[9/6/2021 4:32:50 PM] by 76 - Complainant stated that her landlord is harrasing her. After speaking with her it appears that no offense was committed. The landlord simply showed up 2 times to the house that he owns but did not enter the complainants apartment. He pulled his vehicle into a spot that another tenant usually parks in and she thought that was weird. I advised her that as long as he does not enter her apartment with out due notice, he has not committed any offense.

[9/2/2021 6:48:34 PM] by 210 - INFORMATION TAKEN FOR REPORT

TITLE

Orlando A. Donadelle and his landlords, Ellias and Maria Gatonas, engaged in a dispute at 173 Chestnut St.

ONEONTA POLICE DEPARTMENT
79 MAIN STREET
ONEONTA, NY 13820

INVESTIGATION

On September 2, 2021, at approximately 1821 hrs, I, Sgt. Catapano, responded with Officer Pochkar to a dispute in progress between a tenant and landlord at 173 Chestnut St in the City of Oneonta, NY.

Upon arrival, involved parties ORLANDO A. DONADELLE, and his landlords, ELLIAS and MARIA GATONAS were all in front of the residence. Officer Pochkar spoke with ORLANDO while I spoke with the GATONAS's.

MARIA informed me that just prior to contacting police, she had engaged in a verbal dispute with ORLANDO regarding ongoing complaints of his behavior toward the other tenants in the building. In addition, MARIA brought up other issues, including garbage pales that ORLANDO had situated in front of his residence. She stated that at one point, the dispute escalated to ORLANDO raising his hands as if to push her, when her husband, ELLIAS, stepped in. At that time, ELLIAS raised his hand toward ORLANDO, at which point ORLANDO pushed him. As a result of being pushed, ELLIAS tripped to the ground and stated he bumped his head. When asked if he needed an ambulance, he declined numerous times.

I then spoke with ORLANDO, who provided a similar story however, added that MARIA was actively following him around the property verbally harassing him, as he tried to walk away from him. He stated that he was walking away from her, from the lower driveway up to his front steps, when she came running up behind him aggressively. It was at that point that he stated he was startled and turned around, and raised his hands to keep distance between he and her, when ELLIAS rushed up to him. He stated ELLIAS inserted himself between he and MARIA when ORLANDO pushed him away from him for his own safety.

I explained to both parties that they each had a potential harassment case that they could pursue against one another. I told each party that, given their high emotional state, if one pursued prosecution, the other party likely would, to which they all agreed. After several minutes of mediation, each party agreed to not pursue prosecution against the other. I advised them that I would be completing a report to document the incident.

The GATONAS's then inquired about future contact with ORLANDO, such as how to collect rent. ORLANDO stated he would remain civil with the parties, and the GATONAS's were advised to request a peace officer detail if they didn't feel safe during future contacts.

The GATONAS's agreed to leave the property at that time, and ORLANDO retreated to inside his residence.

MAIN NARRATIVE

THOMAS GUCWA reports that a tenant, CLAYTON MONROE, left damage when he moved out.

Case closed. Civil complaint.

08/31/2021 10:39 -- Lapointe, Kristen (88) --

INVESTIGATIVE NARRATIVE

On Tuesday, August 31, 2021, THOMAS GUCWA responded to the Oneonta Police Department to report damage done to his rental property located at 44 West St in the City of Oneonta, NY.

I, Officer Kristen LaPointe/88, spoke with GUCWA in the lobby of the police department. GUCWA said that he had rented a room out to CLAYTON MONROE. Yesterday, August 30, 2021, MONROE moved out. He said that when MONROE left, he left empty beer bottles, left the outside door to his rented room open, the mattress in his room was wet with water, he put a mini refrigerator outside, there was stains on the carpet, he left a half a bag of garbage and dirty dishes in the sink. GUCWA demanded that I arrest MONROE for these actions immediately. Because this is a landlord/tenant situation, I began asking GUCWA more in depth questions about the damage he was reporting. I asked if there were any holes in the walls, broken windows or any damage that would be intentional and not normal wear and tear on the living space. GUCWA answered no to all of these questions and then began yelling at me for arresting him on a different case from the past. When he asked me why I wouldn't arrest MONROE now, I told GUCWA that due to the civil nature of this case, I would have to apply for a warrant in the City of Oneonta Court and this also made GUCWA very angry. GUCWA again demanded that I arrest MONROE and his behavior continued to escalate as he became increasingly angry. I went to write out a written statement for GUCWA to sign and on a previous statement he had given me, he stated that he was the property manager for 44 West St and he told me today that he was the owner. I went to the window of the lobby to ask which he was and GUCWA answered his cell phone. I advised him that he needed to leave the lobby as cell phones are not permitted there so he left. When GUCWA came back, I tried to ask him the same question and he yelled "I'm the owner now! Things change!" He was still on his cell phone so he was again asked to exit the lobby. I attempted to complete his written statement and GUCWA came back into the lobby and told Dispatcher T. Couzzo that he no longer wished to file a report and he left.

At this point in time, this blotter will be closed as this is a civil complaint.

NARRATIVE

On August 2, 2021, JACQUELINE MCLEAN reported to the Oneonta Police Station at 79 Main Street in the City of Oneonta New York for the report that her neighbor/tenant made threats to her.

I, Officer LOTTRIDGE, spoke with MCLEAN, who advised me that due to the past and present issues she is having with one of her tenants she decided to move to the building to better keep an eye on things. MCLEAN stated that she has been trying to evict the tenants (JENNIFER HALL and a young girl she believes to be named [REDACTED]), to no avail, and that they have become increasingly uncooperative. I advised her that landlord and tenant issues are usual directed through civil court, and the Sheriff Department normally handles evictions. She stated that recently she asked who she knows to be [REDACTED] to pick up some belongings and that [REDACTED] then threatened her on text message. I asked to see the text message, and she showed me the message which did not contain any threatening statements.

The message was sent by phone number [REDACTED] and stated "Nasty ass nappy haired nigger. No wonder you can't keep a man. You a bad ho and a stupid ass bitch. You know what's up ho.". MCLEAN believed the message to be from [REDACTED] who upon investigating the residents of the address and the tenants son's girlfriend I believe to actually be [REDACTED]. I advised MCLEAN to cease contact with the tenants unless absolutely necessary to avoid escalating things further. I also advised her that this incident will be documented in case of further incidents. MCLEAN additionally was advised if things escalated or she continued to get messages to contact the department.

Information will be passed along to Juvenile Detective Torres for follow up with Otsego County Probation Department.

INVESTIGATIVE

06/01/2021 16:13 -- Pochkar, Carson (119) --On May 31, 2021 at approximately 2328 hrs Officer DONLEY and Myself (Officer POCHKAR) responded to a call of a tenant and landlord dispute at the address of 75 Main Street in the city of Oneonta New York.

Upon arrival, Officer DONLEY and myself (Officer POCHKAR) made contact with SEAN P. BRUNSWICK (Identified by name and date of birth) outside of his rental apartment at 75 Main Street in the city of Oneonta New York.

BRUNSWICK complains that one of his tenants was kicking a door to get into the room across from apartment 3 (apartment 1). BRUNSWICK was also worried that there might be other damage from apartment 3 from the previous encounter that BRUNSWICK had with his tenant.

After speaking with BRUNSWICK, Officer DONLEY and myself made contact with the tenant from apartment 3. The tenant identified himself as THOMAS J. MCDONOUGH by name and date of birth. MCDONOUGH stated that he was trying to get a mattress and an ethernet cable from apartment 1 (the apartment across from apartment 3). MCDONOUGH states that the door was closed from apartment 1 and that he had to push to open the door. MCDONOUGH said that the apartment belongs to his friend and that his friend would have no problem with MCDONOUGH going in to get property. MCDONOUGH notified us that the noise that BRUNSWICK heard was probably him moving and packing. After MCDONOUGH advised Officer DONLEY and myself of this, he also said that BRUNSWICK stated that MCDONOUGH has to pay him for rent and the damage to the door totaling in $400 or he would call the cops. MCDONOUGH said that he did pay BRUNSWICK the $400 that he asked for.

After making contact with MCDONOUGH Officer DONLEY and myself made contact with BRUNSWICK again. BRUNSWICK stated that MCDONOUGH did pay him the $400 that he asked for due to the damaged door and rent.

Both parties were advised that there was nothing criminal that happened and that if they wanted to settle anything it would have to be through civil court.

BRUNSWICK was told by Officer DONLEY and myself that if there was any other issues or if he needed us, to call the Oneonta Police Department.

All axon video footage will be saved and tagged on evidence.com.

[4/30/2021 8:44:59 PM] by 210 - UNIT SPOKE WITH FEMALE. NO OFFENSES HAVE BEEN COMMITTED AT THIS TIME. FEMALE HAS BEEN ADVISED TO CONTACT STATION AGAIN IF CONTACT PERSISTS

ONEONTA POLICE DEPARTMENT
79 MAIN STREET
ONEONTA, NY 13820

MAIN

DEAN WALKED INTO STATION STATING FEMALE, STEPHANIE SHAW, IN APARTMENT 2 OF 9 GAULT HAD TEXTED HER FROM KENNETH FILOR'S CELL PHONE. FILOR IS THE LANDLORD OF 9 GAULT AND SHAW IS HIS GIRLFRIEND ACCORDING TO DEAN. DEAN STATES SHAW WAS HARASSING HER. DEAN WAS ADVISED THAT CURRENTLY WHAT SHAW IS DOING IS NOT HARASSMENT. I ADVISED DEAN TO FOLLOW UP WITH ME IS SHAW CONTINUES TO TEXT HER.

I LOOKED AT THE TEXT MESSAGES, NONE WERE HARASSING, JUST COMPLAINTS ABOUT NOISE COMING FROM DEAN'S APARTMENT. DEAN LIVES THERE WITH HER DAUGHTER AND HER THREE GRANDCHILDREN. DEAN STATES ON 4-29-21 SHAW CAME UP TO HER DOOR, KNOCKED, AND TOLD HER SHE HAD TO KEEP IT DOWN. DEAN STATES SHE WAS CLEANING, MAINLY VACUUMING AT THE TIME OF SHAW KNOCKING. I ADVISED DEAN THAT THIS WAS NOT HARASSMENT EITHER.

DEAN THEN STATED SHAW MAKES NOISE AT ALL HOURS OF THE DAY, SLAMMING DOORS. I ADVISED DEAN TO CALL US IF NOISE IS EXCESSIVE AND TO NOT CONFRONT SHAW DIRECTLY.

I ATTEMPTED TO CONTACT SHAW TO TELL HER NOT TO DIRECT CONCERNS OF NOISE AND OTHER THINGS DIRECT WITH DEAN AND TO CALL THE POLICE. SHAW'S NUMBER ON FILE IS NO LONGER A WORKING NUMBER, CONTACT WAS NOT MADE.

[4/30/2021 5:16:01 PM] by 210 - FEMALE HAS NO WAY TO CONTACT LANDLORD OR PROPERTY MANAGER

04/30/2021 21:26 -- Donley, Edmund (109) -- CONTACT MADE WITH PROPERTY MANAGER, OWNER OF PROPERTY, AND HOLLY WAYMAN. HOLLY AND MANAGER HAVE AGREED THAT HOLLY WILL HAVE ACCESS TO GET PROPERTY MORNING OF 5-1-21. I SPOKE WITH PROPERTY MANAGER, STATED HE DID NOT HAVE KNOWLEDGE THAT HOLLY HAD BEEN EVICTED. CONFIRMED WITH OWNER THAT HOLLY WAS NOT EVICTED. OWNER STATES HE THOUGHT HOLLY MOVED OUT AND THAT THE PROPERTY WAS "ABANDONED". HOLLY CLAIMS SHE HAD BEEN IN THE APARTMENT 4-29-21 AS SHE WAS IN THE PROCESS OF MOVING OUT. HOLLY STATES THE DOOR DOES NOT LOCK BECUASE OF AN ISSUE WITH THE LOCK. HOLLY SAID SHE WENT TO THE PROPERTY 4-30-21 AND FOUND THE LOCK CHANGED AND SHE HAD NO ACCESS. HOLLY ALSO SAID THERE WAS A SIGN FROM MANAGEMENT TELLING HER NOT TO ENTER. THIS NOTE WAS WRITTEN ON THE BOTTOM OF A DRESSER DRAW.

OWNER STATES DRUG PARAPHERNALIA WAS LOCATED INSIDE THE APARTMENT. OWNER STATES HE HAD A MORAL OBLIGATION TO PUT THE LOCK ON THE DOOR TO PREVENT PEOPLE ENTERING THE APARTMENT AND POSSIBLY BEING EXPOSED TO UNSAFE CONDITIONS.

WHILE SPEAKING WITH OWNER OF THE PROPERTY HE REPEATLY STATED THAT THE ONEONTA POLICE DEPARTMENT SHOULD COLLECT ALL THE DRUGS AND DRUG PARAPHERNALIA FROM THE APARTMENT. I ADVISED THE OWNER OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT'S LEGAL CONSTRAINTS ON ENTERING PRIVATE PROPERTY WITHOUT PERMISSION OF THE TENANT; CURRENTLY BELIEVED TO STILL BE HOLLY WAYMAN. I ADVISED THE OWNER THAT IF HE HAD NOT HAD HOLLY EVICTED AND SHE AND HIM DID NOT AGREE SHE WAS MOVED OUT HE DID NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO CHANGE THE LOCKS. THE OWNER OF THE PROPERTY ADVISED HE WOULD LET HOLLY DECIDE WHAT SHE NEEDS AS FAR AS GETTING ACCESS TO THE APARTMENT AND WOULD GIVE HER A KEY TO THE NEW LOCK IF SHE WANTED.

I CALLED HOLLY AND ASKED IF SHE HAD MADE CONTACT WITH THE PROPERTY MANAGER, SHE STATED SHE HAD. HOLLY SAID THE MANAGER TOLD HER SHE COULD HAVE ACCESS TO THE APARTMENT 4-29-21 FOR TWO HOURS TO GET HER PROPERTY. I ADVISED HOLLY TO CONTACT A CIVIL ATTORNEY AND THAT IF SHE HAD NOT AGREED TO MOVE OUT OR BEEN EVICTED SHE STILL TECHNICALLY HAD A RIGHT TO THE APARTMENT. HOLLY THEN SAID SHE JUST CARED ABOUT

79 MAIN STREET
ONEONTA, NY 13820

GETTING HER PROPERTY FROM THE APARTMENT, BUT THAT IT MAY TAKE LONGER THAN TWO HOURS. I ADVISED HOLLY TO CONTACT THE POLICE DEPARTMENT IF ANY CONCERNS ARRISE.

AT THIS TIME HOLLY STATES SHE DOES NOT HAVE A KEY TO ACCESS THE APARTMENT.

[3/24/2021 2:49:15 PM] by 109 - MARIE PARKS IS CURRENTLY STAYING AT CHESTNUT PARK NURSING HOME. PARKS IS CONCERNED THAT HER LANDLORD AT 179 MAIN ST APT 1 IS GOING TO GO INTO HER APARTMENT AND MOVE HER FURNITURE WHILE SHE IS GONE. PARKS STATES SHE HAS NOT OFFICIALLY MOVED OUT OF THE APARTMENT AND IS STILL PAYING RENT. PARKS WAS ADVISED THAT LANDLORD CANNOT GO INTO THE APARTMENT WITHOUT HER PERMISSION TO MOVE PROPERTY AROUND. PARKS WAS ADVISED TO CONTACT THE POLICE IF SHE THINKS THIS IS GOING ON. CURRENTLY NO EVIDENCE TO SHOW THE LANDLORD DID GO INSIDE, ONLY A PHONE CALL FROM THE LANDLORD ASKING WHEN SHE WOULD BE OUT OF THE NURSING HOME. PARKS DID NOT WISH FOR PATROL TO CHECK THE APARTMENT AS SHE STATES A NEIGHBOR HAS BEEN KEEPING AN EYE ON THINGS.

[2/6/2021 1:10:09 PM] by 220 - caller reports that her landlord TIMOTHY JAMES has been verbally abusing and insulting her 10 year old son. Claims her son is disabled, has PTSD and a eating disorder and is overweight and that JAMES is making fun of the child for this. Caller also states that her son is taking it very personally and it is negatively affecting his current mental state.

[2/6/2021 1:11:06 PM] by 220 - 99 is going to speak with TIMOTHY JAMES and advise him to leave the child alone.

99 spoke with TIM JAMES via telephone. MR. JAMES denied any contact with his tenants child and stated that he avoids the house as much as possible. When he does go to the house for future needs, he will take a third party with him as witness to avoid further accusations or issues. MR. JAMES stated his tenant has not been paying rent and feels she is trying to seek some type of revenge against him because she fears he will be evicting her.

No offense has been committed at this time.

NARRATIVES

ONEONTA POLICE DEPARTMENT
79 MAIN STREET
ONEONTA, NY 13820

Narrative

On Saturday, December 19th 2020, at approximately 1910, Patrol was dispatched to 107 Spruce Street Apt. 4, in the City of Oneonta New York, for the report of an upstairs tenant clogging a sink and flooding his apartment and the lower apartment as well.

Officer DONLEY, and I (Officer LOTTRIDGE), arrived on scene and spoke with the caller, KYLE BREIER, who is the owner of the building, and also resides in the downstairs apartment (Apt. 4) which was flooded causing damage to the ceiling. When patrol entered the common area of the apartment building, BREIER was cleaning up water from the floor. BREIER stated his upstairs tenant had flooded his apartment causing water to run down to his apartment and the hallway. BREIER stated he believed it was intentional, as there was tobacco and paper clogging the sink upstairs, but could not give any other reasoning behind his belief that it was done intentionally.

BREIER stated that his upstairs tenant was TREVOR WOLFE-GOULD, residing in Apartment 5, and provided patrol with a telephone number to contact him. BREIER said GOULD was not currently home. BREIER showed patrol the water damage in his apartment. There was pools of water on the floor, with towels put down, in an attempt to soak them up. The water was in his living area, kitchen area, and bathroom. Water damage could be observed on the ceiling, and the BREIER had removed the light fixture, stating to patrol it was full of water. BREIER told patrol that he entered the apartment to shut the water off, and that his apartment was a mess, he appeared to be moving things out. Patrol advised BREIER the legality of entering a tenants apartment without consent, and unless there is exigent circumstances, he was not supposed to do so. BREIER stated he has it in his contract with the tenant that he is allowed to enter. Patrol did not enter the apartment to observe any damage, as the tenant was not home.

BREIER advised patrol that he did not want prosecution, but was hoping to work it out with GOULD. Officer DONLEY told BREIER we would reach out to GOULD and speak with him in regards to the situation.

At approximately 2100, I received a call back from GOULD after leaving him a voicemail to return my call. GOULD stated that he was at his apartment yesterday and that he left at approximately 10:00 a.m. today, there was nothing amiss when he left. GOULD does not recall leaving any water running, and stated if there was tobacco in the sink he may have dropped some in there, also stating that he shaved earlier that my have caused some clogging, but that he did not leave the water on. GOULD provided me with updated address, as he is living out in Albany since mid-October, and was just keeping that apartment in case he needs to stay in Oneonta due to COVID. I advised GOULD to reach out to his landlord.

GOULD called to speak with me shortly after hanging up with me. GOULD said he talked to his landlord and that he and BREIER are in agreement that someone must have been in his apartment because of the timeline. I asked him if he locked his door to which he said he did not. GOULD stated he did not have anything valuable left there, and was not worried about anything missing. GOULD requested that BREIER lock his door for him, and advised me that he would reach out to us if he comes back and there is something missing. GOULD told patrol that he did not know anyone that would want to ruin his things or break into his apartment. GOULD claims he does not have issues with anyone in Oneonta. GOULD admitted to having things in the sink but then stated someone else must have been there and turned the water on.

I reached out to BREIER to confirm what GOULD had told me. BREIER states IF GOULD is being honest, then someone must of been in the apartment. He again stated he wanted to work things out between the two of them.

INVESTIGATIVE NARRATIV

On the date of Friday, October 25, 2019 around 1530 hours, one MATTHEW LOTANO entered the station with his father NICHOLAS LOTANO to file a trespass complaint. I, Officer Gregory spoke with them about this. MATTHEW then explained that he resides at 70 Market Street (7) as a SUNY student and his Dad pays his rent. He then explained that recently, he has been clashing with his landlady, EVANGELIA APOSTOLAKIS. He stated that his landlady has given him bad attitude because his roommate got a cat. MATTHEW does not mind the cat but it is not his. He then explained a situation from last Sunday, October 20, 2019 around 1 PM when he was awakened by loud banging at his door. He said that once he got out of bed, he found his roommate his roommate in the living room area with EVANGELIA. MATTHEW says that she was yelling at his roommate in a hostile manner and she seemed to have "lost it". MATTHEW told her that she was making him very uncomfortable with her level of anger. In addition, MATTHEW found out from his roommate that no one had actually answered the door; rather, EVANGELIA had let herself in with her keys. The following day, Monday, a male who does work around the apartment complex told MATTHEW that he could not park in his designated parking space the following day. MATTHEW asked why and the male simply kept repeating to him "because I said so". MATTHEW stated that the lack of ability to converse on that male's part made MATTHEW feel like he was a child, hearing repeated "because I said so's". However, he listened to that male and parked where he was directed to the following day. However, a couple of days later, MATTHEW had been out and about and came home to find other tenants parked in an odd manner, sort of between parking spaces (on the space separation lines) and he took a picture because it was so odd. Not knowing what was going on, MATTHEW simply parked in the same manner as the other tenants, but as close as could get into his own designated spot. Later, MATTHEW subsequently came to realize that his car had been towed by the landlord. He stated that he didn't understand and he texted her. A slight argument ensued and part of that argument consisted of MATTHEW asking why she had let herself into his apartment with no warning. She then stated that it had been raining and they needed to check the roof for leaks. When MATTHEW called her out on why she never checked for leaks if that was her reason for entry, she did not respond to him. After hearing MATTHEW'S side of this story, I asked what he was looking to have done. Both MATTHEW and NICHOLAS then explained that MATTHEW graduates in December and so he only has less than 2 full months left to live there. MATTHEW stated that he just wants to live there peaceably with no fear of the landlord entering without warning and no fear of his car getting towed for seemingly no reason. NICHOLAS also displayed displeasure regarding the car getting towed and I explained that it was a private property tow and the PD had nothing to do with it. I further referred him to small claims court as a potential follow up. I then asked what their wishes were regarding this case and they agreed that a "be nice" type of call with a warning about entering without proper notice would make them happy.

On October 26, 2019, around 1310 hours, I called EVANGELINA and spoke with her by telephone. We spoke of her not being able to enter apartments without the tenants knowledge unless there was an emergency. She stated that on the day she entered, she did so because she knew they were home (she could hear them) and she "wanted to kill 2 birds with one stone" by talking to them about their parking and to check on the leaky roof. I advised her that it is their right to not answer the door and she cannot enter just because she knows they're home. Overall, EVANGELINA was pleasant via telephone and stated that she has the same wish as MATTHEW; for him to live there peacefully until he graduates in December. At this time, since the wanted warning was issued to EVANGELINA, this case will now be closed. MATTHEW was advised via email that I had made contact with EVANGELINA and he was also told that he could feel free to get back to me with any future issues.

FIELD INTERVIEWS

On Thursday October 17, 2019 at about 1825hrs, Officer FUCHS and I (Officer DONLEY) responded to 185 Chestnut Street in the City of Oneonta, New York for the report of a landlord/tenant dispute. The caller was GRACE M. FORGIT calling on behalf of CHRISTINA MAHARAJ. FORGIT stated MAHARAJ's landlord threw out all of her property.

Upon arrival patrol made contact with FORGIT in the front of 185 Chestnut St. FORGIT pointed patrol in the direction of the interior of 185 Chestnut St. where MAHARAJ was. Patrol then made contact with MAHARAJ who stated the male inside of apartment one, later ID'd as IAN J. WARD, had thrown out all her property from apartment 2. I made contact with WARD while Officer FUCHS spoke with MAHARAJ outside. WARD advised me that on October 16, 2019 he entered apartment 2 on the direction of MICHAEL WILKIE (property manager). WARD states he was instructed to clean out the property in apartment 2 and dispose of it. WARD states two dump trailer loads of property were removed from apartment two and brought to the Oneonta Transfer Station. WARD further explained one trip to the transfer station was made at 1:33pm on 10-16-2019 and the second made at 12:37pm on 10-17-2019. WARD states the property disposed of consisted of three mattresses and debris from apartment 2.

I spoke with WILKIE on the phone while on scene. WILKIE states he was instructed by the owner of the property (Theodor Daukakis phone: cell 917-578-8045 office 607-221-2622) to have the property from apartment 2 removed. WILKIE claimed that the tenant of apartment 2 had been advised the move out and verbally agreed about five weeks ago that she would be moved out by the end of the month. WILKIE states this was some time in September 2019. WILKIE states the conversation in which the tenant made this statement took place at 185 Chestnut St. near the interior mailboxes. WILKIE states the owner of the property was also present during the conversation.

MAHARAJ claims she stated to the owner that she would move out at the end of October 2019. MAHARAJ mentioned property which was missing from apartment 2; her son's ashes, clothes, a laptop, and personal documents MAHARAJ claims she has been in the process of moving out. I asked where MAHARAJ has been recently staying and she stated she rented a new place at 64 Church St. in the City of Oneonta, New York. MAHARAJ continued to claim she was still a tenant of 185 Chestnut St. apartment 2 and had not officially moved out nor been evicted. I advised MAHARAJ to respond to the Oneonta Police Department to provide a statement if she wished for any applicable criminal charges pursued. I also informed MAHARAJ that if she does in fact have a claim to the apartment she could speak with a civil attorney about the issue. MAHARAJ stated she would respond immediately to the station as I informed her my tour of duty was scheduled to end at 2000hrs the same evening. As of 2130hrs, MAHARAJ has not responded to the police department nor called to set up a new time to depose.

At about 1922hrs on October 17, 2019 WILKIE contacted the Oneonta Police Department via telephone. WILKIE informed me that since our contact over the phone earlier in the evening, the property owner provided him new information. WILKIE states the property owner informed him that some time prior to October 01, 2019 the tenant of apartment 2 had the power turned off and the electric company (WILKIE states was NYSEG) put the unit (apartment 2) account back in the owner name. It was during this same phone call with WILKIE in which he informed me of the details of MAHARAJ's verbal statement of plans to vacant. WILKIE went on to state since October 01, 2019 he has been leaving notices on the door to apartment 2 in an attempt to contact MAHARAJ; he states until this incident (October 17, 2019) these attempts have been unsuccessful. WILKIE states he has accessed apartment 2 since October 01, 2019 to bring contractors in and exterminators for an alleged pest issues. WILKIE claims during these visits he noted the property inside of the apartment consistently remain untouched, appearing abandoned. WILKIE noted dishes in the sink that appeared not to have been touched for weeks and property pushed into corners of rooms. WILKIE also states a dresser was emptied of any contents.

79 MAIN STREET
ONEONTA, NY 13820

Information obtained.
