Hey all,

Some big website changes today!

We now have a one-stop-shop for all COVID-19 information. Thank you Van and Lizzie for gathering info- I know a lot of patrons will really appreciate it. The URL for the new COVID page is dglibrary.org/covid19.

If that URL seems familiar to you it's because that was originally what we used for our library updates! We've moved things around so it makes more sense for patrons. The library's page for updates/our response to COVID is now under dglibrary.org/updates.

We're doing a complete audit of our signage, website, etc. to make sure all of the URLs are transferred over and correct.

I've forced the cache to clear on the website's end but it will probably help to either refresh or clear your cache since I moved around menu items and created another new page.

Let me know if you have any questions!
