Panorama City, CA 91402

Mr. Robinson:

I am responding to your e-mail request dated January 6, 2023, where you requested the following: "Official: FOIA - The complete case file, as unredacted as possible, that Vanessa Lynne Holton filed on 23 Nov 2020, the day AFTER I filed a State Bar Complaint against her, making her, and Office Bellamy's actions a felony."

The report in question, San Rafael Police Incident Report #SR20-07929, is a police department investigative report. Even though the case is closed, you are still not entitled to a copy of the report under the California Public Records Act, Government Code 7923.615. However, you are entitled to the following information from that report:

Date and time of report: November 23, 2020

Date and time of occurrence: November 19, 2020, times unstated.

Factual circumstances/general description: A website was created and used to harass and defame the victim.

Response: The case was closed after investigation, with no referral to the District Attorney.

Victim: This information is withheld and not disclosed for privacy purposes.

In order to obtain a copy of the report a subpoena or court order would need to be served to the San Rafael Police Department. If you can provide any legal authority for us to provide this report to you, we would be happy to consider it.

Very truly yours,
