Well, it's really happening!

The Delmar Avenue Library will re-open to the public on Tuesday, July 7, at 11:00 AM. Many thanks to Patrick Carney for his beautiful work creating our barrier shields at each public service desk!

The Johnson Road Library will continue to be curbside only.

and movies in the exterior books drops

All returned materials are being quarantined for a minimum of 72 hours before being wiped with disinfectant and returned through circulation. These items will remain on your record during this time, but will not be subject to overdue fines

Monetary donations are always appreciated however, books or other materials are NOT being accepted at this time

Patrick will also create barrier shields for the Johnson Road Library in preparation for the day when we can again provide inside service to customers.

Because the meeting room is not open to the public at this time (and we're using it to store some items), the July 14th Board meeting will again be via Zoom. The meeting information will be available next week.

The Library is CLOSED Saturday, July 4 - Monday, July 6.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
