LICENSE TYPE DEFINITIONS, SALES REQUIREMENTS, AND UNDERAGE ADMISSIONS RESTRICTIONS

- A. Bar means any public place with its primary business being the service of alcoholic beverages for on premises consumption. Bars shall not be required to have any food preparation capacity or certain percentage of food sales. Any establishment deriving more than 60% of its total sales from the sales of alcoholic beverages that does not have a kitchen shall operate under this license type.

Bars. No persons under 21 are allowed to enter, remain, or be employed except for third-party outside vendors or other non-staff individuals who are on the premises for a limited duration and are being compensated to perform a specific task on the premises but are not regularly on the premises nor are on the premises to patronize the bar. Examples of such individuals include, but are not limited to, the following: construction workers, couriers, deliverymen, and handymen and repairmen.

- B. Bar with kitchen means any public place with its primary business being the service of alcoholic beverages for on premises consumption that has an adequate and sanitary kitchen and dining room equipment, having employed a sufficient number of cooks and kinds of employees to prepare, cook, and serve suitable food at tables with seating, and holding a certificate of inspection and approval from the county health department. Any establishment that derives more than 60% of its total sales from the sales of alcoholic beverages and has a qualifying kitchen shall operate under this license type.

Bars with kitchens. The prohibitions set forth in 6-9(1) shall apply unless licensee possesses an underage permit as stipulated in 6-4-(5), proper notice under referenced subsection has been made, and the kitchen is open serving a full or substantial menu of premises prepared meals. At such times, and in compliance with O.C.G.A. 3-3-24.1, the restriction in 6-9(1) shall not apply if a minor between 18 years and 20 years of age enters a bar with kitchen in order to attend a bona fide live musical concert or live performing arts presentation for which the minor has purchased a ticket. Tickets for such events may not be made available or sold at the premises at any time less than two hours prior to noticed start of event. During such events door personnel must use an ID scanner to verify the age of each patron, regardless of age, and must place wristbands on patrons 21 years or older. Alcoholic beverages served to non-minor patrons must be in a plastic, colored cup when Underage Permit is operative.

- C. Event venue means a public place hosting advertised sporting events, projected cinematic showings, live musical concerts, performing arts presentations or performances and/or any other type of entertainment for which a ticket is required for admission and attendance with the serving of alcoholic beverages to be consumed on the premises as only incidental thereto. Event venues may host private functions with guest list and no ticket being required. Cover charges are expressly prohibited. Serving of prepared food and its attendant facilities shall be permitted but not required. Event venues shall only be open to public for one hour before and after hosted events.

Event venues. No age restrictions during permitted hours of operation.

- D. Low volume licensee means a licensee that holds Class B, C, D, E, and/or F license(s) under this chapter that receives or will receive wholesale deliveries of alcoholic beverages in an average amount of not more than $1,000.00 per month over the course of a year.

Low volume licensees. No age restrictions shall apply.

- E. Pub means any public place kept, used, maintained, and advertised and held out to the public as a place where meals are served and where meals are actually and regularly served, such place being provided with adequate and sanitary kitchen and dining room equipment, having employed a sufficient number of cooks and kinds of employees to prepare, cook, and serve suitable food at tables with seating, and holding a certificate of inspection and approval from the county health department. At least one meal per day shall be served every day that the premises is open to the public, and the serving of such meals shall be a substantial portion of the business conducted, with the serving of alcoholic beverages also comprising a substantial portion of its business. A pub shall have 40 percent or more of its total annual gross sales of from the sale of prepared meals. The sale of ice, garnishes, soft drinks, mixers or beverages of any kind shall not constitute the sale of prepared meals.

Pubs. No one under 18 shall be allowed in or to remain on premises after 10:00 p.m. without a parent or guardian. No one under 21 years of age shall be allowed to enter or remain on premises after the kitchen has stopped serving. Pubs may allow patrons over 18 years of age to enter and remain during live music concerts that continue past 10:00 p.m. if the kitchen remains open offering the full or substantial menu during that time. At no time shall patrons under 21 be allowed to sit at alcohol dispensing station (bar) unless accompanied by parent or guardian. There shall be no set time for a pub owner to close the kitchen nor does the closing time need to be consistent on a daily basis.

- F. Restaurant means any public place kept, used, maintained, and advertised and held out to the public as a place where meals are served and where meals are actually and regularly served, such place being provided with adequate and sanitary kitchen and dining room equipment, having employed a sufficient number of cooks and kinds of employees to prepare, cook, and serve suitable food at all times the place is open with the sole exception of one hour after food preparation ceases for business at tables with seating, and holding a certificate of inspection and approval from the county health department. At least one meal per day shall be served every day that the premises is open to the public, and the serving of such meals shall be the principal business conducted, with the serving of alcoholic beverages to be consumed on the premises as only incidental thereto. A restaurant shall have 70 percent or more of its total annual gross sales of from the sale of prepared meals. The sale of ice, garnishes, soft drinks, mixers or beverages of any kind shall not constitute the sale of prepared meals.

Restaurants. At no time shall patrons under 21 be allowed to sit at alcohol dispensing station (bar) unless accompanied by parent or guardian. No other age restrictions shall apply.
