Coffee with a Cop

Written by Trudy Thomson Rice (V67) - Paradise Valley Police Volunteer

Edited by Steven McGhee (#194) - Paradise Valley Police Officer

Photograph of Chief of Police Peter Wingert explaining a 9 O'clock sweep during a Coffee with a Cop. A 9 O'clock sweep is a nightly practice of checking and securing your doors and windows of your house & vehicle(s) before settling down for the night.

Sitting down, face to face, is the best way to get to know somebody. When is the last time you did that with a neighbor? Or with a cop?

The Town of Paradise Valley Police Department offers a Coffee with a Cop experience every first Wednesday of the month at 7:30 AM at the police station. A specialist will discuss trends or community concerns followed by one-on-one opportunities to speak with your local police over a cup of coffee.

John Graham makes it happen in his neighborhood and he encourages you to do the same.

"It's easy to do and everybody benefits," said the 20-year Town resident. "I've found that our Police Chief and our officers are always open to a call from any of us. They make it clear that they are glad to hear from us, and work with us to keep all of us safe."

John is an active member of the Casa Blanca Estates

Coffee with a Cop

Homeowners’ Association Board, and organizes Coffee with a Cop at the annual HOA meetings.

Another resident, Tim Dickman, recognized the heightened alertness of neighbors after a recent crime affected his neighborhood. Tim hosted an informal gathering to debrief the incident by inviting local police to attend at his house.

“Just wanted to say thank you for taking some time to meet with our neighborhood group last evening. The feedback was incredibly positive. The information was very useful,” he said to officers.

Chief of Police, Peter Wingert, said, “We make it a priority to get to know our residents, and we’re happy to attend neighborhood meetings. You don’t have to wait for a formal meeting if you have a question or need some help. Save our non-emergency line in your phone at 480-948-7410 if you should need us and remember that our 911 operators are the quickest way to reach us in any emergency.”

Community Resource Officer Steven McGhee emphasizes that officers want to hear from residents who have questions or need help—“It doesn’t have to involve a criminal matter for us to get involved,” he said. “If your kids have questions about police, call us. We’ll come by and introduce ourselves, and help them feel comfortable with us. We visit schools in Town on Wednesdays during the school year and we visit other groups during the summer.”

Summer is also a time that the Town’s residents complete Vacation Watch requests. “Go to our website or come by the station and fill out your Vacation Watch request. This will let us know when you will be away, who has your permission to be on your property, and how to reach a trusted local contact in case of a problem while you are away,” said Officer McGhee.

Officers or trained police volunteers will attempt to check on your property once a week while you are away, but the department also encourages you to ask a neighbor to keep an eye on your home, notifying us immediately if anything seems out of ordinary. If extra attention is needed to your property, private security is recommended.

John Graham couldn’t agree more. “We are the eyes and ears of our Town. We’re all part of the same community, and keeping it safe and a great place to live means all of us need to work together. Get to know your neighbors and your police officers, and we all benefit.”

Vacation Watch

Officers and police volunteers help check on properties that are unoccupied during your vacation.

It helps narrow down a timeframe of an incident should something occur while out of Town. Officers have better chances of locating evidence and witnesses to solve crimes if there are regular checks.

Learn about the requirements by visiting our website then submit a Vacation Watch form online to us:

The Paradise Valley Police Department today announced that it is joining the free Neighbors app by Ring to provide the Town of Paradise Valley community with real-time, local crime and safety information.  - o Post information relating to critical incidents and other incidents in the app to keep Ring Neighbors informed regarding issues in their neighborhoods.

With an understanding that a robust, active and engaged user community is essential to the immediate, sustained and ongoing success of the program, the parties agree to the following responsibilities:

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Ring shall be permitted to provide in-app alerts to Ring Neighbors announcing Agency’s participation in the Neighbors App.

Term

Agency’s participation in the program shall commence upon Agency’s acceptance of these program terms. Either party may terminate Agency’s participation in the program at any time by providing 30 days’ written notice to the other party; provided that in the case of material breach of this Agreement by the Agency, Ring shall only be required to provide three days’ written notice to Agency.

Privacy and Terms of Use

Ring will not provide any customer personal information, including video footage, to Agency without the prior consent of the owner or properly issued legal process that complies with federal and state law, as applicable. Jennifer Radack The ring doorbells are great because you can get the live feed and sound set off by motion on your phone even if you are not home. You can also talk to the person to make it appear you are home. Very scary

We love home security cameras, especially the ones that notify you on your smartphone/tablet/computer when something is currently happening. Those "after the fact" camera systems are okay too, but usually it's too late. Even though in this case the suspect got away with the Ring video doorbell, the suspect knew he was being recorded and didn't steal anything else or cause other damage.

Invite us over for a FREE home security survey and we can discuss how to keep your home safe. And if you purchase a Ring video doorbell, we'll install it too!

Hi John, we do participate in Neighbors by Ring. We have offered free devices as a raffle prize to the community, but do not have a discount program for residents. I hope that information helps.
