Hi Cynthia

We have both hires and contractors for Certificated Psychologists.

We have individual and contract service contractors.

We pay Psychs. from the cert. salary schedule just like any Cert. Specialist or Teacher.

There is an awareness some other districts may be offering a stipend because this is a hard to fill position; but we have not gone to that step; but have discussed if this is legal.

We have contractors and we pay whatever their rate is; however we negotiate with them for this rate. We had one last year wanting $110/hr; we fortunately were able to find much more reasonable.

Best to you in your decisions!
