Good morning,

I wanted to start the process of an IEP for Rowen. I know there is a certification form to be completed by our doctor, and the doctors the one that actually asked why we hadn't started it yet. Honestly today she's been doing pretty well in school so I wasn't concerned but this last report card all of her grades dropped. I have a meeting with her teacher by phone on Thursday. I wasn't sure if Mr Wilson is still doing the IEP stuff? Or if I should reach out to you or someone else. If it's not you can you pass this along?

Thanks!
