FYI: Bloomberg Harvard Virtual Session -- Information in Calendar Item

Dear Sean,

We are excited about our next virtual class as part of your city's participation in the Bloomberg Harvard City Leadership Initiative Collaboration Track. The attendees include the mayors, team leaders, transfer leaders, and Bloomberg Harvard senior leaders of the ten cities in the track.

The session will be held on Monday, March 9th from 12:30-2:30 pm U.S. Eastern time via the Zoom platform. Click [REDACTED] to see the converted time in your respective time zone.

In this session, we will explore both how Louisville's Mayor Greg Fischer navigated common challenges to collaborative problem-solving as well as the role that each of you have to play in moving your own city's collaborations forward. Please read the "Change at the Speed of Trust: Advancing Educational Opportunity Through Cross-Sector Collaboration in Louisville" case and consider the preparatory questions in the attached document.

We will be in contact in the coming weeks with more information and login instructions.

Please confirm your attendance to the session using this

Hello Everyone,

I know there are a lot of questions from City staff and the public regarding the Health Order regarding prohibition of certain type of events on City-Owned facilities. We are still open for business and as of right now prohibiting large non-essential gatherings on city owned facilities. As promised over the weekend, I am pulling together this meeting to

1. Review the order
2. Received feedback
3. Determine if more buildings should be added to the list

Hello Cheryl,

I hope you are doing well and having a nice week. I am writing to let you know that we will be adjusting the Mayor's calendar starting next month. A part of that transition will be changing the Mayor's meetings, and in that regard, we are hoping to adjust the Superintendent's meeting from a monthly basis to a quarterly basis. If there are specific items to discuss between meetings, we would be more than happy to schedule time for the Superintendent.

Would you like to suggest a new date? If not I am happy to suggest a good start of dates that would work for the Mayor.

Thank you so much, and happy to answer any questions.

Sincerely,

Selina Sun

On Wednesday, April 22, 2020 at 2:30pm, Dr. Grant Colfax and several key employees of the Department of Public Health (DPH) will brief you on their COVID-19 testing strategy moving forward, including testing for potential asymptomatic carriers. This will be an opportunity for DPH to present their latest strategies and answer any questions you may have about their approach. Dr. Colfax will be joined by Dr. Susan Philip, Director of Disease Prevention and Control at DPH, and Dr. Amy Lockwood, who is the lead for DPH's testing strategies.

Sorry for the change of plans, but we need to move this to tomorrow.

Many of us are on the modeling call from 11-12, I scheduled this to follow in hopes that would give you more of a free afternoon. Though it makes for a long session.

But if you have another preference for time of day please speak up.

Agenda will be:

1. Framework for opening and recovery planning
2. Unsheltered homeless strategy and next steps

Per the discussion this morning. The agenda will be some combination of the larger issues we did not have time for during the week. I will work with Mary Ellen to organize it, please call or email with your suggestions of course.

If you have preferences for time, or date, please let me know.

- Homeless unsheltered
 - Tenderloin
 - Safe sleep sites
- Planning for reopening
 - Phases
 - Coordination
- Testing ramp up & implications

Dear Fellow Friends of Israel,

We are limited to 100 people zooming in.....

On Tuesday, April 28, 2020 at 4:30p the City of San Francisco will be celebrating Israel Independence Day. A special flag raising ceremony with Consul General Kofman will take place to honor the 72nd anniversary of Israel's Independence and the valuable contributions of Israeli-Americans to our diverse city. It is so important, now more than ever, that we bring the community together during this time of shelter in place to celebrate this powerful day.

You are cordially invited to
