CAUTION!!! This Message originated OUTSIDE the district. CAUTION!!!

Patti,

I wanted to see if you plan to still send someone from the district to this event. I would hate for you guys to miss out on this as this is the first time this much literacy experts have been in one location. I have attached a new flyer with the new location as we are moving this to Clearwater Beach to house the event. I can also cover flights if needed if you want to send a couple of coaches, principals, or deserving teachers. Please let me know today as this is the last day to register.

Thanks

Happy New Year Patti!

McGraw- Hill is excited to host the 2019 Literacy Leadership Summit at the historic Mission Inn in Howey-in the-Hills this January 31-Feb 1st where Senior Level Leaders across Florida will meet and collaborate with experts in the field of Literacy Education.

Attached is the invitation with additional details and a link for registration. All accommodations and meals are included, all you have to do is register by January 16th to secure your spot. Space is limited and attendance is by invitation only. Please let me know if you are unable to join us and/or if there are key members of your leadership team you would like me to try to add to the guest list. I have space for three Santa Rosa County personnel. Let me know if you would like to attend and whom you may want to bring.

Wishing you the best in 2019, and I looking forward to spending time with you at the Mission Inn!

Regards,

Good Afternoon,

We have a class 0141-2107310 that isn't showing the book Understanding Psychology.

In the Access manager, it shows assigned, but not populating on the students' accounts.

Can you advise on why it's not showing?

This is a screen shot from a student in that class.

Christi,

Our engineers have identified a bug on our side which is causing the import failures. This is set to be fixed in an upcoming update to Access Manager in the next few weeks. Although there may be failures from time to time until the fix, we can still sync manually so there is no need worry. We will continue to monitor for failed uploads and sync manually when needed.

Good Morning,

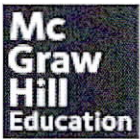

As 2018 starts to wind down, I wanted to get you McGraw-Hill's 2019 Adult and Workforce Education Catalog (attached). All the prices have been updated to current pricing. Please feel free to share with your colleagues, friends and staff.

As you may have heard, McGraw-Hill has decided not to create new materials for TABE 11/12. With the emphasis on the College and Career Readiness Standards in TABE 11/12, the decision was made to focus on our College and Career Readiness Practice Series and they have added a TABE 11/12 strand in our ALEKS online math program. If you are not familiar with either of these programs, I would be happy to send you a sample of the College and Career Readiness Practice Series or give you an overview of ALEKS.

We have also created a TABE Transition Toolkit that correlates all of our current materials to the TABE 11/12 blueprints. If you would like me to email you a copy, please let me know.

I hope you have a great holiday season and if there is anything that I can do for you, samples, quotes or answer any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

Kevin

Because learning changes everything.™

Christi,

Our engineers have identified a bug on our side which is causing the import failures. This is set to be fixed in an upcoming update to Access Manager in the next few weeks. Although there may be failures from time to time until the fix, we can still sync manually so there is no need worry. We will continue to monitor for failed uploads and sync manually when needed.

Thanks,

Good morning Christi,
It looks like the Econ book was not yet assigned to course # 0021-2102345. I have assigned the ECON book to that course and will run a new file so those user will gain access to the material that they need.

When looking at a user in the data tab and you see the No Product Affiliation for them, this means that no content has been assigned to that particular course. This is why they could not see their content.

Please let me know if you have any other users that cannot access their content.

Thank you,

Amanda

I apologize but I forgot that you were using the Resources file to assign content. I cannot assign content for you since your district is utilizing the Resources file. That course, 0021-2102345, is not currently being assigned to any content. This will need to be added to the file so that course can get the content that they need.

If you have any questions on this, please let me know. If you get this updated today, please let me know and I can run a file for you so your users can get this content.

Good morning,

The votes have been tallied. Here are the results:

K-5	Pearson
6-8	Pearson
AGA	Big Ideas
MCR	Cengage
Pre-Cal	Cengage
Adv. Topics	Big Ideas

Thank you all for submitting for our adoption process and for sharing your products with our teachers. I know the amount of time and support each of you place behind your products and it's greatly appreciated by all of us here.

The ELA Adoption process will start in August of 2019 and will follow a similar timeline to this year. Mrs. McKnight looks forward to working with many of you then.

Subject: Re: (EXT) RE: Adoption Results

Absolutely. Here are the pros and cons for each that our committees discussed:

Elementary

Pros -

- Concrete to abstract activities
- Adequate student practice provided
- Foldables in the Student Text ( Vocabulary)
- Leveled Assessment in 2 version and it's assignable and editable (3 types of questioning) Oral Assessments available
- Student eBook is full audio
- Story Boards and Work Mats for students to use in book
- My Tutor Online teaches lesson in several languages, available for parents
- Build Conceptual Understanding comes before lesson.
- Project Based Learning
- Check My Progress ( Mid Chapter Reviews)
- PowerPoint for every lesson and are editable
- Online Assessments that mimic FSA are ready to go if we were to go back to Computer Based Testing
- Online tools easy to access and interactive

Cons-

- RedBirds/Aleks is not included (Online Instruction Piece)
- No Manipulative Kit
- Not rigorous enough
- Still too much scaffolding
- Heavy on Procedural Practice
- Some extraneous content
- Not enough blank space
- Poor fact fluency component
- Not a built-in spiral review
- No FSA Book only the countdown pages

Middle

Pros-

- Improved consumable (more space to work problems; launch, explore, develop, & produce, students forced to show work)
- TE walks through lesson nicely showing interactive options
- Digital Exit Ticket, Resources & Enrichments
- Multiple Access – share students; both teachers can see students

Foldables & FSA Practice in most of the homework sections
Built in FSA Practice with problem at end of practice
Add your own resources to the digital lessons

Cons-

ALEKS does not come with base package (digital adaptive practice)
Not attractive to students
Must Create own worksheets – not enough practice resources online
Not enough practice exercises available
Online not user friendly
Advanced is an afterthought – pushed at the end of curriculum
TE very difficult and busy
SE – improved but still not enough practice space
No ExamView type generator

AGA

Pros-

Lots of practice
Liked ordering of Chapters for Algebra 1, Geometry but not Algebra 2
Nice lesson layout
Word problems easy to apply
Plenty of resources
Interactive student edition (consumable) two volumes; half of students liked and half did not
Plenty of examples & check questions were good
Like the Launch, Explore, Reflect model
Like the foldables

Cons-

ALEKS does not come with MHE basic package
TE not easily readable – small print; disliked spiral bound
Assessments are not ready (Word files)
Presentations – no PowerPoints; can customize but when importing files only imports the text; no math tools available on slide except for calculators
Algebra 2 was more notetaking driven – no examples/explanations for absent students or parents
Consumable – not enough room to show work
No conceptual development
Website is busy
Online pretest marked correct answers incorrect.
FSA Questions at the end of each unit don't seem very challenging.

Pre-Cal

Pros-

Lots of practice
Not as rigorous
Spiral Review
Digital platform for students and teachers

ACT/SAT embedded

Cons-
No PowerPoints
Poor paper quality; page color taxing; small font
Busy & Too much material in a section

I hope this is helpful. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Good Morning,

I have a teacher, Justin Rice at MHS. His one class of Econ isn't showing the product. I went into the Access Manager and assigned it to his class, but it's not showing on the teacher's dashboard.

Christi,

I went ahead and ran a manual file and the teacher now has his TE Econ book. I noticed that the course this class is under doesn't have the Econ book assigned to it in your Resources files. Since you are using Resources file to map content it is recommended that this be corrected in the file so we can remove the manual mapping in Access Manager.

Thanks,

Christi,

I went ahead and ran a manual file and the teacher now has his TE Econ book. I noticed that the course this class is under doesn't have the Econ book assigned to it in your Resources files. Since you are using Resources file to map content it is recommended that this be corrected in the file so we can remove the manual mapping in Access Manager.

Thanks,

Also, I have a teacher Eula Early at King Middle School who is being sent in One Roster. I'm showing her having access to the product in Access Manager.

However, she is getting an error message when she is clicking the MHE icon

It looks like Eula was being sent previously with a different sourcedID and our system didn't know which one was accurate so it was not updating her. I have removed the old user and ran a new set of files. She should now be able to login successfully. Please let me know if she has any issues.

FYI...while we are not an adoption state for NGSS, Okhee's research on ELL students, vocabulary development and STEM learning is second to none.

Dan: Would you mind sharing with FASS?

Hello NSELA Colleagues!

FREE NSELA Webinar Presented By Okhee Lee - Thursday, February 14, 2019

NSELA and Okhee Lee are pleased to present STEM For All Students. The webinar will focus on science instruction using the Framework and NGSS. This approach will be more relevant to those states that have adopted or adapted the NGSS.

A Framework for K-12 Science Education (National Research Council, 2012) and the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS) offer a vision of rigorous standards across K-12 classrooms. As these standards offer both learning opportunities and demands, educators must make instructional shifts to achieve the vision. This presentation will highlight how the instructional shifts based on the Framework and the NGSS and the language instructional shifts in second language acquisition are mutually supportive in promoting both science and language learning for all students including English learners. Using classroom examples, the presentation will highlight what educators can do to ensure that all students are supported in learning science while developing language.

Okhee Lee Professor of Childhood Education at New York University, Steinhardt

- Okhee Lee's research areas include science education, language and culture, and teacher education. Her current research involves the scale-up of a model of a curricular and teacher professional development intervention to promote science learning and language development of English language learners. She was a member of the writing team to develop the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS) and leader for the NGSS Diversity and Equity Team through Achieve Inc.

Join NSELA for a FREE webinar February 14th. We're excited to be working with the fascinating Okhee Lee again!

Hi Ty,

Can you give me an update on the development of ALEKS for rostering and SSO? Does it still look like it will be available for BTS 2019?

There is no district wide AP adoptions. There could be an older AP purchase from a high school, but those titles will not be able to be used in SSO/rostered.

Hi Natasha,
The current setup will serve for all of your McGraw-Hill products that are hosted on our K-12 platform, connectED.

Ty, Does Santa Rosa have any AP adoptions on HigherEd connect? If so, those titles are not included in the SSO/rostering integration.

Thanks,
Sal

Good Morning Natasha,
We currently support SAML and LTI authentication, and we can support oAuth 2.0 with specific SSO providers. Which platform did you have in mind that uses oAuth 2.0?

Regarding ALEKS, our developers are working on implementing rostering and SSO for it this year. They are still testing, so I am not able to offer it for back-to-school 2018, but I expect it will be available for BTS 2019.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Best,
Sal

Subject: (EXT) MHE Integration Services - SSO and OneRoster via Classlink - Santa Rosa, FL

CAUTION!!! This Message originated OUTSIDE the district. CAUTION!!!

Hi Christi and Todd,
Thank you for your call this morning.

As discussed, we will move forward with the OneRoster API via Classlink. We will map to the sourcedId for each user to uniquely identify them. We will need to confirm that ClassLink sends the same value in the SSO app. If you would like to retain the SSO portal via ADFS, we will need to update the relying party trust to send us the same value, instead of email addresses.

If you would like to use the 'resources' data feeds to automate content mapping, the McGraw-Hill Master codes will need to be added to your ClassLink OneRoster server. I have attached our OneRoster v1.1 instructions for your review. Please keep us updated on the status of this and we will help to advise on any errors that may come up from our end.

You can log in to Access Manager to view error logs and monitor the uploads here: <https://access.mheducation.com>

Since we will be changing the unique identifier for each user from email address to sourcedId, a complete user purge will be necessary. You can request the purge for a specified date using this web form: <http://mhed.us/MHEPurge>
The purge will delete all customized lesson plans and assessments from the teachers' accounts. I have attached a general guide that they can use to save their customizations if they wish. Please note that the steps may vary depending on the specific program that the teacher uses. If they need any additional support with this step, I encourage them to contact our support group at 1-800-437-3715 or EPGTech@mheducation.com.

If you have any additional questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to email or call me.

I am looking forward to getting this integration up and running for back-to-school 2018.

Thanks,

Sal

Jeff,

I am sure you have been getting calls and emails from publishers all day concerning the math adoption. Please let me know the districts plans for moving forward when you get a chance. If you need GAP year pricing for our current middle school programs, let me know as we are starting to collect that information and we will be working on options for current users.

Please let me know if you have questions.

Thanks

*** EXTERNAL EMAIL: If sender is unknown, use caution when opening. ***

Absolutely. Here are the pros and cons for each that our committees discussed:

Elementary

Pros -

- Concrete to abstract activities
- Adequate student practice provided
- Foldables in the Student Text ( Vocabulary)
- Leveled Assessment in 2 version and it's assignable and editable (3 types of questioning) Oral Assessments available
- Student eBook is full audio
- Story Boards and Work Mats for students to use in book
- My Tutor Online teaches lesson in several languages, available for parents
- Build Conceptual Understanding comes before lesson.
- Project Based Learning
- Check My Progress ( Mid Chapter Reviews)
- PowerPoint for every lesson and are editable
- Online Assessments that mimic FSA are ready to go if we were to go back to Computer Based Testing
- Online tools easy to access and interactive

Cons-

- RedBirds/Aleks is not included (Online Instruction Piece)
- No Manipulative Kit
- Not rigorous enough
- Still too much scaffolding
- Heavy on Procedural Practice
- Some extraneous content
- Not enough blank space
- Poor fact fluency component
- Not a built-in spiral review
- No FSA Book only the countdown pages

Middle

Pros-

Improved consumable (more space to work problems; launch, explore, develop, & produce, students forced to show work)

TE walks through lesson nicely showing interactive options

Digital Exit Ticket, Resources & Enrichments

Multiple Access – share students; both teachers can see students

Foldables & FSA Practice in most of the homework sections

Built in FSA Practice with problem at end of practice

Add your own resources to the digital lessons

Cons-

ALEKS does not come with base package (digital adaptive practice)

Not attractive to students

Must Create own worksheets – not enough practice resources online

Not enough practice exercises available

Online not user friendly

Advanced is an afterthought – pushed at the end of curriculum

TE very difficult and busy

SE – improved but still not enough practice space

No ExamView type generator

AGA

Pros-

Lots of practice

Liked ordering of Chapters for Algebra 1, Geometry but not Algebra 2

Nice lesson layout

Word problems easy to apply

Plenty of resources

Interactive student edition (consumable) two volumes; half of students liked and half did not

Plenty of examples & check questions were good

Like the Launch, Explore, Reflect model

Like the foldables

Cons-

ALEKS does not come with MHE basic package

TE not easily readable – small print; disliked spiral bound

Assessments are not ready (Word files)

Presentations – no PowerPoints; can customize but when importing files only imports the text; no math tools available on slide except for calculators

Algebra 2 was more notetaking driven – no examples/explanations for absent students or parents

Consumable – not enough room to show work

No conceptual development

Website is busy

Online pretest marked correct answers incorrect.

FSA Questions at the end of each unit don't seem very challenging.

Pre-Cal

Pros-

Lots of practice

Not as rigorous

Spiral Review

Digital platform for students and teachers

ACT/SAT embedded

Cons-

No PowerPoints

Poor paper quality; page color taxing; small font

Busy & Too much material in a section

I hope this is helpful. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Good morning,

The votes have been tallied. Here are the results:

K-5	Pearson
6-8	Pearson
AGA	Big Ideas
MCR	Cengage
Pre-Cal	Cengage
Adv. Topics	Big Ideas

Thank you all for submitting for our adoption process and for sharing your products with our teachers. I know the amount of time and support each of you place behind your products and it's greatly appreciated by all of us here.

The ELA Adoption process will start in August of 2019 and will follow a similar timeline to this year. Mrs. McKnight looks forward to working with many of you then.

Jeff,

I am sure you have been getting calls and emails from publishers all day concerning the math adoption. Please let me know the districts plans for moving forward when you get a chance. If you need GAP year pricing for our current middle school programs, let me know as we are starting to collect that information and we will be working on options for current users.

Please let me know if you have questions.

Thanks

Good morning,

The votes have been tallied. Here are the results:

K-5	Pearson
6-8	Pearson
AGA	Big Ideas
MCR	Cengage
Pre-Cal	Cengage
Adv. Topics	Big Ideas

Thank you all for submitting for our adoption process and for sharing your products with our teachers. I know the amount of time and support each of you place behind your products and it's greatly appreciated by all of us here.

The ELA Adoption process will start in August of 2019 and will follow a similar timeline to this year. Mrs. McKnight looks forward to working with many of you then.

Absolutely. Here are the pros and cons for each that our committees discussed:

Elementary

Pros -

- Concrete to abstract activities
- Adequate student practice provided
- Foldables in the Student Text ( Vocabulary)
- Leveled Assessment in 2 version and it's assignable and editable (3 types of questioning) Oral Assessments available
- Student eBook is full audio
- Story Boards and Work Mats for students to use in book
- My Tutor Online teaches lesson in several languages, available for parents
- Build Conceptual Understanding comes before lesson.
- Project Based Learning
- Check My Progress ( Mid Chapter Reviews)

PowerPoint for every lesson and are editable

Online Assessments that mimic FSA are ready to go if we were to go back to Computer Based Testing

Online tools easy to access and interactive

Cons-

RedBirds/Aleks is not included (Online Instruction Piece)

No Manipulative Kit

Not rigorous enough

Still too much scaffolding

Heavy on Procedural Practice

Some extraneous content

Not enough blank space

Poor fact fluency component

Not a built-in spiral review

No FSA Book only the countdown pages

Middle

Pros-

Improved consumable (more space to work problems; launch, explore, develop, & produce, students forced to show work)

TE walks through lesson nicely showing interactive options

Digital Exit Ticket, Resources & Enrichments

Multiple Access – share students; both teachers can see students

Foldables & FSA Practice in most of the homework sections

Built in FSA Practice with problem at end of practice

Add your own resources to the digital lessons

Cons-

ALEKS does not come with base package (digital adaptive practice)

Not attractive to students

Must Create own worksheets – not enough practice resources online

Not enough practice exercises available

Online not user friendly

Advanced is an afterthought – pushed at the end of curriculum

TE very difficult and busy

SE – improved but still not enough practice space

No ExamView type generator

AGA

Pros-

Lots of practice

Liked ordering of Chapters for Algebra 1, Geometry but not Algebra 2

Nice lesson layout

Word problems easy to apply

Plenty of resources

Interactive student edition (consumable) two volumes; half of students liked and half did not

Plenty of examples & check questions were good
Like the Launch, Explore, Reflect model
Like the foldables

Cons-

ALEKS does not come with MHE basic package
TE not easily readable – small print; disliked spiral bound
Assessments are not ready (Word files)
Presentations – no PowerPoints; can customize but when importing files only imports the text; no math tools available on slide except for calculators
Algebra 2 was more notetaking driven – no examples/explanations for absent students or parents
Consumable – not enough room to show work
No conceptual development

Good morning,

The votes have been tallied. Here are the results:

K-5	Pearson
6-8	Pearson
AGA	Big Ideas
MCR	Cengage
Pre-Cal	Cengage
Adv. Topics	Big Ideas

Thank you all for submitting for our adoption process and for sharing your products with our teachers. I know the amount of time and support each of you place behind your products and it's greatly appreciated by all of us here.

The ELA Adoption process will start in August of 2019 and will follow a similar timeline to this year. Mrs. McKnight looks forward to working with many of you then.

Serving Together,

Jeffery Baugus

Ty,

Thanks so much for reaching out. We'll be moving forward with new curriculum for middle grades and will not need gap materials.

Have a great week!

Jeff,

I want to touch base with you and see if any decisions have been made about the math process or GAP year? I am starting to work with the FSBD to get them prepared with materials and I wanted to check with you to see what direction the district will be taking. Let me know what you have decided as soon as you can.

Thanks

10-4.

Yes, if we decide to purchase, we would need both print and digital.

We are starting to get requests now and we are gathering the information of needs for the districts. Would you need print and digital for each student and teacher? This information helps us come up with the best possible options for districts.

Thanks

Ty,

Thanks for reaching out.

I do need pricing on gap year materials. Knowing we'll have that need for three years, what's the per student cost looking like?

Jeff,

I am sure you have been getting calls and emails from publishers all day concerning the math adoption. Please let me know the districts plans for moving forward when you get a chance. If you need GAP year pricing for our current middle school programs, let me know as we are starting to collect that information and we will be working on options for current users.

Please let me know if you have questions.

Thanks

Subject: Re: (EXT) RE: Adoption Results

*** EXTERNAL EMAIL: If sender is unknown, use caution when opening. ***

Absolutely. Here are the pros and cons for each that our committees discussed:

Elementary

Pros -

Concrete to abstract activities

Adequate student practice provided

Foldables in the Student Text ( Vocabulary)

Leveled Assessment in 2 version and it's assignable and editable (3 types of questioning) Oral Assessments available

Student eBook is full audio

Story Boards and Work Mats for students to use in book

My Tutor Online teaches lesson in several languages, available for parents

Build Conceptual Understanding comes before lesson.

Project Based Learning

Check My Progress ( Mid Chapter Reviews)

PowerPoint for every lesson and are editable

Online Assessments that mimic FSA are ready to go if we were to go back to Computer Based Testing

Online tools easy to access and interactive

Cons-

RedBirds/Aleks is not included (Online Instruction Piece)

No Manipulative Kit

Not rigorous enough

Still too much scaffolding

Heavy on Procedural Practice

Some extraneous content

Not enough blank space

Poor fact fluency component

Not a built-in spiral review

No FSA Book only the countdown pages

Middle

Pros-

Improved consumable (more space to work problems; launch, explore, develop, & produce, students forced to show work)

TE walks through lesson nicely showing interactive options

Digital Exit Ticket, Resources & Enrichments

Multiple Access – share students; both teachers can see students

Foldables & FSA Practice in most of the homework sections

Built in FSA Practice with problem at end of practice

Add your own resources to the digital lessons

Cons-

ALEKS does not come with base package (digital adaptive practice)

Not attractive to students

Must Create own worksheets – not enough practice resources online

Not enough practice exercises available

Online not user friendly

Advanced is an afterthought – pushed at the end of curriculum

TE very difficult and busy

SE – improved but still not enough practice space

No ExamView type generator

AGA

Pros-

Lots of practice

Liked ordering of Chapters for Algebra 1, Geometry but not Algebra 2

Nice lesson layout

Word problems easy to apply

Plenty of resources

Interactive student edition (consumable) two volumes; half of students liked and half did not

Plenty of examples & check questions were good

Like the Launch, Explore, Reflect model

Like the foldables

Cons-

ALEKS does not come with MHE basic package

TE not easily readable – small print; disliked spiral bound

Assessments are not ready (Word files)

Presentations – no PowerPoints; can customize but when importing files only imports the text; no math tools available on slide except for calculators

Algebra 2 was more notetaking driven – no examples/explanations for absent students or parents

Consumable – not enough room to show work

No conceptual development

Website is busy

Online pretest marked correct answers incorrect.

FSA Questions at the end of each unit don't seem very challenging.

Pre-Cal

Pros-

Lots of practice

Not as rigorous

Spiral Review

Digital platform for students and teachers

ACT/SAT embedded

Cons-

No PowerPoints

Poor paper quality; page color taxing; small font

Busy & Too much material in a section

I hope this is helpful. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Good morning,

The votes have been tallied. Here are the results:

K-5	Pearson
6-8	Pearson

AGA	Big Ideas
MCR	Cengage
Pre-Cal	Cengage
Adv. Topics	Big Ideas

Thank you all for submitting for our adoption process and for sharing your products with our teachers. I know the amount of time and support each of you place behind your products and it's greatly appreciated by all of us here.

The ELA Adoption process will start in August of 2019 and will follow a similar timeline to this year. Mrs. McKnight looks forward to working with many of you then.

Patti,

I wanted to see if you plan to still send someone from the district to this event. I would hate for you guys to miss out on this as this is the first time this much literacy experts have been in one location. I have attached a new flyer with the new location as we are moving this to Clearwater Beach to house the event. I can also cover flights if needed if you want to send a couple of coaches, principals, or deserving teachers. Please let me know today as this is the last day to register.

Thanks

Happy New Year Patti!

McGraw-Hill is excited to host the 2019 Literacy Leadership Summit at the historic Mission Inn in Howey-in-the-Hills this January 31-Feb 1st where Senior Level Leaders across Florida will meet and collaborate with experts in the field of Literacy Education.

Attached is the invitation with additional details and a link for registration. All accommodations and meals are included, all you have to do is register by January 16th to secure your spot. Space is limited and attendance is by invitation only. Please let me know if you are unable to join us and/or if there are key members of your leadership team you would like me to try to add to the guest list. I have space for three Santa Rosa County personnel. Let me know if you would like to attend and whom you may want to bring.

Wishing you the best in 2019, and I looking forward to spending time with you at the Mission Inn!

Regards,

Dear Educator,

Thank you for your interest in McGraw-Hill products! Attached you will find information on Bentley's brand new 7th edition text for the 2019-2020 redesign coming this summer. The main thing that sets us apart from other publishers is McGraw-Hill's AP Advantage program. This approach is perfect for today's digital native students and provides copious resources for instructors. Our adaptive SmartBook, which personalizes the reading experience for each student, is exclusive to McGraw-Hill. When you combine that with our pre-course modules, OnBoard, and our AP Exam prep modules, ScoreBoard, you will have all the resources necessary to enable student mastery and success in your AP course.

I am attaching a few flyers explaining the features of both our SmartBook and the AP Advantage Suite as a whole. The best news, this all comes standard with our adoptions!

To get on the list for a print sample of this text when released, please reply to this email with your name, school name and school mailing address.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions you may have. I look forward to partnering with you to deliver outstanding resources for you and your students.

Sincerely,

In elementary we are in Tier 3 verging on Tier 4. We are in the process of revamping what we use as our small group model. It is currently Beverly Tyner's small group model, but it is lacking in some really key components. Because of this noticeable lack, many of our schools have "gone rogue".

CAUTION!!! This Message originated OUTSIDE the district. CAUTION!!!

Hi Patti,

We are trying to get a focus on districts and Balanced Literacy. What Tier from the chart below would you classify Santa Rosa County regarding Balanced Literacy?

Tier 1	Tier 2
New focus on Balanced Literacy. District Literacy Leaders have become/are becoming more educated on what BL could mean in their district.	Clearer vision on what Balanced Literacy means for their district.
25/75 model. 25% of instruction is taught small group and 75% is taught whole group.	50/50 model. 50% of instruction is taught small group and 50% of instruction is taught whole group.
Small Group is utilized for reinforcing new concepts or filling in gaps.	"Transition group". Teachers are starting to see additional training what BL should look like in the district.  Embracing some pieces of BL (i.e. workshop models, shared reading, shared writing, readers/writers workshops) but not all.

Generally these districts are seeking materials to support teachers and are not trained in small group instruction (with the exception of LLI-F&P for pullouts for struggling readers); these districts often seek professional development to improve teachers' instruction and planning processes. Generally, they shy away from the Anthology, and have been pleased with the minilessons from the current Wonders 2017 Reading /Writing Workshop.

This is the most frequently seen in classrooms of the 4 tiers listed. Most proclaimed BL districts tend to call for a 'balance of whole class and small group--with rotations during small group. These classrooms are monitored for quality whole-class instruction that is generally set up to take place not all at once but at intervals to deliver grade level/new concepts, skills and strategies, and to check in on students' work (20 minute whole class minilessons -- perhaps up to 3 times a day for reading/language arts instruction). These 50/50 ratio districts tend to have Read Aloud distinctly mandated along with Shared Reading and Writer's Workshop as part of their 'whole-class minilessons' framework. However there is inconsistency across the board in the different districts as to what they are trained in. These districts tend to be seeking additional quality leveled reads and a consistent and explicit phonics instructional component.

Subject: (EXT) NGSSS Content Literacy Standards Review

CAUTION!!! This Message originated OUTSIDE the district. CAUTION!!!

Hi,

The Florida Department of Education is conducting a review of the Content Literacy Standards for Science and Technical Subjects in order to comply with executive order 19-32. I am acting as a conduit for your feedback on the content literacy standards. The standards can be found at http://www.cpalms.org/Course/Literacy\_Standards.aspx If you have recommendations, please email me at daniel.mcfarland@sdhc.k12.fl.us. The expert review panel is working on this project through 4/19. The ongoing efforts to develop and deploy world-class standards will continue throughout the Summer.

Thanks,
Dan

Subject: (EXT) FASS PSA & Nomination Request

CAUTION!!! This Message originated OUTSIDE the district. CAUTION!!!

Good Evening Everyone!

I am looking for Public Service Announcements (PSAs) to be shared during our meeting. As a reminder, our PSA goals include:

- welcoming everyone to the organization and to the meeting
- connecting and supporting our science "family"
- acknowledging retirements and welcoming new members
- acknowledging other important aspects of our lives

Are you a new supervisor? Please let me know so that I can introduce you!

I am also seeking nominations for President elect. At this time, we have one nomination.

If you have a nomination or information that you would like included in the PSA portion of our meeting, please email me at ferro.michelle@brevardschools.org by Monday, April 29th.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone this week at the meeting! 😊

Ty,

Thanks so much for reaching out. We'll be moving forward with new curriculum for middle grades and will not need gap materials.

Have a great week!

Jeff,

I want to touch base with you and see if any decisions have been made about the math process or GAP year? I am starting to work with the FSBD to get them prepared with materials and I wanted to check with you to see what direction the district will be taking. Let me know what you have decided as soon as you can.

Thanks

Ty,

Thanks for reaching out.

I do need pricing on gap year materials. Knowing we'll have that need for three years, what's the per student cost looking like?

Jeff,

I am sure you have been getting calls and emails from publishers all day concerning the math adoption. Please let me know the districts plans for moving forward when you get a chance. If you need GAP year pricing for our current middle school programs, let me know as we are starting to collect that information and we will be working on options for current users.

Please let me know if you have questions.

Thanks

Subject: Re: (EXT) RE: Adoption Results

*** EXTERNAL EMAIL: If sender is unknown, use caution when opening. ***

Absolutely. Here are the pros and cons for each that our committees discussed:

Elementary

Pros -

Concrete to abstract activities

Adequate student practice provided

Foldables in the Student Text ( Vocabulary)

Leveled Assessment in 2 version and it's assignable and editable (3 types of questioning) Oral Assessments available

Student eBook is full audio

Story Boards and Work Mats for students to use in book

My Tutor Online teaches lesson in several languages, available for parents

Build Conceptual Understanding comes before lesson.

Project Based Learning

Check My Progress ( Mid Chapter Reviews)

PowerPoint for every lesson and are editable

Online Assessments that mimic FSA are ready to go if we were to go back to Computer Based Testing

Online tools easy to access and interactive

Cons-

RedBirds/Aleks is not included (Online Instruction Piece)

No Manipulative Kit

Not rigorous enough

Still too much scaffolding

Heavy on Procedural Practice

Some extraneous content

Not enough blank space

Poor fact fluency component

Not a built-in spiral review

No FSA Book only the countdown pages

Middle

Pros-

Improved consumable (more space to work problems; launch, explore, develop, & produce, students forced to show work)

TE walks through lesson nicely showing interactive options

Digital Exit Ticket, Resources & Enrichments

Multiple Access – share students; both teachers can see students

Foldables & FSA Practice in most of the homework sections

Built in FSA Practice with problem at end of practice

Add your own resources to the digital lessons

Cons-

ALEKS does not come with base package (digital adaptive practice)

Not attractive to students

Must Create own worksheets – not enough practice resources online

Not enough practice exercises available

Online not user friendly

Advanced is an afterthought – pushed at the end of curriculum

TE very difficult and busy

SE – improved but still not enough practice space

No ExamView type generator

AGA

Pros-

Lots of practice

Liked ordering of Chapters for Algebra 1, Geometry but not Algebra 2

Nice lesson layout

Word problems easy to apply

Plenty of resources

Interactive student edition (consumable) two volumes; half of students liked and half did not

Plenty of examples & check questions were good

Like the Launch, Explore, Reflect model

Like the foldables

Cons-

ALEKS does not come with MHE basic package

TE not easily readable – small print; disliked spiral bound

Assessments are not ready (Word files)

Presentations – no PowerPoints; can customize but when importing files only imports the text; no math tools available on slide except for calculators

Algebra 2 was more notetaking driven – no examples/explanations for absent students or parents

Consumable – not enough room to show work

No conceptual development

Website is busy

Online pretest marked correct answers incorrect.

FSA Questions at the end of each unit don't seem very challenging.

Pre-Cal

Pros-

Lots of practice

Not as rigorous

Spiral Review

Digital platform for students and teachers

ACT/SAT embedded

Cons-

No PowerPoints

Poor paper quality; page color taxing; small font

Busy & Too much material in a section

I hope this is helpful. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Good morning,

The votes have been tallied. Here are the results:

K-5	Pearson
6-8	Pearson

AGA	Big Ideas
MCR	Cengage
Pre-Cal	Cengage
Adv. Topics	Big Ideas

Thank you all for submitting for our adoption process and for sharing your products with our teachers. I know the amount of time and support each of you place behind your products and it's greatly appreciated by all of us here.

The ELA Adoption process will start in August of 2019 and will follow a similar timeline to this year. Mrs. McKnight looks forward to working with many of you then.

I wanted to see if you plan to still send someone from the district to this event. I would hate for you guys to miss out on this as this is the first time this much literacy experts have been in one location. I have attached a new flyer with the new location as we are moving this to Clearwater Beach to house the event. I can also cover flights if needed if you want to send a couple of coaches, principals, or deserving teachers. Please let me know today as this is the last day to register.

Happy New Year Patti!

McGraw-Hill is excited to host the 2019 Literacy Leadership Summit at the historic Mission Inn in Howey-in-the-Hills this January 31-Feb 1st where Senior Level Leaders across Florida will meet and collaborate with experts in the field of Literacy Education.

Attached is the invitation with additional details and a link for registration. All accommodations and meals are included, all you have to do is register by January 16th to secure your spot. Space is limited and attendance is by invitation only. Please let me know if you are unable to join us and/or if there are key members of your leadership team you would like me to try to add to the guest list. I have space for three Santa Rosa County personnel. Let me know if you would like to attend and whom you may want to bring.

Wishing you the best in 2019, and I looking forward to spending time with you at the Mission Inn!

Regards,

Dear Educator,

Thank you for your interest in McGraw-Hill products! Attached you will find information on Bentley's brand new 7th edition text for the 2019-2020 redesign coming this summer. The main thing that sets us apart from other publishers is McGraw-Hill's AP Advantage program. This approach is perfect for today's digital native students and provides copious resources for instructors. Our adaptive SmartBook, which personalizes the reading experience for each student, is exclusive to McGraw-Hill. When you combine that with our pre-course modules, OnBoard, and our AP Exam prep modules, ScoreBoard, you will have all the resources necessary to enable student mastery and success in your AP course.

I am attaching a few flyers explaining the features of both our SmartBook and the AP Advantage Suite as a whole. The best news, this all comes standard with our adoptions!

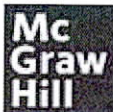

To get on the list for a print sample of this text when released, please reply to this email with your name, school name and school mailing address.

Please feel free to reach out with any questions you may have. I look forward to partnering with you to deliver outstanding resources for you and your students.

In elementary we are in Tier 3 verging on Tier 4. We are in the process of revamping what we use as our small group model. It is currently Beverly Tyner's small group model, but it is lacking in some really key components. Because of this noticeable lack, many of our schools have "gone rogue".

CAUTION!!! This Message originated OUTSIDE the district. CAUTION!!!

Hi Patti,

We are trying to get a focus on districts and Balanced Literacy. What Tier from the chart below would you classify Santa Rosa County regarding Balanced Literacy?

Tier 1	Tier 2
New focus on Balanced Literacy. District Literacy Leaders have become/are becoming more educated on what BL could mean in their district.	Clearer vision on what Balanced Literacy means for their district.
25/75 model. 25% of instruction is taught small group and 75% is taught whole group.	50/50 model. 50% of instruction is taught small group and 50% of instruction is taught whole group.
Small Group is utilized for reinforcing new concepts or filling in gaps.	"Transition group". Teachers are starting to see additional training what BL should look like in the district.  Embracing some pieces of BL (i.e. workshop models, shared reading, shared writing, readers/writers workshops) but not all.

Generally these districts are seeking materials to support teachers and are not trained in small group instruction (with the exception of LLI-F&P for pullouts for struggling readers); these districts often seek professional development to improve teachers' instruction and planning processes. Generally, they shy away from the Anthology, and have been pleased with the minilessons from the current Wonders 2017 Reading /Writing Workshop.

This is the most frequently seen in classrooms of the 4 tiers listed. Most proclaimed BL districts tend to call for a 'balance of whole class and small group--with rotations during small group. These classrooms are monitored for quality whole-class instruction that is generally set up to take place not all at once but at intervals to deliver grade level/new concepts, skills and strategies, and to check in on students' work (20 minute whole class minilessons -- perhaps up to 3 times a day for reading/language arts instruction). These 50/50 ratio districts tend to have Read Aloud distinctly mandated along with Shared Reading and Writer's Workshop as part of their 'whole-class minilessons' framework. However there is inconsistency across the board in the different districts as to what they are trained in. These districts tend to be seeking additional quality leveled reads and a consistent and explicit phonics instructional component.

Your survey did not have anything other than an option to exclude myself from receiving a gift card, which was accidently highlighted. There was no way to back out or undo this action. I did want to receive a gift card if I qualified.

Hi,

The Florida Department of Education is conducting a review of the Content Literacy Standards for Science and Technical Subjects in order to comply with executive order 19-32. I am acting as a conduit for your feedback on the content literacy standards. The standards can be found at http://www.cpalms.org/Course/Literacy\_Standards.aspx If you have recommendations, please email me at daniel.mcfarland@sdhc.k12.fl.us. The expert review panel is working on this project through 4/19. The ongoing efforts to develop and deploy world-class standards will continue throughout the Summer.

Thanks,

Subject: (EXT) FASS PSA & Nomination Request

CAUTION!!! This Message originated OUTSIDE the district. CAUTION!!!

Good Evening Everyone!

I am looking for Public Service Announcements (PSAs) to be shared during our meeting. As a reminder, our PSA goals include:

- welcoming everyone to the organization and to the meeting
- connecting and supporting our science "family"
- acknowledging retirements and welcoming new members
- acknowledging other important aspects of our lives

Are you a new supervisor? Please let me know so that I can introduce you!

I am also seeking nominations for President elect. At this time, we have one nomination.

If you have a nomination or information that you would like included in the PSA portion of our meeting, please email me at ferro.michelle@brevardschools.org by Monday, April 29th.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone this week at the meeting! 😊

Ty,

I have blocked off Tuesday, May 14th from 1:00-2:00 Central Time to have a conversation with Debra regarding your intervention offerings. I'll be interested in hearing about

- an assess, instruct model of instruction
- multisensory approaches
- identification of systematic instruction designed to meet the needs of students with dyslexia characteristics
- a clear definition of "foundational skills"
- any research or evidence of success

Thank you for setting this up.

Patti,

Thanks for meeting with me yesterday. Great meeting with very good information. I have secured Debra Guyler for next Tuesday May 14th and May 22nd at 1:00 pm. Would 11:00 am May 14th work for you to meet again for a more in-depth discussion about our intervention products? If that time doesn't work, just let me know what does and we will work around your schedule.

Thanks

Ty,

I have blocked off Tuesday, May 14th from 1:00-2:00 Central Time to have a conversation with Debra regarding your intervention offerings. I'll be interested in hearing about

- an assess, instruct model of instruction

- multisensory approaches
- identification of systematic instruction designed to meet the needs of students with dyslexia characteristics
- a clear definition of "foundational skills"
- any research or evidence of success

Thank you for setting this up.

Structured Literacy: Dyslexia-Specific

Explicit – skills explained, directly taught, and modeled by the teacher

In Reading Mastery, all concepts are directly and explicitly taught to students with continuous teacher–student interaction. Learning is never assumed. All concepts, skills, and procedures are deliberately taught and practiced with teacher guidance and feedback.

Specific elements of the program highlight the explicitness of the design and delivery of each lesson.

- Lessons are designed and focused to make optimal use of instructional time.
- Teachers provide step-by-step demonstrations utilizing a Model-Lead-Test-Retest routine.
- The scripts provide clear, consistent, and unambiguous wording which reduces confusion and errors.
- The program design allows for a range of examples and non-examples when teacher students to apply a skill, strategy, or concepts.
- Teacher provide guided and supported practice prior to any independent tasks.
- Correction procedures provide immediate feedback to students about accuracy of their responses.

Systematic and cumulative – introduces concepts in a definite, logical sequence; concepts are ordered from simple to more complex

Reading Mastery provides systematic, sequential and cumulative instruction that make the program uniquely effective with students with special needs; particularly those with dyslexia.

A Systematic Approach The content in Reading Mastery is carefully analyzed to identify central concepts, rules, strategies, and “big ideas” (those strategies that promote generalization to untaught examples). Thus, teachers do not have to develop lessons or modify existing curriculum to help students gain proficiency in areas critical for success.

Carefully Controlled Structure Reading Mastery formats are teaching routines that help instructors model new content, provide guided practice, and implement independent practice opportunities. As students master skills, the formats evolve to accommodate students’ progress and growing independence. These formats are “written, tested, rewritten, retested — polished in a cycle of classroom field testing and revision that ends only when trials show that 90 percent of students grasp a lesson the first time around” (AFT, 1999, pg. 4).

Each lesson consists of multiple “tracks” (strands) and the skills used to teach those tracks. Rather than introducing skills in isolation — one skill at a time — multiple tracks are taught in unison and each track is interrelated with the next to provide an efficient framework for teaching. Tracks ensure that:

- Lessons are made up of several relatively short exercises
- Difficult tasks are interspersed with easier ones
- New skills are interspersed with well-practiced skills
- Practice is distributed so that students do not “forget” skills over time
- In track instruction, errors are reduced and skill integration is enhanced.

The instructional language used in Reading Mastery is carefully written to be clear and consistent to reduce student confusion. “Teacher talk” is kept to a minimum and phrases used in teaching routines are used repeatedly. Instructional examples are introduced and carefully planned to promote student success.

Sequential Reading Mastery skills are taught in a cumulative and carefully integrated scope and sequence to help students reach mastery level and generalize their learning to new, untaught situations (AFT, 1999.) Students learn “rules” before exceptions and easy skills before more difficult ones. Appropriate scaffolding is utilized, moving students from teacher-directed activities to independent ones. In this way, students concentrate on and complete only those elements within their range of competence.

Cumulative Content Reading Mastery lessons and levels are cumulative

- Instruction is systematic, progressing from simple to complex, building upon previously taught content.
- Each component of instruction is taught to mastery to facilitate the acquisition of the next skill.

Multi-sensory – links listening, speaking, reading, and writing together; involves movement and “hands-on” learning

A multisensory approach incorporates two or more modalities simultaneously. The nature of every oral and written language task requires integration of at least two sensory pathways:

- Copying: visual to kinesthetic-motor (for writing)
- Silent reading: visual to auditory (inner)
- Oral reading: visual to auditory to kinesthetic-motor (for speech)
- Speaking: auditory (inner) to kinesthetic-motor (for speech)

Reading Mastery offers a multi-modality approach to reading instruction. Mapping between orthography and phonology allows new words to be easily decoded but more importantly provides a foundation for acquisition of more automatic reading skills. With a comprehensive instructional approach that integrates the teaching of listening, speaking, reading, and written expression, students strengthen these connections and gain strategies for more complex reading.

Language-based – addresses all levels of language, including sounds (phonemes), symbols (graphemes), meaningful word parts (morphemes), word and phrase meanings (semantics), and sentence formation (syntax)

Phonemes: Reading Mastery Level K provides early emphasis on phonemic awareness, with a focus on blending and segmenting. Phonemic awareness begins by presenting children with activities that they are likely to be able to do, such as saying drawn-out words fast. Reading Mastery starts by presenting long words broken into two parts:

Teacher: Listen. Ham (pause) burger. Say it fast.

Student: Hamburger

Later, the task becomes more focused on blending phonemes.

Teacher: Listen. Sss-lll-aaa-mmm. Say it fast.

Student: Slam

This oral practice of blending is supported by verbal activities involving on-set and rime. The children are either told or shown a beginning sound. They are also told the ending sound (or the "word" they are to rhyme with). The children then combine the sounds to create a word that they say fast.

The final phonemic awareness skills taught in Reading Mastery is blending and segmenting words by phonemes. Initially children sound out words; they first say the parts slowly, then say them fast. The program teaches them to say each sound in a word slowly, without pausing. Once students master this strategy, the focus moves to segmentation. In this case, the teacher provides the whole word, then students say each sound that makes up the word. The initial oral practice of blending, rhyming and segmenting individual sounds in Reading Mastery allows students to concentrate on listening to sounds without interference from written symbols.

Children say the word slowly, then say it fast
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. First you're going to say a word slowly without stopping between the sounds. Then you're going to say the word fast.</li> <li>b. Listen. (Hold up a finger for each sound.) Say (pause) mmmëëë. Get ready. (Hold up a finger for each sound.) Mmmëëë.               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Again. Get ready. (Hold up a finger for each sound.) Mmmëëë.</li> <li>• Say it fast. (Signal.) Me. Yes, me.</li> </ul> </li> <li>c. Listen. (Hold up a finger for each sound.) Say (pause) rrraannn. Get ready. (Hold up a finger for each sound.) Rrraannn.               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Again. Get ready. (Hold up a finger for each sound.) Rrraannn.</li> <li>• Say it fast. (Signal.) Ran. Yes, ran.</li> </ul> </li> <li>d. Listen. (Hold up a finger for each sound.) Say (pause) ooonnn. Get ready. (Hold up a finger for each sound.) Ooonnn.               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Again. Get ready. (Hold up a finger for each sound.) Ooonnn.</li> <li>• Say it fast. (Signal.) On. Yes, on.</li> </ul> </li> <li>e. (Repeat b through d until firm.)</li> <li>f. (Call on individual children to do b, c, or d.)</li> </ul>

Phonemic Segmentation
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Listen: fast. Say it. (Signal.) Fast.</li> <li>b. I'll say the sounds in fast: fff . . . aaa . . . sss . . . t.               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Say the sounds in fast. Get ready. (Tap for each sound.) fff . . . aaa . . . sss . . . t.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

Phonological and phonemic awareness instruction is taught through oral activities, not print. However, phonemic awareness is fundamental to matching speech to print. If a child is unable to tell that man and mouse begin with the same sound or cannot blend the sounds /s/ /a/ /t/ into the word sat, that child will have great difficulty in connecting the sounds with their written symbols or blending sounds to create words.

Several instructional design features are utilized for phonemic awareness intervention (supported by research). These include:

- Giving explicit instruction in blending and segmenting as auditory tasks particularly at the phoneme level

- Systematically sequencing tasks
- Increasing opportunities to produce sounds at the phoneme level
- Providing explicit instruction to increase the conspicuousness of strategies that allow children to perceive phonemes

Graphemes: Reading Mastery coordinates what the students read with the letter-sound correspondences taught in previous lessons. New letter sounds or letter combinations are introduced in Grades K and 1 approximately every three to five lessons. Students practice the new sounds in isolation. Then, they read words in lists that contain the new sound. Within two to three lessons after words with the new sound are introduced, students read these words in stories. Throughout the progression from sound to word to story, all the words the children read are composed with sounds that have been pre-taught.

Fully scripted lessons guide the multi-modality instructional techniques that develop students' visual, auditory, and kinesthetic abilities. Lesson formats include a step-by-step sequence that allows exceptional learners to master word analysis.

Students demonstrate mastery of each new letter-sound correspondence before another letter-sound correspondence is introduced.

- Letter-sound correspondences are introduced every few lessons, starting in the first lesson.
- Auditory segmenting and blending activities are presented prior to learning symbols for phonemes.
- Students participate in daily cumulative review of letter-sound correspondences.
- Students learn multiple ways to represent phonemes, if applicable.

Students practice identifying letter-sound correspondences primarily by:

- Saying letter-sounds when shown letters
- Saying letter-sounds when writing letters

To reinforce multi-modality associations, Reading Mastery teaches reading and spelling together. Reading and spelling represent the receptive and expressive forms of language. Visual symbols are meaningfully associated with their auditory equivalents. Spelling encodes auditory information into visual symbols through a kinesthetic-tactile experience. Children read and spell the same material within the lessons across all grade levels.

Decodable text provides students with an avenue to practice their new knowledge of letter-sound relationships in the context of real reading. For example, by Lesson 91 of Reading Mastery K, students are reading a series of meaningful sentences that contain words with both long and short vowels.

In Reading Mastery, the introduction of letter-sounds (e.g., c = /k/, s = /sss/) and letter-sound combinations (e.g., qu = /koo/, er = /er/) is carefully sequenced to reduce confusion and to provide adequate practice. Only the most common sounds for each letter or letter combination are taught initially. High-frequency sounds are introduced early allowing students to read meaningful words and stories as soon as possible. Letters that look and/or sound similar to each other are taught several days apart to decrease confusion (e.g., the letters b and d are separated by 94 lessons).

Letter formation activities occur in every lesson beginning at lesson one of the kindergarten level through lesson 48 of grade 1. Letter formation is referred to as “sound writing” since the emphasis is on phoneme-grapheme correspondence to strengthen early decoding skills. Letter formation activities mirror the phonics instruction provided in each lesson, and students are encouraged to practice saying the sound as they trace and write it. Gradually the sound-writing exercises change so that only a part of the symbol is traced, and the rest is done freehand. The change begins at lesson 21 of kindergarten.

Beginning at lesson 40 of the kindergarten level, worksheet exercises teach the children to copy an entire story, later part of a story, and finally a sentence that is similar to a sentence in the story. In the first exercise, at lesson 40, the children copy directly beneath the story. They trace the letters by following dots on the first line. In early lessons, blocks appear between the words, and there are macrons over the long vowels. Starting at lesson 91 of the kindergarten level, children write a sentence related to the story and illustrate it. The writing exercises reinforce the sounds and words being taught.

Spelling in Reading Mastery is based on dictations in which proper pronunciations, an analysis of the sound-sequence of words and sound-symbol (phoneme-grapheme) associations are explicitly taught and practiced. Daily dictation during workbook activities serves a dual purpose. It indicates a level of skill mastery to the teacher for further support or differentiation and provides continued practice of the visual-auditory-kinesthetic connection that is necessary to master reading.

Morphemes: Students need to be taught how to use word parts or morphemes to learn the meaning of new words. In Reading Mastery, students develop word awareness through the use of word-learning strategies, vocabulary journaling, and practice activities. Such activities are engaging, encourage deep processing, and connect word meaning to prior knowledge. Students are taught word part awareness using such word learning strategies as morphology, synonyms, antonyms, idioms, root words, multiple meanings, as well as dictionary and thesaurus use. Specific instruction in word morphology is an integral part of the Word Attack and Spelling exercises. See the example below:

EXERCISE 2

Affix Introduction

a. (Write on the board.)

1. re + build =
2. re + hire =
3. re + tell =

- In these words, the prefix re means: again.

b. What does re mean? (Signal.) Again.

Semantics: Reading Mastery uses a variety of strategies to teach vocabulary. Words that are not easily explained or understood are introduced through examples. When an easier, equivalent word exists within a student’s vocabulary, words can be taught using synonyms (e.g., ancient: old). Definitions are used to teach more complex words that require a lengthy explanation of the word (e.g., intervene: to come between two things). The teacher script provides definitions and explanations of words that students may not know before the words appear in a reading selection. To ensure that students understand the meaning that will be used in the story, Reading Mastery frequently illustrates the meaning in sentence context.

Word 1

1. Word 1 is vanish.
  - What does vanish mean? (Idea: Disappear.)
2. Everybody, what's another way of saying The mysterious stranger disappeared? (Signal.) The mysterious stranger vanished.

Word 2

1. Word 2 is original.
  - What is an original? (Idea: Something that is not a copy of anything else.)

Syntax: Reading Mastery includes instruction in syntax during the writing activities of Language strand. The exercises in the program focus on the concepts and skills important to clear writing and communicating: grammar, sentence construction, mechanics, and critical thinking. The writing exercises first focus on the writing of narrative prose and then later progress to writing of expository prose. As with the other content in Reading Mastery, these exercises follow a concise scope and sequence that gradually introduces each skill while at the same time integrating these skills together. Below are samples from the scope and sequence of tracks from the Language Strand.

Subject/Predicate	Writing and revising stories
Verbs-Verb Agreement	Sentence combinations
Nouns/Pronouns	Compound sentences
Adjectives	Run-on sentences
Punctuation	Prepositional phrases
Consolidation	Author's perspective
	Writing reports
	Giving speeches

Aligned to individual student need – should address the skill deficit(s) identified through targeted assessments.

Every activity in every lesson is taught to mastery. Teaching to mastery ensures that students will be ready to move forward in the strand without the lessons becoming too difficult. Mastery communicates that what is learned today is important because it will be needed in later lessons. The program defines mastery as 100 percent performance accuracy by every student, every day, on every activity. Because the program is designed to gradually and cumulatively become more complex, most of each lesson is composed of review and generalization work; each lesson has a mixture of review and new material. Thus, if mastery has been achieved on previous lessons, students should easily attain mastery on new lessons. The expectation is that students begin each new activity ready to achieve at least 80 percent accuracy on their first try, with 100 percent accuracy after error corrections and scaffolding have occurred. Students demonstrate mastery during individual turns. Procedures are provided for providing error correction and remedies for students not achieving mastery.

Assessments serve to assess mastery of the skills presented in the program. These assessments are a powerful tool for both monitoring student progress and evaluating teacher presentation of lesson content. Student performance on the assessments allows for evaluation of learning, indicating if lesson pacing is appropriate, and helping determine when reteaching is necessary.

Reading Mastery is designed so that each student's reading skills are constantly evaluated. Decoding skills, for example, are periodically measured through rate-and-accuracy fluency checkouts. Comprehension, writing, and study skills are measured through the daily independent work. Because the independent work is directly related to other program material, it serves as a continuous test of each student's skill mastery. Criterion-referenced in-program mastery tests are scheduled intermittently at each level.

Evidence-based: The vendor has included research-based evidence that this intervention is effective for students with characteristics of dyslexia or dyslexia.

The participants of the studies noted in the research section include students with characteristics of dyslexia or dyslexia, in some cases identified as a reading disability.

Reading Mastery is an evidence-based reading intervention program that incorporate explicit, systematic, and sequential approaches to teaching phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, and incorporate decodable or phonetic text instructional strategies. The program is consistent with scientifically based reading research and with what is known about the treatment of dyslexia at this time. It contains the provision of systematic, explicit instruction in phonemic awareness and phonics, and in turn teaching students how to apply this knowledge to reading and writing.

With Open Court, students begin at lesson 1 and work through the lessons. I believe the scope and sequence is in the back of the Teacher edition With the lesson progression.

With the intervention, Early Interventions in Reading, students are given a placement test for small group and they enter at different lessons 1, 21, 41, 61, and 81 for level one. Level two has entry points of 1, 21 and 41. Both of these levels have 120 lessons.

Let me know if you aren't seeing what you need. We will be happy to get it for you.

One question she asked was, "Is there a placement test to develop small groups based on need or do all students start with the 1st lesson and move through the program?"

There is diagnostic assessment and a benchmark (pre/mid/post) test to help with small group decisions.

Weekly lesson assessment and unit assessment to give on going data monitoring opportunities

There is a built in differentiated instruction guide to inform with approaching, on and above level to further support meeting all student needs (there is one in the teacher guide and ADDITIONAL differentiation within the digital online platform)

FSK is not considered an intervention program so yes, every student begins in lesson one

*There is an Intervention Guide designed for more Tier 2 support

*There is an ELL guide

Hope this helps

With Open Court, students begin at lesson 1 and work through the lessons. I believe the scope and sequence is in the back of the Teacher edition With the lesson progression.

With the intervention, Early Interventions in Reading, students are given a placement test for small group and they enter at different lessons 1, 21, 41, 61, and 81 for level one. Level two has entry points of 1, 21 and 41. Both of these levels have 120 lessons.

Let me know if you aren't seeing what you need. We will be happy to get it for you.

Good morning,

Thank you for the materials and information yesterday. I've shared this with another member of my team, Beth Lees.

One question she asked was, "Is there a placement test to develop small groups based on need or do all students start with the 1st lesson and move through the program?"

Good afternoon Christi,

This is a great question. When school districts stop sending this years data and start preparing for the next school year, there is something that your teachers will need to do to prepare. Even though your classes might have new names for the next school year, we will never delete a class from your teachers. This means that this years classes will stay even though they are removed from your files. It will be on the teachers to delete these classes once they have pulled any necessary reports and grades from them that they need. Once the class is deleted, all data is non-recoverable. That is why McGraw-Hill will never remove it for them. Then once their new classes are loaded, there will not be any confusion on which class they need to work from.

There is a link currently on the connectED homepage that shows teachers how to remove classes that they no longer need. But if you need additional assistance, please let me know. Other than that, all you need to do is stop sending this years data and update to next years when your SIS rollover happens.

Thank you,

Amanda

Hey Ty!

Okay, I've looked around our MHE Access page and I don't see the auto rostering link. Do you know where she might be talking about? LOL

Christi,

Yes there is also a link on the Access Manager page. If you click on the auto rostering link, it has quite a bit of information and a PDF to help teachers with what they should do.

Thank you,

Amanda

Good afternoon Christi,

This is a great question. When school districts stop sending this years data and start preparing for the next school year, there is something that your teachers will need to do to prepare. Even though your classes might have new names for the next school year, we will never delete a class from your teachers. This means that this years classes will stay even though they are removed from your files. It will be on the teachers to delete these classes once they have pulled any necessary reports and grades from them that they need. Once the class is deleted, all data is non-recoverable. That is why McGraw-Hill will never remove it for them. Then once their new classes are loaded, there will not be any confusion on which class they need to work from.

There is a link currently on the connectED homepage that shows teachers how to remove classes that they no longer need. But if you need additional assistance, please let me know. Other than that, all you need to do is stop sending this years data and update to next years when your SIS rollover happens.

Thank you,

Amanda

Good Morning Ladies,

As we are ending the 2018/19 School year, I was hoping to get some information about rostering for the upcoming School Year.

Will there be an end of year process? Do we need to purge data/Archive data?

Any guidance would greatly be appreciated.

Good morning,

Thank you for the materials and information yesterday. I've shared this with another member of my team, Beth Lees.

One question she asked was, "Is there a placement test to develop small groups based on need or do all students start with the 1st lesson and move through the program?"

Hi Patti, it was nice seeing you again today. Please see the attachment that we have for Reading Mastery and Corrective Reading. As we move through this process, I can send you lots of research and efficacy studies for Open Court or Direct Instruction materials . Please feel free to reach out anytime in regards to the interventions and Supplemental products we Discussed today!

Ty,

I have blocked off Tuesday, May 14th from 1:00-2:00 Central Time to have a conversation with Debra regarding your intervention offerings. I'll be interested in hearing about

- an assess, instruct model of instruction
- multisensory approaches
- identification of systematic instruction designed to meet the needs of students with dyslexia characteristics
- a clear definition of "foundational skills"
- any research or evidence of success

Thank you for setting this up.

Patti,

Thanks for meeting with me yesterday. Great meeting with very good information. I have secured Debra Guyler for next Tuesday May 14th and May 22nd at 1:00 pm. Would 11:00 am May 14th work for you to meet again for a more in-depth discussion about our intervention products? If that time doesn't work, just let me know what does and we will work around your schedule.

Thanks

Hi Patti,

I wanted to touch base with you to see if we are able to present Wednesday the 22nd to your Dyslexia Team? We have a specialist available to be able to dive deeper in instruction for questions they may have. Please let me know today so we can make plans.

Thanks

Good morning,

Thank you for the materials and information yesterday. I've shared this with another member of my team, Beth Lees.

One question she asked was, "Is there a placement test to develop small groups based on need or do all students start with the 1st lesson and move through the program?"

Ty,

I have blocked off Tuesday, May 14th from 1:00-2:00 Central Time to have a conversation with Debra regarding your intervention offerings. I'll be interested in hearing about

- an assess, instruct model of instruction
- multisensory approaches
- identification of systematic instruction designed to meet the needs of students with dyslexia characteristics
- a clear definition of "foundational skills"
- any research or evidence of success

Thank you for setting this up.

Patti,

Thanks for meeting with me yesterday. Great meeting with very good information. I have secured Debra Guyler for next Tuesday May 14th and May 22nd at 1:00 pm. Would 11:00 am May 14th work for you to meet again for a more in-depth discussion about our intervention products? If that time doesn't work, just let me know what does and we will work around your schedule.

Thanks

Ty,

Good Morning,

I have had some request from middle and high teachers wanting another training on the on-line components for the text.

First, is this even doable?

Second, I am willing to pay the trainer, if we generate enough interest to warrant the training

Third, If the training is possible, I would probably want it sometime in late July.

I know I'm asking a lot here, let me know and if its not possible I am perfectly OK with that as well.

THANKS

First, is this even doable?

Second, I am willing to pay the trainer, if we generate enough interest to warrant the training

Third, If the training is possible, I would probably want it sometime in late July.

I know I'm asking a lot here, let me know and if its not possible I am perfectly OK with that as well.

THANKS

Clark

Clark,

I would love to provide a trainer for you. Most in service dates are already booked from the 3rd week of July to the 3rd week of August. If you are flexible on dates, I may be able to help. Send me several dates that might work for you. Also, I need at least 10 teachers to attend to be able to send in a trainer for free.

Thanks

I think we can get by with about 2 hours for each training as long as we spend that time on specific needs and not just an overview. If I could get about 10 in each group, that would be great.

We could do 8:30 to 10:30 and Noon to 2:00.... Or even set them both in the morning times and the trainer could fly out or drive out by the afternoon.

I think we can get by with about 2 hours for each training as long as we spend that time on specific needs and not just an overview. If I could get about 10 in each group, that would be great.

Ty,

I am working on the number of participants to see if the overall interest is out there.

Dates to throw your way: July 23 or 24-----July 29 or 31-----August 19-23

I just picked some days at random, since I'm not sure what your trainers calendar may look like

Clark,

I would love to provide a trainer for you. Most in service dates are already booked from the 3rd week of July to the 3rd week of August. If you are flexible on dates, I may be able to help. Send me several dates that might work for you. Also, I need at least 10 teachers to attend to be able to send in a trainer for free.

Thanks

Ty,

Good Morning,

I have had some request from middle and high teachers wanting another training on the on-line components for the text.

First, is this even doable?

Second, I am willing to pay the trainer, if we generate enough interest to warrant the training

Third, If the training is possible, I would probably want it sometime in late July.

I know I'm asking a lot here, let me know and if its not possible I am perfectly OK with that as well.

THANKS

Mike-

Thank you SO much for sharing your time & expertise with my team during our Summer Professional Learning Conference.

I will give you a call next week to chat in more detail but I wanted to share the big picture goals & focus of our time together over email as well. Nothing you need to do to prepare at all- just show up and be Mike Thorpe!!

My teams across the Great Lakes region of the country have been doing a lot of professional learning work this year around relationship building, high-value questioning and effective meeting management strategies so I thought it would be a fun way to end our 1st day of the Summer Learning Conference with a live call with a district leader to practice what they have been learning. This phone call (or video chat) will be a mock '1st meeting' where a partnership manager from my team will be tasked with listening, learning & beginning to build the relationship with you and Santa Rosa Schools. I would love for you to treat this like any other 1st meeting you would have with a company you've never met before- the more authentic it is, the better. After about 15-20 of the conversation, I would love for us to spend about 15 minutes debriefing and reflecting with you and your observations from the 'meeting'.

Let me know if you'd like for me to call into your office line or your cell phone for this discussion. If you want to video chat, just let me know and I'm happy to have everything set up on our end prior to the call!

Thanks again for doing this- they are going to love meeting you and learning from you!

Just verifying that we are still just going to have one combined middle school and high school social studies training from 8:30-11:30 at the Dillion Administrative Center?

Are there any specific topics you want us to cover?

Thanks

Ty,

Good Morning, Thanks for setting up the textbook refresher for our teachers. Scott does an AMAZING job!!!

I had 18 teachers signed up, but I only had 13 show, I know at one time you mentioned a fee may be incurred based on teacher numbers.

Please let me know how you would like to handle this. I wanted you to be aware, because I do not want to take advantage of this, so lets talk money.

Thanks,

Dear Kathy Adams,

Please accept my apology you received an incorrect spreadsheet. We typically do not supply shipping labels. Is there a particular reason we should in this case?

Please find attached a spreadsheet showing you the last date you are able to return your material and quantities. Items must be as they were received..

Instructions for your return:

- * Attached spreadsheet in at least one carton being returned completing last three columns.
- * Make your return via a traceable method such as UPS or FedEx.
- * Send your return to:

McGraw-Hill Education

This spreadsheet is not for Woodlawn. It has different school names and case #. Our case# is 15244675. Also, will you be sending us shipping labels?

Hey there!

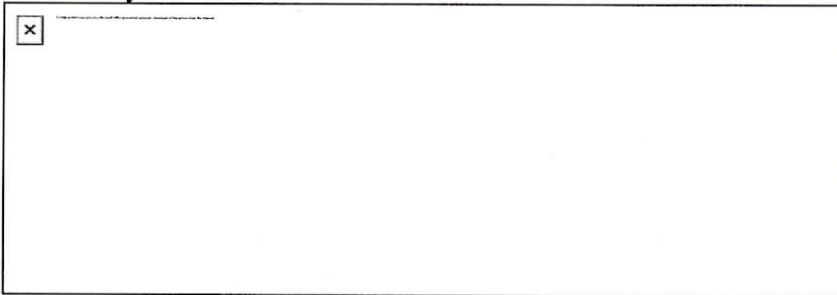

I just went to book a room and it says the block already sold out. Is there a way to extend the number of hotel rooms in that block?

Find Available Rooms

Sorry, there are no rooms remaining in the group block for a particular night. Please contact the Hotel directly for assistance.

Hey there!

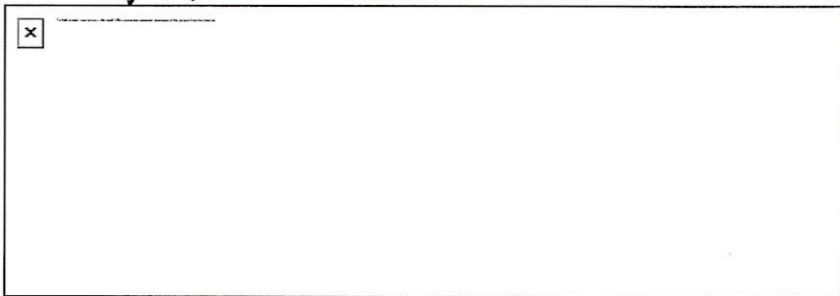

I just went to book a room and it says the block already sold out. Is there a way to extend the number of hotel rooms in that block?

Find Available Rooms

Sorry, there are no rooms remaining in the group block for a particular night. Please contact the Hotel directly for assistance.

 Select new dates

Thank you,

Hello FASS Members and Partners!

Are you ready for the school year? Well, it's right around the corner and so is the fall FASS conference. Below is the link to book your hotel room(s) for the World Golf Village Renaissance in St. Augustine. If the link doesn't work, call their reservations line. I just did this and it was a breeze.

The FASS Call for Presenters is also now open. Please submit your ideas for a session utilizing the link for guidance on how to best meet the needs of our FASS audience. <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/fallFASS2019> (Call for Presenters due by Sept. 1)

The fall FASS Conference theme is...

NAVIGATING OUR SUPPORT FOR THEIR SUCCESS

RESERVE YOUR ROOM(S) NOW! FASS registration will be opening soon in August.

2. Hotel reservation link for FASS and FAST October conferences - St. Augustine (rate is $119/night)

Good afternoon,

The Santa Rosa County School District Literacy Symposium last August was so successful that we're planning second half-day event for Saturday, August 24, 2019. We expect to have approximately 150 attendees gather to hear speakers Dewayne Reed & Noelle Morris. Our focus this year is Back to the Basics with an emphasis on the "why" we teach.

We invite you to support our teachers this year as a breakfast sponsor and/or by providing door prizes, books, and other promotional items for the attendee's "SWAG Bags.". Our venue this year will not accommodate display tables, but you're welcome to attend as a participant. If you'd like to provide brochures, pamphlets or other product information we'd be happy to include those items in the bags.

If your donation is in the form of funding, please make checks payable to Santa Rosa Educational Foundation.

All sponsors are recognized throughout the day, within the program brochure and on the event mobile app.

All items can be sent to:

Santa Rosa County School District Dillon Center
Patti McKnight / Literacy Department
6032 Highway 90
Milton, FL 32570

Cindie Lipe will be coordinating receipt of these items and setting up breakfast sponsors, so if you have any questions you may contact her at lipec@santarosa.k12.fl.us or 850-983-5064. And, of course, I'm always available to you as well. My phone number is below.

We're looking forward to this event and thank you so much for your support!

Regenia,

Surplus will be coming by to pick up those materials sometime during the second week of school. If you'll have them waiting in your custodial receiving area, they'll get them picked up for you soon.

Regenia,

Surplus will be coming by to pick up those materials sometime during the second week of school. If you'll have them waiting in your custodial receiving area, they'll get them picked up for you soon.

Thanks so much for the question!

Hey, Jeff

Will you please check on something for me?

I was told that McGraw Hill will allow the Reading Essentials workbook to be ordered instead of the Physical Science Notebook for the remainder (years 2-5) of the adoption. From what I understand we can get this as a FREE item.

The ISBN # of what we would like to order is 978-0-07-896315-5

Would you please check on this?

Thanks!!!!

Yes. This would be a switch. You would be giving up the book you normally order for free and replacing it with this one. If you plan on ordering the workbook that normally comes with this program, then you would need to purchase the Reading Essentials 856234. You would not need permission to buy that book.

This is the free workbook that normally goes with the program:

FLORIDA SCIENCE NOTEBOOK ..... 85-623-3 12.60
(Free 1 per Complete 5-Year Student
Bundle purchased, for 5 years
Reorder years 2-5)

Below is the free workbook that Ty approved IF you decide to switch from 856233:

McGRAW-HILL EDUCATION
PHYSICAL SCIENCE,
2019/1ST FLORIDA EDITION

READING ESSENTIALS STUDENT EDITION ..... 85-623-4 15.00

FSBD Code	Title	Price	Expiration Date	Publisher
856234	READ ESNTL PHYSICAL SCIENCE PHYSICAL SCIENCE 9-12 ISBN: 007896315X ISBN13: 9780078963155	$15.00	2023	MCGRAW-HILL EDUCATION

You have already received 110 free of 856233 this year, so this would be a switch that you would start in 2020 unless you intend to return them and reorder 856234. We are not authorized to give you both titles for free. It is a choice. Please let me know what you decide.

Katie, it simply would not be a school start if we didn't hear from you. In your travels you may find a better school system. However, you will not find one that considers you family. Enjoy your travels and your new found work... and remember us here in SRC. We will always remember you.

Tim, Karen, Mike & Bill-

I wanted to send a quick note to wish you all a smooth & great back to school!!!! With your leadership & your amazing principals & staff, I know it will a huge success.

No matter the company I work for, the job I have or the city I live in, Santa Rosa County will always be one my favorite school district in the US. I would go as far as to say the world, but I'm going to Europe next week and am not sure what kind of schools I will see so I will confirm your global standing in my heart once I return (JK!!!)

Hope everyone is doing well and can't wait to see you all again soon. My trip down to Santa Rosa is long overdue!!

Good Afternoon,

I have a question about a co-teacher not being able to see the roster's in McGraw.

Michelle Speas is a co-teacher with Rebekah Nolan.

She is showing access to the textbooks, but nothing on the roster site.

Can you advise what needs to be done for her to see the students?

Dear Christi,

This is Ralph with McGraw Hill Education Integration Support. I am sorry for any inconvenience. However, class sharing through the OneRoster files is not supported for ConnectEd Products. Rebekah Nolan can share a Florida Social Studies class with Michelle Speas in ConnectED by following the steps below:

- Select a Teacher Addition.
- Select Menu from the top left.
- Select Class Management from the left-sidebar.
- Select a class from the pull-down menu on the top right.
- Select Share Class from the top right.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Kind Regards,

Ralph S

Good Afternoon,

I have a question about a co-teacher not being able to see the roster's in McGraw.

Michelle Speas is a co-teacher with Rebekah Nolan.

She is showing access to the textbooks, but nothing on the roster site.

Can you advise what needs to be done for her to see the students?

The Literacy Symposium this past Saturday was, once again, a rousing success! More than 70 teachers attended from across Santa Rosa County to be inspired, motivated and affirmed. And, of course, the SWAG bags and door prizes were a big draw 😊 The feedback has been very positive, and we were excited to host the Symposium once again.

Thank you so much for your support and generous contribution to this event. We appreciate you and couldn't have done it without you!

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support. This is a courtesy follow up to your previous support request, case #15468682.

Good Evening Christina,

I am not seeing Ryan Tyler being populated in our system. Could you provide me with their email address. I can not find this teacher in Access Manager or in our Data Browser. This could be an issue that you may need to talk with ClassLink on as well since if they are being put into your SIS and your File it could be that ClassLink is not sending us the information or that something is getting lost in transit.

If responding to this issue, please use the "Reply" button to ensure prompt processing of your question. If you prefer to call our team, please refer to case number 15468682.

Good Morning Christina,

When I go to look up the teacher I am not finding them at all in the system. AND when I look at your file that is sent to us nightly they are not showing up on the list of teachers. You may need to make sure that the teacher is in the file before syncing/uploading to us. Once the teachers information is added then they will be able to get logged into their accounts.

Good Afternoon,

I have a question about a co-teacher not being able to see the roster's in McGraw.

Michelle Speas is a co-teacher with Rebekah Nolan.

She is showing access to the textbooks, but nothing on the roster site.

Can you advise what needs to be done for her to see the students?

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

good Afternoon Christina,

So I found out that the issue was you haven;t ran a file to us since the 21st. Once I ran the file, and pushed it through the teacher started to show up in our systems, and they should be able to access their content now.

If responding to this issue, please use the "Reply" button to ensure prompt processing of your question. If you need to call our team, please refer to case number 15468682.

Please submit new issues to McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support via email at IntegrationSupport@mheducation.com.

Good Morning Anthony,

The Email address of the teacher is TylerR@santarosa.k12.fl.us His Source ID is 489510160. He is in One Roster and being sent to McGraw Hill as well. He still isn't populating into the Access Manager this Morning.

I've included Classlink Help Desk in this email to hopefully resolve this problem quickly.

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support. This is a courtesy follow up to your previous support request, case #15468682.

Good Evening Christina,

I am not seeing Ryan tyler being populated in our system. Could you provide me with their email address. I can not find this teacher in access manager or in our Data Browser. This could be an issue that you may need to talk with class link on as well since if they are being put into your SIS and your File it could be that Classlink is not sending us the information or that something is getting lost in transit.

If responding to this issue, please use the "Reply" button to ensure prompt processing of your question. If you prefer to call our team, please refer to case number 15468682.

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

good Afternoon Christina,

So I found out that the issue was you haven;t ran a file to us since the 21st. Once I ran the file, and pushed it through the teacher started to show up in our systems, and they should be able to access their content now.

If responding to this issue, please use the "Reply" button to ensure prompt processing of your question. If you need to call our team, please refer to case number 15468682.

Please submit new issues to McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support via email at IntegrationSupport@mheducation.com.

Good Morning Anthony,

The Email address of the teacher is TylerR@santarosa.k12.fl.us His Source ID is 489510160.
He is in One Roster and being sent to McGraw Hill as well. He still isn't populating into the Access Manager this Morning.

I've included Classlink Help Desk in this email to hopefully resolve this problem quickly.

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

good Morning Christina,

When I go into access manager I am not seeing any products assigned to those two teachers this is why they are not seeing any products in there account. If you would Like I can go in and add it for you I will just need to know what content the teachers are needing for their accounts, Or you cna go in and click on Assign and then assign the contnet to those teachers courses so that way they are receiving content. Please let me know which you would like to do. Thank you.

When I go to look up the teacher I am not finding them at all in the system. AND when I look at your file that is sent to us nightly they are not showing up on the list of teachers. You may need to make sure that the teacher is in the file before syncing/uploading to us. Once the teachers information is added then they will be able to get logged into their accounts.

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

Okay what is the content for the US history and Car plan, I am seeing a list of history products you have. So I am not sure what content to look at to assign to that class/course

Greetings Partners in Science,

I am reaching out to share a Teacher Professional Development opportunity sponsored by NOAA, Exploring the Deep Ocean with NOAA. This learning opportunity is facilitated by the USF College of Marine Science on Saturday, October 12, 2019 from 8AM-3:30PM.

Participants will receive ocean lessons, breakfast, lunch and a $75 stipend for completion of the one-day event.

Please share this opportunity with teachers in your district for a fun day of exploration and learning with the Okeanos and Ocean Exploration team!

Should you have any questions do not hesitate to send an email, greely@usf.edu or call 727-674-8027.

All the best in the school year,

Teresa Greely

Professional Development for Educators of Grades 6-12

Ocean Exploration and Research

Exploring the Deep Ocean with NOAA

All life on Earth relies on the ocean— yet, the ocean is largely unexplored, unknown and unseen by human eyes...

WHEN AND WHERE:

Saturday, October 12, 2019

8:00 am - 4:00 pm

In partnership with the University of South Florida,
College of Marine Science and hosted by
Clam Bayou Marine Education Center
St. Petersburg, Florida

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

September 27, 2019

For more information and to register go to:

<http://bit.ly/2MlqIQr>

E-mail the form to Teresa Greely at greely@usf.edu

Lessons are designed for grades 6-12 but many activities can be scaled to suit educator needs.

If you have previously participated in a Why Do We Explore? or How Do We Explore? professional development workshop, this offering will be repetitive.

An essential component of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's (NOAA's) Office of Ocean
Exploration and Research (OER) mission is to enhance ocean science literacy and enhance understanding of why it is important to explore our little-known ocean world. To help fulfill this mission, the NOAA Ship Okeanos Explorer Education Materials Collection was developed to encourage educators and their students to become engaged with expeditions and discoveries made by the NOAA Ship Okeanos Explorer—America's first Federal ship dedicated to ocean exploration.

Educators are invited to join NOAA OER staff to learn more about the importance of ocean exploration, current exploration technologies, and recent deep-sea discoveries. This full day professional development workshop will introduce standards-based, hands-on activities and other resources that guide classroom teaching and learning. Ocean health, unique underwater habitats, underwater mapping, and remotely-operated vehicles are just a few of the topics to be addressed.

Registration is required and space is limited. Educators will receive NOAA Ship Okeanos Explorer education materials, additional resources, a NOAA Ocean
Exploration Certificate of Participation, continental breakfast, lunch, admission to the aquarium, parking and a $75 stipend.

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

good Morning Christina,

When I go into access manager I am not seeing any products assigned to those two teachers this is why they are not seeing any products in there account. If you would Like I can go in and add it for you I will just need to know what content the teachers are needing for their accounts, Or you cna go in and click on Assign and then assign the contnet to those teachers courses so that way they are receiving content. Please let me know which you would like to do. Thank you.

Thanks,

I've set up the Nightly sync on the Access Manger.

We are still having teachers not being rostered correctly which are in our nightly sync. They are showing no Product assigned.

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

When I go into your Access manager your Auto sync is turned to off, I can go in and turn this back on for you, but I will need to know what time you are wanting that Auto sync to run. Once I have that I can set that up for you.

Good Morning Anthony,

The Email address of the teacher is TylerR@santarosa.k12.fl.us His Source ID is 489510160.
He is in One Roster and being sent to McGraw Hill as well. He still isn't populating into the Access Manager this Morning.

I've included Classlink Help Desk in this email to hopefully resolve this problem quickly.

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support. This is a courtesy follow up to your previous support request, case #15468682.

Good Evening Christina,

I am not seeing Ryan Tyler being populated in our system. Could you provide me with their email address. I can not find this teacher in Access Manager or in our Data Browser. This could be an issue that you may need to talk with ClassLink on as well since if they are being put into your SIS and your File it could be that ClassLink is not sending us the information or that something is getting lost in transit.

It looks like it takes two days for the product to be associated with the teacher. The two teachers now have product assigned to them.

I noticed this question hasn't been answered yet, We've been told not to assign product manually to the classes. Has this changed?

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

good Morning Christina,

When I go into access manager I am not seeing any products assigned to those two teachers this is why they are not seeing any products in there account. If you would Like I can go in and add it for you I will just need to know what content the teachers are needing for their accounts, Or you cna go in and click on Assign and then assign the contnet to those teachers courses so that way they are receiving content. Please let me know which you would like to do. Thank you.

If responding to this issue, please use the "Reply" button to ensure prompt processing of your question. If you prefer to call our team, please refer to case number 15468682.

Thanks,

I've set up the Nightly sync on the Access Manger.

We are still having teachers not being rostered correctly which are in our nightly sync. They are showing no Product assigned.

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

When I go into your Access manager your Auto sync is turned to off, I can go in and turn this back on for you, but I will need to know what time you are wanting that Auto sync to run. Once I have that I can set that up for you.

That's odd,
We are on a nightly sync with One Roster. Has this issue been resolved so it won't happen again?

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

good Afternoon Christina,

So I found out that the issue was you haven;t ran a file to us since the 21st. Once I ran the file, and pushed it through the teacher started to show up in our systems, and they should be able to access their content now.

Good Morning Anthony,

The Email address of the teacher is TylerR@santarosa.k12.fl.us His Source ID is 489510160.
He is in One Roster and being sent to McGraw Hill as well. He still isn't populating into the Access Manager this Morning.

I've included Classlink Help Desk in this email to hopefully resolve this problem quickly.

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support. This is a courtesy follow up to your previous support request, case #15468682.

Good Evening Christina,

I am not seeing Ryan Tyler being populated in our system. Could you provide me with their email address. I can not find this teacher in access manager or in our Data Browser. This could be an issue that you may need to talk with class link on as well since if they are being put into your SIS and your File it could be that Classlink is not sending us the information or that something is getting lost in transit.

If responding to this issue, please use the "Reply" button to ensure prompt processing of your question. If you prefer to call our team, please refer to case number 15468682.

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

Good Morning Christina,

When I go to look up the teacher I am not finding them at all in the system. AND when I look at your file that is sent to us nightly they are not showing up on the list of teachers. You may need to make sure that the teacher is in the file before syncing/uploading to us. Once the teachers information is added then they will be able to get logged into their accounts.

Good Afternoon,

I have a question about a co-teacher not being able to see the roster's in McGraw.

Michelle Speas is a co-teacher with Rebekah Nolan.

She is showing access to the textbooks, but nothing on the roster site.

Can you advise what needs to be done for her to see the students?

Good Afternoon,

I work in the Santa Rosa County math & science department. I had a teacher ask me about the online platform giving her an option to enter a master code. She is wondering if it will "unlock" additional resources if she is given the code. I am not aware of any codes and have not seen this feature on my end so I wanted to check with you before responding. Do you know what she may be referencing?

Good Afternoon,

I work in the Santa Rosa County math & science department. I had a teacher ask me about the online platform giving her an option to enter a master code. She is wondering if it will "unlock" additional resources if she is given the code. I am not aware of any codes and have not seen this feature on my end so I wanted to check with you before responding. Do you know what she may be referencing?

Thank you!

Anthony,
Sorry for the delay, I've been out of the office the last few days.

Yes it makes sense.

Dear Christina Cole,

Thank you for contacting McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support.

Good Afternoon Christi

I am reaching out with a follow up from the last couple emails to see if you are needing further assistance.

Good Morning Christi,

I am reaching out to you to see if the answer I gave you made sense, if that is a student you are looking at. It will show two of the same class because one is for the teacher edition, and the student will not have access to the teacher edition. Unless they are supposed to have a secondary product for the same class if they are you will need to click on assign and then select the product that is supposed to be tied to that class.

If responding to this issue, please use the "Reply" button to ensure prompt processing of your question. If you need to call our team, please refer to case number 15468682.

Please submit new issues to McGraw-Hill Education Integration Support via email at IntegrationSupport@mheducation.com.

Kind Regards,

Subject: Fall FASS Registration needed ASAP - Payment is a separate step

Hello FASS Members!

It will be October before you know it and we need to get your registration of attendance ASAP to have accurate numbers for meals and materials for sessions. This is a reminder that the registration of your attendance is a separate step from actually paying for your attendance. Below I have a screenshot of the FASS Website and the two locations you need to visit.

1) PLEASE register your attendance now.

2) You can pay for this later, but do not forget. The PayPal link is working now if you had difficulties in the past. You do not need a PayPal account to pay.

ALSO, We would like as many fellow Science Supervisors providing sessions. Consider what you could share with us for 30 minutes....

Use this link to submit a Presenter Proposal (deadline is Sept. 20). <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/fallFASS2019>

If you still need to book your hotel room, call the hotel directly and say you are with the FAST group

Subject: FAST Conference... spread the word

FASS Members, could you forward this to your teachers on behalf of our partners in FAST? They can us the assistance getting the word out on the travel grants and hotel reservation directions.

The 2019 FAST conference, to be held in St. Augustine is less than 6 weeks away! But there are deadlines approaching. FAST is awarding 10 classroom grants and 8 travel grants. Access our website, <http://www.fastscience.org> for more information. The deadline for applications is September 23.

We have reached our room allotment at the hotel, however, they are adding additional rooms for us. Please make a reservation if you have not already done so. The room discounts end October 3rd or when all rooms are reserved. There is no resort fee and free parking. Early bird registration ends October 11. After October 11, attendees must register onsite for an additional fee.

Although all 100 concurrent sessions are free (included in registration), attendees must pre-register for the Thursday workshops ($5.00 fee for commitment) and the Meet and Greet (free). This year FAST is offering a buffet luncheon with a guest speaker on Friday for only $15.00. There are also several field trips on Thursday that require preregistration and a fee.

If you need a "schedule at a glance" for your administrators, access our website. Don't forget that the FAST conference is the best professional development available to teachers for the fee. Sessions are conducted by qualified teachers showcasing their best practices. The Dept. of Education as well as STEM directors and vendors also conduct sessions for all levels of education.

Subject: (EXT) Florida Literacy Association Conference!

CAUTION!!! This Message originated OUTSIDE the district. CAUTION!!!

Greetings,

Thanks so much to each of you for your role in promoting and enhancing literacy education across Florida and beyond! Here's hoping that your fall is going well and that you are settled into the school year.

The Florida Literacy Association is looking forward to hosting the 2019 FLORIDA LITERACY CONFERENCE at the Florida Hotel and Conference Center in Orlando, Florida on Saturday, November 2 and Sunday, November 3! As this year's FLA President, I am excited to invite you to attend.

The theme of this year's conference is Literacy: Choose your Own Adventure! You'll have the opportunity to hear from Florida educators, be inspired by our keynotes, and enjoy the chance to network with one another. I would also like to personally invite you to attend the President's Reception on Friday afternoon – I look forward to seeing you there!

Details on the conference may be found at: <https://flareads.org/conference/> and conference registration is at: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/florida-literacy-association-annual-conference-tickets-61596412528>. Discounted "early bird" registration is scheduled to end on October 1.

There is nothing more convenient than staying at the conference hotel! We have a block of rooms at the Florida Hotel with a special conference rate, so we hope you will take advantage of staying onsite. Conference hotel rooms may be reserved here.

We also hope you will considering attending one of our pre-conference institutes on Friday, November 1. You may choose from five different topics and the time allowed will provide the opportunity to delve in deeply with your colleagues for great discussions and learning together. Details may be found at the conference website at the link above.

Please let me know if you have questions or if I can provide additional information. We look forward to sharing an excellent literacy adventure with you this November.

Have a wonderful day and thanks again for all you do!

Hi Sue,

We will be glad to get a quote together for you. Can you tell me the enrollment number? Also, are you wanting the ALEKS from last year where you log in through ALEKS.com to enter or the SSO version. If you want the SSO version, we will need to have a conversation first because there is some differences in the two. I know we are still working through the SSO option this year.

Let me know.

Thanks
