

SUPPORTING DEPOSITION

STATE OF NEW YORK : : COUNTY OF WASHINGTON
VILLAGE COURT : : VILLAGE OF FORT EDWARD

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

—vs—

----- Timothy J. Morency -----
Defendant

I, ----- Norman C. Denis -----, as and for a Supporting Deposition in connection with an (Information) Page 2

At the Police Station, Tim asked Mitch to take the cuffs off because they were to tight. When the back door was opened, and the cuffs were off Tim headed down the road in back of the Police station stating, "I'm going over to Larrys (Judge Ives) house."

At Judje Ives house Tim was met at the door by the door. Dickinson and I were right behind him. Inside the house the Judge told Tim he was sen ding him to Salem without any bail until Monday at 1:00 P.M. Judge Ives than told Dickinson and I to but the cuffs on Tim and to take him out. Tim was no trouble when it came to putting the cuffs on. But he did not want to leave the house, nor did he want to get back into the car.

Back at the station,, Tim said that he wanted to call his lawyer. I called Mitch at Judge Ives and he stated, " let him make a call but do not take the cuffs off." after his call we took Tim back upstairs to the car. Tim than stated that he wanted to make another call to another lawyer and refused to get into the car when we said no. Dickinson and I told him he could make another call when he was at Salem. Still refusing to get into the car, I went aròund to the far side of the car. Pulling on the cuffs from the other side and Dickinson lifting on his legs we finally had him in.

With commitment papers in hand, Dickinson started to take Tim to Salem. As he was leaving Tim yelled back, "Wait until the time comes when you want a back-up." Also, " I'll get every one of you."

-----End of page 2 -----

-----
Deponent

Subscribed and sworn to before me this ----- day of ----- 19-----

-----
Title -----