Subject: MCCMC Homeless Committee urgency meeting: MAY 12TH AT 3PM

CAUTION: External Sender

Hi all - Thanks for your quick response to the doodle poll. We will be meeting next Wednesday May 12th at 3pm. Agenda and zoom link are below. Also below is info/links from the County regarding their recently released RFI on Project Homekey.

AGENDA

Discussion regarding Phased approach to addressing encampments/increased homelessness. The urgency is because the American Rescue Plan funds available to cities/towns enable our jurisdictions to influence local homeless policies in a new way. We look forward to a robust dialogue.

MARIN COUNTY: PROJECT HOMEKEY

Marin County HHS has issued a Request for Information for property owners/operators potentially interested selling a property to the County and/or its development partner through the upcoming state Project Homekey opportunity, contingent on grant funds being awarded and approval of an Option to Purchase Agreement by the Marin County Board of Supervisors. Appropriate properties include (but are not limited to): hotel/motel properties, certain commercial properties, mobile home/RV parks, and other properties that could be used for interim or permanent housing. Please see <https://www.marinhhs.org/rfp/2021-11> for the full Release of Information, along with a question form and submission information.

See you all next week (hey Sausalito, there are 4 of you receiving these emails so you'll want to sort that out).
