Good afternoon, DGPL staff,

Julie and I will be hosting an all-staff Zoom webinar this Thursday, July 2 at 11:00 a.m. with hopes to provide you with meaningful information and answers to questions you might have before we open to the public on July 6. Please read the attached PDF of important FAQs that we will be referring to during the webinar.

It is mandatory that you either attend the webinar or watch the recorded version before July 6.

Thanks a million.

Jen

In Charge is supposed to be a meeting; All staff Webinar.

Let me see what I did.

Hi, DGPL Staff.

Please disregard the previous link to the all staff meeting and use this one to attend the webinar instead. Also, if you would like to submit questions beforehand, Julie and I would be grateful to receive them in advance.

Have a great day!

Jen

Hello Jen and Julie,

I apologize for not sending this sooner and if the answers to my following questions have already been covered. Here are some questions I have regarding our reopening:

- Will we have any special hours for elderly/vulnerable populations?
- For the sidewalk on Forest Street where people can form a queue, will there be markings on the ground to help guide folks to space 6' apart (for example, before we open)?
- Regarding cleaning, will bathrooms be cleaned once every two hours?
- How long will the library continue to offer curbside service?
- For curbside pickup of print outs, will there also be only a 3-day window for pickup? Will there be a charge for more than $0.50 of printing?
- How many computer sessions can a person sign up for in a 7-day period?
- Will there be a warning on the computer alerting a patron before their time expires?

See you at the meeting and thank you,

Van

Hello again,

I thought of one more question. Will patrons be allowed to bring in reusable bags? If not, will we be making paper/plastic bags available upon request?

Thank you so much for all of your efforts,
Van
