On March 19, 1983 at 11:15 P.M., dispatch called on the radio and gave me a phone number to call. Upon calling this number, Kathy Morency advised me that she was in Glens Falls heading home and that she wanted to meet up with me at Agway on Broadway, town of Fort Edward. I informed my partner Ptl. Dickinson who was in another patrol car of this call and pending meeting. Meeting Kathy at Agway, she told me that she had been talking to her baby-sitter at the house. The baby sitter had told Kathy, that Tim had been drinking hard and that the baby sitter was afraid. The baby sitter was also afraid for the children, because Tim was doing strange things like making the kids drink Scotch. Kathy asked me to stay close to the house or area when she arrived home. All this I told to my partner.

On the March 20, 1983 at 12:30 A.M., dispatch gave a call for 10 Taylor St. which is Tim and Kathy Morencys' house. Officer Dickinson and I proceeded to the house and I advised dispatch to call Sgt. Suprenant at home. Kathy met in the driveway, stating that Tim had kicked her out of the bathroom while she was going. stating, "you can not use my toilet." I asked her if she wanted us to talk to Tim, and she stated, "Tim was todrunk to listen and didn't want to talk to us." I told her that we could not stay there all night long to baby sit her and suggested that she get ahold of Judge Ives to advise her. This she said she would do, and Dickinson and I left. Dispatch advised me that they could not reach Sgt. Suprenant, and not knowing at that time where he was stated disregard.

At approx. 12:45 A.M. (same date), I met Sgt. (Mitch) Suprenant on Bridge St. headed towards Broadway. He advised me that Tim had just called him, and Mitch wanted to know what had happened prior. Mitch than advised that he was going over to Tim and Kathys'.

At approx. 2:00 A.M. (same date), dispatch called a request at 10 Taylor St. Officer Dickinson advised that he had been there prior and was on his way back with warrant from Judge Ives.

Upon arriving, the kitchen was no more (everything was broken). Kathy told us that Mitch and Tim was upstairs in the bedroom. Upstairs Mitch was trying to talk to Tim, who kept shouting back. With warrant in hand, Tim was placed under arrest. Fighting, kicking, shoving, and all. Cuffs were finally placed on Tim in the dining room. Tim donkey kicked myself and Mitch, also trying for Dickinson (I don't know if he made contact). On the way towards the kitchen Tim gave one more donkey kick, getting Mitch. Fighting Tim all the way, we got him to the car. Finally getting him in the car, Mitch instructed us to take him to the Police Dept. to do the paper work on Tim.
