

HOWARD GOLDEN Obituary

 legacy.com/us/obituaries/nytimes/name/howard-golden-obituary

GOLDEN--Howard. The Brooklyn Law School community deeply mourns the loss of Howard Golden, a legendary member of the legal and political community. Mr. Golden devoted his robust career to public service, with the betterment of Brooklyn and its people at its core, through his early years as a New York City Council member, as a spirited leading light and former chair of the Kings County Democratic Party, and in his quarter century serving as Brooklyn borough president. Throughout his life, Mr. Golden was crucial in ushering in vital economic development and public well-being to the borough he loved and served so well. A 1958 graduate of Brooklyn Law School, Mr. Golden was a generous and constant friend to our community. He will be greatly missed. We extend our deepest sympathies to his family, colleagues, and many friends. Francis J. Aquila, Chair of the Board of Trustees; David D. Meyer, President and Joseph Crea Dean

Published by New York Times from Jan. 25 to Jan. 28, 2024.

To plant trees in memory, please visit the Sympathy Store.