Records requested

Note: The more specific and narrow the request, the easier it will be for an agency or office to respond to the request. If you are unsure about the records' description, contact the agency or office records officer.

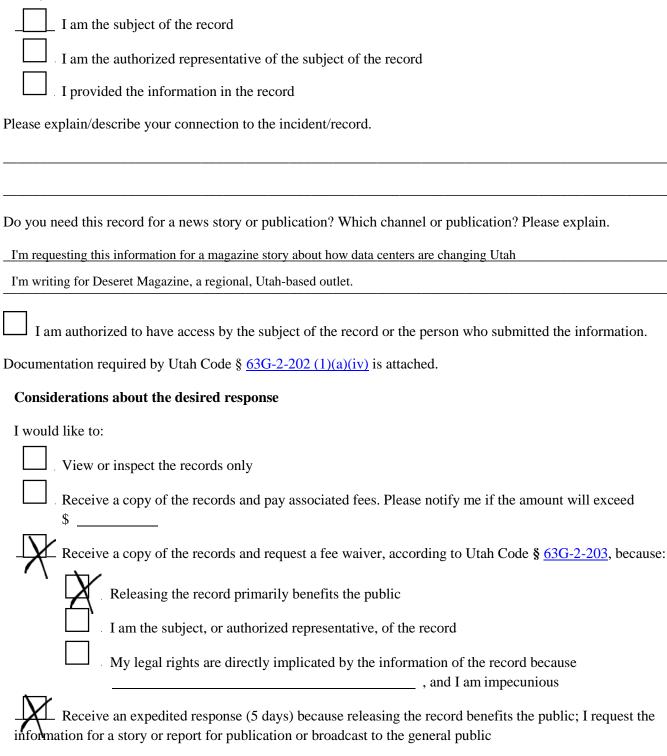

Note: Government keeps records in "series" or groups of records. To find out what series an agency or office maintains, visit the Archives' website, http://archives.utah.gov. The record series retention schedules on the Archives' website include relevant descriptions.

Title or series number of records (if known):

Description of records including all relevant information—location of event(s) described in records, city, county, address; date range of the records; names of the person(s); and subject of the request.

A copy of "the briefing sheets for the Northern California trip" sent by Aimee Edwards to Fran Stultz and Kathy Whitehead titled "PaloAlto_reception_05112017(2).docx; 01Google.docx; 02Apple.docx; 03Facebook.docx; 04Square.docx, in May 2017

Note: Access to any law enforcement records is restricted. If the record has a restricted access, GRAMA provides that certain individuals may still receive access. If you are requesting law enforcement records, providing specific information about yourself and your relation to the records will expedite the process and assure that you receive full legal access to the records.
