Q/A sounds like a good next step. If its Q/A, how about doing this via phone/zoom meeting? (Maybe more efficient use of our times)

In the interim, if you want to make sure you are current with documents: MK on behalf of the Zoo established the DropBox a few months back and it should be the archive that should be referenced. We will double check version control prior to Thursday. This is a controlled dropbox due to the stage, draft and confidential portions of some of the contents.

Something to consider, PUC's official project information channel is through RecPark. If its better to change the protocol so that SFZ sends documents directly to PUC please advise. This might help PUC stay current with documents, but may have other issues that could be issues including circulation of draft and confidential materials.

Of course we can discuss this all on Thursday.

I have blocked out 9:00-10:30 for the Q/A

Look forward to being a resource.

Mark

Hi, Karen and Mark.

I do have a hard stop at 10:30 (@ at the RPD office). At our last visit to the Zoo there were multiple versions of the maps and we identified a need to review the drawings with MKThink and Joe. We will want to focus on questions from the team as opposed to the big picture Master Plan presentation. This would be the goal of the meeting Thursday.

The plan for a working session is still in the works after a bit more preparation. The meeting Thursday would be a Q & A precursor to that meeting.

Mark & Joe, does this work for you?

Thanks Karen

Two thoughts:

1. could we set aside a bit more time? We have experienced a few hour meetings on this topic and seem to not quite get done what needs to get done.
2. Could we meet at the Zoo? It might be more productive as the content is there, and involves less travel for Joe, etc.

Also, Rachelle is away through later in January on vacation. Wanyi who has been the project planner is copied here-in and has access to all the materials.

Thanks

Okay thanks Mark. I was able to get a hold of Kelly and she's available this Thursday from 9-10 at her office, so I will send out a meeting invite.

I'll give Rachelle a call to get some help on the files (I was able to download some but not all) –
And also, if we can determine in advance of the meeting the figures to go over that would be great.

And if its easier/faster to start with you and me that's OK too. With a little bit of notice I could meet you today at the Zoo at 11. Ill take you for lunch at Java Beach Cafe. Hard stop at 1

yes Karen
we would greatly appreciate reviewing the plans in person.
this week works wednesday or thursday
before 11 am or on friday.
could i invite you to our office?
also may i suggest Brian and or Kelly
from RecPark join for continuity.
... one other option is tomorrow at the

Hi Karen

I am so glad you got to the site. Sorry we were not there to answer questions ... We thought it was a simple site orientation meeting. When you return give me a call. We are excited you are engaged and look forward to workshopping towards a productive solution.
