- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. *NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

IF YOU OWN MORE THAN ONE PROPERTY AND DO NOT RECEIVE ALL YOUR STATEMENTS, PLEASE CALL (478) 621-6500 FOR DUPLICATE STATEMENTS. FAILURE TO RECEIVE A NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LIABILITY TO MEET DUE DATES. LATE CHARGES MAY APPLY EVEN IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

HOURS AND LOCATIONS: 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday, except holidays. Macon-Bibb County Tax Commissioner's Office, 188 Third Street, Macon, Georgia, 31201.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.

REAL & PERSONAL PROPERTY ACCOUNTS:

- PENALTIES AND INTEREST: If not paid in full by the due dates, interest accrues monthly on each installment. In addition, if the account remains unpaid, a tax lien will be issued in the name of the owner(s) of the property no less than 30 days after the due date and the property is subject to be levied and sold at a tax sale. A 5% penalty will be added to the unpaid balance 120 days after the due date, and for each subsequent 120 days thereafter, for a maximum penalty of 20%.
- PROPERTY BOUGHT OR SOLD: This tax notice is issued in the name of the owner(s) as of January 1. If the property was bought or sold after January 1, taxes are due and payable in full, without regard to proration of taxes based on when the property was sold or when the business ceased operation. The entire tax liability is accrued on the first day of the calendar year. The new owner will be reflected on the next year's record. Businesses that have ceased operating or have been sold should contact the Assessor's Office at (478) 621-6701.
- HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION: Homestead exemption grants homeowners an exemption from certain property taxes. You must own and occupy your home as your primary residence as of January 1. The application period is January 1 through April 1 of each year. It is not necessary to reapply each year. Special exemptions are available for seniors. Age requirements and income limitations apply. NOTE: If you believe you may no longer qualify for homestead exemption, or you have become eligible for another exemption, please call our office at (478) 621-6500. Homestead exemptions should not be affected by refinancing your mortgage unless the name is changed on the deed.
