Dear Ms. Cramer,

Thank you for expressing your concerns regarding the District's response to the unprecedented situation presented to the Snohomish School District by the COVID-19 pandemic.

The District takes the health and safety of students, staff, and the Snohomish community seriously. The District also has a responsibility to follow all federal, state, and local mandates addressing COVID-19 in our schools. As far as we are aware, none of aforementioned requirements related to COVID-19 precautions in K-12 public schools in Washington State have been struck down as unlawful by any Washington State or federal court. As such, the District will continue to follow all mandatory COVID-19 mitigations measures put in place by federal, state, and local authorities.

In your letter, you also submitted a request for records. Although the District is not subject to the federal Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), we have processed your request under Washington's Public Records Act, chapter 42.56 RCW. In your letter, which was presented to the District at the School Board Meeting on June 9, 2021, you requested the following records:

"Please consider this a FOIA request for your oath of office, Risk Management Company and indemnity bond carrier and policy number for the same for each and every public servant working in the Snohomish School District under your authority as Snohomish School District Superintendent and Secretary to the Board."

In response to this request, I have included the oaths of office for the Superintendent, and our School Board members. These are the only individuals in the District who take oaths of office. Our bond carrier is Clear Risk SIAW. There are no policy numbers listed. The bonds for are for Dr. Kultgen and Mr. Laufmann, they are the only individuals in the District who have any such bonds. With the transmission of these documents, I consider this request to be completed and closed.

If you have further questions, please feel free to contact me.

Regards,
Kim Radek
Snohomish School District
Executive Assistant to the Superintendent
