

man Edward Stevens was assigned.

■ A 12-year-old borough youth has been charged with using a knife to threaten another 12-year-old borough youth at the Hance Park playground on April 4. The mother of the youth who was threatened signed complaints charging the other youth with aggravated assault and unlawful possession of a weapon. Patrolman Barry Graves took the initial report, and Investigator Glenn Rogers was the arresting officer.