Well done, good and faithful servant...

January 18, 2020 | GLOBAL NEWS |

SHARE

The beloved Dr. Jack Van Impe was welcomed into Heaven by His blessed Savior and Lord who he had so faithfully served in ministry for over 70 years.

Please pray for his beloved wife and lifelong ministry partner Rexella and their families as they grieve this immense loss and for wisdom as she and the Board lead the ministry in the days ahead.

Further details about Dr. Van Impe's homecoming celebration will be published later.

For over 20yrs I have followed his ministry. From young man to middle aged man I have grown in Christ just listening from time to time. There no one like him and he will be missed GREATLY! To have a mind like his and love the word is an awesome gift. He's home now enjoying his rewards. Prayers and condolences to his close friends and family.

Jack, you have moved on to be with our Lord and Savior, someday we too will join you. I know you mentioned that you were the last prophet here on earth. I was questioning today why God took you, when the world still needs you, but I know there is a reason!! Rexella, We will all be praying for you, to loose the love of your life here on earth, to sit by him through everything the two of you have gone through in your years together, is very difficult. We at the Clinger Household will continue to pray for the ministry, that God will continue to bless it, and the truth still be told. Jack has been the only person to come against all the evil of this world! Please keep his mission alive in the truth of his beloved ministry. Thanks for allowing us to be apart of it... ❤️❤️❤️

I was both saddened and encouraged by Dr Jack's 'promotion to glory'. Saddened because I am heartbroken for Rexella, who shared the ministry of her husband for so long, and encouraged because dear Jack is now in the presence of our Lord and Saviour – now face to face. Our deepest love and sympathy to Rexella. May she know the comfort of His Everlasting Arms.

This is beyond disbelief, Rexella If you ever get a chance to read this, please know that I followed both you and Jack so many many years, we all were concerned when Jack had his major set back and slowly regained his health and both of you returned to the airwaves each week. Rexella please consider doing the show in tribute to your husband and continue to inspire and reach out to all of us again. Your loss carries a heavy heart and much grief but you know as well as all of us Jack is now in eternal heaven. My prayers go out to you Rexella, you're a great soul and our loss is shared. Sending my heart felt deep prayers to you and for Jack to be welcomed there as he was here. God Bless you in this difficult time in your life. We all hope to see you again very soon. Love Michael

My heart sank when I saw the in Memoriam post. I have watched JVIM for several years and I have come to enjoy Jack and Rexella. Every time I saw a new video, I thanked God for another week broadcast. This one hurts bc I really made watching the broadcast my routine and I welcomed them into my home with open arms through Youtube. My heart is sad but I remember that Jack is in heaven and he was so excited to see the day whether now or past his 90s. My the peace of God be with the Van Impe fam and all the viewers.

My family & I are so saddened to hear of Jack's passing, but at the same time we rejoice that he is now in the presence of our Lord Jesus. Our deepest condolences & prayers that the Lord will provide His loving comfort & guidance for Rexella, Chuck, & everyone at JVIM.

Your program has been in our home for nearly 25 years, much of that during the time before I personally accepted Christ as my Savior. Even then there was always something that made me pay attention to Jack's preaching, though at the time I did not understand much of what he was actually saying. It was not until many years later that I became saved & everything I remembered hearing him preach had new meaning. I immediately began watching the program again and it was wonderful to hear him with a renewed mind as a fellow brother in Christ.

There will indeed be many crowns given to him to lay at Jesus' feet.

I first saw Jack in the 70's as a young boy from New York visiting his grandmother and great aunt in Texas. They would have Jack, Rexella and Chuck on the TV and little did they know how much of what I saw was sinking in. Years later in my mid-20's I was very far from Christ and God began knocking on my door. Those hours spent in front of that TV in my great aunt's house bubbled to the surface and Jack Van Impe and his ministry played a part in my coming to Christ all those years later. After my conversion, Jack and the gang were a constant in my life in good times and bad. I was shocked to hear of Jack's passing today. My sincere condolences to Rexella and everyone. He is in heaven, but he will be missed by many here. Thank you, Jack. See you soon ... but not too soon. I'm not done yet. 😞

Jack was a part of my early Christian walk. When I was 15, I began to understand end times and would watch him every week looking for the blessed hope. He was my favorite prophecy teacher because of how much he encouraged me on the closeness of the hour. I wished he would have never tastes death, but now he will go before me when the trumpet sounds. Bless you both for all you did for the saints.

Dear Rexella...I was so very saddened to learn today of the loss of your beloved Jack. I cried as though I knew you both personally. My children and I began watching JVI Ministries on tv in 1990. We looked forward to his teaching and enthusiasm for God's Word every week. He will be greatly missed. We were excited about the plans you had for the future of the ministry. The two of you were such an amazing team in and an example of true love and commitment in marriage...an inspiration to so many! It was such a shock that he's gone after watching your show last week and after all he's been through health wise, you both looked so amazing. God's timing is perfect though and Jack's homecoming certainly didn't catch Him by surprise...you and your family will be close in our prayers in the days and weeks ahead and may you feel the peace, presence, comfort and strength that only He can give.

Love, Maye 💜🌸

Jack Van Impe was instrumental in leading me to Christ through a televised crusade in which he preached a sermon, "The Coming War With Russia". I was a child at the time, more than 40 years ago now. When the program came on, I recall getting up to turn the channel. But then Dr. Van Impe said emphatically, "Don't touch that dial!" I was startled, so I returned to my seat and watched the entire sermon. The Spirit of God was manifestly present throughout the time I listened and began to convict me. I wrote to the ministry following the crusade, rising early the next morning to drop a letter in the box, still under conviction of the Holy Spirit. I eventually came to Christ, by and large through the materials I later received from the ministry. Years later, in college, a friend told me much the same story, in response to the exact same sermon, where as a boy, he got up to turn the channel, but heard, "Don't touch that dial!" and wrote the ministry following the conclusion of the sermon. Jack Van Impe was a leader and a role model of diligence, integrity, commitment, devotion and character. He will be truly missed. I pray that Rexella will be comforted through the legacy that Jack left in many who were just like me; she by his side at each step. This is a long tribute, but enough cannot be said by me. The ultimate will come from Christ's pronouncement, "Well done..."

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

In my quest for knowledge, I began watching both Mother Angelica, and Jack Van Impe Presents. In 2015, I was baptized and have accepted The Lord Jesus Christ as my savior. I have learned so much from both Jack and Rexella, that I began passing on what learned to my family. I always appreciated your ministries love of Israel and the Jewish people. Dr. Jack Van Impe fueled my interest in Bible prophecy, and sharpened my discernment in seeing how prophecy (factoring in the power of God's word, his sovereignty, and his grace) is advancing as expressed by the many news headlines from around the world. Now, not only have I studied prophecy for the last 20 years, but I also teach it, and Dr. Van Impe was influential in planting & cultivating those seeds of interest. I am also encouraged by the strength of Rexella Van Impe, who is a titan in the faith, and pulls through strongly despite how she may feel emotionally. Thank you for all you have done!!!

My heart is so saddened to hear this news but I rejoice for Dr Jack for he is with the Lord. My heart breaks for you Rexella 😞 I was raised in a Christian home but strayed away from Jesus then I heard Dr Jack telling what is going on in the world and the soon return of Jesus. So in 2001 I prayed the prayer with Jack and got right with Jesus. I know that all Jack went through and Jesus brought him back so I believe he finished what the Father wanted of him and is returning very soon. Perhaps today. God bless you Rexella

What a surprising event! I will always treasure his kindness at a Wichita KS crusade where, during a sound check break, I approached him requesting to teach me the left hand fingering for the chromatic scale that can be heard in his "Onward Christian Soldiers" accordion arrangement. I still boast (more than 40 years later) that I took a special music lesson from him. He is surely being part of whatever praise music ensembles exist in heaven now.

My mom, Dolly, is 97-years-old, and she introduced me to Dr. Jack's teachings 40 years ago. We've treasured our large and growing library of his books, tapes and DVDs that we share with family and friends. (Dolly thinks he was far too young to abandon the flock of faithful believers eagerly awaiting the return of Christ!) Dr. Jack was the foremost expositor of pre-millennialism and the pre-tribulation rapture in the world today. So many of Dr. Jack's colleagues have left us behind after a lifetime of pursuing and promulgating eschatological truths: Grant Jeffrey, David Breese, Howard Eastep, David Webber, Ray Brubaker, Hilton Sutton, Chuck Missler, Paul Crouch, and Charles Taylor, to name some of the most prominent end-time voices. Dr. Ed Hindson famously says, "I'm not waiting for the undertaker, but the uppertaker." There's still hope for those yearning to cheat physical death while anticipating the glorified bodies of Philippians 3:21 and 1 Corinthians 15:42-44! Thanks, Dr. Jack, for helping the Lord put the finishing touches on that magnificent city, the New Jerusalem! May the blessing of Hebrews 9:28 comfort us all.

This morning I woke up dreaming of going to visit Jack & Rexella. Jack was sitting in the background with a big smile at a desk, and Rexella took me aside and was showing my pictures in back and white of the ministry work (I think something related to Hong Kong was in the pictures).

During breakfast was telling my wife about this unusual stuff related to Jack & Rexella and that was when my wife told me that brother Jack had gone to be with the Lord.

Now I know where his (Jack) smile was coming from.

But we should not be sad for him, but sad for our world, as he said many times: "the Lord has appointed me to be the last prophet of this world/age (church age)". And now the Lord has withdrawn His prophet from this world. Hence, The church age is going to end very soon. Be Zealot.

I won't forget the September 8th 2001 Jack Van Impe show, where jack and Rexella were warning of terrorism coming to America. Little did we realize, that just a few days later, 9/11 would change our world as we know it forever! I'm looking at the DAYSTAR programs when Marcus and Joni Lamb announce that two great men of God have gone Home to be with our Lord. One was Dr. Jack Van Impe. I was in disbelief; still am. I have enjoyed Jack and Rexella since 1989. His teachings of the Holy Word of God will be forever missed by me. He is finally Home, where the rest of God's family are longing to be. I remember Jack saying on one of their programs that he was sure he would be alive at the Rapture, but looks like The Father had a different plan. One of the true joys of my life as a believer, has been the ministry and viewer fellowship of Drs. Jack and Rexella Van Impe.

I experienced nothing other than joy, excitement and encouragement as a result of these two ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

I support Rexella Van Impe in any action she takes.

May God bless you, Brother Van Impe for all eternity in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Dr. Jack Van Impe, you will be greatly missed. I have watched you since the beginning of you being on television in the early 70's. Your rightly divided the word of truth. My husband and me watched you every week. We noticed when you were gone a long time. Found out today you were in a coma. We prayed for you to get well and come back. God brought you back from that long coma for a purpose for others. You lost a lot of weight. But you never forgot God's Word. You still preached. You will be forever in my heart till I meet you soon one day! God Bless Rexella prayers 🙏🙏 for her and all of the family. I will miss you. You never swayed from the truth of God's Word. You always joked and made me laugh. Your now with Jesus. It saddens my heart to know I can no longer see you. I always taped you every week. Gone to soon! My love for you is great. You were great with God's word. I know your with God now and he is greeting you with open arms to all the souls you touched. Saying Well done Dr. Jack Van Impe, my good and faithful servant! ❤️❤️❤️

I first came across his ministry in 1993 while flipping through the channels one evening on my small portable TV. Nothing would come in because of the reception. The only channel that would come in crystal clear was JVI. I wasn't too happy since I wasn't a big fan of watching Preachers on TV. I sat and listened to him and thought he makes a lot of sense. I really enjoyed the program. Here it is 27 years later and I watched his program every week since 1993. I will miss watching their show and the inspiration it gave me. Bless Rexella, family and friends as they go through their loss. I know Jack is smiling down as he is welcomed into heaven.

Precious in the sight of the Lord are the dead of His saints (Psalm 116:15)

For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain (Philippians 1:21)...How? because ...To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord

Am quoting scriptures because that's what he taught me for the past 26 years of following him. A great mentor

I believe he's now telling Paul and the rest...Guys listen, I fought the good fight, me too have finished the race, the faith I kept it. (2 Timothy 4:7-8)

I have now joined you to wait for the Crown of righteousness which the our Lord will give us on that day when we all stand before the Bema seat of Christ (Rom 14:10 and 2 Corinthians 5:10)

Thank you Jack for your teachings. Rexella thanks a lot for your support .WEEP NOT, for Jack is gone into our future and one day, when Christ sits on His throne we shall all see our loved ones.

Jack though you gone, your words, your teachings and jokes will always be with us till we meet

I accidentally bumped into JVIM while living with my atheist girlfriend in Boston back in 1993. I couldn't stop listening to him and after several unflattering remarks by my atheist girlfriend, I would listen to him secretly, and without her knowledge. I was so convicted by Jack's preaching that I eventually moved out from that sinful relationship, and started living on my own and gave my life over to Jesus Christ. My first television program on my tv, in my new apartment was ... JVIM ...which I listened with the volume turned up loud and without having to hide.

God used Jack to penetrate the heart of this poor black man and I thank him for his faithfulness in preaching the word of God. Let us now come together and celebrate his life, and huddle around his faithful wife Roxella. May God's grace be sufficient for her during this time of deep sadness. Remember we do not sorrow like those who have no hope. We will all meet again.

God bless you all.

Dr. Jack Van Impe and his lovely wife Roxella are gospel legends for God's kingdom! As a boy I would be so fascinated at Dr. Jack's ability to remember scripture verses – it inspired me then and 50 years later it inspires me now as a Pastor. This homegoing reminds us that the return of Jesus that Dr. Jack spoke of so often is so imminent. I look forward to meeting him personally in glory and may the Lord bless Roxella and the family during this hour to be comforted knowing that one day soon we shall meet again in the Lord never to depart – Amen!

Jack will always be remembered by me and I look forward to meeting with him some day in heaven. It would be an honer and privilege for me just to witness the blessings he will receive upon the first resurrection and it will not surprise me if God doesn't even need to flip the page on the book of life to know his name is already there. Our family sends their love and prayers to Rexella, the family and ministry of JVIM. Parting is such sweet sorrow when we know we will be together again. Our daughter was a little girl when she began watching Dr. Jack and REX-ella (as my Southern husband called Dr. Rexella). Our daughter is now in her 30's and is a strong, knowledgeable woman of God – and some of that wisdom came from the Van Impes' programs. In the early 1990's, my husband prayed with Dr. Jack and Rexella sent him "the little booklet to help you in your new walk with Christ". We SO thank you for your love and faithfulness to the children of God- for your lives spent serving others- the saved, and those yet-to-be-saved, many through your ministry. We will miss Jack, we hold up Rexella in prayer, we wait until we shuffle off this mortal coil and in our new bodies are all together again, and never to be parted from our Lord. God Bless You All.

I just want to express my love for the Van Impes. I first watched their program while at a friend's house in the late 1970's when Trinity Broadcasting Network was still a young network. I have followed the ministry over 40 years. I have several of his books and I think every Bible he produced. Been a couple times the past couple years when we thought we would lose him but God spared him. But his race is now run. I was so looking forward to his messages this year to the false doctrines in so many of our churches. I will always cherish his and sister Rexella's ministry.

Sister Rexella you have my love and sympathy. I love you so very much. He was so blessed to have you by his side nearly 70 years. God bless you and I hope you are able to continue the ministry in some capacity. You are such an intelligent lady. God bless you.

It was my good fortune to know Brother Jack personally through my association with The Sword of the Lord. I held him & Rexella in the highest regard. Our daughter Julie appeared on one of his telecasts so many years ago. Rexella was so kind to her. I suppose Brother Jack pointed more people to the prophecies of the Scripture than any other evangelist in his time. I have enjoyed reading the tributes posted here and to see how many were saved through his good ministry. I just wanted to add my name to the many as I salute the passing of a great man of God. May God comfort and bless you Rexella. With my love and deepest respect, Ron English

My husband Gene and I are so sorry for your loss of your precious husband, Jack, Rexella. We are glad he is out of pain and with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He memorized the Bible the way I did, that is why we started watching him. We saw you both many years ago at a luncheon, and when you were in Peoria, Illinois. Sending our deepest sympathy, prayers, and love to you Rexella. Your husband was a wonderful faithful man. God bless you until you see him again, Rexella.

This made me sad and feel so alone today as I heard of the passing of this wonderful man of God. I felt the same when Billy Graham and David Wilkerson went home to be with the Lord. I know it isn't true . The Word says we are encompassed about with an enumerable company of angels. I gave my heart to the Lord in the 1970's at one of his crusades in Beckley, WV. We will meet again.

I don't know how I will get along without Jack Van Impe. I looked forward to be with him every Friday night when he posted his weekly video. My heart filled sympathy goes out to Rexella and her family. I could see that Jack was getting stronger every week when he came back on TV. I was happy to see him regain his strength and I was praying that I would be around when the Rapture happen and we both would go up to be with the Lord together. I am 85 now and I don't know how much time I have left. I look up to the Heavens often and ask Jesus Christ to hurry up and come and take his believers to be with him. I never thought that Jack would go before me. Jesus Christ wanted Jack to preached the Gospel to the hold world according to the Bible, and he did that. All 247 countries. His mission was accomplished and God took him. Jack fought the good fight and he will be missed by the millions of his followers. Just remember Jack said the "Rapture was Imminent".

I miss him already in my heart. I do. I thank God for Dr. Jack Van Impe, and Dr. Rexella Van Impe. I know Jesus because of him, Rexella, and their ministry. Psalm 104:4 says that God "maketh his...ministers a flaming fire." He had the fire of God within him, and I loved to see and listen to him preach with that fire. He and Rexella have done such an awesome job in our generation. He was my spiritual father, and I'm so thankful to God for him, AND REXELLA. No minister has inspired me as much as he has. But We'll see him again at the gathering! May what he and Rexella have done be an inspiration to us all, to go forth with the gospel, and with the fire of God, and preach the soon return of Jesus Christ, our Lord. I am saddened to hear of the passing of Dr. Jack Van Impe, aka, ‘The Walking Bible,’ however, he is now where we all strive to be, and that’s in the presence JESUS himself! I’ve watched his weekly sermons on TV since 1994 at the age of 18 yrs old! At first shows scared me bc he spoke vehemently on the end of the world, wars, 666, etc. But after listening to him over the years weekly and following him as he taught the Bible, I became stronger and stronger spiritually. It is because of his ability to recite scriptures of the Bible as it pertains to end-times bible prophecies, that I too am now able to piece together current events and bible scriptures to help show that our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST is coming back very soon! He led soooo many people to CHRIST and it is my prayer that I too will be able to do the same! You will definitely be missed Dr. Van Impe! Prayers going out to his wife, Rexella, his family, and all who have been moved had the opportunity to witness his dynamic teaching style! Rest easy sir, because you absolutely deserve it! WELL DONE!!

My mom and I went to see Dr. Jack Van Impe back in the 70's. I was a young teen. He taught prophecy with such passion and the Bible with such authority. I had been slipping into idolatry, yet not willing to admit that to myself. After hearing him preach I was brought under conviction and repented. Praise God. I will forever be grateful to him. Thank you Sir.

Thank you and God bless you Rexella.

Dr. Jack and Rexella are part of who I am... from those early days of accordion lessons and growing up in Calvary Baptist with Dr. Allen and Chuck. The legacies left behind in the lives of people are both numerous and heartfelt. Know, Dr. Van Impe, that as you look over the railings of Heaven, your work and life here meant much to tens of thousands who will one day join you because of you.

Thank you

I was a little girl -- 8 years old, 1962, I believe -- when Jack VanImpe and Miss Rexella came to Denbigh Baptist Church in Denbigh, VA. I well remember his love for his Rexella, her vocal and musical ability, and his powerful preaching. I already had come to know the Lord Jesus as my Saviour, but Jack VanImpe impacted me so greatly in caring for others' souls.

When I grew and married, my husband was influenced much as he listened to the sermons Dr. VanImpe had put on records. He had me buy all of the sermon records. My late husband went to Heaven over three years ago.

How neat to find my present husband loves Dr. Van Impe and watched him every Sunday morning until he was not on last week or this morning. We were saddened to hear of his passing, but rejoicing for him. Wonder if our former spouses have yet met him in Glory. Prayer lifted for you, Rexella, and families.

I'm deeply saddened by the news. Jack has been one of my greatest influences in this life. He was instrumental in keeping me grounded in God's Word over the course of the past 15 years since I first dedicated my life anew to God. He is the one that inspired my deep interest and love for Bible Prophecy, and I would never have started BiblicalSigns.com nor written any of my books if not for his influence.

I have admired some other preachers in this life but, no doubt, I credit Jack as my spiritual father in the Lord. I grew to love his dedication to Biblical doctrine, his boldness, and stance for the truth, especially when he was pretty much "blacklisted" by the mainstream Christian television community (namely TBN).

He refused to be silenced and accepted being cancelled by the network -- rather than ever compromise truth.

He endured death threats by Islamists, battled countless health issues, and lived solely on his Social Security check each month for the remaining years of his life -- rather than live off donations to his ministry. A far cry from how most big name preachers live today.

No other preacher, throughout the course of my life, has ever preached with as much fire and conviction concerning the Rapture and Christ's return. No other preacher in my lifetime has preached the Word of God more boldly or faithfully than Dr. Jack. I pray that I can carry the torch of his Biblically-sound, uncompromising, and bold style of preaching until the Lord calls me home.

They have long called him the “Walking Bible,” due to his ability to memorize thousands of Holy Bible verses. He most certainly was. He never got to experience the Rapture that he so faithfully preached, but I’m happy that he finally gets to see our Lord Jesus face to face. It is what Jack has been looking forward to throughout his 70 years of ministry.

I have no doubt that our Lord is saying to him, as we speak, “Well done, good and faithful servant.” Can’t wait to see you again someday Dr. Jack. The world lost a champion of the Faith yesterday, and another legendary preacher.

Since I just heard the news, it may take me a few days to post a worthy memorial article about him on my website. Rest assured, that I will be posting one sometime in the coming week.

Also, this week’s episode of “The Signs of Our Times” on YouTube will be DEDICATED to this great teacher of mine. I will now put even more hard work and study into my new YouTube series, in the hopes of keeping the legacy and memory of this Bible Prophecy legend alive.

I send my prayers for peace to Rexella.

I know that I’m far from alone when I say...

I’m gonna miss you Jack. Kiss our Lord’s feet for me. I’ll see you when I get there brother.

I will KEEP LOOKING UP! 👍

An awesome Man of God I have watched since I was 14 years till now I am 52. He was one other than Billy Graham you could count on giving the true word of God. I have heard others but Jack was one of God's Generals who will be missed. Celebrate Brother Jack your home and we will meet up again with our savior. God bless Sister Rexella you & family our in my prayers. And thank you Lord for having Brother Jack here for us to gain the knowledge of your word and understanding true spiritual living!

As said you'll be missed & thank you!!

Addicted 2 Jesus!!

Sincerely in Jesus,

What a Day that will be,

When my Jesus I shall see.

When I look upon His face,

The one who saved me by his grace.

I have been a supporter of Jack Van Impe since I got saved in the early 70's. I saw Jack preach in person at least 3 times. In my life as a saved person, I never saw nor heard of anyone who could quote scripture like Jack Van Impe. The hardest part of memorizing scripture (for me) is remembering the correct book, chapter, and verse. I checked Jack out several times, and I NEVER heard him miss a quote or an address. They called him "The Walking Bible". He was one of the finest men of God of his generation. See you soon Jack!

A rose once grew where all could see sheltered beside a garden wall ..
And as the days passed swiftly by it spread its branches, straight and tall.

Now, you who deeply feel its loss be comforted the rose blooms there ..

I'm deeply saddened and I am holding back tears, as I've just learned of Dr. Jack Van Impe's departure and passing to be with the Lord. My deepest condolences to the family and close friends. I know he is now in the presence of Our Lord and Savior and has been told, 'well done my good and faithful servant'!

My prayers for all who have loved him and whom will miss him...he was a light unto this dark world. His light was that of Jesus!!! Thank You Jesus for having had the opportunity to have listened to your faithful, obedient servant, who reached out to the lost and they found you, Jesus! Praise be to your name, Jesus, in all of heaven and all of earth!!

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, I will not be here to see,
That the sun will rise and find your eyes; filled with tears for me,

But please know you're always in my heart, and I will forever love you,
And know, each time you think of me, I will be missing you too.

When tomorrow starts without me, I need you to understand,
That an angel came, he called my name and took me by the hand.
He told me it was time to go up to heaven far above,
And that I have to leave behind all those I dearly love.

When tomorrow starts without me, I know that you will cry,
For all my life I'd always thought that I would never die.
I had so much life ahead of me; I had so much to do,
It seems almost impossible that I was leaving you.

When tomorrow starts without me, I think of the good days, and the bad,
I thought of all our fights, next to all the fun we had.
If I could have stayed, just for a little while,
I would say I'd always be here, and then I'd make you smile.

When tomorrow starts without me, I'll realise that this could never be,
As all that would be left of me, is frozen in memories.
Then I thought of all the beautiful things that I would miss tomorrow,
I thought of you and when I did my heart was filled with sorrow.

When tomorrow starts without me I will walk through heaven's gate,
I will feel at home even without my soul mate.
I know this is what I wanted, deep down within my bones,
And God looked down and smiled at me from his great golden throne.

When tomorrow starts without me I see everything He promised me,
"Today your life on earth is past, and now you can be free."
"I promise no tomorrow as today will always last,
And since it's all the same you will not be longing for the past."

So when tomorrow starts without me don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me I'm right here in your heart.

Dedicated to Jacks family
condolences

Brian and I were eating at Peabody's about 15 years ago and noticed Jack and Rexella and they watched us throughout dinner. When all us were done, the Van Impe's came over to our table and without introducing themselves they commented on how well behaved our children were. They were humble and sweet and we told them we know who you are and watch you. They sat down with us for 30 to 45 minutes and we had a wonderful conversation with them. They are just like you see on TV. I've met them at their banquets several times and Rexella is always warm as you would expect. Rexella, we are praying for peace and comfort as Jack has had a change of address and looking forward to him to greet us soon with his unending enthusiasm. God bless you.

Jack Van Impe operated in an anointing of wisdom that I've never seen or heard from any other evangelist. He had a burning desire for biblical truth that is also unmatched in most ministries today. Can't you just imagine the discussions Jack is having with Jesus and the other great heroes of our faith? Well done and good and faithful servant, indeed! Prayers for Rexella and their precious family.

I first heard him when he preached at our church in the 70s. I was only 8 or 9, but he left an imprint and I've followed him as an adult. We've been a part to this ministry for 25 years because of his uncompromising love for our Lord, His word, and the need to proclaim the truth to the lost. Well done faithful servant indeed!

I will miss him so much, he was like a grandfather to me. I have been watching him and Rexella for almost 30 years. My heart is broken. His preaching of the word has kept me on course all these years. We love you Rexella. You and Jack have been a shining beacon of light in a dark world. Guiding us toward the Lord. I hope you can remain on TV, we need you. God bless.
