Panel

Larry Hardy/T&D

The panel for the OCSD 5 Bootstraps Mentoring Program Foundation community assembly are, from left, Acacia Bamberg Salatti, director of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships; Clay N. Middleton, special advisor at the U.S. Department of Energy's Office of Economic Impact and Diversity; and the Rev. Brenda Girton-Mitchell, J.D., director of the Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships at the U.S. Department of Orangeburg Consolidated School District Five is poised to enhance student achievement with the official launch of its ambitious faith-based mentoring program.

Community members from the faith, government and education sectors gathered Friday morning at Roquemore Auditorium on the campus of Orangeburg-Calhoun Technical College to learn more about the district's Bootstraps Mentoring Foundation.

"It is a shared responsibility. ... We have to inspire children to become lifelong learners," said the Rev. Brenda Girton-Mitchell, J.D., director of the Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships at the U.S. Department of Education.

Girton-Mitchell was among a panel of national guests that included Clay N. Middleton, special adviser at the U.S. Department of Energy's Office of Economic Impact and Diversity, and Acacia Bamberg Salatti, director of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships.

Girton-Mitchell said the district's Bootstraps Program demonstrated its uniqueness with its collaborative effort to bring so many members from the faith community together as mentors under the umbrella of an organization with its own volunteer coordinator.

"Keep focused. There is something that all of us can do to inspire each other in the journey," Girton-Mitchell said, particularly since President Barack Obama has set a 2020 goal for the nation to have the highest proportion of college graduates in the world.

"We can't do that without the extra work," she said.

The district plans to put in the extra work through the Bootstraps Mentoring Foundation, a nonprofit organization founded in 2010 by the Rev. Jud Jordan, pastor of First Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Jerome Anderson, pastor of New Mt. Zion Baptist Church; OCSD 5 Trustee the Rev. Nathaniel McMillan and retired coach and principal Dr. Geb Runager.

The Foundation is a partnership between the district and the area's faith-based community to provide mentors for the students in the district. Thirteen churches have already committed to recruit mentors from their congregations. The Foundation sponsors and manages the mentoring program, along with a mentoring-scholarship program.

The Foundation is working through the United Way of the Midlands as it applies to become a 501(c)3 corporation. The organization plans to identify rising sixth-graders and provide a seven-year commitment to include enrichment activities for students and parents, college preparation classes, relationships with a supportive adult and two-year college scholarships after graduating high school.

Mentors, who are known as Volunteers in Public Schools, or VIPs, work with students in grades pre-kindergarten through 12th grade and can serve in the following capacities: lunch buddy, tutor, mentor, mentor of a Bootstraps Scholar, classroom volunteer, school support volunteer, translator or financial donor.

"Hope is not a plan. We need to plan, and we have the training component in place. You're the change you want to see," OCSD 5 Superintendent Cynthia Wilson said.

Retired principal Beverly Stroman serves as the volunteer coordinator for the program, with duties that include providing training for mentors.

"I'm a product of Orangeburg Consolidated Five schools. I had a strong family support system, but we don't want to leave any child out. So we say our goal is to get a mentor for every child. That mentor could be their actual family system," Stroman said.

Orangeburg-Calhoun Technical College President Dr. Walt Tobin and Gregg Robinson, executive director of the Orangeburg County Economic Development Commission, touched on the program's economic impact.

Tobin said statistics from the state indicate that 45 percent of jobs in the state require some kind of post-secondary education, with only 29 percent of the state's citizens having the skills necessary to prepare them for the workforce.

Robinson also outlined statistics, including how the state would have had $13 million in increased annual revenue had just half of the dropouts had graduated.

"The bar has been set too low for too long. ... That's what can be changed from the influences of the community," Robinson said.

Middleton said it is important to engage faith-based organizations and community leaders in mentoring students, particularly in preparing them for success in the Science, Technology, Engineering and Math, or STEM, fields.

"We want to expose them early," Middleton said.

Orangeburg Department of Public Safety Chief Wendell Davis said he was concerned about how the district could secure the program's sustainability.

Salatti said it was critical to do assessments to find out exactly what specific communities need, noting it would help to create sustainability. "You have to be pragmatic about things," she said.

The Rev. Larry McCutcheon, pastor of Trinity United Methodist Church in Orangeburg, said he would also like to see eventual programs targeting parents. The Rev. Henry Murdaugh, pastor of St. Dorcas Baptist Church in North, said he was interested in learning more about the Foundation and how it could impact his community.

"I think the program could possibly have some great outcomes in that it can bring the church and the community together in a way that both ... can benefit from it, especially our children. It's something we need to address the problems and challenges that we have with our children, so I'm open to it," Murdaugh said.

Rev. Brenda Girton-Mitchell and Kenneth Bedell:

Thank you for the opportunity to participate in this initiative for the second year. Interfaith is an amazing movement that we are honored to be a part of here at Tennessee Technological University. We have learned so much along the way and feel that so many aspects of our campus atmosphere is different because of the participation in the inaugural year, 2011/2012.

We are ecstatic to submit to you this 2nd year service plan for interfaith involvement on our campus 2012/2013.

Hi, Camsie -

Am adding a few others here that it's worth you getting to know, in case you haven't met them already. Julie Rodriguez heads up our Latino outreach here at the WH, Heather Foster heads up our AfAm outreach and Charlie Galbraith our tribal outreach. All communities I am sure you are focused on in your work.

Everyone, Camsie is the new senior advisor on STEM issues over at the Department of Education. We were on a panel together last week and she is really, really great and gets the communities of color and STEM piece. We should use her!

Stephanie

Subject: Fwd: FINAL DAYS! Presidents Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge

I enclose a message that I sent on Oct. 2 indicating that the response from UW-Madison will be delayed because of the circumstances surrounding the organization of a major event on a campus as large and decentralized as ours. We are trying to enlist a variety of student groups to participate, and coordinating such an enterprise had to wait for the organization of individual student organizations during the first weeks of the new term. I reiterate our intention to file by Oct. 31. I hope that this response will be acceptable.

Thank you for the reminder. I fear that the response from UW-Madison will be delayed. Because of the dynamics of what we are trying to do and the way in which the fall semester has developed, we have a critical cross-campus meeting planned for Oct. 14. This meeting will determine the major campus project that we will undertake and involves student groups from across campus, which take a while to re-establish themselves each new academic year. We anticipate filing by Oct. 31, 2012. I hope that this delay will be acceptable. Thank you.

Dear friends in the White House Office Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships,

Attached, please find the 2012-2013 plan for Gardner-Webb University's participation in the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. Having participated in the inaugural year of the President's Challenge, our University looks forward to building upon that experience. Thank you for the opportunity to be part of a program that has served communities and institutions of higher education across our nation.

Grace and peace,

Subject: Fwd: FINAL DAYS! Presidents Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge

I enclose a message that I sent on Oct. 2 indicating that the response from UW-Madison will be delayed because of the circumstances surrounding the organization of a major event on a campus as large and decentralized as ours. We are trying to enlist a variety of student groups to participate, and coordinating such an enterprise had to wait for the organization of individual student organizations during the first weeks of the new term. I reiterate our intention to file by Oct. 31. I hope that this response will be acceptable.

Thank you for the reminder. I fear that the response from UW-Madison will be delayed. Because of the dynamics of what we are trying to do and the way in which the fall semester has developed, we have a critical cross-campus meeting planned for Oct. 14. This meeting will determine the major campus project that we will undertake and involves student groups from across campus, which take a while to re-establish themselves each new academic year. We anticipate filing by Oct. 31, 2012. I hope that this delay will be acceptable. Thank you.

Dear Colleague,

October 15 is the deadline for sending in your report on plans for participation in the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. The reports need to be sent to the White House at WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov.

The template to use in preparing that report is attached.

Please contact the Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships Center at the U.S. Department of Education (EdPartners@ED.gov) if you have any questions.

Looking forward to receiving your report.

Dear Colleague,

Reports are coming in. If you already sent your plans to the White House, thank you and disregard this message. To all others, remember the deadline is next Monday, October 15, 2012.

The report on your plans to participate in the President's Interfaith and Community Campus Challenge must be sent to the White House (WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov). Please do not send it to the Department of Education.

For your convenience I have attached a copy of the planning template.

If you have questions, contact us at EdPartners@ED.gov.

Yes we do! The time that we have on Sunday is at 11:30am on Sunday the 14th.

Since tickets need to be picked up ahead of time, I can volunteer to grab all these tickets and pass them out to folks at the door. But they do need to RSVP so we know how many tickets to hold.

We have 20 tickets set aside. Maybe a couple more if you end up needing more. So if you all get any further requests- you can just send them to me. I will personally be giving them out to folks at the gate on Sunday- since that was the only way to do it.

I will send everyone an email with instructions.

Dear Dr. Bedell and Rev. Girton-Mitchell:

On behalf of Dr. Rameen Talesh and the University of California, Irvine, I am submitting our plan for year two of the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. The first year of our Leap of Faith initiative was successful on multiple levels, and we are working to broaden and deepen those positive outcomes over the course of this year.

Thank you for the opportunity to work with you again.

Note: in addition to this year's proposal, I am including our first-year plan and final report from last year for reference purposes.

Dear friends.

Attached is the planning template for the course Southern Vermont College, in collaboration with the Bennington Interfaith Council, wishes to offer this spring. After speaking with April Mendez, I am encouraged about our plan and hope that you will find it to be a suitable program for the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Warmly,

Al

Earlier today, I requested an extension on the planning report deadline of, October 15, 2012. Attached you will find the most current Planning Template, but I was unable to get a hold of anyone in your department to discuss details. If this is sufficient for our school to participate, please let me know. If not, I will continue to work on the document with further details to include information from our community partners and more details on assessment.

Subject: College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University 2012-2013 response to The President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge

Dear Rev. Girton-Mitchell and Colleagues,

Attached please find the 2012-2013 plan for the College of Saint Benedict (CSB) and Saint John's University (SJU) submitted in response to The President's Interfaith and Service Campus Community Challenge. Just as last academic year, the plan is for both schools because they function virtually as one. For example, we have a shared College of Arts and Sciences, and hence one provost for our two schools, one shared curriculum, and one shared website, www.csbsju.edu. Each of the undergraduate academic departments is a CSB/SJU department. So it only makes sense for us to submit our plan as a CSB/SJU plan.

We are grateful for President Obama's challenge, and we are happy to be responding to it for a second year.

Respectfully yours,

John Merkle, Ph.D.
Professor, CSB/SJU Department of Theology
Director, Jay Phillips Center for Interfaith Learning

Good afternoon,

I mistakenly submitted our proposal to edpartner@ed.gov instead of the office of White House Partnerships. I apologize for this mistake, however Westminster College is ready once again to meet the challenge put forth by your office and the White House. Service, Education, and Leadership are hallmarks of our college community and our experiential learning curriculum. Our initiative outlines an academic year built on the previous initiative's success. The Interfaith Advisory Council, founded last year, is an integral part of the work that lies ahead of us. Human Trafficking is not a "headline" issue for our diverse student body. As Winnie Kaaria shared in her presentation this summer, human trafficking is personal for the classmates who generously share their experiences and history. Westminster College looks forward to continuing our work toward a compassionate global community—in Fulton, MO and around the world.

Best regards,

Kat.

To Whom It May Concern -

Attached is the planning document detailing HWS Colleges' plans for the Interfaith/Service Campus Challenge.

Executive Summary:

Through a collaboration between the Office of Religious Life and the Center for Community Engagement & Service-Learning, we aim to engage students who have participated in service-learning opportunities in meaningful discussion about service, leadership, and power of interfaith alliances. The panel, which will occur at Hobart and William Smith Colleges' annual Leadership Institute in January, will highlight the collaborative interfaith efforts that address immediate food insecurity challenges in the Geneva community. The community partner panelists will represent various faith traditions who all share a commitment to serve foodaccess and security issues. The panel will be introduced by Chaplain Lesley Adams and moderated by Community Engagement Director Katie Flowers and will encourage thoughtful reflection and motivate students to participate in the annual MLK Jr. Community March as well to volunteer as part of the annual MLK Jr. Day of Service, which will occur on the Saturday following the Leadership Institute.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns about the attachment.

Dear Colleague,

Reports are coming in. If you already sent your plans to the White House, thank you and disregard this message. To all others, remember the deadline is next Monday, October 15, 2012.

The report on your plans to participate in the President's Interfaith and Community Campus Challenge must be sent to the White House (WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov). Please do not send it to the Department of Education.

For your convenience I have attached a copy of the planning template.

Dear Maab;
Rachel checked edpartners@ed.gov and could not locate the 4 emails with the 185~ or so 2013 proposals you were going to send to us. Here are the two steps we were considering:

- Please email us at edpartners@ed.gov the 4 emails with the 185~ or so 2013 proposals
- Continue to email to edpartners@ed.gov any additional 2013 proposals as you receive them

This way we can quickly upload the 2013 proposals by dividing them up.

Best regards.

Dear Friends:

I have renamed the restricted page on MAX as “President’s Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge 2013 Proposals and 2011-12 Midyear and final Reports” (I may be SLIGHTLY off on the words, but the 2013 Proposals is what’s key.)Please note when uploading:

- The 2011-2012 institutions’ pages are alphabetized. When you upload the 2013 proposal from an institution do two things:
  - Add an asterisk (*) to the page name. for example Whittier college’s page would become *Whittier College, thus indicating there is a 2013 proposal on that page
  - Edit the name of the file you are uploading from whatever the sender called it to “2013 proposal.” This way the file will be readily recognizable.
- If the college was not a 2011-2012 interfaith challenge site, create a page with their name so that you can upload their 2013 proposal to it.

Any questions, feel free to contact me.

Best regards.

Menahem

Subject: RE: Campus Plan for President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge

James:

I will check with the folks at the White House and let you know what I here. Did you receive a confirmation from that your plan was received? If so, then you're good to go.

Thanks,

Rachel

Mr. Puglisi:

I am following up to make sure all has gone smoothly for you in completing your campus plan for the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. When we had last spoken, you had said you planned to send the report on October 18 (Thursday) to the White House. Were you able to send the report on Thursday? If so, that is great! If not, please send it as soon as possible to them at WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov .

Please let me know if there is anything I can do to be of additional help.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends;

I am following up to the voicemail message I left you last week about the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. Your school has signed up for the challenge, but we have not yet received your plans.

Is there anything that you need from us to help you complete that plan and send it off to the White House? If so, please do not hesitate to let us know. Once you have completed your plan, please submit your plan to the White House at WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov by November 9. I have attached another copy of the planning template in case that may be helpful. Please also let us know if your plans have changed and you will not be participating in the challenge.

My apologies if you have already contacted my office back. Our servers went down with Hurricane Sandy and we are recovering the information now. Please let me know that you have received this email so that we can cement a submission date. I look forward to hearing from you.

I've shared an item with you.

Dear Colleagues:

With hearty thanks for extra time to complete a brief description of our 2013 plans I am pleased to send along our next steps for religious literacy and community engagement as we continue with Brown's "B" Literate: Religion project as part of the White House Campus Challenge. Blessings to all as we welcome/ weather the first snow of the season, jcn

 Brown Univer. Interfaith Coop 2013/.doc

Snapshot of the item below:

The President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge
Advancing Interfaith Cooperation and Community Service
In Higher Education

Below is a planning report for academic year 2012-13 of President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. Please return this form to the White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships (WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov) by October 15, 2012.

If you have not yet registered your intention to participate, please complete the participation form (Campus Challenge 2012-13 participation form.pdf) that can be found at <http://www2.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/campus-challenge.html>

Did you participate in 2011-12? yes

If yes, use the following questions to explain how your second year of participation in the President's Challenge will build on your efforts from the first year.

Part I: Institutional Overview

Institution Name:
Brown University
Institution City/State:
Providence, Rhode Island

Institution's President or CEO, Title and email address:

Christina Hull Paxson, President

Janet M. Cooper Nelson, Chaplain of the University/Director, Office of Chaplains & Religious Life

Institution's Challenge Student Lead's Name and email address (optional):

Part II: Executive Summary

Please provide a 150 word executive summary of your plan:

Brown continues our "B" Literate: Religion project including work overseen by the Office of the Chaplains and Religious Life in several discrete settings and populations of the University community. The overall project is a light and loose branding of multiple initiatives to define and to promote religious literacy. These include: a co-curricular initiatives engagin undergraduate students from a variety of RI campuses in a ten week course; and a year-long interfaith service project overseen by Brown undergraduates working with secondary school students; a office driven review review of institutional processes resources; an initiative to create appropriate religious literacy training for professional staff; and an assessment and recreation of data collection for campus religious demography.

Part III: Student Leadership & Partners

List possible partner student organizations that have committed to this program.

Individuals, student leaders of religious communities; as well as members of the Multi-faith Council; and a core team of student interns are primary partners in this work as are several campus offices.

List possible external community partners that will be involved in this program.

Collaboration and sharing of our resources is underway with the Rhode Island State Council of Churches; the Office of the Mayor of Providence; the Newport Historical Association; and Brown RISD Hillel;

Part IV: Advancing Service

Select one or two Kennedy Serve America Act service priorities your campus will focus on through this initiative:

Domestic poverty & educational opportunity

Energy & the environment

Health services & healthy living

Education: Our work is primarily focused here with the goal of educating leaders to reshape the setting and nature of their work

Disaster preparedness

Veterans and military families

Human Trafficking

Other: (Please indicate)

2. Do you plan to participate in any of the following National Service Days?

September 11th National Day of Service and Remembrance, Martin Luther King Day of Service, Others

The segments of our project that directly provide community service are year-long and involved significant 2-4 hours of weekly involvement by participants and are not directed at one day short-term initiatives.

3. Provide a brief overview of programs or strategies you will use to ensure that your service objectives are achieved.

This should include specific projects or activities -- 500 words or less.

Each of our projects has its own leadership structure and is designed and deployed in concert with other campus offices and community agencies. These partnerships and expectations build in regular monitoring and reporting and there are well-established feedback loops for problems that develop.

Part V: Advancing Interfaith Engagement

Check individuals and groups that will be involved in your interfaith engagement:

(X) Campus faith-based organizations

(X) Community faith-based organization

(X) Faculty, staff and students of various faiths

(X) Other institutions of higher education

(X) Other: Office of the Mayor of Providence and Newport Historical Association

2. Check at least one interfaith engagement initiative that your campus will implement in conjunction with the service initiative.

(X) Communications: These initiatives demonstrate the institution's public commitment to interfaith cooperation on campus. Program examples include, but are not limited to, an address by your college or university President on the importance of interfaith cooperation, a web-based communications campaign on the importance of interfaith cooperation, or an interfaith cooperation session incorporated into student orientation programs and materials.

(X) Education: These initiatives cultivate appreciative knowledge about diverse religious and non-religious identities, positively impacting attitudes and knowledge on diverse religious and non-religious identity. Program examples include, but are not limited to, courses available for students to further develop knowledge-base in interfaith cooperation and service, educational panels and lectures delivered for large audiences on campus, and first year seminars incorporating module(s) on interfaith cooperation.

(X) Capacity Building: These initiatives provide students, faculty and staff with a baseline ability to positively engage religious and non-religious diversity within their own spheres of influence. Program examples include, but are not limited to, campus-wide staff training to appropriately engage religious and non-religious identity on campus, faculty professional development opportunities in the area of religious and cultural diversity, or training a core group of students to lead interfaith service events.

3. Provide a brief overview of programs or strategies you will use to ensure that interfaith dialogue and/or interfaith engagement is a component of your service initiatives -- 500 words or less.

This is the core of what we are engaged in doing-- the service initiatives were either existing projects with which we partnered or were designed to include in each weekly session both several hours of service and an 90 minutes of discourse directed at the core texts and teachings that inform such work.

Part VI: Implementation, Evaluation & Sustainability

Provide a timeline for the programs described above –

Our projects are continuing for a second year and have been both elaborated and trimmed in response to their impact last year. In March of 2013 we will begin the process of identifying new leadership for each and or determining the advisability of their continuing beyond this academic year

Describe evaluation method(s) your campus will utilize to indicate that this program will have a sustainable impact. Metrics should include measurement in each of the following impact areas. 500 words or less:

Interfaith Impact: (i.e., knowledge of the positive history of religious diversity in the United States, literacy of diverse religious and philosophical traditions, etc.)

Service Impact: (i.e., pounds of waste recycled, number of students tutored number of meals prepared, etc.). Qualitative impact (i.e., service reflections and journals, etc.)

Campus Transformation: institution-wide shift toward greater interfaith cooperation and interfaith service (i.e. survey gauging the campus climate of religious tolerance, student learning outcomes post-participation in challenge events).

In the past two years we have received broad institutional support and accolade for BLiterate: Religion's efforts at promoting religious literacy. However pleasant such praise is we are struggling both to broaden these efforts while also defining with greater precision what a religious literate person knows and can do that an person illiterate in these matters cannot. Our work to become significantly more clear in these areas is being pursued through work in a variety of populations utilizing varied modules for this education. We hope that a comparative review will be valuable and able to inform both our definitional work and our capacity to demonstrate the applicability of this work to multiple groups, disciplines and professions without regard for religious identity or practice.

Describe what you hope the immediate and future impact of this program will be on your campus community. – 300 words or less.

We hope to move these efforts beyond the realm of short-term projects to make them a more permanent aspect of a Brown education--- more thoroughly curricular and more clearly and easily articulated as a core value of a Brown education.

Hey folks --

I shot Mara a quick note about the meeting next week after our call and it looks like her calendar is clear! Does this date still work for all of you? Could we plan on a 1-4pm meeting on the 15th? She is also circling back with Joshua to see if he would be able to join for part of the meeting.

Let me know and we will take a look at flights on our end...

Thanks folks,
Mary Ellen

Center leadership only on this one:

We are excited to connect with you next week. There are a few specific elements I need your help with and a one item that I'd like you to keep on your schedule:

1. If you need help on the presentations, Ben, Mara and Max are all available to work with you. NOTE: we will have a computer and projector there on site.
2. During lunch, we are going to be giving out awards to each staff member. Please don't share this yet with your staff. These awards are going to be light-hearted and fun, but I need your help in coming up with an award for each staffer. (b)(5)

(b)(5)

3. Please hold the evening of Wednesday, December 12 on your calendars. Instead of December's Directors meeting, I am working on hosting a gathering of Center Leadership (Directors and Deputy Directors) where we will discuss next steps over a meal (which I may or may not prepare myself, based on objections that I may receive). I know that December is a busy month for everyone, but it would be great to have all the center directors together.
4. Finally, please let us know who among your staff needs a ride, who can offer a ride to others, and how many spots they have in their car. This will go a long way as we coordinate around logistics.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone together on Monday, but please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions before then.

Thanks,
Joshua

Subject: Staff gathering!

Importance: High

Hi everyone,

Thank you so much for all your incredible work over the past 4 years, and especially the past few months. It has been a busy time for our office, and I am so proud of the work that we have done. It is in that spirit that I want to send some details about our all-day staff gathering coming up NEXT Monday.

We will spend Monday at the National Agriculture Library in Beltsville, MD (10301 Baltimore Avenue Beltsville, MD 20705). It will be a time to look back on all that we have accomplished, celebrate the good work we have done, and begin a conversation about how we plan to move forward. During the time in which we look back, I'd like to give each Center a chance to give a 5-10 minute presentation that tells the story of your faith-based center and the work you all accomplished during this first term.

I know you all are busy, but if you could take some time to prepare a presentation, I think it will be a powerful part of our time together this Monday. We want this to be creative and fun, but we also want it to be a record of what we have accomplished.

(b)(5)

Also, the site of our retreat is not metro accessible, but transportation will be provided for those who need it. Directors are asked to coordinate as Centers and see who will need a ride and who can drive and carpool. Once we have a sense of the numbers, we will know what size van we will need.

Finally, attached is an agenda for our time together.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone together on Monday, but please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions before then.

Gratefully,
Joshua

Subject: Staff gathering!

Importance: High

Hi everyone,

Thank you so much for all your incredible work over the past 4 years, and especially the past few months. It has been a busy time for our office, and I am so proud of the work that we have done. It is in that spirit that I want to send some details about our all-day staff gathering coming up NEXT Monday.

We will spend Monday at the National Agriculture Library in Beltsville, MD (10301 Baltimore Avenue Beltsville, MD 20705). It will be a time to look back on all that we have accomplished, celebrate the good work we have done, and begin a conversation about how we plan to move forward. During the time in which we look back, I'd like to give each Center a chance to give a 5-10 minute presentation that tells the story of your faith-based center and the work you all accomplished during this first term.

I know you all are busy, but if you could take some time to prepare a presentation, I think it will be a powerful part of our time together this Monday. We want this to be creative and fun, but we also want it to be a record of what we have accomplished. (b)(5)

(b)(5)

Also, the site of our retreat is not metro accessible, but transportation will be provided for those who need it. Directors are asked to coordinate as Centers and see who will need a ride and who can drive and carpool. Once we have a sense of the numbers, we will know what size van we will need.

Finally, attached is an agenda for our time together.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone together on Monday, but please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions before then.

Gratefully,
Joshua

Hello friends,

In our last conversation with you, you stated that your school would be participating in the 2012-2013 President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge but our records show that we still have not received a proposal. In an effort to get as many school involved as possible, we will give you one final extension to submit these proposals by:

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 16th to WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov

This is the last call as we prepare to schedule regional events, webinars and other support programs for schools who are part of the challenge.

We look forward to working with you!

Center leadership only on this one:

We are excited to connect with you next week. There are a few specific elements I need your help with and a one item that I'd like you to keep on your schedule:

1. If you need help on the presentations, Ben, Mara and Max are all available to work with you. NOTE: we will have a computer and projector there on site.

2. During lunch, we are going to be giving out awards to each staff member. Please don't share this yet with your staff. These awards are going to be light-hearted and fun, but I need your help in coming up with an award for each staffer.

(b)(5)

3. Please hold the evening of Wednesday, December 12 on your calendars. Instead of December's Directors meeting, I am working on hosting a gathering of Center Leadership (Directors and Deputy Directors) where we will discuss next steps over a meal (which I may or may not prepare myself, based on objections that I may receive). I know that December is a busy month for everyone, but it would be great to have all the center directors together.

4. Finally, please let us know who among your staff needs a ride, who can offer a ride to others, and how many spots they have in their car. This will go a long way as we coordinate around logistics.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone together on Monday, but please don't hesitate to reach out with any questions before then.

Thanks,
Joshua

I hope you're having a pleasant and relaxing weekend.

This note comes to thank you for helping to arrange next week's tour of the White House for the (b)(6) family. They and I appreciate your assistance. Marcelo was especially cooperative and thoughtful in responding promptly to my questions and pushing their waves through the system.

Best wishes to you, your family and your team during this season of thanksgiving and, ideally, relaxation (smile).

My question is simple and brief: What's the possibility of getting passes for four guests to visit the White House on Wednesday, November 21, or Friday, November 23?

Thanks for your help.

Hi Everyone,

Happy Monday! I hope this week finds you well as we head towards the Thanksgiving holiday.

As I mentioned on the phone last week we will be meeting at 3pm tomorrow in Room 226 of the EEOB. During this in person meeting as I will be walking through the next two months and how we will be shaping Kitchen Cabinet differently in 2013. If you cant make it please dial into the conference call but if you can attend please join us in person.

I also hope all of you saw Kevin Lewis in today's Politico –he is on cloud 9 so if you see him smiling you now know why ☺--we are all wishing him the very best

My fiancé and I spent the evening with close friends and family, including my new nephew Myles who was born just a week before Election Day. I am so grateful to everyone who shared such great advice over the past few months. Thank you for being such an integral part of this new chapter in our lives. Hi all,

Following up on this morning's call, I am excited invite you to join us in celebrating the holiday season at the 2012 White House Open House on December 21 at 1:30pm. In recognition of your contribution to this Administration, you and up to 3 guests (4 total*) are welcome to attend this wonderful and unique opportunity to see the White House Residence decorated for the holidays. Please note that the Holiday Open House is NOT an event with President and First Lady.

Attached is the official RSVP spreadsheet that you must return by 5pm on Monday, November 26th. Please reply to this email to WHOpartnerships@who.eop.gov with the same subject line as above.

Please include all the information requested for purposes of a required background check for access to the White House grounds. Shortened names, nicknames, aliases, misspellings, or typographical errors will not be accepted and may result in guests experiencing delays of up to an hour or being denied admission. Please ensure that your guests provide you with their identification information exactly as it appears on their government-issued ID. For foreign nationals, please be particularly sure their date of birth is formatted MM/DD/YYYY.

A week prior to the Open House, after your security information has been received and processed, we will send you a confirmation "Boarding Pass" for those authorized for admission. This document will contain all the information your guests will need to know for their visit to the White House. The Boarding Passes contain arrival information, a map, what to bring/what not to bring, and other important details.

If you have any questions, please let me know. We look forward to welcoming you to the White House on December 21!

Thanks,

Scott

*If your immediate family has more than 4 members (including yourself) and all would like to attend, please let me know and we can work to accommodate.

Dear Jessica,

Please accept the 2012-2013 Campus Challenge Plan for Portland State. We deeply appreciate your patience in accepting late submissions this year. It has been so helpful as PSU runs on the quarter system. We didn't have our Interfaith Leadership Team retreat until the 4th week of the term (October 19th) in an effort to recruit more students, but we have 11 this year, which is double from last year! The students have been hard at work and hope you will accept our submission. We are engaged and excited about interfaith work at PSU!

Sincerely,

Rachel Samuelson

Brenda, Acacia, and Paula,

I have, with the help of Marcus and Carmeyia, been on a daily 3PM call with African American faith-based mental health leaders responding on the ground and from afar to Hurricane Sandy's impact on NY communities, especially in Queens (primarily the Rockaways) and Brooklyn (primarily Coney Island). Dr Jocelyn Elders was on the initial call.

Many of the questions put to us are not within FEMA's authority to answer or to act upon, so more often than not we have functioned as a connector to local and federal government points of contact, as well as NGOs.

On today's call there were a number of questions we committed to follow up on, and four of them involve your centers, viz., HHS public health medical units on site, and is the CDC monitoring the public health risks of mold and increased cockroaches (Acacia); children being merged into other schools (Brenda); and the leading role HUD will have in the provision of housing (Paula).

I hope you are able to join tomorrow's 3PM call to respond to the questions. I wish I could be a better reporter of the questions, but as has sometimes been the case, the questions seem to be formed during the course of the conversation, and pushing for clarity sometimes does not yield the outcome hoped for.

The number is (b)(6) Please let me know if you will be able to join.

Thanks,

David

Dear Mr. DuBois, Rev. Girton-Mitchell and Mr. Bedell,

Happy Thanksgiving! I hope you each had a wonderful holiday break, well deserved after an intense political season. Congratulations on a job well done, I look forward to continuing our relationship through the Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge.

In addition to this project, I wanted to inform you that plans are currently underway for a one-day summit on February 9, 2013 for DC area young adult faith leaders.

The goal of this conference will be to bring together 100 young adults (18-35) from diverse faith groups in the DC area to dialogue about their faith traditions, share successes and challenges from their experience mobilizing young people for service, and build relationships within a strong network of supportive allies across communities.

We are eager to have participation from all communities and are following the model of equal representation from the historic faith traditions represented on the IFC.

We are currently in search of participants and speakers for this engagement. Should you know of anyone from your office who may be interested in attending, please pass along this invitation and encourage them to submit an interest form here. Recommend young adult leaders/organizers to invite to the summit: Individuals do not have to be clergy but should have duties/responsibilities serving one or more faith communities in the region through specific religious institutions and/or faith-inspired organizations.

I would also like to invite all of you to be present on the day, and to share words of experience and support for this cause. Our schedule is still under construction, however around the lunch hour may be a wonderful time for such an address. Myself and others on the conference steering committee would greatly appreciate your consideration of this invitation.

Please let me know at your convenience if you are available to attend and speak at this function.

Best,
Lisa Pannucci

Hi Daren,

Can you coordinate with my intern tomorrow pick up times with the two photos. We don't frame any photos with the President as policy of the White House Photo Office. You should also let him know the WH does now always release photos of meetings and events. We have some additional spots in the holiday tour please let me know if the students would like to be a part of the tour. Time is 8am on December 17th, 2012

Best,

Heather Foster

Hello Joshua,

I've attended a couple of the White House Community Leaders Briefings in the past and have found them to be great opportunities to hear from administration officials about the work you are doing to address community needs.

We have 200-300 United Way CEOs from across the country that will be in Washington, DC during the week of February 12th. I wanted to reach out and see if it would be possible to set up a Community Leaders Briefing for United Way CEOs during that week - perhaps on the afternoon of Friday, February 15 - so that they may share about their community challenges and hear about the Administration's vision for the next term. In particular, we would like to focus on the issue of innovation given that this is a key priority for United Ways.

Is this something you can help me with? Let me know if you're available to discuss further. I'm confident that United Way leadership would find this to be an invaluable opportunity and appreciate any help you can provide.

Many thanks,

Lindsay

Hi Anna,
Sorry for any inconvenience. Joshua will be travelling on our dates below. He will be back in on Dec 27th and 28th; however, we do understand that many folks from your team may be traveling during this time. Let me know if either of these would work, but if not, we will look at scheduling this after the holidays and in the weeks ahead.

Thanks,
Maab

Good Morning!

The new times work great for our office, I'll put it in the calendars now. One note I wanted to flag for you—Menahem is retiring at the end of the month so I'm not sure how beneficial it would be for Joshua to meet with him. Check with Joshua and let me know.

I'll be there later today if you have any further questions!

Hi Anna,
I am following up on an announcement that Joshua made at our center retreat back before Thanksgiving, in which he said that he'd like to meet with each Center staff member for a quick 10 minute meeting. I am hoping that you and I can work together to set up time for each member of your FB Center.

Ideally, we could find a time when your entire team could come over together. I have blocked off time on Tuesday, December 18 from 9:30-10:20am to meet in Joshua's office.

Please let me know if this breakdown could work for your team. Feel free to move people around based on their schedules. Also if a few people on your team are not available at this time, please let me know and we can find another time for them to meet with Joshua.

Dear Joshua,

Attached please find a detailed agenda for the Brookings event on Monday, December 17. I listed speakers on the first panel in a particular order but please feel free to let us know the order in which you'd like to speak. We leave the first panel to your discretion. To remain within the time constraints we will need to adhere to the suggested speaking times listed, however.

There are two things we need from you and your colleagues: brief bios to be distributed and for introductory purposes (links to bios online are fine); and a list of the other center directors who will be attending -- Melissa will introduce them at the end of the first panel before opening the floor to audience questions.

As the agenda notes, it would be best if everyone could arrive by 8:45 a.m. We will have a green room with coffee and a light breakfast and we can address any last minute questions or concerns at that point. Also, I have copied EJ Dionne's assistant, Ross Tilchin, as well as my colleague Anna Goodbaum on this email. I am expecting my second child any day now so may not be at the event on Monday. Ross and Anna are prepared to manage the event so please reach out to them if I am not responding. Ross can also be reached at (b)(6) and Anna at (b)(6).

Thank you for all your help. We're looking forward to having you next week.

Hi all
I'm on the way back to church and will be offline a few hours. My quick read of the remarks especially the civic partnerships section is for JD simply mention by name rather than explain Together for Tomorrow etc to help with his word count and to lessen redundancy with my remarks.
Thanks
Brenda

Here are Joshua's remarks.

Max is going to take a crack first until Mara gets back online.

Then Mara will work on them.

I will take a look at the Q&A and will also send that around to the group.

If anyone else has time and space to edit or contribute, let me know, and we coordinate.

I will compile everything to send to Joshua at 7:30 for his review on the plane.

Thanks
Scott

See latest enclosed, a fair amount of edits in this one.

Max and Mara, could you please take another pass. Focus is on tightening (I need to reduce the word count) and adding any color where possible. I think the civic partnerships section could be better so please take a close look at that. And if you have thoughts on a conclusion I'm all ears.

Talk with folks briefly at 3:30!

When I saved it, it said there was "minor loss of fidelity" and that some formulas are linked to other workbooks that are closed and some kind of problems could result.

Subject: INVITATION: White House Holiday Open House

Hi all,

Following up on this morning's call, I am excited invite you to join us in celebrating the holiday season at the 2012 White House Open House on December 21 at 1:30pm. In recognition of your contribution to this Administration, you and up to 3 guests (4 total*) are welcome to attend this wonderful and unique opportunity to see the White House Residence decorated for the holidays. Please note that the Holiday Open House is NOT an event with President and First Lady.

Attached is the official RSVP spreadsheet that you must return by 5pm on Monday, November 26th. Please reply to this email to WHOpartnerships@who.eop.gov with the same subject line as above.

Please include all the information requested for purposes of a required background check for access to the White House grounds. Shortened names, nicknames, aliases, misspellings, or typographical errors will not be accepted and may result in guests experiencing delays of up to an hour or being denied admission. Please ensure that your guests provide you with their identification information exactly as it appears on their government-issued ID. For foreign nationals, please be particularly sure their date of birth is formatted MM/DD/YYYY. A week prior to the Open House, after your security information has been received and processed, we will send you a confirmation "Boarding Pass" for those authorized for admission. This document will contain all the information your guests will need to know for their visit to the White House. The Boarding Passes contain arrival information, a map, what to bring/what not to bring, and other important details.

If you have any questions, please let me know. We look forward to welcoming you to the White House on December 21!

Thanks,
Scott

*If your immediate family has more than 4 members (including yourself) and all would like to attend, please let me know and we can work to accommodate.

Dear Anna,

Thank you for placing this on Brenda and Ken's calendars. I would also like to inquire if Mr. DuBois can attend? Given the nature of this event, there would be great value if he was available to speak to our audience of young adults.

Our application deadline was recently extended until December 21st. I've included a few further details below. As the day's schedule is further clarified, I will be in touch.

Thank you,
Lisa Pannucci

The DC Young Adult Faith Leaders Summit is being coordinated by Faith in Action DC, a multimedia project documenting and celebrating the community service and social justice work of diverse people of faith throughout the DC region, in collaboration with the Interfaith Conference of Metropolitan Washington.

This one-day event will be a unique occasion for focused dialogue on subjects that relate directly to work in the community. The program will be organized around small-group discussions that will provide an intimate setting for our diverse participants to truly get to know one another. Our hope is that these introductions will spur collaboration beyond the summit, although the specifics are left open for participants to create organically. Certainly, at the end of the day, everyone will go home with a resource list in hand as well as other materials that will hopefully lead to deeper interfaith engagement in the future.

Dear Lisa,

I'm sure Brenda or Ken will be able to attend this event. At this time, there are no conflicting engagements on their calendars. I have added it to their calendars as a tentative event pending more details closer to the event.

Thanks,

Dear Mr. DuBois, Rev. Girton-Mitchell and Mr. Bedell,

Happy Thanksgiving! I hope you each had a wonderful holiday break, well deserved after an intense political season. Congratulations on a job well done, I look forward to continuing our relationship through the Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge.

In addition to this project, I wanted to inform you that plans are currently underway for a one-day summit on February 9, 2013 for DC area young adult faith leaders.

The goal of this conference will be to bring together 100 young adults (18-35) from diverse faith groups in the DC area to dialogue about their faith traditions, share successes and challenges from their experience mobilizing young people for service, and build relationships within a strong network of supportive allies across communities.

We are eager to have participation from all communities and are following the model of equal representation from the historic faith traditions represented on the IFC.

We are currently in search of participants and speakers for this engagement. Should you know of anyone from your office who may be interested in attending, please pass along this invitation and encourage them to submit an interest form here. Recommend young adult leaders/organizers to invite to the summit: Individuals do not have to be clergy but should have duties/responsibilities serving one or more faith communities in the region through specific religious institutions and/or faith-inspired organizations.

I would also like to invite all of you to be present on the day, and to share words of experience and support for this cause. Our schedule is still under construction, however around the lunch hour may be a wonderful time for such an address. Myself and others on the conference steering committee would greatly appreciate your consideration of this invitation.

Please let me know at your convenience if you are available to attend and speak at this function.

Best,
Lisa Pannucci

Maab and Scott,

Thanks so much for taking care of this. I assume that the fact that the third paragraph below says 1:45 is just because it needs to be edited to say 7:30. I know when Kathie and I went on the tour last week, we were told that there is a two hour window. Does this mean that they will be admitted anytime between 7:30 and 9:30?

Thanks,

Could the ED Center compile whatever lists you're able to send: main database, call RSVP list, event RSVP list, whatever you have – and send our way? It's a short window but I should be able to get it out this week. They do not have to be combined and de-duped – just send whatever spreadsheets you're able to send.

Thanks for your help. Talk soon.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing on behalf of Berkeley College in NYC. We are very interested in participating this year but are waiting for a green light from our President before we proceed and he is very very busy at this time! He does support it but has some questions before signing off and I have been unable to have this conversation with him yet.

If we submit the full application by tomorrow would we still be eligible to participate? I am submitting our Registration form as a sign of our good faith and intention to participate, pending full approval by our college President.

Thank you for your consideration!

Hey Josh!

Eventually, I'll get Mark and you set up on Max.gov so that you can quickly access the list of colleges participating and such. I went ahead and checked on Berkeley College and we have received their proposal so they are enrolled in the challenge. Would you mind replying to this email and informing her? If not, Mark or I can quickly do that. I know you have a lot on your plate right now with the inauguration. 😊 Just let us know.

Thanks Josh!

Anna,

I received the below query and wanted to check in with you about the procedure for responding to these- do I forward directly to EdPartners and/or Mark, or is there a template you'd like me to use to respond directly?

Many thanks,

Josh

Hello all,

We have received an extra allotment of tickets to the National Prayer Service on Tuesday morning at Washington National Cathedral.

If you would like to attend, we have two tickets for each of you. Please come to 708 Jackson Place at any time today and pick them up. Due to the limited number of those tickets and to make sure that everyone has a chance to go, we can only provide 2 tickets.

They will be on the conference table at 708 Jackson Place. Please email me if you have trouble getting in.

The service starts at 10:30, but doors will close at 10am. Doors open at 8am on Tuesday. I would recommend getting their early.

Thanks!

Good day, Mr. Block,

Happy New Year and warm greetings from the University of the Virgin Islands! I trust that all is well with you and your family.

We are once again seeking your assistance with respect to the attached communication. UVI President, Dr. David Hall, is inviting President Obama to be a part of UVI's 2013 commencement exercises scheduled for May 11th and 12th. Your assistance in the past has been invaluable and we look forward to working with you on this invitation. I have included the Scheduling Office on this email and will also send a hard copy of the invitation to that office.

Thank you in advance for your time and we look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
Noreen

White House Activities:

THIS WEEK

- DPC/OFBNP participated in the PICO National Network Gun Violence Clergy Meeting at the White House to brief faith leaders on the Administration's actions to prevent gun violence and to invite suggestions for future collaborative opportunities.
- DPC/OFBNP led the White House Faith Leaders Call on Immigration Reform. OFBNP thanked faith leaders for their years of work on the subject, explained the details of the President's immigration proposal and asked for their assistance going forward to promote reasonable solutions to America's immigration problems.

NEXT WEEK

- National Prayer Breakfast: DPC/OFBNP is coordinating POTUS remarks and visit to the National Prayer Breakfast on Thursday. The National Prayer Breakfast is an annual event that every POTUS since Eisenhower has spoken at.

Center Activities:

EVENT REPORT

- DOL delivered keynote remarks on 1/25 at the Neighbors-helping-Neighbors job club network two-year anniversary in Hasbrouck Heights, NJ. Mentioned in DOL newsletter.
- HHS Center hosted Let's Move Webinar for faith and community leaders on "Transform Your Food Pantry into a Source of Health and Wellness! More than 400 organizations participated in the call.

INTERAGENCY ACTIVITIES

- HUD and Justice Center attended a meeting with Terry Seurat and Billie Terry to discuss the Community Foods Project in Richmond, VA which is a program that offers young adults the ages of 16-26 who have been incarcerated an opportunity to offer training programs that help with comprehensive assessment skills and occupational skills. The emphasis is to determine their Educational skills, provide mentors to develop entrepreneurial skills through training programs, and offer transitional work experience. A follow-up meeting is scheduled at the St. Paul Baptist Church in Richmond, on February 21st. St. Paul donated 5 acres of land to help the Community Foods Projects program develop an organic garden to train these young people.
- DHS and Education Center met to discuss an in-school mentoring program for male minority students at an Arlington, VA, high school (Wakefield). The program, called Cohort, has sustained a 13-year track-record of significantly closing the educational and employment gap between majority and minority students; the year prior to the program's initiation, only one in 34 of the high school's minority males were enrolled in 21 Advanced Placement courses. This year, one in five of minority students are taking 237 AP courses. Eighty-five percent of Cohort's program participants have gone on to two or four year colleges or additional professional training.
- DHS Center, along with staff from DHS National Protection and Programs Division/Infrastructure Protection, spoke at the US Department of Justice/Federal Bureau of Investigation-sponsored National Church Security Summit, co-sponsored by the InfraGard Members Alliance of Los Angeles. DHS Center presentation highlighted faith-based partnerships with emergency management and law enforcement. The conference was attended by over 150 pastors and ministry leaders from 15 states.

- VA met with Military Family Research Institute and U.S. Department of Agriculture to brainstorm and expand the conversation on how the entities can collaborate on outreach and engagement events for Veterans, their families, survivors, and caregivers with the VA CFBNP serving as a liaison to the faith community.

CENTER STAFF INTEGRATING INTO DEP'T ACTIVITIES

- SBA attended a meeting with SBA colleagues to get an update on SBA's Affordable Care Act outreach activities to small business. Center asked about outreach to non-profits on two levels --- to build awareness for congregants and neighbors and, more importantly, to inform faith-based and neighborhood organizations how the provisions of the ACA directly impact them. Center will schedule a webinar for Center's faith and community organization contacts in late February or early March.
- USDA Center participated in a Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) Technical Assistance Workgroup call. As a result of this, feedback on Spanish resources was shared, and the sharing of new CACFP Provider Handbook and Wellness Resources with Center partners was discussed. Plans were also discussed for a Stakeholder meeting in March.
- USDA Center attended the 2nd Quarter Global Food Security Council Meeting and learned of activities at the USDA in this sphere.
- USDA Center Deputy Director met with Rural Development Community Programs communications staff. As a result of this meeting, ideas on potential collaboration on webinars for Rural Development Community Programs that can benefit nonprofits, faith-based and secular.
- DHS Center met with leadership from the DHS Office of Civil Rights and Civil Liberties (CRCL) to review the results and chart the future of the Center's participation in CRCL's stakeholder roundtables conducted across the country. The Center's role has been to introduce the President's vision for the White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships, the role the DHS Center has in implementing the vision and inviting minority faith-tradition leaders attending the roundtables to participate in emergency preparedness, response and recovery activities.
- DHS Center participated in and presented at a stakeholder outreach event hosted by the US Department of Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) in Aurora, CO. USCIS is initiating these public engagement session with faith-based leaders to introduce its programs and services, partner with local faith immigration-issue advocates who lead panel discussions, and to hear concerns from faith-leaders. The event resulted in follow-up meetings with local faith leaders, and in attendees being specifically invited to participate the following day in the White House's conference call with people of faith to discuss the President's efforts to work with Congress to fix the immigration system.
- DHS Center participated in the weekly DHS Countering Violent Extremism Working Group meeting. This week, the team discussed upcoming international engagements on the issue.
- DHS Center spoke with Dr. Warren H. Stewart, Sr., chair, National Immigration Forum, about ongoing work by the Center to engage faith groups on the immigration issue in light of the President's speech (which he attended).
- DHS Center participated in several FEMA meetings and training sessions, including daily Workplace Transformation sessions, the Administrator's Senior Leadership VTC and Voluntary Agency Liaison.
- DHS Center, as a non-voting member, participated in the National VOAD Emotional & Spiritual Care Committee conference call on the soon-to-be-released for public comment Disaster Spiritual Care Guidelines. As indicated by NVOAD Chair Jim Kirk, more municipalities, counties and states are moving to intentionally integrate disaster spiritual care into their disaster response and recovery plans. The collective wisdom and experience of National VOAD members will be important to this integration.

- USAID Center continues to work with representatives of the Africa Bureau and members of the Innovation and Development office to push forward the social enterprise project in the DRC lead by the American Refugee Committee and Ward Brehm.
- USAID Center continues to work with Global Health and Public Affairs colleagues to engage faith-based partners in the “Promise Renewed” child survival efforts.
- HHS Center participated in the HHS Health Care Law Outreach and Education meeting. New consumer information on the Health Insurance Marketplace (Exchange and Medicaid Expansion) is being shared with faith-based groups.
- HHS Center led the HHS Faith-Based Coordinating Committee. New resources on the Affordable Care Act were shared.
- HHS Center convened a meeting with leadership of NIH's We Can! programs with the Director of Health Ministries, Seventh -Day Adventist and Director of the HOPE Initiative of the National Baptist Convention. Both Seven Day Adventist and the National Baptist Convention are considering a series of webinars training health leaders on the We Can! programs.
- VA's CFBNP will serve on the SECVA's Working Group on Homelessness to works with VA's Administrations and Staff Offices to meet President Obama and Secretary Shinseki's goal of eliminating Veteran homelessness. The Working Group provides a forum to discuss efforts, identify opportunities for internal and external collaboration, and exchange information regarding funding and legislative issues for sharing with various constituencies.

OUTREACH

DHS:

- Met with leadership from the Aurora Community of Faith (ACF), a multi-faith group in Aurora, CO. ACF consists of more than 150 houses of worship and is officially recognized by Aurora elected officials and community leaders as a key participant in the city's safety, stability, and resilience. For example, the ACF president was asked to lead the 7/20 Recovery Committee. The committee's mission is to provide leadership in developing a coordinated community-wide effort that addresses the long-term impact of the July 20, 2012, (7/20) tragedy at Century 16 theater in Aurora. The DHS Center encouraged ACF to continue to build partnerships with government, education, and business sectors, and to track these developments as a model for faith associations in other cities.
- DHS Center met, in Denver, with Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment's Office of Emergency Preparedness and Response. The Office is working to better incorporate Colorado faith-based organizations into emergency preparedness and response. The Center provided feedback and networking suggestions related to the Office's development of a spiritual care curriculum, and of a credentialing process with mental health, substance use, and faith-based partners to incorporate volunteers into the State's Behavioral Health response during emergencies.
- DHS Center attended Deloitte's Anti-Human Trafficking Symposium: Transforming the Coalition, at Georgetown University. The symposium provided a forum for discussing immigration-related law enforcement challenges through the lens of anti-human trafficking. The symposium brought together government, academic, not for profit and business leaders to collaborate on the fight against human trafficking in light of new technologies and communications capabilities.
- DHS Center met with Sharron Leason, State of California Governor's Office, California Volunteers, to discuss implications of DHS Center work in LA for broader state preparedness and resilience. Sharron stated that the State of California wants to replicate the “faith-based rotational seat” work in their State EOC/Volunteers & Donations Management. DHS Center and City Emergency Management Staff have been asked to conduct a full briefing at the City of Los Angeles EOC when she and other state staff are in town at the end of February for the Statewide Community Emergency Response Team Conference.

- DHS Center spoke at a gathering of City of Los Angeles/U.S. State Department-sponsored International Visitors’ Program participants about the President’s policy goal of interfaith dialogue and cooperation with a focus on the Center’s work in Los Angeles. Participants included Saudi Arabian Muslim scholars from government and universities.
- DHS Center, as part of its ongoing work in Los Angeles:
  - Met with Richard Flory and Najuma Pollard-Smith, University of Southern California Center for Religion and Civic Culture (USC CRCC), to 1) provide an update on the DHS Center’s work, 2) explain the opportunities and suggestions relating to the DHS Center’s remaining tenure in L.A. 3) discuss how we ensure that the objectives achieved are sustained until Brie Loskota (the USC CRCC contact for this project) returns in June 2012.
  - Attended the LA County Department of Public Health Community Disaster Resilience Project Launch with the eight selected “Preparedness City” coalitions. DHS has been working with Watts and Compton in this process around teen and faith leader engagement in Community Emergency Response Teams.
  - Spoke at the India Association of Los Angeles’ 66th Annual commemoration of India Republic Day about the connection between their homeland’s priority for peace and security and the US priority for national preparedness and security.
  - Joined newly-elected LA County District Attorney and staff from Sheriff Baca’s Office at the North Los Angeles Community Sheriff’s Advisory Council. This group will be key to identifying south Asian leaders for the faith-based rotational seat.
  - Met with Bishop Mendez, South Gate Police Chief Randall Davis, Emergency Coordination Sheila Komen and the South Gate Pastors’ Coalition, representing leaders from the Catholic, Bible, Foursquare, United Church of Christ, Lutheran, and several Hispanic evangelical churches. The group discussed ongoing engagement efforts with city/county emergency management and local law enforcement. Of specific interest is the potential opportunity to engage these groups in disaster assistance center-type exercises.
  - Met with Lena Thompson, Western Regional Director, World Vision, about their emerging role as a key faith-based intermediary in LA-area domestic disaster response. Since September 2012, Lina’s staff in Los Angeles has been instrumental to the engagement of Hispanic faith communities with emergency management.

DOL:

- Met with staff from Nat. Community Reinvestment Coalition on 1/29.
- Held a conference call with Foundations Workforce Solutions of Traverse City, MI about job training programs on 1/29.
- Attended Presidential Inauguration Committee (PIC) National Day of Service debrief session on 1/30.
- Met with Lori Strauss of the AARP Foundation on 1/31.

ED:

- Met with Sheila Katz, the Deputy Director of the National Hillel office where they discussed Hillel’s support of the President’s Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge on 1/24.
- Participated in a Student Voices session with Secretary of Education Arne Duncan focusing on young peoples’ experiences participating in service and volunteerism in education on 1/24.

- Participated in a community hearing in Barnard Auditorium, with representatives from 18 cities on 1/29. The community hearing theme was “Journey for Justice: A National Grassroots Education Movement”. Speakers addressed the impact of school closings, turnarounds, phase-outs & co-locations in their community schools.
- Participated in a discussion hosted by the Ford and Wallace Foundations in New York City on Say Yes to Education, an effort that pairs comprehensive student supports with the promise of a full college or vocational education, on 1/30.

HHS:

- Met with Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to update them on the progress of the Health System Learning Group. Robert Wood Johnson Foundation will attend April 4th leadership summit being held at the HHS and co-convened with Health System Learning Group.
- Met with the new manager of Wesley Theological Seminary's Health the Sick Initiative. HHS Center will continue to support the development of a DC and metro region Congregational Health Network in relationship with area health systems.
- Convened Providence Hospital, Washington DC, and the Center for Excellence in the Faith and Health, Memphis to talk about a health asset mapping strategy that will support Providence's diabetes outreach initiative to faith-based and community organizations. Providence will consider implementing the ARHAP process for asset base mapping.
- Attended the Community Catalyst dinner and community event. HHS Center will continue to support Community Catalyst efforts education communities on Community Benefit of the ACA and other community base prevention strategies.
- Met with Howard University School of Divinity to engage on discussion on partnering in reducing health care cost, improving health and eliminating health disparities.

HUD:

- HUD Center staff spoke with Jeff Jeter, Chief of Staff for Georgia State Senator Horacena Tate, about conducting a capacity building training and foreclosure assistance workshop in Spring/Summer 2013.

SBA:

- Spoke with Edward A. Coleman, Vice President, Community Economic Development with Bethel New Life located on Chicago's Westside. Bethel is a Lutheran community development corporation and an Illinois SBDC service center. Bethel works to support entrepreneurship and small businesses in an economically challenged community. Bethel has been making and servicing loans to existing and larger businesses through the New Markets Tax Credit program for many years; and, as an SBA resource partner, has been providing ongoing technical support and training to its borrowers.
- Spoke with Shalom Klein about the agenda for his upcoming event; SBA will host the B2B group on 2/28 (the original date) with an introduction and welcome remarks from Marie Johns. Center will enlist the support of each of SBA's department heads for program presentations and Q&A. Additionally, Center will include a segment on how the Affordable Care Act benefits small businesses.
- With SBA colleague, conferenced with Imam Magid. Topics covered included: disaster loans, necessity and microloans, potential microloan intermediary candidates and possible MOUs with ISNA and/or ADAMS. For next steps, Imam Magid offered to: schedule a meeting at ADAMS for Center with him and Dr. Mirza to discuss SBA's loan programs; convene a follow-up meeting with Muslim organizations interested in applying to become Microloan Intermediaries; schedule a conference call with Mr. Ahmed at the Islamic Society of North America; and promote SBA outreach events at ADAMS.

- Spoke with Jean Horstman, Chief Executive at Interise and Steve Kirk Interise's CFO. Interise provides training primarily to existing companies that are looking to move to the next level; and, in that capacity, is the technical assistance provider in SBA e200 program. Center reached out to inquire if Interise might be interested in applying to become an SBA Microloan Intermediary. Though the Microloan product is best suited for start-ups, Horstman offered that some of Interise's clients are looking for modest amounts of capital. Because of the Microloan program's loan making experience requirement, Interise would have to develop a new product line. Horstman and Kirk indicated that they would consider moving into the lending space and would present an overview of the program to Interise's board members. Center forwarded the Microloan Intermediary for their review.
- Checked in with Hilda Kennedy for an update on the several applications that AmPac Tri State and affiliated organizations have submitted or are about to submit to SBA. AmPac has submitted an application to become a Community Advantage lender. Also, Hilda has been providing guidance to the Family and Small Business Corporation as that organization looks to become SBA's second faith-based CDC 504 lender. (AmPac Tri State is SBA's first). Hilda confirmed that she is working on a faith-based small business summit in Los Angeles. The event will take place in late April or early May and Hilda has asked Center to moderate a panel on access to capital - particularly Microloans as she believes the need in LA is great.

USAID:

- Attended Foods Resource Bank's board meeting to participate in their Heart on the Hill program, where members of FRB address their members of Congress regarding foreign food aid issues. Representatives from the USAID Center and the Bureau for Food Security had an opportunity to address FRB's board which included representatives from organizations like Catholic Relief Services, World Renew, Lutheran World Relief, UMCOR, and ADRA among others.
- Met with David Boyd to discuss the 2013 National Prayer Breakfast.

USDA:

- Welcomed Rev. Michael Minor of the National Baptist Convention's HOPE Initiative to USDA and assisted in facilitating meetings between him and the Deputy Secretary, Agricultural Marketing Service, Rural Development, and Natural Resources Conservation Service, and the HHS Center. As a result of these meetings, information was shared on farmers markets, food hubs, and specialty crops and funding opportunities for community facilities, rural housing, and value added agriculture. They also discussed ways NBC could expand Summer Food Service Program through their churches.
- Participated in a meeting with Girl Scouts of America and Rural Utilities Service (RUS). As a result of this meeting, information was shared on USDA programs for rural communities, including RUS Telecom Loan and Grant programs, RUS Broadband Loan program and Community Connect Grant program, RD Community Facilities program, and RD business programs.
- Met with Rotary First Harvest, a hunger relief organization based out of Oregon that works to connect farmers, truckers, volunteers, and food banks. As a result of this meeting, they discussed ways USDA could support their efforts.
- Shared information about the Hispanic and Women Farmers and Ranchers Claims Process with Catholic Legal Immigration Network (CLINIC). As a result, CLINIC shared a notice about the claims process and legal assistance training opportunities with their network of 210 affiliates.

VA:

- Participated in a conference call with the National Association of State Approving Agencies (NASAA) South Region Vice President and NASAA staff members on 1/30. The purpose of the call was to discuss the VA CFBNP Deputy Director's participation in the South Region Committee meeting during the NASAA. Mid-Winter Meeting scheduled for February 10-14, 2013, in Arlington, Virginia.
- Coordinated the participation of VA staff from the Nashville, Tennessee, Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) Regional Office during the NBC USA, Inc., Mid-Winter Board Meeting in Nashville, Tennessee. VA staff attended and managed an exhibit table from 9:00 a.m., - 5:00 p.m., Tuesday through Thursday, January 22-24, 2013.

SPEAKING REQUESTS

- SBA has been invited to participate in Access to Capital panels at the following Black Chamber of Commerce events: February 26 - USBC Solutions Series, Austin, TX; March 20 - USBC Solutions Series, New York, NY; and April 16 - USBC Solutions Series, Miami, FL.

Dear Partnership,

Working as a university chaplain, I came across your website in preparation for an interfaith meeting on campus here at our Drop In Centre, Teach Failte, at the University of Limerick, in Ireland

It would be good to know if you have any information about how to link in to this new initiative in some way via university groups, not only from different US states, but from other parts of the world.

We also have some wonderful American students studying with us who are part of our group.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

with best wishes,

Hi John and Mara,
Sec. Duncan is going to Iowa next month, April 17-19 and we are organizing some events. We will be doing Tft and interfaith meetings in Dubuque. Can you share any of the contacts you have who could help us identify some key folks to participate on the programs? This series of meetings has a rural focus. Ken will organize an Interfaith challenge event, Michael the Tft and we may try a clergy roundtable.

Let us know your thoughts.

Thanks Brenda for reaching out. Do we have date proposals to check?

From emails that have tracked, it appears we don't have a June option that would include an auditorium like Lisner, which is large enough to hold our entire group. Is that correct?

Dear Joshua and John,

I am reaching out for guidance. I did not copy this to the others.

We are desperate for direction. We are trying to holding space at GWU and Georgetown for early June. There are other locations to check for space, but it would help to have dates in mind first.

We need to finalize the format etc. so people can make travel plans. The schools are beginning to contact us about the summer event. School faculty leaders want to make their vacations plans but also don't want to miss the IF event.

Please give us some sense of timing Do we have to recast this for later in the year- against your original desire?

Blessings,

Brenda

The President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge Advancing Interfaith Cooperation and Community Service In Higher Education

The following is the planning template for the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. Campuses submitting service plans should answer the following questions within the word limits outlined below. The White House is looking forward to the creativity of institutions in designing their plans, including those that will expand and innovate upon existing programming.

Interested institutions should indicate their intent to participate in the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge by emailing whpartnerships@who.eop.gov by March 16, 2012.

Service plans should be submitted on challenge.gov by no later than April 30, 2012.

5. Institution's Challenge Lead<sup>[1]</sup> Name, Title and Contact Information:

6. Did your institution participate in the President's Interfaith & Community Service Campus Challenge last year? Yes or No

Part II: Executive Summary

Please provide a 150 word executive summary of your plan:

Part III: Student Leadership & Cross-Campus Partners

1. Lead Student(s) Name(s), challenge roles<sup>[2]</sup>, contact information, academic concentration, graduation year, and any relevant organizational affiliation:
2. Please list, in as much detail as possible, partner offices or organizations that will be involved in this program. (Examples include: President's Office, Office of Religious Life, Office of Multicultural Affairs, Office of Service-Learning, Office of Residential Education, Department of Religious Studies, Department of Institutional Assessment and Review, Faculty of Arts & Sciences, etc.)
3. Please list, in as much detail as possible, external community partners that will be involved in this program. (Examples include: First Presbyterian Church, Regional Food Pantry, City-wide Interfaith Council, etc.)
4. Please list, in as much detail as possible, partner student organizations that have committed to this program. (Examples include: Muslim Students Association, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, Circle K, Hindu Students Association, Secular Students Association, Student Government, etc.)

Part IV: Advancing Interfaith Service

All institutions are encouraged to select one-two national service priorities to act upon during the 2011-2012 academic year. This section of the strategic plan describes a focus around a particular service component, including what events will be enacted and how the action around this component will contribute to the broader campus movement for interfaith cooperation.

1. Please select ONE-TWO Kennedy Serve America Act service priorities your campus will engage through this initiative:
  - Domestic poverty & educational opportunity
  - Energy & the environment
  - Health services & healthy living
  - Education
  - Disaster preparedness
  - Veterans and military families
  - Other: (Please indicate)

2. Why is your institution uniquely committed to address this service priority? Please explain why this service initiative is particularly relevant to your campus community. – 300 words or less. (i.e. ROTC is a large percentage of campus, campus already has environmental sustainability within its strategic plan, etc.)
4. Please provide a brief overview of what you plan to do in your interfaith service initiative. How will you address the selected service priority? Explain how you will engage the religious and non-religious diversity of your campus through this service initiative.– 750 words or less.
5. Please describe what you hope the immediate impact of this program will be on your campus community (including an estimation of students your plan will reach). – 300 words or less.

Part V: Advancing Interfaith Engagement

All institutions are encouraged to select at least one strategic interfaith engagement initiative to enact alongside the service effort for the year. The goal of these initiatives is to cultivate a campus-wide value of interfaith and intercultural cooperation (i.e., students, faculty and staff have positive interactions with those of diverse religious and cultural backgrounds, do not display prejudice against those of diverse religious and cultural backgrounds, etc.). These initiatives should leverage traditional institutional structures like communications efforts, education and curricula, and training to improve the campus' capacity to positively engage religious and non-religious diversity.

1. Please select (check) at least one interfaith engagement initiative that your campus will implement in conjunction with the service initiative.
  - Communications: These initiatives demonstrate the institution's public commitment to interfaith cooperation on campus. Program examples include, but are not limited to, an address by your college or university President on the importance of interfaith cooperation, a web-based communications campaign on the importance of interfaith cooperation, or an interfaith cooperation session incorporated into student orientation programs and materials.
  - Education: These initiatives cultivate appreciative knowledge about diverse religious and non-religious identities, positively impacting attitudes and knowledge on diverse religious and non-religious identity. Program examples include, but are not limited to, courses available for students to further develop knowledge-base in interfaith cooperation and service, educational panels and lectures delivered for large audiences on campus, and first year seminars incorporating module(s) on interfaith cooperation.
  - Capacity Building: These initiatives provide students, faculty and staff with a baseline ability to positively engage religious and non-religious diversity within their own spheres of influence. Program examples include, but are not limited to, campus-wide staff training to appropriately engage religious and non-religious identity on campus, faculty professional development opportunities in the area of religious and cultural diversity, or training a core group of students to lead interfaith service events.
2. Please provide a brief overview of your interfaith engagement initiative, including why you selected this particular initiative and how it relates to your interfaith service initiative. – 750 words or less.
3. Please explain steps you are taking to equip your campus to effectively run this initiative (i.e., student/staff orientation, curricular resources for interfaith dialogue and service, leadership training etc.)
4. Please describe what you hope the immediate impact of this program will be on your campus community. – 300 words or less.

Part VI: Implementation, Evaluation & Sustainability

Interfaith cooperation and community service has the potential to build social capital by bringing diverse groups together in action, strengthen social cohesion by promoting inter-religious understanding and civility, and solve social problems by acting on the shared value of service. All campuses should demonstrate that their integrated programming will create measurable impact against these goals. In addition, campuses should indicate how the implementation of this strategic plan will contribute to an ongoing commitment to advancing interfaith and community service on their campus.

1. Please provide a detailed and comprehensive timeline for these programs on campus. Your timeline should demonstrate how these initiatives work in tandem to move towards your stated outcomes. – 750 words or less.
2. Please provide a plan for documenting your year-long service initiative. Please describe what kind of tools you will use to document your progress, including online tools, video, written or printed materials, etc. – 500 words or less
3. Please describe what evaluation method(s) your campus will utilize to indicate that this program will have a sustainable impact. Metrics should include measurement in each of the following impact areas as is appropriate per your stated interfaith engagement initiative. Resources for evaluation are available online through White House partner institutions – 750 words or less:
  - Knowledge: knowledge of the positive history of religious diversity in the United States, literacy of diverse religious and philosophical traditions, etc.
  - Service Impact: quantitative impact (i.e., pounds of waste recycled, number of students tutored, number of meals prepared, etc.). Qualitative impact (i.e., service reflections and journals, etc.)
  - Campus Transformation: institution-wide shift toward greater interfaith cooperation and interfaith service (i.e. survey gauging the campus climate of religious tolerance, student learning outcomes post-participation in challenge events).
4. Please describe how your strategic plan serves as a launching point for a deeper commitment to interfaith cooperation and community service in a sustainable way on your campus. What long-term effects (2-5 years) do you hope to see as a result of this year’s programming? – 500 words or less

Memo to:

Re: Year 2 of the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge

From:

February 8, 2012

As part of a broader plan to highlight accomplishments of the White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnership and the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge, we plan to announce Year 2 of the President's Challenge. Working with the communications department, amplification of Year 1 and announcement of Year 2 will be made through conference calls and specialty press engagement – faith and higher education press.

This memo will provide an overview of the President's Interfaith and Community Service Challenge program to date as well as provide information on the proposed second year of the Challenge. We seek approval for all of the proposed changes for the second year of the Challenge, including a large scale gathering scheduled for Summer 2012.

President's Challenge Overview:

Based on recommendations from the inaugural Faith Council, the White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships launched The President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge in March 2011. This initiative invited institutions of higher education to commit to a year of interfaith cooperation and community service programming on campus. By July 2011, over 400 institutions had written expressing interest, over 250 institutions submitted program plans to implement over the course of the 2011-2012 academic year, and over 300 individuals came to Washington, DC to formally launch the program.

Given the strong continued interest and the excellent outcomes from the program thus far, we propose that the White House continue the program a second year. Several successful programmatic elements will be renewed; additionally, we are planning a few key changes which will enhance the success of the program.

Renewed programmatic elements include:

- Call from the President to high-level institutional leaders (via a new/updated online video and letter) to accept the Challenge
- Campuses submit plans in accordance with a template for year-long interfaith service initiatives
- Strategic networking opportunities to bring campuses together and spotlight the administration's commitment to this work

Key changes include:

- Announce launch in early February 2012 to ensure strong recruitment and on-campus planning processes
- Re-configure the summer networking gathering to include all Year 1 campuses (convening will be capstone and recognition) as well as Year 2 campuses (convening will be a launch and a catalyst)

- Change the White House website to a splash page, rather than the online home; move all online programmatic functioning to challenge.gov
- Modify the program plan template to be more streamlined and ask more effective questions
- Include a plan to provide specific recognitions and distinctions for particular campuses at the end of the programmatic year
- Provide a menu of public/private resources to support campus' work in this area (all available by application); examples include AmeriCorps members and micro grants

We are moving forward with the planning of the event. It will be boys of color (not just AA) and actually the next step is DPC (Mary Wall) will be reaching out to you all in OPE to set up a meeting to get the summit on the calendar for late April early May. We can talk more tomorrow at Kitchen Cabinet but it be great if you could help push it along.

Are they envisioning combining with our event and not having their event? Can we hop on the phone this week (maybe Friday) to flesh this out more. I like the additions you all made and think the National Call to Action makes a lot of sense in combination with the issuing of the reports.

Any progress on setting up a meeting with OPE?

I just learned that there will be a WH Community Partners Summit in Orlando on Mar. 30. Stephanie Valencia at OPE is the lead, but this might be a perfect fit as the WH wants as many departments as possible to be represented. If we have at least 2 or 3 of us there, we could do a pull-aside with Latino pastors to cover the toolkit that would be perfect or something the day before.

Paul, would this work for you and what you and your colleagues are working on?

Good morning sisters and brothers-

I know most of us were just in Orlando mere days ago, but this is a request for a version of our Connecting Communities event back in Central Florida. Betsy was at the First Lady's Let's Move event and I met her in the clutch. She also helped the folks at Ed and OPE organize the first WH Hispanic Community Action Summit there in Orlando.

Is there anything any of you are doing that might fit with her request? Is there any prospect for a Connecting Communities event or Social Safety Net gathering that might work?

Thanks tons, Max

Hi Max,

I am the Hispanic Outreach Director in Central Florida, who has worked closely with Jose Rico and Lisa Pino on White House Summit in Central Florida.

I have been referred to you by Jose Rico.

The Hispanic Outreach within the Faith Based community has been my primary focus in the last several months in Central Florida. I have conducted various meetings with Faith Leadership organizations and I found there is a tremendous need for information on what the Administration has available and how to access Federal programs to help the Churches service the huge struggling Hispanic population in Central Florida.

Having worked on the First Hispanic White House Summit in Orlando, and seeing the benefits this provided to our community, I suggest we work on putting together a Faith Based WH Summit and bring several Faith Outreach Senior Administration Staff from the Federal programs to interact with theses Faith Leaders in Central Florida.

Some of the areas of need identified are as follows:

- Food Bank Services
- Healthcare accessibility
- Housing
- Immigration
- Employment
- Information on the Faith Based grants
- Programs to help Small Hispanic Businesses

Please advise how soon we can make this happen, it's a great opportunity to speak to this important and influential segment of our Hispanic Population about our Administration and how we can assist them to help their Faith community.

Looking forward to your response.

Please send Betsy information on the Food Bank pilot program and any information on faith based initiatives in her area. I also included the Roundtable Tool-kit with the hopes of someone from the Faith-based office joining them in Orlando.

Betsy,

I leave you in good hands. Healthcare accessibility

Jim wasn't able to speak with them, but Nia (his Chief of Staff) and Larkin Tackett (Promise Neighborhoods Director) were both able to meet with them. So there is a possibility that any concerns Jim would speak to have already been addressed.

Regarding your meeting with Jim, how would 5pm next Tuesday work for you?

Good afternoon everyone. Camilla, I'm following up on your message from a week ago, do we have any projected dates yet for March for the State Arrival and White House tour?

It's the beginning of the month and I know schedules have already begun to fill up. Just a reminder, for the tour we prefer a Saturday schedule, and I know there is less flexibility for the State Arrival ceremony so we'll just await whichever date works best for the White House.

Thanks again and have a wonderful day!

Hi Heather. Thanks for the prompt response. Do you have the dates yet for what you're proposing below?

Specifically for:

- 1) The State Arrival in March, which I understand our WAVE form was processed for this per your email below.
  - 2) Projected dates for East Wing Tours in March. And will this still be related to or an extension of events for African American History Month, or is this just a part of the regular White House East Wing Tour. Either way we can work with March.
- If we can have a date and time blocks for the East Wing Tour in March on a Saturday that would be our preference.
  - In terms of this Saturday we wouldn't instruct anyone to come to the White House this weekend without getting an authorization from your office as of course we want to avoid a repeat of last week.

Thanks again for responding so quickly and for approving our participation for the State Arrival event in March. I know our group will be pleased with this arrangement!

Thanks again to you all for everything. Have a wonderful evening.

Best regards,

Yolanda

Yolanda,

I just wanted to clarify that per our discussions last week Friday we will have your large group back for the White House State arrival. As for the tours we can look to see if we can do one later in March but at this late date we are already overwhelmed with space due to the high demand during February. We have already processed the wave form for the State arrival in March.

Please do not have your group come to the White House on Saturday because they will not be able to access the tours since there are no available spaces at this late date. We look forward to accommodating your group next month.

Thanks again,

Heather Foster

Hi everyone. Tenicka. Thank you for forwarding Heather's contact information.

Heather and Camilla, I'm following up with you both per our discussions and your promises from last Friday, February 17th to have our group rescheduled for this week. I've attached the WAVE form again and I hope that we can schedule everyone for this Saturday, as it will be hard to have people take time off again on a week day.

If we need to break our group up into smaller groupings please let me know so we can coordinate this together.

I'm continuing to get questions re: if this will happen this week and would like to maintain everyone's interest in this important tour.

Good evening everyone. Thank you gain Tenicka and Camilla for all of your help today. Our names were finally cleared for today's tour, but unfortunately the entire group wasn't able to stay. I really appreciate what you pulled off for us today.

Camilla, I would like to reschedule our team to come next Saturday, February 25th for another East Wing Tour.

I'd also like to connect with Heather who was very helpful today and greeted our group once we were cleared later in the afternoon. She specifically mentioned we would all be invited to a state reception in the coming week's and I'd like to follow through on that event as well.

It was great opportunity to tour the White House, see history, and support our President, whom we are all very much in support of.

I've attached information about the two organization's that made up our 30+ people.

Thank you all again for your help.

Hi Yolanda,

I have attached the directions for the state arrival ceremony. I want that you have the correct instructions that this is for the arrival ceremony and NOT the dinner. Please see all details below.

Directions for UK State Arrival

Date:
Wednesday, March 14, 2012

Time:
Gates are open between 7:00am and 8:30am. Please plan to arrive by 7:45am to account for long lines.

Entrance:
Please use the guest entrance at 15th St. NW and E St. NW (see attached Info Document).

Identification:
A US driver's license, valid passport or Diplomatic ID are the only valid forms of ID accepted by Secret Service for admittance to the Arrival Ceremony and all information submitted in the WAVES form must match the name and date on the ID. Non-US Citizens must have their valid passport (preferred) or diplomatic ID in order to be admitted to the Arrival Ceremony.

Thank you, and we look forward to seeing you at the White House for this special ceremony!

Good afternoon everyone. Camilla, I'm following up on your message from a week ago, do we have any projected dates yet for March for the State Arrival and White House tour?

It's the beginning of the month and I know schedules have already begun to fill up. Just a reminder, for the tour we prefer a Saturday schedule, and I know there is less flexibility for the State Arrival ceremony so we'll just await whichever date works best for the White House.

Thanks again and have a wonderful day!

Yolanda

Hi Heather. Thanks for the prompt response. Do you have the dates yet for what you're proposing below?

Specifically for:

- 1) The State Arrival in March, which I understand our WAVE form was processed for this per your email below.
  - 2) Projected dates for East Wing Tours in March. And will this still be related to or an extension of events for African American History Month, or is this just a part of the regular White House East Wing Tour. Either way we can work with March.
- If we can have a date and time blocks for the East Wing Tour in March on a Saturday that would be our preference.
  - In terms of this Saturday we wouldn't instruct anyone to come to the White House this weekend without getting an authorization from your office as of course we want to avoid a repeat of last week.

Thanks again for responding so quickly and for approving our participation for the State Arrival event in March. I know our group will be pleased with this arrangement!

Thanks again to you all for everything. Have a wonderful evening.

Best regards,

Yolanda

Yolanda,

I just wanted to clarify that per our discussions last week Friday we will have your large group back for the White House State arrival. As for the tours we can look to see if we can do one later in March but at this late date we are already overwhelmed with space due to the high demand during February. We have already processed the wave form for the State arrival in March.

Please do not have your group come to the White House on Saturday because they will not be able to access the tours since there are no available spaces at this late date. We look forward to accommodating your group next month.

Thanks again,

Heather Foster

Hi everyone. Tenicka. Thank you for forwarding Heather's contact information.

Heather and Camilla, I'm following up with you both per our discussions and your promises from last Friday, February 17th to have our group rescheduled for this week. I've attached the WAVE form again and I hope that we can schedule everyone for this Saturday, as it will be hard to have people take time off again on a week day.

If we need to break our group up into smaller groupings please let me know so we can coordinate this together.

I'm continuing to get questions re: if this will happen this week and would like to maintain everyone's interest in this important tour.

Thanks again to you all for your help.

Good evening everyone. Thank you gain Tenicka and Camilla for all of your help today. Our names were finally cleared for today's tour, but unfortunately the entire group wasn't able to stay. I really appreciate what you pulled off for us today.

Camilla, I would like to reschedule our team to come next Saturday, February 25th for another East Wing Tour.

I'd also like to connect with Heather who was very helpful today and greeted our group once we were cleared later in the afternoon. She specifically mentioned we would all be invited to a state reception in the coming week's and I'd like to follow through on that event as well.

It was great opportunity to tour the White House, see history, and support our President, whom we are all very much in support of.

I've attached information about the two organization's that made up our 30+ people.

Thank you all again for your help.

Dear Michael and John,

Thank you very much for holding a call to brief Atlantic and Elev8 on the important work you and your colleagues are doing to strengthen partnerships that support students, schools and families. I am sorry that my schedule would not permit me to participate, but I have been briefed by Naomi, who confirms alignment between our priorities and a mutual interest in exploring how we might work together. Together for Tomorrow seems to be particularly in line with our Elev8 work; building strong infrastructure to support community-school partnerships, ensuring families and communities are deeply invested in education; and using measurable outcomes to ensure student success. We look forward to the possible public launch later this month, and would certainly also be interested in participating in meetings or events in Albuquerque or Chicago, as well as the other Elev8 communities.

Again, thank you very much.

Hi John,

I had this email drafted earlier and then our computers crashed this morning. I was hoping you could join for the kitchen cabinet call.

I understand your strategy. I think instituting a biweekly check in call so we can all be on the same page would be the most effective. In the meantime please send me all recommendations for cabinet and subcabinet to participate in HBCU graduations and especially recommendations for the First Lady. As I have mentioned to many of our leaders the time that we have for the President this year is extremely limited so we should plan accordingly for the next several months.

We can do our check in call this Friday if you are not on travel.

Best,

Heather Foster

Heather:

We need to just carve some time to talk strategy. You, JB and me. Can we do that today? What about AFTER the KC meeting? We need to discuss: POTUS and FLOTUS at HBCU graduations (we have ideas on that, based on data collected yesterday); POTUS at the September Conference (per Straut's advice, we will have a letter in your hands today to process for clearance); getting Secretaries and other cabinet officials lined up to do HBCU graduations; the minority male summit at the White House (with Jawando in the lead); and figuring out a way for JB and I to be integrated into your (you, Zakiya, Straut) thinking and planning much earlier, so that we can be proactive with you, rather than just reactive to you and the White House. I want us included in meetings earlier over there, rather than conferred with for data and information, so the planning and strategizing can be done on a different track. Too often, we feel marginal. Unlike your agency contacts and reps, we are a WH Initiative, and I think that means we should be "on the team" more than we are now. Can we focus on and fix that starting with a meeting and conversation today? Hope so. And you can trust that, for this repair, I think the tweaks are small and the benefits will be GREAT!

Hi Heather,

Do you know if the names I sent made the invite list? I have received a few emails from folks who heard about the event from others and in one case the invite was forwarded from friend to friend. Both of their names were on my list but could have been submitted from others sources too. These women are from MD, PA and GA. Feel free to call me if its easier. I don't know how to respond.

I'm back home now (b)(6)

Pastors and the White House Working Together for the Common Good

Dear Reverend,

We are delighted to invite you to join Senior White House and Obama Administration officials for a day-long briefing on how the Obama Administration is impacting issues of concern in your community, and how you can partner with the Obama Administration moving forward.

Confirmed participants will receive high-level briefings from the government's top officials on a range of key issues, focusing on jobs and economic development and also featuring fatherhood and healthy families; housing; health care; and consumer protection. Participants will also participate in policy break-out sessions to inform the work of the White House.

Date: Friday, March 23rd, 2012

Location: The White House, Eisenhower Executive Office Building, Washington, D.C.

RSVP by: Friday, March 9th, 2012

RSVP by “Replying All” to this message with your full name, date of birth, social security number, and city and state of residence.

Space is very limited and is first-come, first-served. This invitation is non-transferable. Travel and accommodations are not provided.

We hope to see you for this important briefing on the 23rd!

Best wishes,

The White House Offices of Public Engagement and Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships

Hey Kim,

Im so sorry I missed your housewarming last night ☹ I fell asleep girl!! Yes that early and then woke up and cleaned. I will be driving around next weekend so I will definitely come visit.

Are you going to the event for Soror Height next Saturday at Shiloh?

I wanted to ask if you could send me a contact for the drum corp at Bellou high school. It would be great if they could participate in the Easter Egg Roll. Please let me know as soon as possible.

Hi Heather,

Would you potentially be available to meet Jim a half hour earlier tomorrow? He has a meeting until 4pm on the hill and I'd like to arrange for him to come directly to you following this meeting. Could you meet at 4:30pm-5:30pm tomorrow at your office?

Thank you,

Where: Secretary's Conference Room

This screening is limited to you and/or your designee.

Walden Media, one of the lead producers of WAITING FOR SUPERMAN, will present an advance screening of their next education-focused movie set for wide release this September. A significant feature of the plot is a mother and a teacher invoking a parent trigger to transform their low-performing school. NY Times article about the movie here:

<http://www.nytimes.com/2012/02/21/movies/viola-davis-and-maggie-gyllenhaal-in-parent-trigger-film.html>

A SYNOPSIS

Maggie Gyllenhaal and Viola Davis play two determined mothers-, one a teacher, who will stop at nothing to transform their children's failing inner city school. Facing a powerful and entrenched bureaucracy, they risk everything to make a difference in the education and future of their children. This powerful story of parenthood, friendship and courage mirrors events that are making headlines daily.

Hello again Heather. Just following up from this morning to confirm who from our list was not approved for tomorrow's state arrival ceremony.

Since the event is at 7:30 am I'd like to let the person know before COB today to avoid them being embarrassed tomorrow while at the White House.

Camilla or Tenicka, if either of you also know which name on our list was not approved, can either of you give me a call as well please.

Reverend Brenda, any assistance you can offer from your end is also appreciated! ☺

I can be reached at (b)(6) which is my mobile number.

Thanks

Good afternoon everyone. Camilla, I'm following up on your message from a week ago, do we have any projected dates yet for March for the State Arrival and White House tour?

It's the beginning of the month and I know schedules have already begun to fill up. Just a reminder, for the tour we prefer a Saturday schedule, and I know there is less flexibility for the State Arrival ceremony so we'll just await whichever date works best for the White House.

Thanks again and have a wonderful day!

Yolanda

Hi Heather. Thanks for the prompt response. Do you have the dates yet for what you're proposing below?

Specifically for:

- 1) The State Arrival in March, which I understand our WAVE form was processed for this per your email below.
  - 2) Projected dates for East Wing Tours in March. And will this still be related to or an extension of events for African American History Month, or is this just a part of the regular White House East Wing Tour. Either way we can work with March.
- If we can have a date and time blocks for the East Wing Tour in March on a Saturday that would be our preference.
  - In terms of this Saturday we wouldn't instruct anyone to come to the White House this weekend without getting an authorization from your office as of course we want to avoid a repeat of last week.

Thanks again for responding so quickly and for approving our participation for the State Arrival event in March. I know our group will be pleased with this arrangement!

Thanks again to you all for everything. Have a wonderful evening.

Best regards,

Yolanda

Yolanda,

I just wanted to clarify that per our discussions last week Friday we will have your large group back for the White House State arrival. As for the tours we can look to see if we can do one later in March but at this late date we are already overwhelmed with space due to the high demand during February. We have already processed the wave form for the State arrival in March.

Please do not have your group come to the White House on Saturday because they will not be able to access the tours since there are no available spaces at this late date. We look forward to accommodating your group next month.

Thanks again,

Heather Foster

Hi everyone. Tenicka. Thank you for forwarding Heather's contact information.

Heather and Camilla, I'm following up with you both per our discussions and your promises from last Friday, February 17th to have our group rescheduled for this week. I've attached the WAVE form again and I hope that we can schedule everyone for this Saturday, as it will be hard to have people take time off again on a week day.

If we need to break our group up into smaller groupings please let me know so we can coordinate this together.

I'm continuing to get questions re: if this will happen this week and would like to maintain everyone's interest in this important tour.

Thanks again to you all for your help.

Best,

Yolanda

Good evening everyone. Thank you gain Tenicka and Camilla for all of your help today. Our names were finally cleared for today's tour, but unfortunately the entire group wasn't able to stay. I really appreciate what you pulled off for us today.

Camilla, I would like to reschedule our team to come next Saturday, February 25th for another East Wing Tour.

I'd also like to connect with Heather who was very helpful today and greeted our group once we were cleared later in the afternoon. She specifically mentioned we would all be invited to a state reception in the coming week's and I'd like to follow through on that event as well.

It was great opportunity to tour the White House, see history, and support our President, whom we are all very much in support of.

I've attached information about the two organization's that made up our 30+ people.

Thank you all again for your help.

Hi all,

The White House is going to host a meeting of African American Clergy on March 23. This is a high level meeting and we are looking for Cabinet to speak to the group throughout the morning. We'd like to invite Secretary Duncan to attend.

The meeting will take place at the White House and the drop by would include 8-10 minutes of remarks followed by Q&A.

Additional information is below, and I have cc'd staff from the WH offices of Public Engagement and Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships, who can answer any questions. If the Secretary is available, they can work with you to schedule a time for him to drop by.

Thanks much,
Colleen

White House National African American Pastors Convening

Pastors and the White House Working Together for the Common Good

To Members of the Cabinet,

We are delighted to invite you to offer remarks at the upcoming White House National African American Clergy Convening on Friday, March 23rd. The nation's top African American religious leaders – including heads of all African American denominations, top mega-church pastors, and key women clergy leaders – will be in attendance to hear updates from the Administration on key policy issues and offer their thoughts and perspective through breakout sessions. Clergy are likely to hear directly from President Obama as well. We would be honored if you could attend and speak at this important briefing.

Members of the Cabinet would be requested to offer 8-10 minute remarks on the work of your agency, and take brief Q&A as appropriate. We can work with your staff to determine the best time for you to speak between 9am – 12:30pm on the 23rd.

Thank you very much for your consideration, and please let us know if we can provide any further information.

Best wishes,

The White House Offices of Public Engagement and Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships

John, Asim, Brenda, and Ken,

Yesterday I sent around just the TFT plan template. I have since updated it and incorporated it into a longer working document with all the sections we need for the challenge.gov site. I will continue to work on the FAQ separately.

I'd like to get this to legal counsel (Laura Ginns) asap, but need your review and input first. Would you all please block out some time to review/comment/edit within the next day? I'll send it to Laura on Thursday morning with whatever feedback incorporated by then.

Many thanks,

Perfect.

Ty- free help, let me know if you need Ulili.

Heather- it would be great if you could chat with her as well if she gets the opportunity to help you all out. Let me know.

Thanks Kim

Hey Kim,

Unfortunately all of our tours are currently filled until Easter. If the OPE slots for the East Wing Tours become available we will let you know as soon as possible. As for volunteering if anything comes up I will let you know but I defer to Tyi on what might be available.

Best,

Heather Foster

Hello Heather & Ty,

Please give me a call. I have an intern named Ulili Emore coming from Princeton University (Princeternship) to Department of ED next week for 3 days on March 19th -21st and her background is in African studies. I would love for her to take a quick tour of the East wing if possible and maybe help you all out for a couple of hours or so. She is available almost the whole day on Monday and Tuesday. I'm trying to fill up her schedule. Please let me know if you have a need. Ulili's resume is attached. Have a great day. Thanks -Kim-

Dear Joshua, Paul and Michael,

Please let us know the status of the invites for this event. It is dated Friday the 9th with an RSVP date of the 9th. Will addition invites be sent to women clergy/pastors. Many women will be, founders, associate pastors and leaders of ecumenical bodies... newer on the scene but influential. What is the time of the event?

Please advise.
Blessings,
Brenda

John, Asim, Brenda, and Ken,

Yesterday I sent around just the TFT plan template. I have since updated it and incorporated it into a longer working document with all the sections we need for the challenge.gov site. I will continue to work on the FAQ separately.

I'd like to get this to legal counsel (Laura Ginns) asap, but need your review and input first. Would you all please block out some time to review/comment/edit within the next day? I'll send it to Laura on Thursday morning with whatever feedback incorporated by then.

Many thanks,
Michael

Hi Tanya

I am following up on your request and the guidance that I received from White House Counsel is that we cannot host any meetings on voting rights law issues at all. I still would encourage you to work with the Department of Justice Office of Civil Rights and if you need any additional contacts for their office please let me know.

I also have Easter Egg Roll tickets available for our partner organizations so please let me know if you are interested-I believe we may have discussed this on the phone.

Hello Jim,

I hope all is well.

In reference to our conversation, please see the attached information about the Strive to Succeed Fashion Gala, accompanied by my bio.

With the goal of raising funding to support and educate women in need, the Strive to Succeed Fashion Gala is destined to be a stellar event to celebrate Dress For Success' 10th anniversary of promoting economic independence, and providing career education training to over 12,000 disadvantaged women in Washington D.C., and over 550,000 women worldwide.

The gala will also recognize the tremendous impact Dr. Jill Biden's White House Summit is making through Skills For America's Future, and Gap for Community Colleges. The success of the summit's goals is evidenced through $16,000 in scholarships The Gap awarded to students in the University of the District of Columbia Community College's Fashion Merchandising Program. As founder of the program, and its only full time professor, I can personally attest to the fact that this thriving partnership could not have happened without Dr. Biden. To honor her commitment, I would like to present Dr. Biden with the Strive to Succeed Education Award.

The gala is tentatively scheduled for this summer of 2012, with the focus on June. However, Dr. Biden's presence to receive the award would be ideal. Therefore, to make it convenient for her, the event will be scheduled around her availability. Thank you in advance for offering to contact Dr. Biden's office to inform them about the Strive to Succeed Education Award, and inquire about her schedule.

I sincerely appreciate your efforts.

Best regards,

Brett,

Both Rev. Brenda Girton-Mitchell and I will be out of town next Tuesday.

I met Father Judge over a year ago over the phone. We had a very interesting conversation where he told me about the great work at Regis High School.

I am disappointed to miss meeting him in person.

For Rev. Girton Mitchell, Ken and Alexia's purposes, as I mentioned, I represent Regis High School in New York City which is one of only a handful of 100% scholarship boys catholic high schools in the United States. The school has been operating since the early 1900's.

I apologize for the short notice but the schools administrator Father Michal Judge, who attended the conference you sponsored at the end of last year, will be in town this Tuesday March 20th for an alumni reception on the Hill and I wanted to see if you had a few minutes to meet with us to discuss Tuesday morning between 9 and 12 to discuss the work REGIS is doing at the high school level and an innovative program called the "REACH Program." REACH works with underperforming kids to prepare them for acceptance to elite private and public high schools in NYC. And also to see how we might work with the administration on these issues.

Any time you have is greatly appreciated.

Please feel free to call me on my cell phone at (b)(6) or at my office at 202-589-0800.

Thank you for the consideration.

Hi all,

The White House is going to host a meeting of African American Clergy on March 23. This is a high level meeting and we are looking for Cabinet to speak to the group throughout the morning. We'd like to invite Secretary Duncan to attend.

The meeting will take place at the White House and the drop by would include 8-10 minutes of remarks followed by Q&A.

Additional information is below, and I have cc'd staff from the WH offices of Public Engagement and Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships, who can answer any questions. If the Secretary is available, they can work with you to schedule a time for him to drop by.

Thanks much,
Colleen

White House National African American Pastors Convening

Pastors and the White House Working Together for the Common Good

To Members of the Cabinet,

We are delighted to invite you to offer remarks at the upcoming White House National African American Clergy Convening on Friday, March 23rd. The nation's top African American religious leaders – including heads of all African American denominations, top mega-church pastors, and key women clergy leaders – will be in attendance to hear updates from the Administration on key policy issues and offer their thoughts and perspective through breakout sessions. Clergy are likely to hear directly from President Obama as well. We would be honored if you could attend and speak at this important briefing.

Members of the Cabinet would be requested to offer 8-10 minute remarks on the work of your agency, and take brief Q&A as appropriate. We can work with your staff to determine the best time for you to speak between 9am – 12:30pm on the 23rd.

Thank you very much for your consideration, and please let us know if we can provide any further information.

Best wishes,

The White House Offices of Public Engagement and Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships

Mr. John Kelly
Policy Advisor
Office of Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships Domestic Policy Council The White House Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Kelly,

It is a "Significant" privilege to communicate with you and thank the Senior U.S. Senator from Florida, the Hon... Bill Nelson for introducing me to you and key members and colleagues of yours from The White House Team! Across the introductions at Memorial Middle School in Orlando, Florida on Friday Feb. 24, 2012, I appreciated your patience around the mention of how the Y of Central Florida and its Partners (Tavistock, Inc, Orange County Public Schools, Orlando Regional Health, and the City of Orlando, Florida, produced the Co-located YMCA and Public Elementary School in a single structure, with a single entrance through which the entire community is exposed to the best-practices of the Y/School model in Twenty-first Century America. A model that is now established for Twelve-years and that the Secretary of Education during his visit to the Co-located model, declared it to be the model school for the Twenty-First Century. It is this model that we are convinced that the First-Lady and the President can point to with accuracy being a sustainable model of Leadership and outcome that will preserve the Learning-Gains of school-age children during their summer recess and bring them to Reading/ "STEM"--Parity at the beginning of each school-year across their K-12 academic, social, athletic, and arts experience. The Brian Williams Piece is included as a link below to demonstrate how learning-gains are lost among children who come from low-income families vs. middle-income families. The Kathleen Kennedy Townsend Article (Former Lt. Gov. of Maryland) is attached to show her articulated impact of the Lake Nona Model during her visit in 2011.

The principal objective to meet with your White House Team is to organize a visit of the First-Lady and her "Lets Move" Team to Lake Nona – where she can observe first-hand what Dr. Ben Carson Sr. from Johns Hopkins, former President George Busch, U.S. Senator Bill Nelson, Secy. Arne Duncan, and Kathleen Kennedy Townsend all witness to be one of the most prolific sustained models of education existing as a straight-"A" school in America's ninth Largest School District, Orange County Florida Public Schools. Certainly, at this time in our Nation's history it is very important for the First-Lady and the President to know what is relevant, working and achieving of the most important civil rights of the Twenty-First Century: education!

It is important to note that as a result of my conversation with Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation of Community Service Robert Velasco II, I am working with Suzanne Richards, the State Program Director, to organize a tour of Lake Nona for the State National Community Service Inc. Representatives prior to my visit with the White House and Faith Based Teams at the end of March/beginning of April.

I would like this meeting to occur with your team at the 2nd or 3rd week of April, before the school term ends for the summer so the First Lady and her team can see first hand what the Lake Nona environment looks like while school is in session. I remain.

Friends and Colleagues,

It is with both with sadness and excitement to share that today is my last day at the White House before transitioning to the Corporation for National and Community Service.

The past 9 months working in the White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships has been some of the most rewarding and treasured days of my professional career. I am so happy for all we have accomplished working together on shared priorities.

The exciting news is that I am not going far and that I will continue to work in the Administration seeking partnership with you around shared values. On Monday, I will begin working as a Senior Advisor to the CEO and Director of Partnerships and Engagement at the Corporation for National and Community Service. Many of the same initiatives that we have worked on together will be under my portfolio, as well as some new opportunities for collaboration.

Thank you all for your support, partnership, and friendship and I look forward to working with you in my new capacity!

My new work email address beginning this Monday will be: JKelly@cns.gov<mailto:JKelly@cns.gov> and my personal email remains: (b)(6) mailto:(b)(6)

In partnership,
John Kelly

Greetings Joshua,

I hope this note finds you well. I am following up from Payne's February 27, 2012 meeting. Dr. Fitchue will be in Washington, DC next week and has availability on Thursday, March 29, 2012. I am reaching out to see if that would be a good time for a meeting with Rev. Brenda Gerden Mitchell and/or Dr. Michael Battle regarding Payne Theological Seminary's HBCU certification with the Department of Education. Please let me know if this date could work for a possible meeting.

Blessings,

Jules

For Immediate Release
March 20, 2012

Statement by White House Communications Director Dan Pfeiffer on the Ryan Republican Budget

The House budget once again fails the test of balance, fairness, and shared responsibility. It would shower the wealthiest few Americans with an average tax cut of at least $150,000, while preserving taxpayer giveaways to oil companies and breaks for Wall Street hedge fund managers. What's worse is that all of these tax breaks would be paid for by undermining Medicare and the very things we need to grow our economy and the middle class – things like education, basic research, and new sources of energy. And instead of strengthening Medicare, the House budget would end Medicare as we know it, turning the guarantee of retirement security into a voucher that will shift higher and higher costs to seniors over time.

The House economic plan draws on the same wrong-headed theory that led to the worst recession of our lifetimes and contributed to the erosion of middle-class security over the last decade. And the President believes we cannot return to a failed theory that didn't lead to the growth of jobs, incomes, or the economy. That's why he put forward a balanced approach that reduces the deficit by over $4 trillion. It's an approach that asks the wealthiest to pay their fair share, makes tough cuts to programs we can't afford, and strengthens Medicare with reforms that would reduce overpayments to drug companies, improve the quality of care, and protect Medicare's commitment to America's seniors.

Best,

Heather J. Foster

We connected with Randy Testa at Walden early on (Fall 2009?) during our Listening and Learning tour stop in Boston. He subsequently was one of the contacts for setting up a Listening and Learning tour meeting in Los Angeles with media/film folks. We stayed in touch during Walden's work on Waiting for Superman. Randy reached out to me to get this screening set up.

Roberto Rodriguez is confirmed to attend and Sec. Duncan will probably come. John Kelly is coming over and maybe Asim Mishra from CNCS. We have about 15 other senior staff confirmed for the screening tomorrow. Would be great if Joshua is available.

Walden Media, one of the lead producers of WAITING FOR SUPERMAN, will present an advance screening of their next education-focused movie set for wide release this September. A significant feature of the plot is a mother and a teacher invoking a parent trigger to transform their low-performing school. NY Times article about the movie here:

<http://www.nytimes.com/2012/02/21/movies/viola-davis-and-maggie-gyllenhaal-in-parent-trigger-film.html>

A SYNOPSIS

Maggie Gyllenhaal and Viola Davis play two determined mothers, one a teacher, who will stop at nothing to transform their children's failing inner city school. Facing a powerful and entrenched bureaucracy, they risk everything to make a difference in the education and future of their children. This powerful story of parenthood, friendship and courage mirrors events that are making headlines daily.

Hi friends,

Are you free from approximately 10am – 12pm tomorrow? I could use your presence on a panel of Center staff – offering 2 min overview of your work, and then a q&a facilitated by me.

Mike can WAVE you in.

Thanks!

Question: Mr. President, may I ask you about this current case in Florida, very controversial, allegations of lingering racism within our society -- the so-called do not -- I'm sorry -- Stand Your Ground law and the justice in that? Can you comment on the Trayvon Martin case, sir?

THE PRESIDENT: Well, I'm the head of the executive branch, and the Attorney General reports to me so I've got to be careful about my statements to make sure that we're not impairing any investigation that's taking place right now.

But obviously, this is a tragedy. I can only imagine what these parents are going through. And when I think about this boy, I think about my own kids. And I think every parent in America should be able to understand why it is absolutely imperative that we investigate every aspect of this, and that everybody pulls together -- federal, state and local -- to figure out exactly how this tragedy happened.

So I'm glad that not only is the Justice Department looking into it, I understand now that the governor of the state of Florida has formed a task force to investigate what's taking place. I think all of us have to do some soul searching to figure out how does something like this happen. And that means that examine the laws and the context for what happened, as well as the specifics of the incident.

But my main message is to the parents of Trayvon Martin. If I had a son, he'd look like Trayvon. And I think they are right to expect that all of us as Americans are going to take this with the seriousness it deserves, and that we're going to get to the bottom of exactly what happened.

Thank you.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT
ON THE NOMINATION OF JIM YONG KIM
TO BE PRESIDENT OF THE WORLD BANK

The Rose Garden

10:09 A.M. EDT

THE PRESIDENT: Good morning, everybody.

In February, Bob Zoellick, the current President of the World Bank, announced that he would be stepping down at the end of his term in June. Bob has been a strong and effective leader at the bank for the last five years, and when he told me about his plans, I immediately began to search for someone to fill his shoes.

Now, despite its name, the World Bank is more than just a bank. It's one of the most powerful tools we have to reduce poverty and raise standards of living in some of the poorest countries on the planet. And in a world that is growing smaller and more connected every day, that's a critical mission -- not just for those who are struggling, but for all of us.

When we reduce hunger in the world, or help a farmer recover from a flood or a drought, it strengthens the entire world economy. When we put an end to a preventable disease, all of us are safer because of it. When an entrepreneur can start a new business, it creates jobs in their country, but also opens up new markets for our country. And ultimately, when a nation goes from poverty to prosperity, it makes the world stronger and more secure for everybody.

That's why the World Bank is so important. And that's why the leader of the World Bank should have a deep understanding of both the role that development plays in the world, and the importance of creating conditions where assistance is no longer needed.

I believe that nobody is more qualified to carry out that mission than Dr. Jim Kim. It's time for a development professional to lead the world's largest development agency. And that's why today, after a careful and thorough search, I am nominating Dr. Jim Kim to be the next president of the World Bank.

Jim has spent more than two decades working to improve conditions in developing countries around the world. As a physician and an anthropologist, he co-founded Partners in Health, and led a World Health Organization campaign to treat 3 million patients with HIV/AIDS. I have made HIV/AIDS and the fight against that dreaded disease and the promotion of public health a cornerstone of my development agenda, building on some of the outstanding work that was done by President Bush.

We pursue these efforts around the globe because it's the right thing to do, and also because healthy populations enable growth and prosperity. And I'm pleased that Jim brings this particular experience with him to his new job.

Jim was also the chair of the Department of Global Health and Social Medicine at Harvard Medical School. He has earned a MacArthur "Genius" Fellowship. And for the last three years, he has served as the president of Dartmouth College.

I should also mention that, after immigrating to this country from Korea at age five, Jim went on to become the president of his high school class, the quarterback of the football team, the point guard of the basketball team. I just found out he is a five handicap in golf. I'm a little resentful about that last item. (Laughter.) But he does it all.

Jim has truly global experience. He's worked from Asia to Africa to the Americas -- from capitals to small villages. His personal story exemplifies the great diversity of our country and the fact that anyone can make it as far as he has as long as they're willing to work hard and look out for others. And his experience makes him ideally suited to forge partnerships all around the world.

So I could not be more pleased to nominate Jim for this job, and I think I can speak for Secretary Clinton and Secretary Geithner when I say that we are looking forward to working with him.

And I also want to take a minute to thank Bob Zoellick once again for all his hard work. Over the last five years, Bob has made the bank more transparent, he has helped shore up progress made in places like Afghanistan. He's raised billions of dollars to help some of the world's poorest communities.

Jim is the right person to carry on that legacy, and I know his unique set of skills and years of experience will serve him well. So I'm grateful to Jim for his willingness to serve. I do not think that the World Bank could have a better leader. So, thank you.

DR. KIM: Mr. President, thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you.

DR. KIM: Thank you, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: You're going to do great. Thank you. All right?

Q Mr. President, may I ask you about this current case in Florida, very controversial, allegations of lingering racism within our society -- the so-called do not -- I'm sorry -- Stand Your Ground law and the justice in that? Can you comment on the Trayvon Martin case, sir?

Dear colleagues:

Please forgive the delay in submitting this midyear report. I have just received the final pieces from students. Please let me know you have received it. Significant work has been done in second semester.

I am wondering also whether you can promote our summer Interfaith Youth Initiative leadership camp at Brandeis in July, with tracks for college and high school students.

Best wishes,

Alex

Dear Colleagues,

Hope you are well! It's a pleasure to be in touch. We've been so inspired to hear about all of the work you've been doing so far on your President's Challenge initiatives - through the Facebook group and your individual emails, we've loved hearing your stories. Thank you for everything you have already done on the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge!

Today we have two announcements on important upcoming dates for the President's Challenge. First, attached to this email, please find the mid-year reporting template. Mid-year reporting is an opportunity to provide an update on what you have accomplished thus far. After reviewing all of the plans you submitted this summer, we are eager to hear how each campus has progressed. To that end, please fill out the attached reporting template and submit the final document to whpartnerships@who.eop.gov by December 15, 2011. As a part of this reporting process, we would love to see photos and/or short videos that you have recorded as a part of your Challenge. Please enclose this documentation in your email as well. We will use all of this information and media to share your stories far and wide through the broader work of the White House. Thank you in advance!

We are pleased to announce an upcoming conference call on November 9, 2011 at 3pm EST. During this conference call, we will hear updates and greetings from Joshua DuBois at the White House, review the mid-year reporting template in detail (and provide an opportunity to ask any questions you may have) as well as discuss upcoming national service days. National service days are excellent opportunities for you to streamline your President's Challenge program with national service priorities, and we would like to share resources and opportunities available at the federal level to accentuate and support your excellent work. We will disseminate call-in information and a formal agenda for this conference call next week but in the meantime, please hold this time on your calendar.

Again, thank you for your work! If you have any immediate questions about the mid-year reporting process or the upcoming conference call, please email edpartnerships@ed.gov.

Sincerely,

John Kelly,

Senior Policy Advisor

Hi Michael,

I hope you're doing well. Gabe and Scott Calgaro invited me to put together an education policy briefing for the Q conference next month. I think it'll be a great opportunity to further inform faith leaders about the deep chasm between kids in low-income communities and those in wealthier areas -- and to give them concrete ways they can take action.

I'd love your quick thoughts on anyone from the administration that might be good for this briefing. I want to give people the education landscape at both the national and local/state level + give them a sense of how faith communities can get involved. My thoughts for speakers at the federal level:

- John Kelly (or whomever is leading your office's outreach to engage faith communities in turn-around schools)
- Brenda Girton-Mitchell or Ken Bedell from the Dept of Ed's faith-based office
- OTHERS?

Since Q is next month my turnaround time is pretty quick! So if you do have any thoughts, I'd appreciate them sooner than later. :-)

Thanks in advance,
Nicole

Hi Michael,

I will be speaking at the Religious Communicators Conference in Philly that day. Ken will be out of the country and Michael will be on travel.

I wish I could help but the schedule has been confirmed for months for the RCC.

Please advise.

Blessings,
Brenda

Thanks, Brenda. I'm sorry that you all won't be available, but I hope your meetings in Philly go well that day.

I'd also emailed Michael Wear about this briefing as well, so I believe he's going to follow-up with you about possibly making some other recommendations for this event. We'd really like to have someone from the Administration join us!

Subject: Q Ideas Conference speaking request

Hi Rev. Brenda and Ken,

It's been a while since we've connected. I used to work at Teach For America where I lead TFA's outreach to faith communities. I hope you're both doing well!

I left Teach For America a few months ago to launch The Expectations Project, which is a non-profit organization that influences, equips and mobilizes faith communities to help close the achievement gap in public schools. We're just getting things off the ground (securing some much-needed funding!) and we plan to fully hit the ground this summer. I'm also finishing up a book on the same topic (tentatively titled: Educating All God's Children: What Christians Can and Should do Improve Public Education for Low-Income Kids). I'm excited about the months and years ahead!

I'm reaching out to you both because The Expectations Project is helping coordinate an education policy briefing for the Q Ideas conference next month. In case you're not familiar with it, Q is Gabe Lyons' organization and it brings together about 700 Christian leaders annually to engage in common good issues. The audience consists of influential, well-educated Christian leaders from around the country. The policy briefings will take place on Thursday, April 12 from 9:00am-12:00pm -- here in DC. We'd like to have a representative from the federal, state and local levels at the briefing. The goal is to inform briefing attendees about the state of public education, policy trends and solutions and details re: how they can take action.

I apologize for the relatively late notice, but the Q folks recently asked me to help pull this together -- but I'm wondering if someone from your office might consider joining us? Given what you all do, I think you'd be a perfect fit!

Please let me know as soon as possible, and I can provide more details.

Thanks in advance for your consideration,
Nicole Fulgham

Hi Michael,

I will be speaking at the Religious Communicators Conference in Philly that day. Ken will be out of the country and Michael will be on travel.

(b)(5)

I wish I could help but the schedule has been confirmed for months for the RCC.

Please advise.

Blessings,
Brenda

Thanks, Brenda. I'm sorry that you all won't be available, but I hope your meetings in Philly go well that day.

I'd also emailed Michael Wear about this briefing as well, so I believe he's going to follow-up with you about possibly making some other recommendations for this event. We'd really like to have someone from the Administration join us!

Subject: Q Ideas Conference speaking request

Hi Rev. Brenda and Ken,

It's been a while since we've connected. I used to work at Teach For America where I lead TFA's outreach to faith communities. I hope you're both doing well!

I left Teach For America a few months ago to launch The Expectations Project, which is a non-profit organization that influences, equips and mobilizes faith communities to help close the achievement gap in public schools. We're just getting things off the ground (securing some much-needed funding!) and we plan to fully hit the ground this summer. I'm also finishing up a book on the same topic (tentatively titled: Educating All God's Children: What Christians Can and Should do Improve Public Education for Low-Income Kids). I'm excited about the months and years ahead!

I'm reaching out to you both because The Expectations Project is helping coordinate an education policy briefing for the Q Ideas conference next month. In case you're not familiar with it, Q is Gabe Lyons' organization and it brings together about 700 Christian leaders annually to engage in common good issues. The audience consists of influential, well-educated Christian leaders from around the country. The policy briefings will take place on Thursday, April 12 from 9:00am-12:00pm -- here in DC. We'd like to have a representative from the federal, state and local levels at the briefing. The goal is to inform briefing attendees about the state of public education, policy trends and solutions and details re: how they can take action.

I apologize for the relatively late notice, but the Q folks recently asked me to help pull this together -- but I'm wondering if someone from your office might consider joining us? Given what you all do, I think you'd be a perfect fit!

Please let me know as soon as possible, and I can provide more details.

Thanks in advance for your consideration,
Nicole Fulgham

Will and Sue,

I just spoke with Michael Wear. Michael Strautmanis would like some background on the panel he'll be moderating on April 3. He's most interested in getting some information on Grantmakers for Children, Youth and Families because he's less familiar with this group. However, background on the entire panel would be very helpful. Please see the attached agenda and let me know if you need anything from me.

If you could forward this information about the panel to Michael (copied here) tomorrow, that would be a tremendous help. Thank you both.

Best,
Theron

I'm sorry for the delay! I am copying in Rev. Brenda Girton-Mitchell; Rev. Girton-Mitchell heads up the faith-based office at the Department of Education. Her office would be more than willing to look into this issue for you, and connect you with the appropriate folks in the Department. Hopefully you two can connect via phone soon. I believe Mara Vanderslice Kelly has already briefed Rev. Girton-Mitchell on this issue.

Many thanks!

Are you available at all still today to chat? I'd love to brief you on what we talked about when we had a briefing call with the panelists. Also is Greg confirmed? What the panelists requested was an advance idea of what questions will be asked in addition to the first part they will talk about. I think it would still be great if we could do a short chat of possible. And finally other than the bios of the presenters what would be helpful for Greg?

Thank you so much for your immediate response! The tour was requested on our behalf by a Spelman senior, (b)(6) who is a White House Fellow.

Perhaps the confirmation language provided below will confirm the type of tour we have been granted, i.e. East Wing or otherwise.

Thank you for your interest in touring the White House. This letter confirms a reserved self-guided tour of the White House for 29 people from the Spelman College group (b)(6) on 3/31/2012 at 10:30 AM. The number of people in your group may not be increased.

Groups should enter the White House complex at the corner of 15th Street and Alexander Hamilton Place. Uniformed National Park Service Rangers are posted to assist groups as they arrive. Groups should arrive 15 minutes before their scheduled tour time. Late arrivals may not be accommodated.

Groups who arrive for a tour should not bring:

- Cameras or Video Recorders
- Handbags, book bags, backpacks or purses
- Food or beverages, tobacco products, personal grooming items (i.e. makeup, lotion, etc.)
- Strollers
- Any pointed objects
- Aerosol containers
- Guns, ammunition, fireworks, electric stun guns, mace, martial arts weapons/devices, or knives of any size

There is no place at the White House to check a bag or a prohibited item. If it is raining, umbrellas are permitted. Cell phones and cell phones with cameras are allowed, however you will not be permitted to use them inside of the White House.

All guests 18 years of age or older will need to present photo identification with information matching the name previously submitted for clearance. Individuals without acceptable identification or whose identification does not exactly match the name or data cleared for entry may be denied entry. Acceptable forms of ID include:

- Valid Government issued United States' drivers license
- Valid Government issued United States' identification card
- Valid United States or other official government issued passports
- Valid United States State Department ID
- For foreign nationals, only VALID passports are accepted

No foreign-issued state IDs, foreign-issued driver's licenses, expired passports, or other forms of identification will be accepted.

Tours are self-guided, however United States Secret Service officers are posted in every room to provide historical information about the room and the White House. Please feel free to ask them questions.

White House tours are subject to last minute cancellation. Please call the White House Visitors Office 24-hour information line at 202-456-7041 for the most current information about White House tours.

Tours are significantly enhanced with a stop by the White House Visitor Center located at the southeast corner of 15th and E Streets. The location is easy to find by looking for three American flags and the blue awnings. Visitors should allow 20 minutes to one hour to see the videos and exhibits. The Visitor Center is open 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. seven days a week.

On behalf of President and Mrs. Obama, we hope that your group enjoys their visit to the White House.

Mr. Jawando,

I trust this email finds you well! I am in DC with a group of 26 Spelman College student-scholars for three days of activities and experiences on Capitol Hill. We are scheduled for a White House tour on Saturday, March 31 at 10:30 am. The security information for the group was submitted several weeks ago, but we have a student whose plans changed at the last minute, so that she is now here in DC participating in the scheduled activities. As a Spelman friend and advocate in DC, I am contacting you, seeking some direction as to how I might get this student cleared to join the Spelman group for the White House Tour, given the short turn around.

The student's information is:

(b)(6)
Birth date: (b)(6)
SS# (b)(6)

I hope this request won't be an inconvenience, Mr. Jawando. Know that any insight or assistance you can provide, especially given the timeframe, will be appreciated.

Sr. Carol,

I'm sorry for the delay! I am copying in Rev. Brenda Girton-Mitchell; Rev. Girton-Mitchell heads up the faith-based office at the Department of Education. Her office would be more than willing to look into this issue for you, and connect you with the appropriate folks in the Department. Hopefully you two can connect via phone soon. I believe Mara Vanderslice Kelly has already briefed Rev. Girton-Mitchell on this issue.

Many thanks!

Dear Joshua,

It was good to catch up today and I thank you for your time. As I explained, I would appreciate the opportunity to review a grant application to the Department of education with someone from the faith based sector. This is from a coalition in Cleveland that targets the most disadvantaged young children. Thanks for any help you can give. Sr Carol

Hi Alise,

The meeting will be in the Roosevelt Room and begin at 10-12pm. Unfortunately I have not received much more information other than that Jim has been asked to participate to listen on behalf of the administration. CEA works a little differently than our office which typically runs meetings with outside organizations so I have pushed them to have this call this evening so they can explain the purpose and the outcome of the meeting. Thanks for your patience. Please send me the WAVE info as soon as possible.

Also feel free to give me a call this week. My afternoons are the best windows of time

Hi Joshua

I know Rabbi Saperstein well and would be glad to follow up with him personally and facilitate getting the GC meeting. When you give the go ahead we will get started. We returned a few calls and emails but the communication has stalled.

Ken is aware of the issue and has briefed me.

Hi Brenda,

Rabbi David Saperstein would like to come in and meet with some senior folks from your Counsel's office to discuss the student loan repayment program and eligibility of individuals who work for faith-based organizations, including the recent developments in this space. As you know, Rabbi Saperstein leads the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism and has for years been one of the country's top church-state experts. President Obama recently spoke at Rabbi Saperstein's annual meeting, and Rabbi Saperstein was on the White House's inaugural faith-based council. I think it would be a good meeting for senior staff in your Council's office to take if possible.

Please let me know and I'll make the connection.

& copying Roberto as an FYI.

Thanks so much!

Joshua

Hi Everyone,

I am finally circulating this draft-document for the EO signing-by the end of the week I want to have a complete list of attendees so we can key up invites so we can be ready once we have a confirmed time from the President.

Please let me know your thoughts and additional people that you would like to include on the program.

Best,

Hi Everyone,

I am finally circulating this draft-document for the EO signing-by the end of the week I want to have a complete list of attendees so we can key up invites so we can be ready once we have a confirmed time from the President.

Please let me know your thoughts and additional people that you would like to include on the program.

Best,

John, I sent this to my intern to check and see if she could look into this. The best advice is that we check and see if the visitors office made a mistake. Also ask her how she received the tour.

Heather,

I hate to bother you with this but we have a member of the President's Board of Advisors on HBCUs, Evelyn Hammonds (she's also dean of Harvard College), who's trying to tour the White House but has not received confirmation that she and her family have been cleared. Specifically, she was informed (and I am not sure by whom) that her tour would take place tomorrow. Can you help us check on her status? And if she has been cleared, what time and where she should report?

Many, many thanks!

Best regards,
John

Hey there, we are having an event on Monday to follow POTUS speech at the Holocaust museum. The event will be with Samantha Power and will focus on our initiative to prevent mass atrocities and genocide. We would liketo invite grassroots young adults who are mobilizing their campuses around issues in Darfur, Uganda, etc.

I was thinking of inviting Howard students. Do you guys know who would be the best contact for this? I'd like to give them at least 5-10 spots in the SCA.

Let me know! KR

Dear Joshua and Paul,

Thanks so much for the good conversation with Dr. Richardson and me last week.

Listed below is our "wish list" for Cabinet members and for the two of you to participate in the Conference of National Black Churches (CNBC) 2012 National Consultation to be held May 30th - June 1st at the Renaissance Washington, DC Downtown Hotel.

Wednesday, May 30th

Luncheon, 12:00 Noon – Joshua DuBois – Welcome

Thursday, May 31st

Luncheon, 12:00 Noon – Secretary of Education, Arnie Duncan, Keynote Speaker

Leadership Recognition Dinner, 7:00PM, Attorney General Eric Holder, Keynote Speaker

Greetings – Paul Monteiro

I have attached the one-page overview of CNBC for your information. We are expecting approximately 350 denominational leaders, key pastors and lay leaders from across the country to participate in the Consultation. CNBC's four focus areas are: education, social justice/public policy, economic empowerment and health.

Thanks again for your help and I look forward to hearing from you. Both my office and cell numbers are listed below.

All the best,

So we need a date. And, a photograph☺. I propose Friday, May 25th at 6:45 p.m. Let's not make this hard, W, lower level near the back until 8 p.m.

Late comers won't be too late, early birds can eat first then say hi. And, then everyone can be off to their evening and/or can even return to work.

I think we need these bi-monthly and can add on folks as we find new S___ that work for the Administration. I volunteer myself to coordinate. It's sort of unacceptable that I don't know all of you upon sight. We must do better.

I need a second and if there are no objections, 5/25 will be the first greeting.

I'll take a call for acclimation as well.

Invite to follow.

Love to all,
Charmion

Subject: RE: Howard University Dates!

Brenda-

I was just chatting with Joshua and he was wonder if you wouldn't mind checking back in with Howard to see if there is any way at all we could do it the week of June 25th. Any day that week??

Even if for only one day, or a day and half? Joshua can't do the June dates or the early July dates. So he asked if we could try one last pass just to make sure we couldn't finagle something to work that week.

Thanks!!

Joshua,

I just came out of a meeting with Peter Cunningham and others. We have the Chicago fatherhood event scheduled for June 2 back on track. Also, the Atlanta fathers' forum is on the calendar again. Brenda is taking a role in following the planning in both of these events.

The previously planned August 3 event in DC on parent engagement with a fatherhood track will definitely not happen, but Peter and others are eager to have a discussion with you about how to replace that event. Can you and Ben come to ED for a meeting with Peter and others to help us figure out what will be the most useful activity for ED to plan?

All of the fatherhood events being planned by Education (june 2 event, fatherhood focus in parental engagement conference in august, ATL father forum in Sept) which form the majority of Education's work on fatherhood are all on hold by folks at Education.

Ken and Brenda are working to determine what the concerns that have put these events on hold but we may need you to weigh in to break the logjam and allow these events to move forward.

Hi Jacqui,

I talked with Joshua today. We are pushing to get senior official lined up for all of the AA denominations. Do you have an email list you can share with me of the current presidents or leaders of the 9 CNBC organizations. Joshua will email and/or call all of them to find ways to be available. I have a few of them but your list would be more reliable and would save me a lot of time.

Hope you can help.

I put your request into to Sec. Duncan – we should know by next Wed. He is scheduled to be in town so it depends on what can be shifted etc..

OBAMA ADMINISTRATION OPENS TOGETHER FOR TOMORROW SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT CHALLENGE

Together for Tomorrow (TFT), the joint initiative of the U.S. Department of Education, White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships and the Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS) to spur community engagement in turning around our nation's lowest performing schools, today launched its School Improvement Challenge for the 2012-13 school year on <http://TFT.challenge.gov>.

U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan announced the launch today during a town hall in Dubuque, Iowa. He said, "When it comes to turning around low-performing schools, the Department's investments and the work of schools and districts aren't the whole solution. Our schools need the engagement of communities to support and sustain school improvement. This Challenge will help foster partnerships to propel school improvement and produce better outcomes for students."

"For decades, faith and community groups have been critical partners in strengthening schools," said Joshua DuBois, special assistant to the President and executive director of the White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships. "In today's global economy, more needs to be done to provide every child an education that will enable them to succeed. By mobilizing partnerships between faith and community-based groups and local schools, this Challenge will foster a sense of shared responsibility that is key to strengthening educational success for all our students."

"Time after time, we have seen how committed parents and community volunteers can make a powerful difference in the educational outcomes of our students," said Corporation for National and Community Service CEO Wendy Spencer. "Through this Challenge, we will shine the spotlight on the many ways citizens and communities can help young people achieve their best in school and prepare for success in life."

The Challenge is an opportunity for schools and districts, institutions of higher education, and nonprofit organizations to join with other partners in efforts to improve their neediest schools by raising key measurable student outcomes: Attendance, Behavior, Course performance and College access, known as the ABCs. Plans can be submitted to catalyze new partnerships as well as spotlight and expand exemplary initiatives already working to raise student achievement and strengthen a community culture of educational success. Plans can encompass a single local community or a regional, state or national effort with multiple sites. The Challenge is not a new grant program, but rather an approach to better coordinate resources and efforts, including many through existing Education Department and CNCS programs.

All schools and communities that meet the criteria for the challenge will garner national recognition for their efforts and become part of the Together for Tomorrow learning network. Selected applications will also be invited to attend a special event in Washington, D.C.

The Challenge announced today is being coordinated by the Education Department and is part of the Administration's TFT initiative unveiled in February. Focusing on achieving positive results for students in our nation's lowest performing schools, TFT aims to change the fundamental relationship between schools and community partners so that education improvement is viewed as everyone's responsibility.

Applicants have until June 29, 2012, to submit their plans. Details on the challenge can be found at <http://TFT.challenge.gov>.

I talked with Joshua today. We are pushing to get senior official lined up for all of the AA denominations. Do you have an email list you can share with me of the current presidents or leaders of the 9 CNBC organizations. Joshua will email and/or call all of them to find ways to be available. I have a few of them but your list would be more reliable and would save me a lot of time.

Hope you can help.

I put your request into to Sec. Duncan – we should know by next Wed. He is scheduled to be in town so it depends on what can be shifted etc..

Blessings,

Brenda

Cunningham, Peter

---

Subject: Canceled: Education and Fatherhood meeting w/ Joshua DuBois, Ben Odell, Brenda-Girton-Mitchell, Ken Bedell, Stacey, Carrie, and Cynthia

Location: 7W101

Start: Tuesday, May 1, 2012 2:00 PM

End: Tuesday, May 1, 2012 3:00 PM

Recurrence: (none)

Meeting Status: Not yet responded

Organizer: Cunningham, Peter

Importance: High

Vanessa,

Joshua DuBois wants to come from the White House next week to discuss the WH fatherhood agenda with Peter. I think Peter wants Cynthia Dorfman, Carrie Jasper, and Stacey Jordan to attend. He may want others to sit in.

When is Peter available?

Subject: RE: Education and Fatherhood

Joshua,

I just came out of a meeting with Peter Cunningham and others. We have the Chicago fatherhood event scheduled for June 2 back on track. Also, the Atlanta fathers' forum is on the calendar again. Brenda is taking a role in following the planning in both of these events.

The previously planned August 3 event in DC on parent engagement with a fatherhood track will definitely not happen, but Peter and others are eager to have a discussion with you about how to replace that event. Can you and Ben come to ED for a meeting with Peter and others to help us figure out what will be the most useful activity for ED to plan?

Importance: High

Dear Campus Challenge Participant,

I have some good news to share! The President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge has been extremely successful with more than 250 higher education institutions working in concert to initiate or increase their involvement in interfaith and community service. Thanks to your hard work, this initiative has been more successful than we ever imagined.

I have been inspired by stories of the impact that the President's Interfaith and Community Campus Challenge has had across the country. Large and small accomplishments are contributing to an amazing national movement.

The attached document is designed to provide a way for us to collect the complete story of what has been accomplished. Please complete the Year End report template and return it to WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov by June 15th so that we can compile everything that has been accomplished.

Please SAVE THE DATE: You are invited to join us in Washington, DC on July 9-10, 2012 as we celebrate the work of the first year of the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. This event will provide you with ideas and resources as your institution plans participation in the Challenge for the 2012/13 academic year. The opening plenary for all participants will start at 1:00 p.m. on the campus of Howard University in Washington, DC and the event will conclude by 3:30 on Tuesday, July 10, 2012. We will be sending more details on the event shortly.

In the meantime, please complete your Year-End report and send to us at WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov. If you have question, please send them to EdPartners@ed.gov.

Thank you,

Joshua DuBois,
Special Assistant to the President and
Executive Director of the White House Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships Office

President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge Year-End Report Template

All campuses participating in the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge should submit end of year reporting information by June 15, 2012. Please submit your reports by email to WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov. The year-end report is your opportunity to share the highlights of your experiences throughout the year. This report should convey the excitement and energy that comes from working together as well as recognize the ways you have addressed the challenges of interfaith and community service. Information from the year-end reports will be amalgamated and disseminated widely to recognize efforts and demonstrate impact fostered by the President's Challenge. Use this report to tell your campus story and build on the progress from the midyear report. Please feel free to supplement your reports with no more than five photos and/or video clips of no more than 5 minutes.

Part I:

Part II: Executive Summary

Please describe in 100 words or less the activities and impact of the President's Challenge initiative on your campus. If you could share only one story that demonstrates the transformative power of this challenge on your campus, what would it be?

Part III: Advancing Interfaith Service (500 word maximum)

Please share examples of how your work met your stated objectives, impacted individuals, your campus life, and the local community. You may include testimonials from community leaders and participants.

- How have you actively served and transformed your community?
- What best practices can you share as a result of your participation?
- What is the approximate number of students involved in interfaith service?
- What is the approximate number of total participants involved in interfaith service?
- Please share one statistic/numerical value that quantifies the impact of your interfaith service initiative(s), (i.e., the number of veterans served, pounds of food collected).

Part IV: Advancing Interfaith Engagement (500 word maximum)

Please share examples of how your work met your stated objectives, impacted individuals, your campus life, and the local community. You may include testimonials from community leaders and participants

How has your campus increased commitment to interfaith engagement as a result of this initiative?

What is the approximate number of students involved in interfaith engagement initiative(s)?

What is the approximate number of total participants involved in interfaith engagement initiative(s)?

Part V: Implementation, Documentation, Evaluation and Sustainability (500 word maximum)

Please share the results of your evaluative work over the course of the year.

How would you say your campus has changed as a result of this initiative?

What have you done to help ensure sustainability or ongoing success of your programs?

Part VI: Feedback

What has been the most positive result of your campus' participation in the President's Challenge this year? What recommendations would you make to improve the program for the launch of the second year of the Challenge?

Dear Friends,

Please see below the video on President Obama's remarks on Marriage Equality

<http://gma.yahoo.com/blogs/abc-blogs/president-obama-affirms-his-support-for-same-sex-marriage.html>

General Points

- The President's personal view is that it's wrong to prevent couples who are in loving, committed relationships, and want to marry, from doing so.
- It's no secret the President has gone through some soul-searching on this issue. He's talked to his wife about it, like so many couples do. He's heard from folks—gay friends in long-term, loving relationships; brave young servicemen and women he got to know through the fight to end Don't, Ask Don't Tell; staff members; folks who sent compelling letters about their lives. It's no doubt they've shaped his view on this issue.
- In the end, the values that the President cares most deeply about is how we treat other people. The President and First Lady are both practicing Christians, and obviously this position may be considered to put them at odds with the views of others, but when we think about our faith, the thing at root that we think about is not only Christ sacrificing Himself on our behalf, but it's also the Golden Rule: Treat others the way you'd want to be treated.
- We make it absolutely clear that we are talking about civil marriages and civil laws. This isn't a federal issue. We must be respectful of religious liberty that churches and other faith institutions are still going to be able to make determinations about what their sacraments are, what they recognize.
- We need to recognize that people are going to have differing views on marriage and those views, even if we disagree strongly, should be respected.

May 8,

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT
AT THE 18TH ANNUAL GALA OF THE ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN INSTITUTE FOR CONGRESSIONAL STUDIES

Ritz Carlton
Washington, D.C.

5:46 P.M. EDT

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you. (Applause.) Thank you very much. Thank you.

AUDIENCE: Four more years! Four more years! Four more years! Four more years!

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you so much. Thank you. Everybody, please, please, have a seat. Have a seat. You're making me blush. (Laughter.) Mahalo!

AUDIENCE: Mahalo!

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you so much. Thank you, Norm, for that kind introduction. More importantly, thank you for your lifetime of distinguished service to our country. I want to thank all the members of Congress who are with us -- including two people who are fighting hard every day on behalf of every member of this community -- Judy Chu and Mike Honda. Give them a big round of applause. (Applause.)

Now, I am thrilled to be here tonight because all of you hold a special place in my heart. When I think about Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, I think about my family -- my sister, Maya; my brother-in-law, Konrad who's in the house somewhere -- (applause.) I don't know where Konrad is. My nieces Suhaila and Savita. I think about all the folks I grew up with in Honolulu, as part of the -- (applause) --

AUDIENCE MEMBER: Aloha! (Laughter.)

THE PRESIDENT: As part of the Hawaiian ohana. I think about the years I spent in Indonesia. So for me, coming here feels a little bit like home. This is a community that helped to make me who I am today. It's a community that helped make America the country that it is today.

So your heritage spans the world. But what unites everyone is that in all of your families you have stories of perseverance that are uniquely American. Some of you -- those from Hawaii or the Pacific Islands -- (applause) -- live where your family has lived for generations and your story is, in part, about keeping alive treasured native traditions. But for others, your story starts with ancestors who, at some point, left behind everything they knew to seek the promise of a new land. Maybe the story traces back a century and a half, to the laborers who risked their lives to connect our coasts by rail. Maybe it begins with one of the hundreds of thousands of immigrants who, decades ago, made the tough journey to Angel Island.

Maybe the story starts with your parents. Or maybe it starts with you. But here's the thing. No matter when it began, no matter where it began, your stories are about someone who came here looking for new opportunities not merely for themselves, but for their children, and for their children's children, and for all generations to come.

Few of them had money. A lot of them didn't have belongings. But what they did have was an unshakeable belief that this country -- of all countries -- is a place where anybody can make it if they try.

Now, many of them faced hardship; many of them faced ridicule; many of them faced racism. Many were treated as second-class citizens -- as people who didn't belong. But they didn't give up. They didn't make excuses. They kept forging ahead. They kept building up America. They kept fighting for America -- Like Danny Inouye, who's here. (Applause.) Danny, who was my senator most of my life. (Laughter.) Love that man.

But they were trailblazers like Dalip Singh Saund -- a young man from India who, in 1920, came to study agriculture, stayed to become a farmer, and took on the cause of citizenship for all people of South Asian descent. (Applause.) And once Dalip earned his own citizenship, he stepped up to serve the country he loved -- and became the first Asian American elected to the Congress. (Applause.)

They were pioneers like my former congresswoman, Patsy Mink, who was not only the first -- (applause) -- not only the first Asian American woman elected to Congress but the author of Title IX -- which has changed the playing field for all of our girls. (Applause.)

And then there's the story of a young Japanese American boy, just 10 when his family was forced from their home and taken hundreds of miles away to an internment camp. For three years, they lived in that camp, but when that boy got home, he didn't turn his back on America -- he devoted his life to America. In his words, he pledged "to speak out for the underrepresented and to pick up on those issues that weren't being carried by others." And as the first Asian American to ever serve in a President's Cabinet, Norm Mineta made good on that pledge. (Applause.)

So think about how proud all those previous generations would be to see this room, to see how far this community has come. Asian Americans, Pacific Islanders are now the inventors and entrepreneurs keeping our country on the cutting edge; the businessmen and women at the helm of some of our most successful industries; leaders in every aspect of American life -- in science and medicine, in education, in sports, in the arts, in our Armed Forces; in our government and in our courts. In fact, over the past three years, we have more than doubled the number of Asian Americans on the federal bench. (Applause.)

Just yesterday, Jacqueline Nguyen became the first Asian American woman to get confirmed as a federal appellate judge. (Applause.) Where's Jacqueline? She's here tonight. There she is. (Applause.) You didn't bring your robe, though. (Laughter.) That's pretty cool. (Laughter.) And we're so proud to have her along with another appellate judge I appointed, Denny Chin. He's here. (Applause.) Where's Denny? There he is, back there. So we thank them for their service.

Whether your heritage stems from South Asia or East Asia, from my native Hawaii or the Pacific Islands, whether you're first generation --

AUDIENCE MEMBER: Wahooo!

THE PRESIDENT: These Hawaiians here -- (laughter) -- what's up with that? (Applause.)

AUDIENCE MEMBERS: Wahooo! (Laughter.) Aloha! (Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Whether you are first generation or the fifth, you're helping to build a better America.

And I know it can be tempting -- given the success that's on display here tonight -- for people to buy into the myth of the "model minority" and glance over the challenges that this community still faces. But we have to remember there's still educational disparities like higher dropout rates in certain groups, lower college enrollment rates in others. There's still economic disparities like higher rates of poverty and obstacles to employment. There are health disparities like higher rates of diabetes and cancer and Hepatitis B. Those who are new to America -- many still face language barriers. Others -- like Vincent Chin who we lost three decades ago -- have been victims of horrible hate crimes, driven by the kinds of ignorance and prejudice that are an affront to everything America stands for.

So those are real problems, and we can't ignore them. And if we're going to do a better job addressing them, then we first have to stop grouping everybody just in one big category. Dozens of different communities fall under the umbrella of the Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, and we have to respect that the experiences of immigrant groups are distinct and different. And your concerns run the gamut.

That's something that Washington needs to understand better. And that's why I reestablished the White House Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders -- (applause) -- so that we could better identify specific issues within specific communities. Many of those commissioners are here. I want to thank them for the great job that they're doing. (Applause.)

And so we're making a difference -- on that front and on many other fronts. When we stepped up support for America's small businesses, we stepped up support for this community -- providing over $7 billion in loans for small businesses owned by Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders. (Applause.) When we passed health care reform, we put in place new mechanisms to get better data about health disparities. (Applause.) Because of that law, nearly 3 million Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders are going to receive expanded and preventive coverage through private insurance and nearly 1 million are receiving free preventive services through Medicare. (Applause.)

So some of the things that matter to this community are things that matter to every community, like making sure that a woman earns an equal day's pay for an equal day's work. (Applause.) Or ending "don't ask, don't tell" so that nobody has to hide who they love to serve the country they love. (Applause.) Or enacting education reform so that every child has access to good schools and higher education. (Applause.) Or caring for our veterans because it's our duty to serve them as well as they have served us. (Applause.)

That's what this country is about. That's what we've always been about. We've gone through some tough years because of this extraordinary recession and we've still got a long way to go. But we will get there. We will arrive at that destination where every child born in America regardless of race, creed, color, is going to have a chance. We're going to do that together -- because in this country, we look out for each other. We fight for each other. If somebody is suffering through injustice or inequality, we take up their cause as if it was our own. That's the story of America. And that's certainly the story of this community. (Applause.)

In the midst of World War II, when the son of Japanese immigrants, Gordon Hirabayashi, ignored the curfews and refused transfer to an internment camp; when he was jailed for his defiance; when he later appealed his conviction and took his case all the way to the Supreme Court -- he understood that he was fighting for something larger than himself. And he once said, "I never look at my case just as a Japanese American case. It's an American case, with principles that affect the fundamental human rights of all Americans." (Applause.) And while Gordon is no longer with us, later this year I'll award him the Presidential Medal of Freedom -- the highest civilian award America has to offer. (Applause.) Because he reminds us that each of us is only who we are today because somebody, somewhere, felt a sense of responsibility -- not just to themselves, but to their family, and their communities, and to this country that we all love.

So tonight, we honor the trailblazers who came before. But we also celebrate the leaders yet to come -- all the young people who are here tonight. (Applause.) Together, it's our turn to be responsible for the future. It's our turn to make sure the next generation has more opportunities than we did. It's our turn to make sure that no matter who you are, no matter where you came from, no matter what you look like, America forever remains the place where you can make it if you try.

Thank you, everybody. God bless you. God bless the United States of America. (Applause.)

Hello Rev. Mitchell,

As my internship comes to an end, are you available to meet and share more about your background and work at the Department of education? I end next Friday, but will still be in the D.C. area until the end of the month.

I know you travel a lot and would appreciate any time and insight you can share for my next steps.

Thank you and regards,
Andrea Wise

Dear Friends,

Attached please find Oberlin College's Year-End Report on the President Obama Interfaith Engagement and Community Service Campus Challenge. We are grateful for this program which has helped us to advance the work of religious pluralism and interfaith engagement at Oberlin College in important and lasting ways.

Also, attached through the following link is a film of our Friendship Day Festival this year, which is one of our ongoing efforts to promote religious pluralism and interfaith engagement. This year we highlighted the President's Challenge with a keynote speaker who writes on interfaith relations: <http://vimeo.com/41325531>.

Respectfully yours,

All,

Attached is a template that Brenda and I worked on today. Our intent was to capture enough information to know that institutions are serious about this work and make the data from each school small enough so that we can process it through the WH.

Earlier in the day Mara, Brenda, and I discussed the process of collecting data about the plans institutions make.

The attached document is (b)(5) drafted by Mary Ellen (which I have also attached for reference). One of the things that we lose by reducing the planning template is that (b)(5) (b)(5). Brenda and I came up with the idea of distributing a longer more robust planning template for institutions to use if they find it useful. However, we would ask them to submit a "report" on their plan.

Proposed time line:

(b)(5)

We can talk about this tomorrow on the call.

Friends,

As many of you know, Michael is leaving the dark confines of being my assistant and journeying to a bright and shiny place-that-cannot-be-named-but-is-in-the-Midwest.

Please join me and other Friends of Michael Wear for a SURPRISE going-away party for him this Friday at 4pm.

Date: This Friday, May 18th

Time: 4pm

Location: Eisenhower Executive Office Building, Indian Treaty Room (Room 474)

If you need to be WAVED into the complex, please reply-all to me and Mara with your full name, DOB, social and city and state of residence.

NOTE – I am sending a calendar invite for “Briefing on Ethics Issues” for 4pm. This is actually Mike’s surprise party. He has access to my calendar so we need some misdirection.

I can’t guarantee it, but I bet Mike sings for us before he leaves. Keep your fingers crossed!

Best,
Joshua

I know this is short notice and many of you will be out of town. We should have at least one opportunity to play ball this summer, so don't sweat it if you can't make it this weekend.

Take care,

Hi Rev. Mitchell,

The Pastors of the mega-churches here in Chicago would like to have a brief conference call with Joshua this week or early next week. They would like for him to say he is supporting the Fathers Forum here in Chicago. One of the pastors mentioned this call will set everything in motion with all the leaders. Please let me know if this is possible and I will coordinate with Tenicka.

Also Joshua mentioned he was getting some athletes to attend the event, please ask him about this. It would be great to announce so that we can use as a drawer.

Thank you so much.

Subject: Goodbye for now...

Friends,

It is with a deep sense of gratitude and humility that I write to let you know that today is my final day at The White House.

I started this job in February of 2009, directly following the President's announcement that he would reinvigorate and expand this Office at his first National Prayer Breakfast speech. It made a lot of sense that in his very first couple of weeks after becoming President he announced this Office—and appointed Joshua DuBois to lead it. He knew and believed that we would need "all hands on deck" to meet the challenges we faced as a country.

Every day for the last three and a half years, I have had the honor of seeing this President and his entire Administration, particularly Joshua and the entire Faith-based Office team, work to meet those challenges: improving people's lives and serving those in need.

Which brings me to all of you: the clergy, non-profit leaders, advocates and service providers on the ground that give our nation's highest ideals shape and substance. It was through your faithful service, and your compassion for others, that folks' lives were made better. You have inspired me every day that I've worked here. And I will certainly miss working here at The White House.

Fortunately, I have absolutely no doubt that Joshua and the President will be well-served by my replacement, Scott Buckhout. Starting Tuesday, you will be able to reach Scott at Scott\_Buckhout@who.eop.gov. He is going to be a phenomenal addition to the team here.

As for me, my next step will be clear in the next week or so. In the meantime, please feel free to contact me at

(b)(6) you can also follow me on twitter (b)(6)

I do hope that we will have the opportunity to work together again in the future.

Blessings,

Michael Wear

Tenicka, thank you for coordinating my visit on Monday.

Rev. Mitchell,

Thanks so much for taking time to meet with me and thank you for treating me to lunch. I enjoy hearing about people's journeys and look forward to my next transition.

As you mentioned, I've attached my resume for any upcoming opportunities you are aware of. I have strong writing, analytical and interpersonal skills and have an interest in public-private ventures for urban development (both domestic and international).

I find the following Education initiatives appealing and appreciate any insight you can offer.

- Promise Neighborhoods
- Race to the top
- Investing in Innovation
- Financial Literacy

I'll be sure to keep in touch.

Regards,
Andrea Wise

Friends-

Man- I am feeling more horrible than you can imagine for messing up our very exciting Interfaith Campus call this afternoon.

I misremembered about the size limitations of the WH conference call line from when I was here last time and really botched this one. I am very very sorry! But at least we now know there is a big interest in this call and a lot of folks are eager to dial in and engage us!

SO-- we want to reschedule as quickly as possible.

I know the Dept of Education folks are traveling this week- so Brenda and Ken please send me time windows that would work for you and we will go from there in getting a new time locked in.

Again- my apologies and we will work quickly to get this back on the books and to move forward.

THANKS for your email, Heather; I'd heard rumors you were in the Federal Witness Relocation Program, now known as "Tina." :)!
I completely get it re: screening. There are a number of ways to go so let me know if any of these work:

- 1) I can't send you a dvd BUT I can invite you to come see the movie HERE in June for a small group of people --like you, influential people who also need to pre-screen it without press around or hoopla, to then decide what'd come next for their colleagues.
- 2) I can bring it to WH and do the same thing for you there: if you can invite a few others too. As much as I adore you I'd have to make the case here we were pre-screening for "preliminary WH staff" to see if we then could take it a step further. Does that make sense? Forgive me if I'm repeating myself but Michael Robbins and all of Sec. Duncan's staff saw it and you could get an "in-the-meantime" candid assessment there from Michael et. al. How does any of this sound? The movie is really good, aimed at a general audience, and, I think'll it foster good dialogue during the President's re-election campaign about education by offering a common narrative in a way 'SUPERMAN' couldn't as a documentary for reformers. PLUS, then I get to accompany Viola Davis to WH screening and you and I will get to fight over who sits next to her! Besides it's time for us to have yet another adventure in Education and Movies! All the best, Randy

I hope all is well—despite popular belief I make it out of the WH to have lunch regularly..I just work all the time to compensate for the break J

Your movie sounds amazing but we do have a process of how we view movies here at the WH. I definitely would need to see a copy of the movie first and then connect you with others here.

Hows your schedule in early June? Can you mail a copy of the DVD to my house—WH security will kill the actual DVD

HI MISS HEATHER! I came into DC for work stuff and to see Michael –but you were GONE! I hope your new work life is glorious and fun; it SOUNDS it from what Michael says. Is it?

I write because we've done another education movie, this time a drama not a documentary and it opens September 28th. It stars Viola Davis, Maggie Gyllenhaal, Ving Rhames, Holly Hunter and Rosie Perez and more and it's about a single mother (Maggie Gyllenhaal) and an elementary school teacher (Viola Davis) who come together to change their local public school. It's called WON'T BACK DOWN.

We showed the movie for Secretary Duncan's people (Michael helped us, which is why I came to DC) and I think they really liked it. (You can get the whole scoop from Michael) I think the President and Mrs. Obama would love it, and I'm writing to ask if we could arrange a quiet, unpublicized screening for them. We would have at the least, Viola Davis on hand too. I've seen the movie three times and I ALWAYS cry at the end. I'm officially –ie at work—authorized to be asking you this.

I'll bring the popcorn. Let me know if this is something you good folks would be interested in. I think the movie will assist with what I have seen of the President's vision of quality education --for all kids.

As ever, Randy

Hello Joshua,

I hope all is well. The Chicago regional office has a couple of dates in mind for a conference call with Chicago pastors:

Tuesday, May 23rd 9AM or 10AM Eastern
Tuesday, May 23rd 8PM or 10PM Eastern
Thursday, May 24th 9AM or 10AM Eastern
Thursday, May 24th 8PM or 10PM Eastern

Let me know which dates and times work best.

Thanks.

Hey friends-

I know that you all are traveling on today- but Joshua wants to check in on the June 11th event and where everything stands with Together for Tomorrow next steps. Is Michael Robbins the POC on the June 11th event?

Could you suggest some times either this afternoon or tomorrow when you might be free to talk about this? Once you give us some windows, Scott here and confirm for Joshua.

Thanks!

Friends-

Thanks to Scott's great work- we now have the Indian Treaty room reserved at the White House for the College Presidents reception on Monday July 9th from 9-12noon. So we have a lot of flexibility to figure out exactly when we want to host and what the program should look like.

Let's discuss on our weekly call next Tuesday. But we are set to move forward. Thanks!

I'm in Florida until tomorrow for work.

As for NASAP who else from ED? (b)(6) sent it to Brenda originally and she was on travel....

(b)(6) WH is so tied up next week. I doubt anyone could come unless they want me and they didn't ask :)

How are you otherwise?

Hello Heather,

How are you ? Great I hope. I just want to let you know that neither John Wilson nor John Brown can attend the event. I put out an ask for (b)(6) but she is out until Tuesday and won't be checking email, but I sent an email to her assistant for her personal information. What do you think about Brenda as a backup? Let me know. Thanks-Kim-

Are you coming to the W tonight? FYI- NCNW went great.

Hello Julie,

Thank you again for your prompt response. Per our conversation, Tuskegee University's first lady, Patricia Rochon would like to invite Atty. Frye to speak to a group of university first ladies from 1890 Land Grant Institutions (of which Tuskegee University is a member institution) in Washington, D.C., on June 27-29, 2012 (as Atty. Frye's schedule permits). The subject matter could be related to her work with First Lady Michelle Obama, her knowledge and experience as a labor lawyer, or volunteer service as a mentor. The group will be in Washington for a meeting of Association for Public and Land Grant Universities and the Sesquicentennial Celebration of the Morrill Act of 1862.

Please see attached for a pdf of the more detailed invitation. Please let me know if you have any further questions or concerns. You can contact me directly with Atty. Frye's answer. (My cell and email are best.)

Thank you.

Happy Friday Friends-

Hope Las Vegas and Denver have gone well and that your meeting with Sec. Duncan went well Brenda.

Can we please set up a time on June 5th for me to come over and get briefed on Tft, as Mara passes the baton? I'm very open.

Thanks, Max

Dear Friends:

We invite you to share the attached invite with your stakeholder networks: Join us for the upcoming June 4th and June 6th Together for Tomorrow School Improvement Challenge Webinars. The Together for Tomorrow School Improvement Challenge invites schools, national service programs, higher education institutions, and community-based organizations to work together to propel improvement of our lowest-performing schools.

Thanks and regards.

Dear Colleagues,

We finally have some details about the Connecting Communities for the Common Good event for Raleigh, NC. The event will be at St. Augustine's College.

- It will be Saturday, June 30, 2012 from 8:30 -noon. Registration 8:30 program starts at 9.
- There will be a short opening plenary and several breakout sessions and closing. Pretty typical format but no lunch.
- Attached is an overview(w/hotel suggestion, purpose, etc), and a form to fill out (workshop purpose, av requirements, contact, etc)

If you are able to sacrifice a Saturday to join us please express your interest right away. We look forward to hearing from you all soon.

Thanks.

I was wondering about that! ☺ I think that time works for me and Joshua here. Coping Scott here.

I know that ACF folks also wanted to join to see if there's a chance to collaborate in the early ed space. Ken/Ben – let me know if this is a good plan and I'll reach out. Or if you had a preference to keep this initial meeting ED specific.

I'm the mysterious "Alisa". ;)

Great thought on scheduling around a time close to OA. Could we plan on 3:30pm-4:30pm on Wednesday, June 27. That works for Jim and Ken Bedell (copied here). Would this work on your end?

Thanks!

Dear Scott, Alisa, and Ben,

Jim Shelton and I talked last week and we want to set up a meeting with:

Joshua DuBois
Jim Shelton
Ken Bedell
Ben O'Dell

(b)(5)

Jim and I can come to Joshua's office. I propose that we try to set it for the week of June 18. Can you start the process, Alisa, by suggesting times that will work for Jim?

Thanks for getting back. This one is set for the 16th, but would love to do something later. Is there someone in your office who could do it?

Hello! I am sorry for the delay, was out of the office this morning. I would LOVE to come but I am speaking at Seattle Pacific University and doing other events in Seattle and Portland the 15th - 17th. Can we find another date? I'd be happy to do a prayer breakfast later in the Summer, along with a series of clergy and nonprofit meetings...

Thanks,

Patrick and I were talking about throwing a little barbecue, having some s'mores (for Blair), perhaps some karaoke (for Gershuny), and wanted to invite everyone over, Saturday anytime after 4ish. We'll have burgers (and veggie burgers) if folks want to bring sides, and although the bar's pretty well stocked, folks can bring whatever else they'd like. Friends/family are welcome.

Hi all –

Following up on our conversation this morning, I've attached two drafts of the July 9-10 agenda. The WORKING DRAFT includes notes from our ongoing conversations about speakers, structure, logistics, etc. The PUBLIC document includes only blurbs and the basic agenda overviewing the plan for the two days. Please especially review the PUBLIC document to make sure that everything is correct to finalize the registration system as well as to disseminate widely as necessary. I compiled this doc fairly quickly so someone's editing eye would be welcome ☺

Thanks!

Hi all,

Here is a rough draft for our discussion tomorrow. We have the housing link ready to go. If we can refine the agenda – we don't need presenters names at the moment – we can send this with the registration form. So please be prepared with ideas to help fill in as many essential blanks as possible. The last page of the document shows the rooms available and capacity. Questions about lunch time – how long to allow. Food is not permitted in any classrooms.

Blessings,

Brenda

Brenda-

Joshua has asked me to represent our WH office at this Points of Light conference in Chicago on Monday and Tuesday the 18th and 19th and we were wondering if the Dept. of Education could pay for my travel to attend this event. I would make sure to focus my remarks on both the Interfaith Campus and Together for Tomorrow work. We want to make sure that the WH office is represented at all events.

We know everyone has very tight travel budgets- so let us know if it would be possible. I would not need a hotel stay, just travel.

The White House African American Regional Policy Forum

President Obama believes that change starts with each of us. "Imagine what we could accomplish Think about the America within our reach.an economy built to last, where hard work pays off, and responsibility is rewarded," resounds

President Obama. He has always believed that the best ideas do not just come from Washington. They come from individuals and communities all across the country. They come from people like you. To bring about real, lasting change the President needs you to stay engaged, add your ideas, and share your stories to help address the challenges of the 21st century.

Please join us on June 13, 2012, from 8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. for the African American Regional Policy Forum at the Mississippi e-Center @ Jackson State University, 1230 Raymond Rd, Jackson, Mississippi 39204.

The African American Regional Policy Forums are regional discussions that will be held in three cities nationwide, the first of which was held in North Las Vegas, Nevada. They are intended to connect Obama Administration Officials from a wide range of policy areas with community, non-profit, advocacy and business leaders, and local officials to discuss issues critical to the African American community and the nation. Please RSVP for the conference here: <http://www.whitehouse.gov/webform/white-house-african-american-regional-policy-forum-jackson-ms>. Lunch will be provided as a part of the all-day forum.

Last year, on November 11, 2011, the White House hosted the first African American Policy In Action Leadership Conference with the President and Senior White House and Administration Officials. Since the conference, several local elected officials, stake holders, faith leaders and Members of Congress have continued their engagement and held African American Policy Conferences across America. We want to harness this momentum and continue sharing President Obama's agenda.

That is a good flag. Can we add more breakouts to that later session?

All,

Talking with Jermaine from our events staff.

We noticed that there are 5 breakout sessions for the first session and down to 3 at other points. If we are expecting 800-1000 people, we can have 200+ people in each session.

Is that the goal?

Just checking before the site goes live...

Hi all –

Following up on our conversation this morning, I've attached two drafts of the July 9-10 agenda. The WORKING DRAFT includes notes from our ongoing conversations about speakers, structure, logistics, etc. The PUBLIC document includes only blurbs and the basic agenda overviewing the plan for the two days. Please especially review the PUBLIC document to make sure that everything is correct to finalize the registration system as well as to disseminate widely as necessary. I compiled this doc fairly quickly so someone's editing eye would be welcome ☺

Thanks!

Hi all,

Here is a rough draft for our discussion tomorrow. We have the housing link ready to go. If we can refine the agenda – we don't need presenters names at the moment – we can send this with the registration form. So please be prepared with ideas to help fill in as many essential blanks as possible. The last page of the document shows the rooms available and capacity. Questions about lunch time – how long to allow. Food is not permitted in any classrooms.

Blessings,
Brenda

Subject: Raleigh, NC Saturday-June 30, 2012

Dear Colleagues,

We finally have some details about the Connecting Communities for the Common Good event for Raleigh, NC. The event will be at St. Augustine's College.

- It will be Saturday, June 30, 2012 from 8:30 -noon. Registration 8:30 program starts at 9.
- There will be a short opening plenary and several breakout sessions and closing. Pretty typical format but no lunch.

- Attached is an overview(w/hotel suggestion, purpose, etc), and a form to fill out (workshop purpose, av requirements, contact, etc)

If you are able to sacrifice a Saturday to join us please express your interest right away. We look forward to hearing from you all soon.

Thanks.

(b)(5)

Joshua is out today and I need him to sign off on any language before it goes out. So we will need to hold until Monday to push send.

Can you please send me all language in a Word doc so I can send to Joshua?

Thanks!!!

All,

Talking with Jermaine from our events staff.

We noticed that there are 5 breakout sessions for the first session and down to 3 at other points. If we are expecting 800-1000 people, we can have 200+ people in each session.

Is that the goal?

Just checking before the site goes live...

Hi all –

Following up on our conversation this morning, I've attached two drafts of the July 9-10 agenda. The WORKING DRAFT includes notes from our ongoing conversations about speakers, structure, logistics, etc. The PUBLIC document includes only blurbs and the basic agenda overviewing the plan for the two days. Please especially review the PUBLIC document to make sure that everything is correct to finalize the registration system as well as to disseminate widely as necessary. I compiled this doc fairly quickly so someone's editing eye would be welcome ☺

Thanks!

Hi all,

Here is a rough draft for our discussion tomorrow. We have the housing link ready to go. If we can refine the agenda – we don't need presenters names at the moment – we can send this with the registration form. So please be prepared with ideas to help fill in as many essential blanks as possible. The last page of the document shows the rooms available and capacity. Questions about lunch time – how long to allow. Food is not permitted in any classrooms.

Blessings,

Brenda

The White House African American Regional Policy Forum

President Obama believes that change starts with each of us. "Imagine what we could accomplish Think about the America within our reach.an economy built to last, where hard work pays off, and responsibility is rewarded," resounds President Obama. He has always believed that the best ideas do not just come from Washington. They come from individuals and communities all across the country. They come from people like you. To bring about real, lasting change the President needs you to stay engaged, add your ideas, and share your stories to help address the challenges of the 21st century.

Please join us on June 13, 2012, from 8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. for the African American Regional Policy Forum at the Mississippi e-Center @ Jackson State University, 1230 Raymond Rd, Jackson, Mississippi 39204.

The African American Regional Policy Forums are regional discussions that will be held in three cities nationwide, the first of which was held in North Las Vegas, Nevada. They are intended to connect Obama Administration Officials from a wide range of policy areas with community, non-profit, advocacy and business leaders, and local officials to discuss issues critical to the African American community and the nation. Please RSVP for the conference here: <http://www.whitehouse.gov/webform/white-house-african-american-regional-policy-forum-jackson-ms>. Lunch will be provided as a part of the all-day forum.

Last year, on November 11, 2011, the White House hosted the first African American Policy In Action Leadership Conference with the President and Senior White House and Administration Officials. Since the conference, several local elected officials, stake holders, faith leaders and Members of Congress have continued their engagement and held African American Policy Conferences across America. We want to harness this momentum and continue sharing President Obama's agenda.

Read about how the President is working to strengthen the African American community and how his 2013 budget is helping him accomplish this.

We invite you to share this information with your local organizations and RSVP to the link

Subject: Fatherhood event

Hi all,

This Wednesday, the White House is hosting an event on fatherhood. We're wondering whether your principal is available to drop by the event. Please let me know if your principal has any availability between 1 and 4:30 on Wednesday. Additional details are below.

Thanks,
Colleen

This Wednesday, 6/13 from 1:00 to 4:30, the White House will be hosting the nation's leaders in the fields of fatherhood and low-income men social policy and programming, and honoring several of them as "Champions of Change" for their work with low-income men and boys. We will also have brief presentations celebrating exciting new advancements in the fatherhood field - from new programs connected to barbershops, to innovations in criminal justice and education, among other emerging practices.

Hi all,

This Wednesday, the White House is hosting an event on fatherhood. We're wondering whether your principal is available to drop by the event. Please let me know if your principal has any availability between 1 and 4:30 on Wednesday. Additional details are below.

Thanks,
Colleen

This Wednesday, 6/13 from 1:00 to 4:30, the White House will be hosting the nation's leaders in the fields of fatherhood and low-income men social policy and programming, and honoring several of them as "Champions of Change" for their work with low-income men and boys. We will also have brief presentations celebrating exciting new advancements in the fatherhood field - from new programs connected to barbershops, to innovations in criminal justice and education, among other emerging practices.

Mara,

I understand from Brenda that you want the material that was sent out today. Let me know if you need anything else.

I am in Syracuse where tomorrow 7 schools that participated and 4 schools that are interested are meeting at Syracuse University. This is the largest gathering we have had.

On the other hand, we have a gathering scheduled for Friday in Seattle with only two schools committed so far. Joshua is going to attend that meeting so I'd like to build the attendance. Too bad he isn't going to Syracuse.

Subject: REGISTER: President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge Update

June 12, 2012

Dear Colleague,

I am excited to be able to share with you the details about the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge moving forward.

In March 2011, President Obama extended an invitation to college and university presidents across the country to take up an initiative to bring together diverse religious groups on campus for interfaith cooperation and community service programming. The program challenges students and administrators to serve together on projects that strengthen their communities and unite people of diverse religious backgrounds. Response in the first year was overwhelming with 270 institutions participating.

President Obama has extended the challenge with an invitation to all institutions of higher education to join this year by developing a plan for interfaith/community service and joining other institutions in a community of learning.

Next Steps:

1. If you have not done so already, complete the 2012-13 participation form to indicate your interest in participating during our second year. You will find the participation form by clicking the following link:

2012-13 Participation Form. On this form you will name the lead contact at your institution so that you will receive information about webinars and other resources.

2. Plan on attending the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge 2012 Summer Gathering in Washington, DC on July 9-10, 2012 and consider sending a delegation of up to five people from your institution. Attendance at the 2012 Summer Gathering is not required for participation in the Challenge. However, it will be a special opportunity to celebrate the accomplishments of the Challenge, to gain useful information about organizing interfaith/community service at your institution, and to network and learn from others. For additional details and registration, please click the following link: Summer Gathering Registration

For housing opportunities on the Howard University campus during the July 9-10th gathering, please see the attached application (housing application.pdf). To complete the form, please scroll down to fill-in pages 8, 9, and the bottom of page 10. Several key fields have been filled in to assist you. Save and return this form via email to kanika.magee@howard.edu. Dr. Magee will notate and forward your request to the Office of Residence Life. Please note that housing on campus is limited.

Presidents of institutions should save the date July 9 at 10 AM for a reception and meeting at the White House with White House officials to discuss interfaith/community service. Look out for an invitation from the White House with information about how to register for this event.

3. Begin the planning process for next year. A planning report needs to be sent to the White House by October 15, 2012. The template for this report is attached (planning template.pdf). It is an excellent tool to help you work through the steps of developing a robust plan for interfaith/community service.
4. Consider additional opportunities to learn more and become involve. These include attending a webinar on June 18 at 2 PM EDT on information about useful resources for the coming year. This will be a great opportunity to have your questions answered. An invitation is attached (webinar details.doc).

If you have questions, please send them to EdPartners@ed.gov.

Summer Conference and Group Housing Program

Welcome!

We are pleased that you have chosen Howard University for your summer housing needs during your visit to Washington, D.C. Howard it is the only place you will find all that is needed in your summer housing destination and at the most convenient, affordable price. Here at Howard we believe that planning your trip should be the easiest part of your travel.

Howard University is situated in the most ideal location in Washington, DC. With downtown Chinatown just a few metro stops away and the U Street corridor around the corner, you will easily find yourself immersed in DC culture. Howard University is close to a myriad of monuments, museums, theaters, free concerts, international dining and offers convenient access to government offices and other research facilities.

You qualify for the Summer Conference and Group Housing Program if you are:

- a group or conference with an educational mission in the DC area
- a group participating in an educational program
- an individual interning at a government agency or another office in the DC area
- an individual conducting research during the summer

However, eligibility requires the submission and approval of your application in accordance with the specified time frame. Participants and groups in the summer housing program must plan their housing arrangements consistent with the starting date of June 1, 2012 and the ending date of August 1, 2012.

The Summer Conference and Group Housing Program is committed to providing you with the best accommodations possible. To ensure this, we ask that you make use of the information in this guide and respond immediately. Please feel free to call us with any additional questions that you may have at (202) 806-5661.

IMPORTANT:

Your official application is the primary document considered in the reservation/assignment process. You should contact the Summer Conference Housing Office well before your arrival to confirm approval. Walk-in applications will be considered and assignments made based on space availability.

Please read the Cancellation and Refund Policy carefully. Also, please list the names of male and female participants on the attached Summer Conference and Group Housing Participant List. If you need more space, please attach additional names on a separate sheet.

Please telephone the Summer Conference Housing Office, if for any reason(s) you are unable to submit your completed application and payment within the specified time frame.

Please send your completed applications, necessary payments and other correspondence to:

Marc D. Lee, M.S.
Dean for Residence Life
ATTN: Summer Conference Housing Office
Office of Residence Life

Summer Conference Housing Direct Line:

Office: 202.806.5661/202.806.9539
Fax: 202.806.4431

We do not offer single room accommodations for married couples or families. Guests with disabilities must request special housing arrangements at least two weeks prior to their arrival. These requests must be submitted along with a completed application form.

RESIDENCE HALLS

Individuals and groups participating in the program will be assigned to one of five residence halls, Bethune Annex, Cook, Tubman Quadrangle, Slowe, Meridian Hill or Drew Halls based on availability. Assignments will be scheduled as applications are processed. Slowe is specifically designated for interns or individuals participating in summer conference housing.

The rooms are wired for cable television, the Internet, and local telephone service. Each hall is equipped with kitchenettes on each floor. When utilizing the kitchenettes, it is the responsibility of guests to clean up after each use. Every dorm has communal bathroom and shower facilities, with exception to Bethune Annex. Each Residence Hall is equipped with seminar rooms and/or meeting space. If participants wish to use the seminar room or lounge spaces, please reserve a meeting space upon the completion of your application. There is 24-hour front desk service to serve your needs, or in the instance that an emergency situation arises.

Specific requests for preferred residence halls will be considered but not guaranteed. Such factors as summer readiness upgrades, length of stay, and size of group, may impact scheduling decisions. Study areas, vending machines, and lounges are available for use in each building upon request, but must be scheduled through the buildings Community Director. Each residence hall also provides 24 hour front desk service.

Your stay will be approved and confirmed upon completion of your summer housing application and receipt of payment. Payment must be received at least one week prior to your arrival. If you are using Howard University's Service Requests or any other departmental/institutional vouchers and/or other non-traditional forms of payment, you must provide at least two weeks advance notice of payments before participants' confirmation can be authorized. This may be satisfied through our receipt of an authorized letter on organizational letterhead from the sponsoring department or institution responsible for payment. No confirmation can be made until the above stipulations are satisfied.

NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE GRANTED FOR INDIVIDUALS OR GROUPS REGARDING APPLICATION AND PAYMENT REQUIREMENTS!

A faxed copy of the original application will be accepted, although the original signed application must be sent to the Summer Conference Office for confirmation of reservation. Additionally, we must be notified immediately of any changes made to the application after it has been faxed to our office.

CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICY

The Howard University Cancellation and Refund Policy state that the following actions are problematic:

1. Delaying completion of application until day of check-in
2. Failing to provide notice of cancellation for reserved spaces
3. Reducing and/or adding to the number of group participants without advance notice, due to the disruption of structured processes and the loss of revenue caused by last minute changes. Such actions are problematic because, once group reservations are confirmed, administrative and housekeeping operations are initiated to prepare for the individual/group's arrival.

Therefore, groups or individuals that cancel one week prior to the confirmed arrival date or thereafter will incur a charge at the rate of 15% of the total cost listed on the original invoice. The remaining 85% will be refunded.

Groups that reduce the number of participants one week or less prior to the confirmed arrival date as specified on the original completed Summer Conference and Group Housing Application, will incur a penalty at the rate of 10% of the cost for each "no show" participant.

SPECIAL NOTE: NO FINANCIAL ADJUSTMENTS WILL BE MADE FOR ANY REDUCTION(S) IN THE NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS AFTER THE CONFIRMED CHECK- IN. SPONSORS WILL NOT BE REIMBURSED FOR ANY PARTICIPANTS WHO DEPART PRIOR TO THE OFFICIAL CHECK-OUT DATE.

SUMMER CONFERENCE KEY POLICY

Receiving of keys: The room keys for all participants will be given to the group coordinator(s) upon check - in. It will then be the coordinator's responsibility to distribute keys to the program participants.

Returning of keys: The room keys of all participants must be returned to the front desk at least one-half hour before check-out.

Lost keys: Lost keys must be reported immediately. If a key is lost or reported missing a charge of $10.00 will be assessed to cover the cost of cutting new keys. Keys are not transferable and may not be duplicated. Guests may not install auxiliary locks, and/or locking devices on room doors.

***For security reasons, it is very important that guests keep their room key with them at all times. Guests should always lock their room doors when they are out of the room or when they are sleeping***.

LOSS OR DAMAGE OF PESONAL PROPERTY

The University shall not be responsible for any personal property of the guest which may be lost, damaged, stolen or for any loss thereof occasioned by fire, the elements or other casualty.

TERMINATION

The University reserves the right to terminate this agreement and take possession of said room occupied by the guest for violation of any terms of this agreement including default in the aforementioned payment of fees, or the violation of any health ordinance or regulation of the District of Columbia.

The President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge Advancing Interfaith Cooperation and Community Service In Higher Education

Below is a planning report for academic year 2012-13 of President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. Please return this form to the White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships (WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov) by October 15, 2012.

If you have not yet registered your intention to participate, please complete the participation form (Campus Challenge 2012-13 participation form.pdf) that can be found at <http://www2.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/campus-challenge.html>

- Did you participate in 2011-12? If yes, use the following questions to explain how your second year of participation in the President's Challenge will build on your efforts from the first year.
- New participant in 2012-13

Part I: Institutional Overview

1. Institution Name:
2. Institution City/State:
3. Institution's President or CEO, Title and email address:
4. Institution's Challenge Lead<sup>1</sup> Name, Title and Contact Information (email and telephone):
5. Institution's Challenge Student Lead's Name and email address (optional):

Part II: Executive Summary

Please provide a 150 word executive summary of your plan:

Part III: Student Leadership & Partners

1. List possible partner student organizations that have committed to this program. (Examples include: Muslim Students Association, InterVarsity Christian Fellowship, Circle K, Hindu Students Association, Secular Students Association, Student Government, etc.)
2. List possible external community partners that will be involved in this program. (Examples include: First Presbyterian Church, Regional Food Pantry, City-wide Interfaith Council, etc.)

Part IV: Advancing Service

1. Select one or two Kennedy Serve America Act service priorities your campus will focus on through this initiative:
  - Domestic poverty & educational opportunity
  - Energy & the environment
  - Health services & healthy living
  - Education
  - Disaster preparedness
  - Veterans and military families
  - Human Trafficking
  - Other: (Please indicate)
2. Do you plan to participate in any of the following National Service Days?

Part V: Advancing Interfaith Engagement

1. Check individuals and groups that will be involved in your interfaith engagement:
  - Campus faith-based organizations
  - Community faith-based organization
  - Faculty, staff and students of various faiths
  - Other institutions of higher education
  - Other

2. Check at least one interfaith engagement initiative that your campus will implement in conjunction with the service initiative.
  - Communications: These initiatives demonstrate the institution’s public commitment to interfaith cooperation on campus. Program examples include, but are not limited to, an address by your college or university President on the importance of interfaith cooperation, a web-based communications campaign on the importance of interfaith cooperation, or an interfaith cooperation session incorporated into student orientation programs and materials.
  - Education: These initiatives cultivate appreciative knowledge about diverse religious and non-religious identities, positively impacting attitudes and knowledge on diverse religious and non-religious identity. Program examples include, but are not limited to, courses available for students to further develop knowledge-base in interfaith cooperation and service, educational panels and lectures delivered for large audiences on campus, and first year seminars incorporating module(s) on interfaith cooperation.
  - Capacity Building: These initiatives provide students, faculty and staff with a baseline ability to positively engage religious and non-religious diversity within their own spheres of influence. Program examples include, but are not limited to, campus-wide staff training to appropriately engage religious and non-religious identity on campus, faculty professional development opportunities in the area of religious and cultural diversity, or training a core group of students to lead interfaith service events.
3. Provide a brief overview of programs or strategies you will use to ensure that interfaith dialogue and/or interfaith engagement is a component of your service initiatives -- 500 words or less.

Part VI: Implementation, Evaluation & Sustainability

1. Provide a timeline for the programs described above –
2. Describe evaluation method(s) your campus will utilize to indicate that this program will have a sustainable impact. Metrics should include measurement in each of the following impact areas. 500 words or less:
  - Interfaith Impact: (i.e., knowledge of the positive history of religious diversity in the United States, literacy of diverse religious and philosophical traditions, etc.)
  - Service Impact: (i.e., pounds of waste recycled, number of students tutored number of meals prepared, etc.). Qualitative impact (i.e., service reflections and journals, etc.)
  - Campus Transformation: institution-wide shift toward greater interfaith cooperation and interfaith service (i.e. survey gauging the campus climate of religious tolerance, student learning outcomes post-participation in challenge events).

3. Describe what you hope the immediate and future impact of this program will be on your campus community. – 300 words or less.

Subject: Fatherhood event

Hi all,

This Wednesday, the White House is hosting an event on fatherhood. We're wondering whether your principal is available to drop by the event. Please let me know if your principal has any availability between 1 and 4:30 on Wednesday. Additional details are below.

Thanks,

Hello everyone,

Unfortunately we will have to reschedule kitchen cabinet this week. Many of us had delayed and cancelled flights returning or attempting to return to DC yesterday. We will meet at our regular time next week.

Jackson forum was a huge success special thanks to Yeshe Abebe, Tori Scarborough, and Saba Abebe for all of their hard work and to all of you who traveled (taking 5am flights or landing at 1am Tuesday night) to get to Jackson. The community loved the event and we have gotten a wonderful response. The last forum will be Baltimore so please let me know by the end of the day if your agency would be interested in being a sponsor.

Best,

Heather Foster

Subject: Weekly Reports

Friends,

Hope you are all doing well this Monday afternoon!

I would like to remind all Centers that Weekly Reports are due by 12pm on Thursday. This time is intentionally chosen so that updates from Centers can be included in updates that go to senior leadership at the White House. Therefore, getting in reports by the deadline facilitates that process.

I know that the Weekly Report process can be a challenging and sometimes burdensome task. However, I want to make sure the great work that you are doing is well-socialized here at the White House.

Thanks for your help with this. Enjoy the week!

Best,
Joshua

Joshua has asked me to represent our WH office at this Points of Light conference in Chicago on Monday and Tuesday the 18th and 19th and we were wondering if the Dept. of Education could pay for my travel to attend this event. I would make sure to focus my remarks on both the Interfaith Campus and Together for Tomorrow work. We want to make sure that the WH office is represented at all events.

We know everyone has very tight travel budgets- so let us know if it would be possible. I would not need a hotel stay, just travel.

Thanks!

As a valued partner of Points of Light, we invite you to join us for our Partners Luncheon, a time to re-connect with organizations from around the nation and celebrate our successes. After you've registered for the conference (www.volunteeringandservice.org), register at <http://partnerluncheon.eventbrite.com> for the Partners Luncheon. Lunch will be provided.

We have more than 100 workshops in 14 tracks this year and new programming types to provide networking opportunities and direct access to industry leaders and expert practitioners. Be sure to check out the Conference highlights on our website. We welcome you to share information about this conference with your networks while early bird rates are still available (through April 27).

We look forward to seeing you in Chicago!

I need to fly TOMORROW. It may be too late now to go to HHS or any other Center. Joshua and I were really hoping that the Ed Center could cover this one. I know you have been checking in with no response.

Brenda- is there anything you can do to speed this along and confirm this process? I don't know how I will get to Chicago without this travel. What can we do??

Friends - thanks so much for your help! Arne was EXCELLENT, as always.

Question: Huffington Post would like Arne to build on his remarks in a blog post on their site. If you'd like, we can take a first cut at a draft and send over to him/you. Is there an interest in this? Could be a nice hit for Father's Day.

Thanks again,

Everyone,

Thanks so much for the Secretary's participation on Wednesday. I know the reaction in the room and in follow-up conversations was really positive.

Building on his remarks, WIRED Magazine's GeekDad team has both reached out to the President's Fatherhood & Mentoring Initiative team because they are interested in setting up an "Ask Me Anything-like" forum, and that also could be promoted on wired.com. GeekDad with WIRED is "a comprehensive effort to encourage parents and their children to strengthen family ties and ignite children's passions for science, technology, engineering, and math."

Let us know if there would be any interest in connecting to set something up in the near future. Feel free to call me if you have any questions (202.329.3315)

Thanks all,

Agreed - sounds great. I think this shouldn't be too hard, and I tried to semi-carefully word that to imply that we would like to write it. I don't know the huff post faith-based folks, but we've of course worked with them generally to do AD blogs in the past.

Friends - thanks so much for your help! Arne was EXCELLENT, as always.

Question: Huffington Post would like Arne to build on his remarks in a blog post on their site. If you'd like, we can take a first cut at a draft and send over to him/you. Is there an interest in this? Could be a nice hit for Father's Day.

Thanks again,

Everyone,

Thanks so much for the Secretary's participation on Wednesday. I know the reaction in the room and in follow-up conversations was really positive.

Building on his remarks, WIRED Magazine's GeekDad team has both reached out to the President's Fatherhood & Mentoring Initiative team because they are interested in setting up an "Ask Me Anything-like" forum, and that also could be promoted on wired.com. GeekDad with WIRED is "a comprehensive effort to encourage parents and their children to strengthen family ties and ignite children's passions for science, technology, engineering, and math."

Let us know if there would be any interest in connecting to set something up in the near future. Feel free to call me if you have any questions (202.329.3315)

Hello everyone,

Unfortunately we will have to reschedule kitchen cabinet this week. Many of us had delayed and cancelled flights returning or attempting to return to DC yesterday. We will meet at our regular time next week.

Jackson forum was a huge success special thanks to Yeshi Abebe, Tori Scarborough, and Saba Abebe for all of their hard work and to all of you who traveled (taking 5am flights or landing at 1am Tuesday night) to get to Jackson. The community loved the event and we have gotten a wonderful response. The last forum will be Baltimore so please let me know by the end of the day if your agency would be interested in being a sponsor.

Best,

Heather Foster

He often cancels, but I am not in the loop at this point to know if he has. I'll do some checking to see if Michael can go to the Directors Meeting. He is currently in Chicago. I don't know when he gets back.

Assuming I can get to work tomorrow, even if I should cover the Directors Meeting I could come to your event from 3-3:20 and then drop by Joshua's meeting.

None of the folks on the list of schools who want to be a part of the solution. Non of the tentative others have rsvpd as all contact has been directed to me or Calhoun's team.

The listing that was sent over is dedicated to being apart of the solution and only want to discuss policy and next steps to helping the students get quality education with least amount of debt.

However this needs to be adjusted to get this worked out we strand ready.

Hey,

Please pull this meeting down at the Department of Education. Just for clarification we need to reschedule and discuss. Im out of pocket today and tomorrow but we can touch base Thursday. We have to be very sensitive about the meeting and currently people are still RSVPing directly to Education meaning there is an invitation out there somewhere.

Best,

Heather Foster

Good Morning Heather "Jaxine" Foster

Hope you had a great weekend. Just wanted to see if there is anything that I can help you with please let me know. I would like to get the wave file information for you on the folks who would tentatively attend the meeting on June 28. Just want to be prepared in case we get the all clear to move forward. the issue is how to go about requesting there information - is there a form letter that would come from the WH if we are approved inviting them or is there a type of format that I can use to send to them officially inviting them to the meeting?

Also, Senator Simmons wanted to check in with you to see if you heard or knew who should be contacted to find out the status of the Grammy Museum in Cleveland MS. The stakeholders are trying to get a handle on where there IRS number is in the process of moving the project forward. At this time they've committed $7million dollars to the project and only are missing $7million to complete it. Would like to do a potential ground breaking by end of summer.

If you're able to reach out to her today with yesterday's statement by the Secretary and a quick check-in, I think that would go a long way. Appreciate your help. Thanks.

DC School Vouchers Program Supporters Praise Administration Reversal

By Lauren Smith, CQ Staff

In a dramatic break from its previous opposition to a private school voucher program for low-income students in the District of Columbia, the White House on Monday agreed to fully finance the initiative.

House Speaker John A. Boehner, R-Ohio, and Sen. Joseph I. Lieberman, I-Conn., issued a statement announcing that an agreement had been reached with the Education Department on the D.C. Opportunity Scholarship Program. Under the deal, the voucher program will receive immediate full funding of $20 million and a cap on enrollment will be lifted.

“For eight years, this scholarship program has empowered low-income parents to choose the best learning environment for their children,” Boehner, a steadfast supporter of the initiative, said. “Thousands of families have taken advantage of this scholarship program to give their children an opportunity to succeed in life, and there’s strong evidence that it’s both effective and cost-effective.”

Lieberman, for his part, said that the program “provides a lifeline to many needy children.”

Congress first authorized the program in 2004 as a five-year pilot under an omnibus appropriations package (PL 108-109) providing approximately 1,000 vouchers to D.C. students to attend private or parochial schools around the city. But the Obama administration halted funding for new students in 2009, providing only enough to cover students already enrolled in the program.

After a two-year lapse, the program was reauthorized in the fiscal 2012 spending deal (PL 112-74), with Boehner and Lieberman again championing the cause. President Obama’s fiscal 2013 budget request included no funding at all, leaving the program to float itself on the funds it currently has.

In response to Monday’s announcement, House Education and the Workforce Chairman John Kline, R-Minn., said he is “relieved the Obama administration agreed not to eliminate funding for this invaluable program.”

Last week, the Senate Appropriations Committee approved its fiscal 2013 Financial Services and General Government spending bill (S 3301), which covers the D.C. budget, and provided $13.5 million for the voucher program. The House Appropriations Committee is scheduled to consider its version of the spending bill on Wednesday, and it is likely to approve the full $20 million for the program. The draft version passed June 6 by the House spending subcommittee included the full $20 million.

“Given the administration’s commitment, we expect it will be fully-funded, and we will work to make sure that happens,” Michael Steel, Boehner’s spokesman, said following the Monday announcement.

Supporters say that federally funded school vouchers help underprivileged children escape troubled public schools and get a quality education. But some education and union officials and many Democratic lawmakers argue that public funds should not be used to support private or religious schools at the expense of public systems. They also say that students receiving vouchers do not necessarily perform better than their public school counterparts.

In March 2011, when the House passed a bill (HR 471) sponsored by Boehner to revive the voucher program, the White House issued a Statement of Administration Policy opposing the legislation, which it said targeted resources “to help a small number of individuals attend private schools.” The statement stopped short, however, of threatening a veto.

The White House and the Education Department had no immediate response Monday to the Boehner-Lieberman announcement.

Hi Ken –

Per our conversation this morning, you and I are supposed to send Mara the revised text for the White House website.

Attached is what I had sent her last week for review but Brenda let me know that you had been working on this as well.

My thinking for this draft was this: given how difficult it is to get them to update the website, it's better to provide evergreen language that can be relevant throughout the year for the President's Challenge. Probably better not to include specific deadlines, info on the convening, etc. since there is a very real possibility that it simply will not be updated again.

Then, I provided a link to the ED page for the President's Challenge, assuming that that is the location where the most up-to-date and relevant information will be available.

Take a read over and let me know what you think. I'm happy to incorporate any of your edits and then send on to Mara.

Dear Joshua, Mara and Jason,

Beginning this week we will transmit stories about the work of the PIFSCC and Tft. Jason, Arne asked us to give you at least a story a week.

Our new interns are helping us to go back and lift out stories to help show the impact of our work on the ground. We welcome feedback – we know these need to be written so they can be retold in the context of public remarks.

Blessings,
Brenda

Hi all,

Attached is the invitation for the WH Faith-Based Social Innovators Conference. You are all invited to attend. It should be a great way to connect with different folks who are doing creative work in your issue areas. Given the space concerns that we are having, please let me know as soon as possible if you will be able to attend on July 11. You can RSVP with your WAVES info and send it to whpartnerships@who.eop.gov.

Thanks!

Dear Friend,

The Office of Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships and the Office of Social Innovation and Civic Participation, in coordination with the Office of Public Engagement, would like to invite you to the White House on the afternoon of Wednesday, July 11 to participate in a forum to discuss the important role that faith-based social innovators play in expanding opportunity and addressing social issues.

Senior Administration officials as well as leading faith-based social innovators from around the country will come together for this event. The afternoon will be comprised of a series of briefings, panels, and small-and-large group discussions that will explore how faith-based organizations are creating innovative models and entrepreneurial ventures to make a positive impact on our economy and our society, often while serving our most vulnerable communities.

This session will inaugurate a new series of conversations that we are hosting at the White House this summer to explore the topic of social innovation. Starting with this look at the pioneering accomplishments of our faith-based communities, we will seek to learn from local innovators and social entrepreneurs who are expanding opportunity and strengthening communities across the country.”

The details of this event are below. Please let us know if you will be able to attend this event by emailing whpartnerships@who.eop.gov with your security information in the attached spreadsheet as soon as possible. Due to high demand and limited space, we will only be able to accept the first 150 reservations. We will be following up with more details about this event soon.

If you have any questions about this event, please don't hesitate to email whpartnerships@who.eop.gov, and we'll be happy to answer any questions.

Looking forward to seeing you there!

Hi everyone,

Apologies for the late notice, but we are pulling down today's Opportunity Agenda meeting to provide more time for draft proposals to be worked through.

Next week's meeting is also on July 4th so I will work to reschedule next week's meeting for Thursday or Friday of next week.

In this process, we'll likely streamline this distribution list as we dig into the work this summer. If you'd like to remain engaged as part of a smaller group, please let me know by email.

Thank you,
Diana

Thanks so much for your help last week. Unfortunately, I've had some computer issues that resulted in a reboot of my entire system, so I lost the tabs I had open. Can you re-send me the link to the page for uploading the final reports?

Thanks so much!

Dear Mara,

I am contacting you on behalf of Adam Butler, president of the Kaplan Career Institute - Nashville, who received the invitation (below) to participate in the July 9th White House briefing and roundtable on the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge.

We are delighted that Mr. Butler has been invited to participate and thank you for the invitation!

We do have a few questions that I hope you can assist with.

Since Kaplan has 70 college campuses across the country, we are wondering how the Nashville campus was selected to participate in this event?

The invitation mentions a White House briefing and roundtable discussion. Can you provide any more details on the roundtable, Administration participants, and what its focus will be? Will Mr. Butler be expected to make any remarks?

Will additional details be provided to participants regarding logistics - e.g. what time and where to access the White House?

Also, are there any details available for the program for the Summer Gathering at Howard University beginning at 1pm and what might be expected of Mr. Butler?

Any additional information along these lines would be greatly appreciated. I can be reached at 202-334-4617 or 202-641-6087 (cell) if it would be easier to have a telephone conversation.

Thanks very much,

Cheryl

Campus Challenge

White House Reception

June 27th, 2012

Dear President,

You are invited to a White House briefing and round table discussion on the President's Interfaith Campus Challenge with senior White House, Department of Education, and Corporation for National and Community Service officials. The reception will be from 10:00 to 11:30 AM on July 9, 2012 in the Indian Treaty Room of the Eisenhower Executive Office Building.

This invitation is not transferable. Please RSVP by returning the attached WAVES form by July 2, 2012 to the White House at WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov. Only if we receive the form by July 2, 2012 will you be admitted to the White House grounds.

This event precedes the Presidents Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge 2012 Summer Gathering at Howard University which begins at 1 PM July 9. If you plan on attending the 2012 Summer Gathering, please fill out the official registration form for the event by clicking the following link:

Hey quick question, would you be able to come tomorrow morning at 8-9 to speak to a community leaders briefing for New Jersey teachers --who are mostly union. Similar to the CLB you did back in the fall.

I can connect you with Victoria McCullough

Hi Eric,

Tenicka told me you two talked about the Cabinet Affairs request for Sec. Duncan to speak during one of the plenary sessions July 9- 10th. We are thrilled that Martha Kanter will be with us and we still hope that Arne can participate in some aspect of the event. There is an opening plenary at 1 pm on the 9th, the second plenary is 9 am on the 10th and the closing plenary is at 3 pm on the 10th.

There will also be a special presidents' only reception at the White House at 10 am on the Monday, July 9th.

Our office has had the lead on the work over the past year. We would welcome the support.

Blessings,
Brenda

Martha – yesterday I received this invitation to attend a White House reception. I would like to go, but the forms that were supposedly attached that you needed to fill out by July 2 did not accompany the invitation. I wrote to Mara Vanderslice Kelly and also send a request to the general address, but have received no response. Could you help me get the forms? I greatly enjoyed our breakfast in Washington and was pleased to see you doing so well.

The President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge

White House Reception
July 9th, 2012

June 27th, 2012

Dear President,

You are invited to a White House briefing and round table discussion on the President's Interfaith Campus Challenge with senior White House, Department of Education, and Corporation for National and Community Service officials. The reception will be from 10:00 to 11:30 AM on July 9, 2012 in the Indian Treaty Room of the Eisenhower Executive Office Building.

This invitation is not transferable. Please RSVP by returning the attached WAVES form by July 2, 2012 to the White House at WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov. Only if we receive the form by July 2, 2012 will you be admitted to the White House grounds.

This event precedes the Presidents Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge 2012 Summer Gathering at Howard University which begins at 1 PM July 9. If you plan on attending the 2012 Summer Gathering, please fill out the official registration form for the event by clicking the following link:

<http://www.cvent.com/events/president-s-interfaith-and-community-service-campus-challenge-2012-summer-gathering/invitation-1fc92d00b4774b6aa49b122b57a53607.aspx>

Complete information regarding the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge can be found at www.ed.gov/edpartners.

We hope you will join us at the White House to kick off the summer celebration of the President's Interfaith and Community Service Challenge.

If you have any questions please contact our Deputy Director Mara Vanderslice Kelly who is the point of contact for this event at mvkelly@who.eop.gov.

Sincerely,

Joshua DuBois

Note: We were able to confirm your tour for 10am, 9:30am was not available.

Greetings Ms. Morton,

Your tour of the East Wing of the White House is scheduled for 10:00 AM on June 30th, 2012. Please plan to arrive no later than 9:45 AM.

Please arrive 15 minutes before your scheduled tour time at the Southeast Gate at Alexander Hamilton Place and East Executive Avenue, right off of 15th Street and E Street with Photo ID.

Groups who arrive for a tour should not bring:

- Cameras or Video Recorders
- Handbags, book bags, backpacks or purses

- Food or beverages, tobacco products, personal grooming items (i.e. makeup, lotion, etc.)
- Strollers
- Any pointed objects
- Aerosol containers
- Guns, ammunition, fireworks, electric stun guns, mace, martial arts weapons/devices, or knives of any size

There is no place at the White House to check a bag or a prohibited item. If it is raining, umbrellas are permitted. Cell phones and cell phones with cameras are allowed, however you will not be permitted to use them inside of the White House.

All visitors age 18 years of age or older will need to present photo identification with information matching the name with previously submitted information for clearance. Individuals without acceptable identification or whose identification does not exactly match the name or data cleared for entry may be denied entry. Acceptable forms of ID include:

- Valid Government issued United States driver's license
- Valid Government issued United States identification card
- Valid United States or other official government issued passports
- Valid United States State Department ID
- For foreign nationals, only VALID passports are accepted No foreign-issued state IDs, foreign-issued driver's licenses, expired passports, or other forms of identification will be accepted.

Tours are self-guided, however United States Secret Service officers are posted in every room to provide historical information about the room and the White House. Please feel free to ask them questions.

White House tours are subject to last minute cancellation. Please call the White House Visitors Office 24-hour information line at 202-456-7041 for the most current information about White House tours.

Tours are significantly enhanced with a stop by the White House Visitor Center located at the southeast corner of 15th and E Streets. The location is easy to find by looking for three American flags and the blue awnings. Visitors should allow 20 minutes to one hour to see the videos and exhibits. The Visitor Center is open 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. seven days a week.

For your convenience, here are links to our map and visitors guide.

On behalf of President and Mrs. Obama, we hope you enjoy your visit to the White House.

Deputy Director Mara Vanderslice Kelly,

I received the invitation for the White House briefing and round table discussion on the President's Interfaith Campus Challenge on Monday, July 9th. I did not, however, receive the attached WAVES form that was to be returned by today's date in order to be admitted. I did fill out the registration information for the meetings taking place at Howard University.

Can you forward the required form so that I may RSVP as requested?

Thank you for your time.

Regards,

Hello Samantha,

Today is a busy tour day for us! I am reaching out again to confirm that the policy highlighted below is still effective (ie. kids under 18 do not need to provide their social security number). I want to make sure we submit the WAVES properly.

Also, I am about to send a series of tour requests for our Summer interns. Any date in the summer that accommodates the groups would be fine. Thank you very much; I appreciate you working with our questions today.

Yes, the policy is still effective. Regarding the tours for the interns, the best course of action would be to choose dates that work best for you and then I can let you know what is available. Also, do not feel like you need to split up the interns into multiple tours. Just yesterday we scheduled a tour for 158 USDA summer interns.

Let me know if you have additional questions,
Samantha

Hi all

We have consulted each school to make sure the examples are accurate. There were no flags from the schools mentioned and we did not use any names of individuals so no added vetting is required is there?

We did not get a lot of people on the call we did last week when we sent out the call-in invite to discuss logistics.. Having Rayshon send out the call-in invite will definitely make sure people make the conference calls.

Let me know what your thoughts are on this.

Dear Colleagues,

We know travel budgets are tapped out for many offices. So far, I have heard a regrets from Acacia and a yes Jerry. If you have the capacity to send a regional person, that is acceptable as well. Please let me hear from you soon. There would be an opportunity to share materials as well as speak at a town hall type session.

Blessings,
Brenda

Dear Colleagues,

Joshua asked me to pursue some opportunity to show support for the PNBC. I just confirmed the date and time the PNBC would like to have a FBNP seminar. That day is "President's Day" and ends with a banquet at 7 pm. Dr. Baltimore will use that day to highlight the issues it wants to pursue during his term. It would be helpful to him to have a strong showing from our team. Last year they marked the 50th anniversary in DC. This year they will focus on their civil rights legacy throughout the week in Memphis. They also have a strong emphasis on faith-based re-entry initiatives and are building on some successes they have had in Detroit.

Rev. Dr. Dee Dee Coleman will be our point of contact. She will forward hotel details etc. later today.

Let me know what is possible please.

Blessings,
Brenda

girl, it ain't like perks come with the job. i keep trying to remind folks of that -- seriously, the perk is the job. period. let's get that through our thick skulls! mind you, that thinking could be why i never seem to get the sexy invites like some of our colleagues do. . . remind me to add to my to do list -- take a lesson from my colleagues and figure out how to "work it"! alas, given all the other to-do's maybe that one gets saved for my next life. :-)

But it's less impt to me than others about whether I'm present at any signing. Mostly I just want to get the work done, and execute the to-do's. Seriously.
So please don't add any to-do's on your already way too full plate to tote any water for me. K?

OFFICE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS, STUDENT LEADERS TO RECOGNIZE EDUCATION EQUITY, LEGACY OF CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964
Secretary Duncan, White House, Smithsonian Officials to Participate

U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan, along with officials from the White House and Smithsonian Institution, will engage with high school students from New York City and Washington, D.C., in recognizing education equity and the enduring legacy of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The event will begin Monday morning at the Education Department, then move that afternoon to the Smithsonian Museum of American History.

Organized by the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights, the day's activities will pay tribute to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin in all programs or activities that receive federal financial assistance.

Among the young people expected to attend are students from the New York Mayor's Youth Leadership Council, New York Urban Ambassadors, the Close Up program, the Washington, D.C., Schools Without Walls, as well as winners of the Princeton Prize on Race Relations.

We will post this on the website. Not a problem. We have also contacted our PR local firm in Memphis to circulate as well. If there are special offices that you would like to have present, we would like to extend an open invitation. This would be good for them to meet local PNBC Presidents, I can arrange that as well. Thank you all for your support.

How is this agenda being used?

Is this an open press event? Meaning are media outside nat'l baptist convention attending.

Will this be posted on PNBC's website?

Is there someone I can connect with to get a sense of the logistics for Joshua's participation in the convention tomorrow? He's due to land at 10:40, and so I doubt that he'll be able to speak right at 11:00am.

It would be great to know where he fits in the larger program, what themes he should hit, how many people will be there, what the audience is like, how long he is expected to speak, etc.

Thanks all! You've been tremendous is helping this come together.

Asap.

This itinerary has not been ticketed. What steps need to be taken on your end to ensure that is the case?

Scott,
Let me know if you think I can do anything.

Just talked to Joshua he said he has a plan to get back to DC.

Michael Robbins also had cancelled flights. I haven't heard from Brenda who is traveling. I am heading out this afternoon. It is scary out there.

Desi,
Can you be in touch with the travel agency?

Joshua's flight last night was cancelled. He stayed the night in Milwaukee and was put on a Frontier flight that left at 8:15am.

This morning that flight was cancelled. And they are going to send him on a bus to Chicago.

Can you call to see if any seats opened up or if we can get him on an airtran or southwest flight that will get him to DC sooner?

Thanks
Scott

Sorry for more and more annoying requests, but I am trying to check-in Joshua on these flights. It is preventing Joshua from checking in online because the itinerary details don't match the information in the itinerary for Joshua's ticket. I'm not sure what that means but basically, when I enter the confirmation numbers on the Delta and AirTran websites, I am unable to check-in.

Any suggestions?

Clay,
This looks outstanding. I raised one question in the attached document.

We are going to miss your excellent contributions to the Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnership work.

Hi Clay- Here is the revised version of the toolkit. I made the changes you requested and added information about mentoring to the introduction, employment and family wellness sections. After reviewing with fresh eyes this morning, that's where it seemed to fit the best.

Joining Forces Toolkit Project Draft for Review

Background/

The White House Office of Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships (WHOFBNP) coordinates 13 federal agency Centers of Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships charged with forming and supporting partnerships between the government and secular and faith-based nonprofit organizations to serve those in need. An important emphasis of this work is to address the needs of veterans and military families. Joining Forces, housed within the First Lady's Office is a comprehensive national initiative to mobilize all sectors of society to address the specific issues faced by veterans and military families.

Launched by First Lady Michelle Obama and Dr. Jill Biden, Joining Forces:

- Brings attention to the unique needs and strength of America's military families.
- Inspires, educates, and sparks action from all sectors of society – citizens, communities, businesses, non-profits, faith based institutions, philanthropic organizations, and government - to ensure veterans and military families have the opportunities, resources, and support they have earned.
- Showcases the skills, experience, and dedication of America's veterans and military spouses to strengthen our nation's communities.
- Creates greater connections between the American public and the military.

The effort highlights issues of special relevance to service members and their families in the areas of employment, education, and wellness.

[Sidebar]: Presidential Directive 9

In May 2010, President Obama directed the National Security Staff (NSS) to develop a coordinated Federal Government-wide approach to supporting military families. To be led by the National Security Staff and Domestic Policy Council, the directive called for identification of better ways to provide veterans and military families with the support they need and deserve and ensure that (1) the U.S. military recruits and retains America's best, allowing it to maintain the high standards which have become a hallmark of our armed forces; (2) service members can maintain both strong families and a high state of readiness; (3) family members can live fulfilling lives while supporting their service member(s); and (4) the American people better understand and appreciate the experience, strength, and commitment of those who serve and sacrifice on their behalf" (Strengthening Our Military Families, 1-2).

First, thank you both again so much for agreeing to do this Roosevelt Room meeting tomorrow with Marie. It's shaping up to be a fantastic group and conversation.

I had a chance to touch base with Marie about this meeting tomorrow and how the flow of it might work. Because there is a real time premium with these meetings – 90 minutes – we want to make sure that there is sufficient time for discussion. Our thought here is (b)(5)

Hi Erik,

Thank you for coordinating the tour with the Morehouse and Howard student football teams and special thanks to Adelle for coordinating the clearance spreadsheet which is never an easy task so I appreciate her patience.

I wanted to let you know that unfortunately due to his travel schedule the President will not be able to tape a video this year. We definitely pushed for this but at this time we just could not get this done in time for the game next weekend.

Please continue to stay engaged with our office and I look forward to coordinating on additional events.

Best Regards,

Heather Foster

Heather,

Thanks very much for your diligence in pursuing our request. The tour sounds great. Please allow us a couple days to inquire with both schools as to their availability on the 31st.

I'm back in the office Monday and will contact you then.

Thanks again for extending this offer for a tour.

Hi Erik,

I am still working on the request for the Howard Morehouse game but there have been some significant changes to the President's schedule this past week so that we may not get a recording but we have been continuing to work on it.

In the meantime I would like to offer one of our East Wing large group tours August 31, 2012 at 11:30am to 175 people attending the game. If it is easier to extend this to the students (perhaps the team and participating band students) or alumni please let me know what you would think would work best. We do need all tour information by August 22nd, 2012 in the attached spreadsheet to submit for security clearance and at that time everyone would receive instructions. Please let me know your thoughts as soon as possible.

Best,

Heather Foster

Arne Duncan, U.S. Secretary of Education
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20202

Dear Mr. Duncan,

By way of introduction, my name is Shawn Dove and I serve as Manager of the Campaign for Black Male Achievement (the Campaign), a major philanthropic strategy of the Open Society Foundations US Programs.

On October 3rd, 2012, we will host the first-ever Innovation & Impact Forum for Black Male Achievement at the Grand Hyatt in New York City. As suggested by Joshua DuBois, I am writing to extend an invitation for you to present a Drum Major Service Award honoring a volunteer who has performed extraordinary service to improve the lives of black men and boys. The awardee is a mentor from the Verizon Mentoring program which has mentored students in a Harlem middle school for the past ten years under the supervision of Campaign grantee partner, Mentoring USA.

The purpose of the Innovation & Impact forum, entitled "What Winning Looks Like: Investing In What Works," is to build collaborations, celebrate progress being made by leaders and organizations, and to cultivate champions who will continue to shine a light on the field of black male achievement.

The Campaign was launched in 2008 to address the economic, political, social, and educational exclusion of black men and boys from the American mainstream. Over the past four years the Campaign has invested over $30 million in the core investment areas of 1) attaining educational equity; 2) strengthening family structures; 3) increasing living-wage work opportunities; 4) and strengthening the field of black male achievement. Along with partners like the White House Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships we have laid the foundation for creating lasting change in the lives of black men and boys in America.

The Forum will be attended by almost 200 leaders from across the country from philanthropy, business, nonprofit sector, and government committed to improving the life outcomes of black men and boys including: George Soros, Mayor Bloomberg, Geoffrey Canada, and Magic Johnson. We would be honored if you could join us at this historic event to present the Drum Major Service Award!

Sincerely,

(b)(5)

Margaret is our WH liaison. She has been trying to get a start date for Anna Leach to be our CA for 2 months. Can you make a call to help get her start date. ED has completed its part and is ready for her to come.

Thanks,
Brenda

Hi Margaret

Any status report on Anna? I'm really swamped and need help here please.

Is there anything constructive I can do to move this along?

Please advise.

Team-

First off a HUGE thanks to Kim for all of the info she sent over this week! Second, if you are planning to attend Monday's meeting and are coming from outside the building, please send your WAVES to Sam: FN-WHO-Business@who.eop.gov ASAP.

Finally, if you have not sent me any follow-ups, please do so by end of day today so that I can prepare the Straut/Marie memo this weekend. White house folks, would greatly appreciate any relevant minority business information and lists noted below.

Thank you!

First off thanks so much to everyone for coming to yesterday's meeting. For those of you who weren't able to make it, this recap and list of follow-up should help bring you up to speed, but you should also know you missed some pretty amazing brownies. Hopefully everyone will be able to make it next week. Attached please find the meeting agenda, the weekly memo format, and the draft list of minority business events attached and below is a list of follow-up items. We will meet next Monday at 4pm in EEOB, room location TBD.

Thanks again and I look forward to working with everyone!

Brenda and Ken,
Hope everything is going well with the meetings in St. Louis.

I wanted to give you both a quick heads up that a leader in the fatherhood space, James Rodriguez (Chief Executive Officer & President, FATHERS & FAMILIES COALITION OF AMERICA, INC.) is meeting with Education Deputy Assistant Secretary. Dr. Massie Ritsch, tomorrow from 9-10. Not sure what the nature or content of the meeting will include but just wanted to give you all a heads up.

Thank you,

Greening America's Congregations: The Faith Community and Energy Efficiency

Please join us on Thursday, September 13 from 10AM – 4PM EST for an event at the White House: "Greening America's Congregations through Energy Efficiency." During this event, senior administration officials will call on faith-based organizations across the country to save energy and strengthen stewardship of the environment by improving the energy efficiency of their houses of worship with help from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's ENERGY STAR program.

The event will also feature discussions among Administration officials and leaders of the faith community about how congregations across America are already achieving significant carbon emission reductions by incorporating energy efficiency into their broader mission. The first worship facilities that have achieved ENERGY STAR certification will be recognized and special attention will be paid to interfaith, state, and local initiatives, and the role of stewardship in faith traditions.

If you are able to attend, you must RSVP by no later than September 7th. Please RSVP to WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov. This all-day event will include a networking lunch.

This invitation is non-transferable. If you would like to include other members of your congregation or organization, please contact Mara Vanderslice Kelly at mvkelly@who.eop.gov.

We hope you can join us at the White House for this important event for faith and community leaders on September 13th.

Thank you,

Greening America's Congregations: The Faith Community and Energy Efficiency

Thank you for RSVPing to join us on Thursday, September 13 from 10AM – 4PM for an event at the White House: "Greening America's Congregations through Energy Efficiency." Please find attached the latest agenda of the day's activities.

Location

The convening will take place in the Eisenhower Executive Office Building in Room 430. When you arrive, you will enter through the White House Visitor's entrance at 17th Street and State Place NW. You must have a valid photo ID to enter the complex. Attached is a map of the location and near-by parking facilities.

Timing

Our meetings will start at 10am and conclude at approximately 4pm. Please arrive between 9:15-9:45am to be cleared into the building. You will not be able to enter the complex earlier than 9am.

Please note- once you leave the White House complex, you will not be able to re-enter. You may only enter between the hours of 9am-11am.

If you have a need to enter the event at another time, please contact us immediately so that we can make arrangements for you in advance. Please contact: WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov

Meals

Lunch and refreshments will be provided for all participants at the event.

Background

During this event, senior administration officials will call on faith-based organizations across the country to save energy and strengthen stewardship of the environment by improving the energy efficiency of their houses of worship with help from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's ENERGY STAR program.

The event will also feature discussions among Administration officials and leaders of the faith community about how congregations across America are already achieving significant carbon emission reductions by incorporating energy efficiency into their broader mission. The first worship facilities that have achieved ENERGY STAR certification will be recognized and special attention will be paid to interfaith, state, and local initiatives, and the role of stewardship in faith traditions.

Again, thank you for your RSVP to attend Thursday's Greening America's Congregations event. We look forward to welcoming you to the White House.

Friends,

Yesterday was a major day in the global fight to end modern slavery. The President's remarks to the Clinton Global Initiative were powerful, and extraordinarily well-received. Many thanks to the teams from DHS, USAID, HHS and others who assisted, and a HUGE word of thanks to Mara Vanderslice Kelly who made so much of this happen. Truly amazing work Mara!

Please see below for a summary of how things went viral --

- The individual most responsible for the faith community's mobilization on this issue is Louie Giglio. He leads the Passion Movement of hundreds of thousands of young Christians committed to ending slavery. He convened 50,000 college students from across the country in the Georgia Dome this past January. Louie sent the President's speech to his list of over 250,000 people, and then said to 256,800 followers: "[The President said], "We See You. We Hear You...Passion, your voices are heard." See his follow up email at the end of this report.
- Natalie Grant is one of the most popular Christian artists in the country and a leader in the anti-slavery meeting. She was in the clutch yesterday, and said to her 128,000+ followers: "I sat in the room while the President gave his speech. He said to those in slavery: We see you. We hear you. May the church SAY THE SAME." She also tweeted a photo of her and POTUS, receiving 12,537 likes on Facebook.
- Gary Haugen is the "hero" of this movement among Christians (and the broader trafficking community). He leads International Justice Mission, which was responsible for getting Republicans like Senator Rubio on board with anti-trafficking causes early on. IJM rescues people from slavery and rebuild criminal justice systems around the world. Gary was in the President's clutch yesterday and at the speech. He said to his followers: "Honored to meet w/Pres. Obama before speech on modern slavery. He was moved by the 72k of you who wrote him.” He said after the speech: “Friends – 10,000’s of you had the courage to see 21st century slaves -and now the President of the United States tells those victims – “we see you!” #change.”

- Kaity Ruhland, who leads anti-trafficking chapters on Christian college campuses across the country, attended the speech. She said in a statement: “I’m thrilled to be here representing thousands of students who asked President Obama to take steps to combat trafficking...It’s amazing to see how our voices really matter - he’s already taken one of the steps that we requested, and it will literally impact thousands of victims of modern slavery.”
- Prominent conservatives from Kay Warren (Rick’s wife) to Brad Lomenick (leader of the Catalyst conference that brings together 40,000 Christians several times a year) applauded the President’s remarks.
- Statements from World Evangelical Association, International Justice Mission, World Vision and others. More statements coming today.
- I sent a personal email to over 50,000 interested moderate/conservative faith stakeholders on this issue. I enclosed a representative sample of replies in case you’re interested.

Hashtag report from the President’s speech:

#EndSlavery – generated 3,382,852 impressions reaching an audience of 2,740,556 followers. This is limited to the first 1,500 tweets tracked – the actual number is probably much higher.

#HumanTrafficking – generate 12,563,865 impressions reaching an audience of 4,592,473.(This is limited to the first 1,500 tweets tracked – the actual number is probably much higher.

A game-changing day all around. Thanks again to all of you.

Subject: White House Faith & Neighborhood Partnerships Update

September 26, 2012

Dear friends,

I hope you're doing well! After a busy season in the President's faith-based office, I wanted to provide you with a bit of an update. We've added a few more folks to this list – if this is your first email from me, welcome!

President Obama Announces Effort to Combat Modern Slavery, Joins with Faith Groups and NGOs Across the Country

Yesterday, I joined President Obama, faith leaders, NGOs and trafficking survivors at the Clinton Global Initiative in New York where the President announced a major effort to help end the scourge of human trafficking – modern slavery – in the U.S. and across the globe. The President announced a new Executive Order that gives us more tools to fight trafficking, and specifically applauded the role of faith groups like International Justice Mission, Passion, the Catholic Church, World Relief and many others in this fight.

The President said to faith-based organizations, "Like that Good Samaritan on the road to Jericho, we can't just pass by, indifferent...We've got to be moved by compassion. We've got to bind up the wounds." And President Obama noted, "this coming year, my Office of Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships will make the fight against human trafficking a focus of its work."

That work is already underway. Tomorrow, I'll join senior administration officials, faith-based leaders and other anti-trafficking NGO's in a live web chat about the Administration's anti-trafficking strategy and other efforts. Find out how to join here. And please check out video from the President's anti-slavery speech here and text here – it's worth the click.

Faith-based Office Hosts Summit on Job Clubs and Career Ministries

For the last several years, our faith-based office at the Department of Labor has helped local congregations and nonprofits set up or expand “Job Clubs” and career ministries. “Job Clubs” help unemployed individuals in a congregation network, connect to the workforce investment system, and receive the tools and support they need to get back to work. There are over 5,000 of these Job Clubs across the country, and we’ve been honored to provide technical assistance and support to many of them. We’re even more proud that formerly unemployed folks across the country have found work through these programs.

Last week we hosted the first-ever national Job Clubs convening here at the White House and strategized on ways to grow this movement and get more people back to work. United States Secretary of Labor Hilda Solis was our featured speaker, and she talked about the impact Job Clubs are having on our economic recovery. You can find out more about the event and the Job Clubs initiative here. And make sure to drop the faith-based office’s Labor team a line if you want to get involved: CFBNP@dol.gov.

Greening Local Congregations

Our office, along with the Environmental Protection Agency, are working with faith-based groups around the country to green their congregations, saving money and improving stewardship at the same time. We recently held a major conference on this issue, and this article in the Washington Jewish Week has a great run-down. At the conference we were proud to recognize the first 28 congregations ever to receive Energy Star certification through the EPA’s Energy Star program. And if your congregation or nonprofit wants to get involved in Energy Star and start saving on utility bills, find out how here!

Second Round of Faith-based Advisory Council Begins

After a hugely impactful first round, the second group of advisors on President Obama’s Advisory Council on Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships has begun its work. Top faith-based and nonprofit leaders across the country have assembled to provide advice to the President, the Cabinet and our office on how we can better partner with faith-based groups on our country’s most urgent challenges. This year’s Council is beginning its work by focusing on faith-based partnerships with government to end human trafficking. Check out this blog post about the Council's first meeting; we'll be sure to keep you posted on their work.

Working With USAID and the State Department to Serve Vulnerable Folks Around the World

I recently traveled to South Africa, Lesotho, Namibia and the Philippines with colleagues from the US Agency for International Development to examine our government's work on gender violence, hunger and human trafficking around the world. It was a deeply moving trip; I plan to send a longer note about it soon. But for now, please know that judicious use of American resources is dramatically expanding the opportunity for vulnerable folks the world over to live lives of dignity, free from exploitation, hunger and disease. The group of friends below are from Lesotho, and they are able to harvest enough food year-round because of sustainable gardens that USAID and Catholic Relief Services helped them develop. This is just one example of the way the compassion of our country – government working with faith-based groups – is extended around the world.

Friends, as you know, President Obama's faith-based office helps faith and community groups partner with government and business to better serve people in need. We create these partnerships through 13 federal agency faith-based offices, focusing on education, health, veterans services, economic development, jobs and workforce, housing, homeland security and disaster preparedness, criminal justice, food and hunger, the environment, and community service.

I would love to plug you into any of these programs or receive your thoughts on how we can partner with faith groups and nonprofits around the country. Drop me a line any time – jdubois@who.eop.gov. And please keep up the tremendous work you're doing on behalf of our families and communities.

All best,
Joshua

Great.

Maab - there are three documents attached here:

1. A word doc with text of both invites – one for challenge applicants and one for demonstration sites
2. An excel spreadsheet with the info and emails for challenge applicants
3. A word doc with contact info for demonstration sites – still filling in some of those, but should go ahead and send

John – we didn't draft an invitation for the others we want to invite. I don't know when I'll be able to do that (Wednesday afternoon?) and am hoping you can do the first draft. Will send you the excel file with many of those emails separately.

Thanks,

Friends-

Joshua has signed off on the text here. Michael- can you work with Maab- our new wonderful intern- to get these various invites out to the correct email addresses. All invites should come from WHPartnerships.

Maab- can you just make sure that Joshua is aware right before the blasts go out- but he has already approved the text. I am going to be up in NYC the next couple of days- so I am relying on you all to work together to get these out.

Michael- we will need emails from you for all the invites. Thanks everyone!!!

Dear Campus Challenge Participant,

I have some good news to share! The President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge has been extremely successful with more than 250 higher education institutions working in concert to initiate or increase their involvement in interfaith and community service. Thanks to your hard work, this initiative has been more successful than we ever imagined.

I have been inspired by stories of the impact that the President's Interfaith and Community Campus Challenge has had across the country. Large and small accomplishments are contributing to an amazing national movement.

The attached document is designed to provide a way for us to collect the complete story of what has been accomplished. Please complete the Year End report template and return it to WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov<mailto:WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov> by June 15th so that we can compile everything that has been accomplished.

Please SAVE THE DATE: You are invited to join us in Washington, DC on July 9-10, 2012 as we celebrate the work of the first year of the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. This event will provide you with ideas and resources as your institution plans participation in the Challenge for the 2012/13 academic year. The opening plenary for all participants will start at 1:00 p.m. on the campus of Howard University in Washington, DC and the event will conclude by 3:30 on Tuesday, July 10, 2012. We will be sending more details on the event shortly.

In the meantime, please complete your Year-End report and send to us at WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov<mailto:WHPartnerships@who.eop.gov>. If you have question, please send them to EdPartners@ed.gov<mailto:EdPartners@ed.gov>.

Thank you,

Subject: Year-End Report on President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge

To Whom it May Concern,

Attached is the Final Report for Earlham College's project for the President's Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge. We understand that this comes long after the June 15, 2012 deadline. Unfortunately, the Director of Religious Life, who was to be the supervisor for this project, went on medical leave and was not able to see the project through. Nonetheless, student participants did complete the project with some success. The attached report had to await the return to campus this Fall by the key student leader of this project. On her behalf, and with the possibility that this report may still be useful to you, I am herewith sending it.

Although there is no doubt that the project suffered from the absence of staff leadership and, in retrospect, it might have been better to cancel the project when such leadership could not be continued. On the other hand, it seems equally clear that the student participants did gain considerable benefits from this interfaith service project and that the local community also derived some benefits. So, even though it was a compromise, we feel that it was appropriate to continue. With a continuing lack of supervision, though, we did make the decision not to initiate a second year project. If/when we can provide faculty leadership in the future, we hope to re-instate such a project.

Sincerely,

Dear Dr. DuBois,

Attached is our year-end report from the University of Massachusetts Amherst for the first year of the President's Interfaith Community Service Campus Challenge. It has been a pleasure participating in the Challenge, which has provided an important opportunity to further deepen and broaden interfaith understanding and cooperation on our campus, building on our extraordinary 14-year tradition of interfaith Freedom Seders (more about that in our report).

Thank you for your support. We look forward to a continued partnership.

Good Morning Patricia,

We are still waiting on approvals, but may we please have the attachment of superintendent email addresses, as well as clarification on the last three national partner invitations? They have question marks noted beside their names.

Mara and all, as the email drafts note an October 3rd RSVP deadline, will we be extending the response period?

Thank you,
Maab

Thanks, and would you send the final list of who it went to?

Our intern Jessica Herrera has been helping on this end – I've been remiss in introducing her and copying her on emails. She's managing the rsvp's

Thanks Michael, I'm sending the invitations now.

Also flagging emails that bounced back below. I was able to correct (b)(6) his name was spelled incorrectly- but I couldn't find information on the rest.
