

Potential covid case

Marina Stevens <mstevens@rlalibrary.org>

Wed 11/18/2020 2:59 PM

To: Global <Global@rlalibrary.org>

Vanessa Castillo has some symptoms that could be potentially related to covid. She has tested negative, but is remaining quarantined out of caution. Based on guidance from lake county health department anyone who was in close contact with her on Saturday, November 14 should also quarantine and get tested. I believe this should be no one but if you think you might please contact me or Robbyn Allbee.

Sent from my iPad