The 2nd Annual Enterprise Through Literature Video Contest Is Underway

Dear Megan:

I'm reaching out to you on behalf of the Ed Snider Center for Enterprise and Markets to make you aware of the annual Enterprise Through Literature Video Contest for high school students and their teacher-sponsors. This contest is an exciting opportunity for your enterprising students to display their talents and insights before a national audience. This year's theme is Individual Identity in Utopia and Dystopia.

This creative project is a great addition to any English, economics or civics classroom. Working as individuals or in teams, students choose and read a book that they feel exemplifies the theme of the contest. To enter, students answer the contest prompt by creating a video that visually
