Hide number of reactions

On posts from others

You won't see the total number of reactions for posts others share to News Feed, Pages, and Groups. You will still see reaction counts for posts in other places, like Marketplace, and for other content, like reels. Your reaction to a post will still be visible to you and everyone else. Learn More

On your posts

Other people won't see the total number of reactions under posts you share to your profile. Reaction counts will still appear on your posts in other places, like groups, or on other content, like reels. Learn More
