed the described female on a black in color bicycle exiting the business plaza in front of Bronx House Pizzeria. The female then began riding her bicycle southbound on Aviation Drive. I activated the red and blue emergency lights of my marked patrol vehicle (Clearly marked with FCSO's Agency insignia) in attempt to conduct a traffic stop on the bicycle to further investigate. I activated my sirens multiple times in which the female continued to travel southbound on Aviation drive. The female glanced over her right shoulder, looked directly at my patrol vehicle and made a sharp right turn into an open field. The female then began to gain speed in attempt to elude law enforcement. I travelled through the field in an effort to get ahead of her, at which time she dropped her bicycle and continued to evade me on foot.

I exited my marked patrol vehicle and gave the female clear verbal commands ordering her to stop. The female refused to do so, as she continued to walk away from me. I approached the female, grabbed the back of her arms and advised she will be escorted to the ground if she continued to resist. The female was ultimately escorted to the ground which resulted in her placing her hands under her stomach and refusing to cooperate. The female was later positively identified via DAVID (Driver and Vehicle Information Database) Photo as, Bree Gadoury 01/05/1981. While trying to secure Bree in handcuffs, I felt a sharp metal object scratching at my lower left leg. Bree was subsequently placed in handcuffs behind her back while laying flat on her stomach. She then rotated her body towards me and aggressively kicked me twice in the chest area. A bystander then drew my attention to a black handled, screwdriver like, object that the bystander advised Bree was using in an effort to Additional units then arrived on scene and began to assist. While attempting to place Bree in the rear of a marked patrol car, Bree began to move her body in a wild manner to avoid being placed in the car. While on the ground, Deputies observed that Bree removed her right hand from the handcuffs and was then unsecured. Bree again placed her hands under her stomach area and refused to comply once again. K9 handler Corporal Cavas deployed his agency issued Taser X7 and gave Bree loud verbal commands imploring her to comply. After several warnings, Corporal Cavas executed a drive-stun to her rear right shoulder area which resulted in Bree complying and being re-secured. See Corporal Cavas's supplement report for further.

Deputies made contact with two victims of the criminal mischief (Scratching of vehicles) who stated that they wished to pursue charges. The victims completed Willingness to Prosecute forms and will provide sworn statements at a later time which will be submitted to the FCSO Records Division.

Florida Highway Patrol Trooper Lima assisted in taking Bree into custody. See Trooper Lima's report

(case#FHPZ3O0N0246548) for documentation of his involvement.

Bree was placed in the rear of a patrol vehicle and was transported to AdventHealth for medical treatment. Based on my investigation and interaction with Bree, it was determined Bree committed the following offenses: x2 Criminal Mischief over $1k, Aggravated Battery on a Law Enforcement Officer, Resisting an Officer with Violence and Fleeing to Elude Law Enforcement with Lights and Sirens. The black handled screwdriver was submitted for evidence. Two black bags containing clothing and miscellaneous items were collected and submitted for safekeeping.

My Axon body camera was utilized and will be uploaded to Evidence.com
