Before any mention of it was public, the ringleader also sent #Kavanaugh a DRAFT letter of mine and other Dems. He worked extensively on nominations in the WH at the time, and would've known he had a private letter that hadn't yet been reported in the press.

Subject: Judiciary Dems obstruct on reorganization

Dear Senator Daschle:

We members of the Senate Judiciary Committee write to request that you include negotiations over blue slip practices and a fair and measured protocol on judicial nomination hearings in your discussions with the Republican leadership regarding reorganization of the Senate.

As you know, when Senator Hatch chaired the Judiciary Committee during six years of President Clinton's tenure, he had a firm blue slip practice and Senator Hatch's blue slip practices and respected the views of the Senate Judiciary Committee. Under Senator Leahy, for the first time the Judiciary Committee...

The ringleader also wanted to meet privately, OFF-SITE with #Kavanaugh to provide him and another official with docs with intel on Sens. Feinstein and Biden. Why not email or fax?? There's more to this email that I hope will be public, and soon.
