On 8/27/2024, I, Deputy J. Dorsey, was dispatched to a BOLO for a stolen blue 2018 Ferrari 488 Spyder, bearing a Florida tag of "CCC1". The suspect vehicle was reported to have been stolen during a home invasion robbery, which took place in Cranston, Rhode Island. The vehicle was suspected to be occupied by a subject involved in the home invasion and was subsequently deemed armed and dangerous.

The vehicle fled from deputies in St. Johns County and continued south into Flagler County.

I located the vehicle traveling southbound on Old Kings Road at the intersection of Fleetwood Drive. As I got behind the vehicle and confirmed the tag, it began to flee from my marked patrol vehicle. The Flagler County Communications Center was notified, and Chief Welker authorized a pursuit. At that time, the vehicle was determined to pose a significant danger to the public. The vehicle was observed driving in a reckless manner with the vehicle operating over the speed limit, leaving its proper lane of travel, running cars off the road, and running through redlights. The vehicle continued southbound on Old Kings Road, then turned westbound on Palm Coast Parkway, and then westbound through Boulder Rock Drive. At this time, the pursuit was turned over to the traffic unit.

While I Deputy J. Dorsey was turning westbound in pursuit of the vehicle on Palm Coast Parkway, I struck a curb in the median causing damage to my front driver side tire and rim and again ran over a lower curb to get around traffic at the Interstate 95 interchange. Upon striking the curb and feeling the wheel off balance I dropped out of the pursuit of the vehicle and notified my supervisor of the damage and the vehicle was taken to fleet and the damage was repaired prior to the end of shift.

See FCSO Case Number 2024-00074132 for further information.

Corporal Jurec was notified and provided with photographs of the vehicle.

Nothing further to report at this time.
