Justin, you are one of my dearest, closest, and longest-known friends. The twenty-five years we knew one another just don't seem like long enough. Your passing has saddened me greatly. We had crazy, fun, hilarious, scary, and exhilarating times that few will ever know or experience, and I am thankful to have known you.

Justin, I will miss the radio station contests, the wire transfers, the credit cards and that government cheese they give to government employees of our kind.

Justin was a friend I met at the Rainbow Bar and Grill, on Sunset Bl. He was a man of taste, class, style and breeding. I have met MANY people over the years at that establishment, and Justin was one, I was proud to know. He was ALWAYS a king to me. Kind, funny, and generous. Good heart, good soul, I will miss him.
