MANCHESTER NH POLICE DEPARTMENT RESPONSE TO RESISTANCE REPORT

Case # 15-009079	Officer: Labbe, David S	Date: 5/31/2015	Time: 1645	Day: Sunday
------------------	-------------------------	-----------------	------------	-------------

OIC Comment/Review:

After reviewing the reports attached to the Response to Resistance Form, I find that the officers force was appropriate and within our standard operating procedure. The suspect was both passive (verbally) and active (physically) in that he would not comply with the lawful verbal commands to submit to arrest. Thus, the officers maintained control of the suspect, playing him to a prone position where they subsequently secured the suspect into handcuffs without further incident.

 I was punched in the side of the neck while attempting to book a prisoner. He squared off in front of me in an aggressive boxers stance. I deployed my taser and as I was about to pull the trigger he turned around and I hit him in the back.

MANCHESTER NH POLICE DEPARTMENT RESPONSE TO RESISTANCE REPORT

Case # 15-8258	Officer Fernald, Brett M	Date: 5/17/2015	Time: 1650	Day: Sunday

OIC Comment/Review:

While assigned as the OIC I was monitoring booking when I observed Ofc Flanagan within the booking area and requesting the wagon to respond to booking. Having known that a prisoner was in the process to be booked I responded to investigate and found Ofc Fernald restraining a prisoner he had arrested and was attempting to book. I noted that the subject had 2 Taser probes embedded in his back. I assisted Ofc Fernald with removing the probes and the prisoner was handcuffed and placed upon the bench and transported to VSJ

I reviewed all reports associated with this event and spoke directly with Ofc Fernald and learned that the subject had been cooperative, however a prisoner that was booked prior, Roberto Diaz had verbally engaged SANTIAGO and caused him to become angry. During the booking process SANTIAGO made reference to possible suffering from a medical condition, but before the booking process could be complete he turned and struck Ofc Fernald in the head with a closed fist. Due to his active aggression, and the threat of active aggression by taking a boxers stance with clenched fists Ofc Fernald deployed his Taser to incapacitate SANTIAGO. Ofc Fernald was alone in the booking area, with Ofc Flanagan being contained within the central booking area. Ofc Fernald was able to place SANTIAGO into handcuffs at the conclusion of the 5 second cycle. I requested a copy of the surveillance video.

From reading reports, speaking with Ofc Fernald and from what I witnessed post deployment I found that the use of force was reasonable and within department policy.

OIC Comment/Review:

I listened to the radio transmission of this event and I reviewed the reports associated with the arrest and find that Officers conducted themselves in accordance of State RSA as well as Departmental procedures while using force in response to Rosenthal's resistive behavior. No further review is necessary.

* Although this report indicates that both the suspect and Officer sustained injuries (Rosenthal sustained a scratch to his shoulder and Officer White sustained an ankle injury) it should be noted that both of these injuries were a result of the takedown performed by Officer White and that neither of these injuries were attributed to Officer DiTullio's use of force, which was described in his Response to Resistance Form.
