Dear Mr. Petti,

Sir, this is in response to your 18 August 2020 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (FOIA 2019-03388-F), received on 27 August 2020, for information:

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, I hereby request the following records:

The current version of the "Air Force Law of War Advanced Computer-Based Training" program, as of 21 July 2020.

A copy of any other computer based training programs for Air Force personnel on the law of war current as of 21 July 2020.

According to the office of personal responsibility, the actual computer based training (CBT) is non-extractable, therefore cannot be provided. However, we did review 62 pages of The Law of War Basic/Advanced Talking Points, of which are fully releaseable. Responsive documents are attached.

If you disagree and interpret this response as an adverse action, you may write to the Secretary of the Air Force, Thru: AFIMSC/IZCI, 2261 Hughes Ave, Ste133, JBSA Lackland, TX 78236 within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. Include in the appeal your reasons for reconsideration, and attach a copy of this letter. You may also submit your appeal on line at the Air Force's Public Access Link: <https://www.foia.af.mil/palMain.aspx>.

You may contact contact the Air Force FOIA Public Liaison Officer, Ms. Anh Trinh, at the AF FOIA Public Liaison Office (SAF/CN), 1800 Air Force Pentagon, Washington, DC 20330-1800, usaf.pentagon.saf-cn.mbx.af-foia@mail.mil or 703-614-8500. You may also seek dispute resolution services from the Office of Government Information Services, and can find information on this Office at <https://www.archives.gov/ogis/mediation-program/request-assistance>. Using the dispute resolution services, will not affect your appeal rights.

The FOIA provides for the collection of fees based on the costs of processing a FOIA request and your fee category. In this case, we assessed no fees for processing this request.

Direct questions to afimsc.foia.workflow@us.af.mil and reference FOIA case number 2020-03993-F.

Sincerely,

9/24/2020
