Mike

Hope all is well with you and your family. I've seen your son now and then playing soccer. Hope he is having a good time.

Wanted to get your advice regarding a post on FaceBook.

There is a group for Tenaflly Residents (Tenaflly, Mom's, Dads...). Someone posted an article referring to the incident at the soccer game and the car with the Palestinian flag. In the comments, a person (Inna Pe) said the following:

“Good for them. We should start gofundme for them in case they will need lawyers.”

“Noah Garden you are entitled to your opinion. Displaying terrorist flags deserves nothing less than that. Anyone who supports Palestine and what they stand for deserves having their cars vandalized. I dont condone physical violence but leason should be taught.”

The comments have been deleted by the admin but I took a snapshot of additional comments which are below.

The language is fairly strong and aggressive. I know there have been other minor incidents around town where Muslims have are being intimidated. Nothing too serious but I would argue inappropriate.

Is there anything we can do to bring more awareness about respecting all people and calling out disrespectful behavior?

Would welcome any advice or feedback you may have.

Thank you sir and thank you for keeping us safe.

Shakeel
