To Whom it may Concern,

On May 4, 2021, the Snohomish School District received a letter from you in which the following information was requested:

- All admission, testing, and attendance records.
- All counseling and guidance records
- All medical, psychiatric and psychological records, including all clinical charts, reports, documents, correspondence, protocol and test results, statements, questionnaires/histories, office and doctor's hand written notes, and records receive by other guidance counselors, mental health counselors or professional or physicians.
- All Special Education records.
- All archived records from all facilities and location, including printouts of records on microfiche and other storage media.

District Response: The district does not have any records on file for an [REDACTED] of birth [REDACTED] attending or graduating from the Snohomish School District. Can you ask him if he attended Snohomish High School at any time by another last name? I have filled out the Washington Certification relaying the fact that we have no records. I am returning your check of $15.00,

This will complete the District's response to your records requests.

Regards,
Kim Radek
