First I've heard of it other than Tuuli having a Dr. Seuss read-aloud with parents. Should we be concerned?

Hey there!

Not sure if you've heard, but the Dr. Seuss Company announced it is no longer publishing six books that they feel have racist depictions, saying:

"And to Think That I Saw It on Mulberry Street, If I Ran the Zoo, McElligot's Pool, On Beyond Zebra!, Scrambled Eggs Super!, and The Cat's Quizzer. These books portray people in ways that are hurtful and wrong."

I am curious if this will impact the availability of the books within school libraries. Has your district considered pulling from the shelves? Or do you intend to keep what you have?

Thanks for any info you can provide!

A MESSAGE

FROM THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF
PALM BEACH COUNTY

@PBCSD

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
3300 Forest Hill Blvd., West Palm Beach, FL 33406
(561) 434-8000

May 26, 2022

Teachers,

In preparation for the 2022-2023 school year, to be in compliance with recent legislation (i.e., HB 1467, 7, 1557, 241), all instructional materials available to our K-12 students, including classroom libraries, must be reviewed for compliance. While the District must comply with these new laws, it does not change or weaken our commitment to affirm ALL students by ensuring a safe and nurturing learning environment. Although school districts continue to await guidance from the Florida Department of Education, Superintendent Burke felt it was important to provide this information regarding teacher classroom library books in advance of these laws taking effect July 1, 2022. If you have no classroom library or if your classroom library does not include any books impacted by Steps 1 and 2, no action is needed.

Step 1: The books included on the SDPBC List of Titles Submitted For Review have been identified for review. If your classroom library includes any of the books on the list, move these books to a location where students do not have access (e.g., classroom closet, office in media center, conference room, etc.). If you have no books on the list, no action is needed for this step.

Step 2: If you have a classroom library, before you welcome students for the 2022-2023 school year, review the checklist provided below. If you have any books where the answer to any question is "Yes" or "Unsure," give the identified book(s), with a completed copy of this form (only for each impacted book), to your school library media specialist. For books that do not meet the "Yes" or "Unsure" criteria, no further action is needed.

Again, if you do not have a classroom library or if your classroom library does not include any books impacted by Steps 1 and 2, no action is needed.

For questions, please contact Nolan.Rowell@palmbeachschools.org.

Thank you and have a wonderful summer!

In response to the increase in book challenges local school districts are facing, we are seeking the most current information available at your district regarding any book removals and challenges. Specifically, we are seeking the following information:

- * to date, how many books have been challenged this school year?
- * to date, how many books have been removed from school shelves this year?
- * please provide the name of books removed, when the book was removed, which grade level (Elem, middle, high), and why
- * to date, how many books are currently under review for potential removal?
- * please provide the name of these books and which grade level (elementary, middle, high school)
- * Pursuant to Chapter 119, please provide copies of any challenges received by the district
