Dear Professor,

We believe you are a part of the solution. My name is Thomas O'Fee and I'm a 2016 Texas Tech graduate. After graduating college, I embarked on mission to revolutionize the textbook industry. For decades, students have struggled to afford textbooks. In the past year, our organization has placed over 300,000 books in the hands of students that truly need them.

When professors place used textbooks back into the market, many students often avoid paying high retail costs. Our mission is to make textbooks more affordable, one student, one professor, and one book at a time.

As luck would have it, I'll be meeting with multiple professors on your campus during the next few days. I'm able to pay for your unwanted books by cash, PayPal, or check. If you do not have any unwanted books, but are still interested about our organization feel free to contact me. The best way to set up an appointment is to respond to this e-mail with times you are available.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Mana māte par viņas ķerami pie pašārstēšanās. Tas nebija, līdz slimība deģenerējies, ka mans tēvs panēma manu mati uz slimnīcu, kur viņai tika diagnosticēta, lai uzzinātu, ka hipatītis ēda dziļi vīnas asinsrites. Viņa nebija ilgi pirms viņa nāves. Tas notika, kad es biju tikko gadu vecs. Pamatojoties uz šo, mans tēvs nevēlējās piedot sevi vīgļi, jo no tā, un teica, ka viņš bija atbildīgs par viņas nāvi, jo viņš varētu būt saglabājis viņu, ja vien viņš nebija pievērsis uzmanību lietām mājās, nevis koncentrējot daudz par saviem uzņēmumiem.

Neskatoties uz visām entreaties ar draugiem un radniecīgiem, viņš atteicās apprecēties vēlreiz, bet jānodrošina, ka man bija viss, ko es gribēju. Tas bija ka rezultāts tas, ka viņš ir veicis mani tuvāko radniecīgu viņa fondu depozītu ar banku, un norādīja, ka gadījumā, ja jebkuru iespējamību, man ir tieša piekļuve fonda tikai tad, kad es esmu 24 gadu vecumā citādi, man ir aizbildnība / partneru aizlūgt par manu vārdu par atbrīvošanu līdzekļu man. Diemžēl, viņš nomira pagājušajā gada beigās, un es esmu 21 gadu vecumā pašlaik. Tas ir iemesls, kāpēc es sazinājos jūsu kalpot par aizbildni uz mani un ka manu arvalstu partnera ieguldījumu fonda aizjūras Mani onkuli nezina par fondu, jo viņi jau bija mana tēva mājās un citas īpašības, jo es esmu meitene un viņi teica, man nav tiesību uz jebkuru īpašumu. Viņi ir aicināti būt mana tēva bankas dokumenti, bet es vienkārši viņiem teicu, ka es nezinu, kur viņš tur tos.

Man bija dažādos laikos bija diskusijas ar direktoru starptautisko pārskaitījuma vienības bankas, kur mans tēvs deponēto līdzekļu un es biju parliecināts, ka tad, kad man ir kads, kurš būtu ar mieru saņemt līdzekļus mana vārda, viņi sak visas procedūras veikt atbrīvošanu un līdzekļu nodošanas personas izraudzīta kontā. Tagad, ka jums ir izteikušas savu ieinteresētību sadarboties ar mani, tas būtu ļoti nepieciešama tikai tad, ja jūs sazināties ar banku un lūgumu atbrīvot un mana mantojuma fonda nodošanu sava nominētais vīrs, veiktu ieguldījumus un turpināt būt man nāc par savu valsti turpināt studijas.

Hugh —

The fate of African elephants will be decided next week. In response to mass opposition, the Trump Administration has temporarily halted the policy change to lift the ban on elephant hunting trophies, ivory and body parts, until conservation facts can be “reviewed.”

As the decision hangs in limbo, thousands of supporters are taking action today on behalf of elephants. Sign and share to urge Secretary Zinke to keep the trophy ban in place for elephants in Zimbabwe and Zambia.

Many believe the President is only delaying the U.S Fish and Wildlife service's decision because of recent political unrest in Zimbabwe. Sportsmen's groups are still confident the president will support Secretary Zinke's decision to lift the ban.

Paul Babaz, President of Safari Club International, boasted to CNN, "The way we see it, the President hasn't reversed anything. He's taking his time to make sure the decision that [Zinke] made is right."

Because of this considerable uncertainty, it is imperative to keep voicing support of the ban to Secretary Zinke and the Trump Administration. Sign now to tell Secretary Zinke to keep the ban on African elephant trophies into the U.S.

You shouldn't have to pay to freeze your credit, especially as data breaches become more commonplace and consumers powerless to stop them. That is the guiding principle of the Identity Theft Resource Center's petition (ITRC).

They are asking all 3 major credit agencies — Equifax, TransUnion, and Experian — to offer free credit freezes.

After news broke of Equifax's unprecedented data breach impacting nearly half of all Americans, people searched for what they should do. What they discovered was freezing and unfreezing your credit file comes at a cost. ITRC believes this is wrong and turned to Change to start a petition.

Their petition calls on all three credit bureaus to provide a free annual credit freeze/unfreeze for all Americans.

ITRC knows that a free credit freeze alone won't solve the scourge of identity theft, but in their words, "Everyone should be able to take this proactive step, no matter their level of income." If you believe that Americans should have the right to protect their sensitive credit data, sign and share ITCR's petition right now.

This Week in Change

Hello Hugh —

Every week millions of people turn to Change.org to speak out. This week was no different as headline making stories turned into calls for action. From the fall of Hollywood mogul Harvey Weinstein to a nurse who got justice, here are two stories that show how we can all make a difference.

Harvey Weinstein's $5 million dollar gift returned

Harvey Weinstein has long been considered one of the most powerful people in Hollywood. Now, more than 30 women have come forward to say he sexually assaulted them. Despite his denials, leaders and celebrities have been quick to condemn Weinstein.

Tiana Lowe, a University of Southern California student and journalist, started a petition calling on her university to reject Weinstein's $5 million dollar endowment for women filmmakers. The petition took off on social media, made headlines, and within hours her petition was a victory.

Tiana said: "I can't even recall the last time USC rejected money, but with the power of the people, we reminded USC to do the right thing [and] stand up to sexual assault"

Tiana is not alone in successfully holding institutions accountable for their relationships with Weinstein. Just hours ago, a petition to remove Harvey Weinstein from the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences — the organizations that awards the Oscars — won!

Both petitions are powerful reminders of how tools like Change.org allow you to take action on the stories making headlines — and win!

Justice for Alex Wubbels

When Alex Wubbel's arrest was captured on video, it shocked the country. Alex, a nurse in Pennsylvania, was just doing her job when a police officer violently arrested her for following hospital protocol. The video went viral and sparked outrage.

Shawn League saw the video viewed by millions. A nurse himself, Shawn started a petition calling on the officer to be disciplined. More than half a million people signed his petition, and it won! This week the Salt Lake City Police Department announced the officer has been fired.

Shawn proved how people across the country can channel their outrage into justice.

Hugh, it's exciting to share these stories with you. They are a demonstration in your collective power. And who knows, the next petition making a change could be started by you.

So next time you see a headline or something in need of change in your community, think of Tiana and Shawn. They made a difference and so can you. It all just starts with a click.

I thought you should know that your assistant AD of Football Operations is paying players. Oh and he's getting help from Barney Farrar. Your Assistant AD/High School and Junior College Relations! That seems like it might be an issue for compliance. It's a bad look, but I'm sure you had NO IDEA!

Subject: I want to tell you a story
Date: Sunday, December 17, 2017 11:47:04 AM

Hugh —

My name is Danielle and I want to tell you a story about how through Change.org one voice can be magnified to bring about drastic policy change. In reading it, I hope you see the power you have every time you sign a petition, and the tools available to you to fight injustice.

Just over two years ago I was assaulted while getting a massage at a Massage Envy, a massive chain of massage stores located around the country. I tried to report the assault, but Massage Envy employees offered no assistance — they wouldn't contact the police, nor even let me speak to a supervisor.

I knew I had to act, but I felt very alone in my efforts to try to persuade this billion dollar company to commit to policy change. I didn't want another person to go through what I experienced, so I finally decided to go public with my story and I started a petition on Change.org demanding that the company reevaluate its policies to prevent sexual assault and support survivors.

With my petition, I wasn't sure what to expect. But what I got was a community of people who wanted to join me in my fight. Through Change.org I could connect with people around the country, many of whom left me messages of support and shared their own stories of assault.

Those messages gave me strength throughout the campaign. My petition wasn't just about me, it was about the 60,000 people who had signed it — turning a moment of violence and pain into a movement for change. It was a movement Massage Envy couldn't ignore.

Shortly after I launched my petition, Buzzfeed published an investigative article detailing interviews with more than 180 victims of sexual assaults at Massage Envy spas. As I read through the testimonies and thought about the 60,000 people supporting my petition, I knew I had done the right thing in speaking out.

Recently, I received incredible news. Massage Envy told me that they would be implementing comprehensive and transparent changes to their policies on sexual assault, and they wanted my help!

While this was a moment I will never forget, I never felt this victory belonged to me. It belonged to those who signed my petition, the people in my life who supported me, and the survivors across the country speaking out and telling their stories.

This experience has really impressed upon me our collective power to create positive change. You never know when you will be called upon to act. Just know when it does, you are not alone – the Change.org community is there to give you a voice.

My thank you video has been posted on Change.org's Facebook page. I hope you will take a moment to watch and share. I really couldn't have done this without people like you.

Watch and Share

Thank you,

Danielle Dick

Coach Freeze defiantly said that everyone should E-mail this department if they had any conclusive information about Ole Miss providing illegal inducements in your football program. Your own attempt to deflate a major NCAA crackdown by self-reporting a small number of them, seems to me like it constitutes proof. Teams like Ole Miss are a disgrace to the sport that I love.

Hello my dear,

I sent this mail praying it will find you in a good condition of health, since I myself am in a very critical health condition in which I sleep every night without knowing if I may be alive to see the next day. I bring peace and love to you. It is by the grace of God, I had no choice than to do what is lawful and right in the sight of God for eternal life and in the sight of man for witness of God's mercy and glory upon my life. I am Mrs. Gloria Paul Eric, a widow and citizen of United States of America. I am suffering from a long time brain tumor, it has defied all forms of medical treatment, and right now I have only about a few months to live, according to medical experts. The situation has gotten complicated recently with my inability to hear properly and communicating with you with the help of the chief nurse herein the hospital, from all indications my conditions are really deteriorating and it is quite obvious that, according to my doctors they have advised me that I may not live too long, this is because this illness has gotten to a very bad stage. I hoped that you will not expose or betray this trust and confident that I am about to repose on you for the mutual benefit of the orphans and the less privileged ones. I have some funds I inherited from my late husband, the sum of ($ 11,000,000.00, Eleven Million Dollars). Having known my condition, I decided to donate this fund to you believing that you will utilize it the way I am going to instruct herein. I need you to assist me and reclaim this money and use it for Charity works, for orphanages and give justice and help to the poor, needy and widows says The Lord." Jeremiah 22:15-16." and also build schools for less privileged that will be named after my late husband if possible and to promote the word of God and the effort that the house of God is maintained. I do not want a situation where this money will be used in an ungodly manner. That's why I'm taking this decision. I'm not afraid of death, so I know where I'm going. I accept this decision because I do not have any child who will inherit this money after I die. Please I want your sincere and urgent answer to know if you will be able to execute this project for the glory of God, and I will give you more information on how the fund will be transferred to your bank account. May the grace, peace, love and the truth in the Word of God be with you and all those that you love and care for.

I am waiting for your immediate reply please don't endeavor to contact me at my private email (gloriapauleric@yandex.com).

May God Bless you,
Mrs. Gloria Paul Eric.

Hugh — Federal Communications Commission (FCC) Chairman Ajit Pai just announced his plan to end net neutrality and the FCC will vote on his proposal December 14. This could result in internet service providers like Comcast being able to throttle or block access to content it doesn't like. It's never been more important for you to add your name to this petition.

The ability to organize grassroots movements, whether locally or across the globe, is made possible by an open Internet. Since its creation, the Internet has become the world's megaphone for free speech, protected by the principles of Net Neutrality, which require internet service providers (ISPs) to give everyone equal access to everything you use the internet for -- email, watching videos, listening to music, or signing petitions on Change.org.

Without Net Neutrality, ISPs can choose what you see online, favoring some sources or blocking others. For example, if someone launched a petition on Change.org against a company like Verizon, Net Neutrality prevents Verizon from blocking or slowing their customers' access to our site.

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) is moving to end

Net Neutrality -- which could mean giving big cable companies room to charge extra fees, block and censor users -- by removing ISPs from Title II of the Communications Act, a rule that means ISPs are subjected to tougher regulations that prevent them blocking sites, creating paid “fast” lanes, and throttling internet speeds. This decision could have global implications for the way the world shares and receives information from journalists, newsrooms, and NGO’s.

Net Neutrality also prevents ISPs from creating paid “fast lanes” that would give faster delivery of content to companies who can afford to pay more. An organization or platform like Change.org that couldn’t afford those fees, couldn’t communicate with their supporters.

In the United States, there is strong bipartisan support for Net Neutrality. A recent poll conducted by Mozilla found that Republicans, Democrats and Independents overwhelmingly support these rules.

At Change.org, we believe that people everywhere should have the tools they need to make their voices heard. We’re a social good company powered by technology that empowers anyone anywhere to take action on the issues they care about. A closed off Internet means fewer ways for millions of people to make the change they want to see.

Without an internet equally accessible to everyone regardless of income or geography, we can’t continue that mission. Add your name to let Congress and the FCC know that you support an open internet.

To Whom it May Concern:

Good morning. It has come to my attention after watching the NFL draft last night that the University of Mississippi has been participating in improper and illegal benefits to its student-athletes for quite some time. The head coach and leader of your football program asked that if anyone has facts on the matter, to please contact this email address. I am simply doing my part and reporting proof of said allegations. I asked that you open a case to determine just how far these type of activities flow within your football program and great university. I did not attach the video evidence, but you can turn to any major sports broadcast today and find the referenced material!

As a fair warning, it is my advice that you act on this matter promptly and harshly before the stories related to other Ole Miss student-athletes also leak.

Good riddance Rebels,

Dear Mississippi Staff,

You guys are a disgrace to college football. You let 18 to 22 year olds take advantage of you before running off to the NFL for riches. It's time somebody realized that these Neanderthal "student-athletes" are only loyal to the people that pay them or help them get paid. That's it.

You've sold your soul to win and for what? You've lost all credibility and integrity and you lost a fan in me.

I cheer for the New York Giants and Florida Gators. Because Eli Manning is my QB, I root for his college team too, whenever they don't play the Gators. That won't happen anymore. You have a duty to the fans as well as the players and you've failed all of us.

Shame on you! You deserve the heavy punishment you're going to receive and then some. Maybe one day, you'll realize that none of it was worth all the trouble.

I hope they hammer you for this.

Better luck in the future.

Hello Hugh —

This week, four people have shown that raising your voice can have a remarkable impact. From helping those in disaster hit areas to speaking up for voiceless animals, incredible people-power is taking place around the nation.

A Humanitarian Crisis in Puerto Rico Prompts Response from Citizens

After Hurricane Maria devastated Puerto Rico, two people stood up and started petitions urging the White House to take action. They had no idea that in just a matter of days, hundreds of thousands of people would support their petitions and help provide life-saving support to those in need.

When Rick learned that a U.S. naval hospital ship, the USNS Comfort, was available to send to Puerto Rico, he started a petition calling on the Trump administration to deploy the ship to the crisis.

In less than a week the petition had over 270,000 supporters, caught the attention of the Washington Post and other news outlets, and by Thursday became a victory when the Trump administration announced that the USNS Comfort was on the way.

After Jessica watched the news of the devastation in Puerto Rico, she started a petition and called on the Trump administration to waive the Jones Act - a law that heavily regulates the types of ships that can take supplies between U.S. ports.

Almost 500,000 people joined her and the momentum was too much to ignore, as late this week the Trump administration announced that it was temporarily waiving the Jones Act.

Jessica said; "When I started the petition on Saturday, I never imagined it would generate so much support. I attribute [the success of the petition to] the platform Change.org provides to the average person who sees an injustice in the world and is compelled to correct it."

Now, a new petition is starting to take off asking U.S. lawmakers to provide necessary aid to restore Puerto Rico's infrastructure. Karrieann from New York started the petition and she needs your help to influence the federal government. Will you add your signature to her campaign?

Guggenheim Removes Dog Cruelty Art from Exhibit

When the Guggenheim Museum announced an exhibit was set to open next week that featured a video of dogs tied to treadmills, Stephanie was outraged and launched a petition saying "animal cruelty holds no place in art." In less than 48 hours over 300,000 joined her, calling on the museum to remove the exhibits.

The petition grew to over 750,000 signatures, was covered in the New York Times and a day later the Guggenheim said it would remove the three art pieces from the upcoming exhibit.

Exquifax Commits to Free Credit Lock & Unlock Services — for Life!

When a massive Equifax data breach affected the security of 143 million Americans' personal information, citizens took to Change.org to demand that the credit reporting agency be held accountable. Yesterday, Eva's petition marked a milestone when Equifax's new CEO announced a commitment to provide its customers with free credit lock services — for life. You can read more here.

Hugh — because passionate people like you have taken the time to start and sign these petitions, more lives will be saved in Puerto Rico, millions of online identities will be protected and artists will think twice about using animals in art.

So if there's something you care about or an issue in the news you feel passionately about, you can start your own petition today.

Good morning!

I received this email address from current Mississippi football head coach Hugh Freeze. He asked that if anyone were to become aware of any possible compliance violations that we should email here. A former student athlete at your university recently may have brought an issue to light:

Attached are screenshots from said student athlete's Instagram account, which largely spell out the details of one such incident. I hope you all will use this information responsibly and investigate as best reflects the integrity of your esteemed university and of the NCAA.

Thank you very much!

Hello Ole Miss,

I am responding to football coach Hugh Freeze's 2013 tweet:

@CoachHughFreeze: If you have facts about a violation, email compliance@olemiss.edu. If not, please don't slander the young men

I am watching ESPN and I am seeing what looks like a violation to me. Compliance with NCAA rules and regulations is very important to me, and Coach Freeze's commitment to following the rules is inspiring.

Have a great week.

Subject: Potential Recruiting Violation

Dear Sir or Madam:

I greatly look forward to the full disclosure of the facts and details surrounding the recruitment [REDACTED]. It is my understanding that Coach Freeze offered scholarships to [REDACTED] girlfriend and other family members to secure his commitment to play football at Ole Miss.

How does an academic institution, such as Ole Miss, offer scholarships to potential students who have not filled out an application or otherwise qualified for admission, much less academic honor?

There is probably more than one person sitting at home right now wondering why he or she received a rejection letter from your school while [REDACTED] family receives full scholarships. What message are you sending as an institution to the students who work hard but are not rewarded because those spots are given out to secure a football recruit? Win at all costs is the message I read.

I look forward to the investigation and the report.

Regards,

Dear Ole Miss compliance officer - If you actually exist,

A couple of years ago, Coach Hugh Freeze released this email address to the public in an effort to divert any information pertaining to recruiting violations away from the student-athletes and to the AD. Well, last night [REDACTED] while he was at Ole Miss.

Contrary to the way you guys have operated in the Freeze era, this is, in fact, illegal. Keep up the good work! One would think that blatant cheating would result in tangible results, but 0 SEC West Titles doesn't seem like the ROI you all are hoping for. Keeping wallowing in the stench of mediocrity, even if you have to cheat like hell to stay there.

Hugh, Barney, et al:

Your program has been [REDACTED] all over the world wide web. If the claims are true all of you will soon be broken men, yet right now you are simply afterbirth, slithering from your mother's filth and paying for your deviltry. The power of Christ compels you to become honest men and forsake the shit stained lives you have been living. Your athletic department is nothing more than an old and dry dingle berry hanging from the Ole Miss anus which itself is only an inch away from the vaginal sludge you call an athletic department.

It takes a lot of love to crush a young man's dreams, but that is exactly what the good book requires you to do. So, confess your sins publicly and let the NCAA bayonet your wounded. Considering the natural born jackasses you fellows appear to be, I assume you are stumbling over the enormity of being [REDACTED]. So, instead of walking around like free range dementia patients, accept this prescription for two testicles each and do the right thing. You will feel better as soon as you are able.

You have posited your program as an angelic one, and though I am not a gynecologist, even I could see her devil's tail.

Slam the lair's door to the atrocious beast you built, wipe the scum from your polluted lips, and quickly present yourselves where innumerable people have told you to go.

Hugh —

Hope you're having a great weekend. Here's a petition related to a popular issue that's been getting a lot of attention this week. Will you consider signing it?

Petitioning FJ Productions

Fabio : FJ Productions: Replace Tai the elephant with a CG elephant!

Petition by Bob Barker and Performing
Animal Welfare Society
United States of America

 29,586
Supporters

Sign the petition

There is no place for animal cruelty in entertainment – and I'm asking for your help to try and stop it.

Today we have the technology to replace live animals in film productions, so there is no excuse for using live elephants or other wild animals, who are cruelly trained to perform.

Yet a film currently in production, Saving Flora, is using an elephant. To make matters worse, the company is using Tai – an elephant who was stolen from her family in the wild as a baby and trained to perform, including in circuses – to tell the story of an elephant who is escaping a circus!

Sign this petition urging FJ Productions to replace Tai with a computer-generated elephant in the filming of Saving Flora!

Have Trunk Will Travel, the California-based company that owns Tai, was caught on camera during a training session in which handlers forcefully struck and hooked elephants with a bullhook – a weapon resembling a fireplace poker that is designed to inflict pain and punishment. Tai's owners have publicly defended using bullhooks on elephants.

I am one of the people who signed an open letter to FJ Productions, joining the Performing Animal Welfare Society (PAWS), national animal protection organizations, elephant sanctuaries, and other entertainment industry professionals in condemning the use of Tai for this film.

Sign this petition to join me in urging FJ Productions to reconsider the use of Tai and instead utilize a computer-generated elephant to tell their story.

Thank you!

Please cancel the STAAR test this school year. Let's take all the money we spend on the test and use it to rebuild the MANY schools in Texas that were damaged from Harvey! Let's cancel the STAAR test so that when our children return to the classroom, we can teach and care for them and not have to feel guilty for using instructional time to comfort a child who just lost everything. Let's focus on our future and not scores. Let's take care of our children and think with our hearts.

Fellow teachers and parents, please consider signing this petition and share as much as you can. We chose this profession to make a difference in the life of a child and there are so many out there in need of our love!

Hugh, you are one in 200 million!

Change.org marked 200 million users this month, making us the largest platform for creating change in the world.

I joined Change.org nine years ago when we had just a few thousand users, and have been inspired and awed by people like you over that time who have made such an incredible impact on the world.

Whether you're helping someone get access to medication, fighting to end animal abuse, making your neighborhoods safer, or taking a stand against injustice, you've proven that online action works — in fact, 73 million people have signed a winning petition on Change.org.

During this time of year when many around the country come together to give thanks, we have two very special words for you: thank you!

Thank you for being part of an amazing community that makes a difference each and every day, and thank you for proving that ‘anyone, anywhere’ has the potential to change the world.

A few of our changemakers also wanted to share their gratitude with you for being part of their work to change the world:

“Thank you just doesn't seem enough to express our deepest heartfelt gratitude to all of the Change.org members who stood united with us and helped to turn our simple idea into such a beautiful reality.” — Noelle Bivens, whose petition to have a memorial crosswalk installed outside the club where a mass shooting in Orlando took place became a victory this year

“I've experienced first-hand the significant impact and change that can happen when we decide to join the forces of our signatures together. Thank you for caring and thank you for lending the power of your signatures and your voices to improve society and the lives of others! You are making a difference!” — Brenda Tracy, petitioning to end threats of sexual violence online

“Through Change.org we came together and did the impossible... I am so thankful for such an overwhelming display of compassion during this holiday season.” — Dr. Brian Hare, who successfully petitioned to save the lives of dozens of chimpanzees in Liberia

These are just a few of the people whose lives you have touched over these years. We can't wait to see what you'll help change in the months and years to come!

We have a few more stories for you in this video celebrating our 200 million user milestone. Learn how people all around the globe have changed the world, simply by starting a petition — perhaps even one that you signed!

Thank you for taking action, today and every day.

Subject: This Veterans Day
Date: Saturday, November 11, 2017 12:57:25 PM

Hi Hugh —

As a veteran, I know military service doesn't end when you take off the uniform. Veterans carry the weight of defending our freedoms with them for a lifetime. Veterans Day is a moment to reflect on and honor those sacrifices.

Dave Kelly is a quadruple amputee and a veteran. But because he lost both his arms and legs before September 11, 2001, the VA's Program of Comprehensive Assistance for Family Caregivers doesn't extend caregiver benefits to families like his.

Dave has started a petition to change this for his family and the tens of thousands of families falling through the cracks.

Veterans who were disabled before September 11, 2001 must choose between a nursing home or paying out of pocket if they want to be cared for by family at home. A nursing home can cost up to $400,000 a year compared to the benefit allowance of $40,000 for caregivers.

Dave relies on his wife Yvonne to help him to get dressed, eat, bathe, and put on his prosthetics. Without Yvonne's love and devotion, Dave would not have been able to start a career in IT and build a fulfilling life. But despite Yvonne's essential role as his caregiver, current law makes her ineligible for caregiver benefits.

There is no better day than Veterans Day to lend your voice to support the issues impacting our nation's heroes. Take a moment to consider Dave and Yvonne's campaign — if you support their efforts, use this Veterans Day to join them in taking action on behalf of disabled vets by signing and sharing their petition.

On behalf of veterans everywhere, thank you for your support. As a Change.org team member, thank you for being a part of a community that allows vets the voice they deserve.

Dear sir/madam,

Perkenalkan saya Linda, assistant lawyer dari suami saya membantu mencari database Indonesia dan menemukan email anda untuk meminta kerjasama dan bantuan untuk saya. Orangtua adoption membawa saya tinggal di California dari rumah yatim piatu (Orphant) di Indonesia setelah mereka meninggal saya bertemu dan menikah dengan suami disini. Awalnya saya sangat bahagia dia mencintai saya, meskipun tiada memiliki anak. Namun Tuhan mengambil suami saya dengan sebuah kecelakaan tahun lalu dan kini saya sendiri tidak memiliki seseorang yang dekat dengan saya lagi.

Sekarang saya tinggal bersama dengan keluarga suami. Mereka memperlakukan saya dengan sangat tidak baik dan saya selalu disalahkan untuk kematian suami saya. Saya sangat tidak bahagia disini dan ingin kembali ke Indonesia untuk memulai hidup baru. Keluarga dan saudara suami saya mencoba mengambil alih semua harta dan perusahaan suami saya. Semua telah dikuasai oleh mereka, dan mereka membuat saya menderita disini.

Suami saya meninggalkan sejumlah uang yang cukup besar di sebuah perusahaan Finance dan menggunakan nama saya sebagai keluarga terdekat atau ahli waris jadi saya memiliki hak untuk mengklaim dana tersebut, inilah yang belum mereka ketahui. Saya ingin rencana untuk mentransfer uang ini keluar. Saya akan memberikan hadiah percentage dari dana yang diterima bila anda bisa membantu saya. Dan saya percaya Tuhan akan membawa saya ke seseorang yang tepat dan dapat dipercaya untuk membantu saya keluar dari masalah ini. Saya ingin anda berperan menjadi saudara saya dan kuasa untuk menerima uang ini dan menyimpannya sampai saya datang, Dapatkah saya mempercayai anda untuk melakukan ini?

Terimakasih.

Dear sir / madam,

Introduce me, am Linda, I don't have anyone else at this time that I can trust around me, that's why am looking for email database and find your email from my husband's assistant lawyer, he advise me to ask for your cooperation and assistance to help me. I went from Indonesia orphanage when i was kids and my adoption parents took me to stay in California. I met and married my husband. I was very happy to live with him. He really loves me, he even doesn't mind if I cannot give him a child. But Lord took my husband with an accident last year. Then I don't have anyone close to me since.

Recently, I stay with family of my deceased husband. They treated me very unpleasant and I was blamed for what happen to my husband. I'm not happy with the way they treat me, and really want to go out from this country to start a new life. My husband's Family which is His brother tried to take over all the assets and the company of my husband. All have been dominated by them.

My husband left a fairly large sum of fund in a company Finance and used my name as the next of kin or beneficiary, so I have the right to claim these funds, and these assets they never know about it. I don't want my husband's family knew about the plan to transfer this fund out. I will give a prize percentage from the funds you received if you can help me. And I believe God will bring me to the right person who can be trusted to help me out of this problem. Can you act as authorized to receive such funds and store it until I came to your country, Can I trust you to do this? Thank you.

Regards,
Linda Pinesti Harrington

Coach Freeze personally asked me to email you if I had any facts about a violation. I don't want to slander any young men, but I feel it's my duty as a citizen to report the violation I saw. It's offensive that the Ole Miss Athletic Department would go to such length to be blatantly paying their recruits to play football, but what makes it worse is THAT YOU CAN'T EVEN BEAT ARKANSAS.

Subject: What a night!!!
Date: Friday, April 29, 2016 6:50:19 AM

Good morning guys. If you are anything like me, your head is still spinning from the wild chain of events last night. First and foremost, congrats on having 3 players drafted in the first round. That is a very impressive accomplishment, no matter how the players ended up in Oxford (more on that shortly). Laquan Treadwell is amazing athlete and I truly am impressed by his skills. Nkemdiche is a physical specimen that will be a force to be reckoned with. I understand that his vertical is off the charts. I dont know too many other people that than jump 2 stories high after that much synthetic marijuana. You have to be concerned for his opponents extra point attempts. They're going to get blocked, am I right? That brings me to the point of this email, [REDACTED] I know you are going to have your hands full, so I dont expect a return email, [REDACTED] I wanted to bring it to your attention in the event that it needs to be documented. Man, that guy has been nothing but problems this season. Im sure you're ready to put him in the rearview. However, I would like you to investigate the coaching staff, as it appears that they are paying players over there. As you know, this is a NCAA infraction, and it shouldnt be taken lightly. Also I am only writing you because Coach Freeze said if there was any evidence of cheating, we should contact you. I have documents from [REDACTED] outlining the details. If you should need these, please let me know and I will send them in a followup email. I couldnt believe my eyes, I thought that Coach Freeze's staff was on the up and up. Boy is my face red!!

Anyway, Ill let you get to work, because I know you will be super busy today. Best of luck with this case and I hope this doesnt interrupt your weekend plans!

Subject: What is Clutter?
Date: Friday, August 5, 2016 1:18:09 PM

Stay on top of your email

We've added an awesome new feature that helps filter your low-priority email—saving time for your most important messages. We call it Clutter.

Clutter looks at what you've done in the past to determine the messages you're most likely to ignore. It then puts them here, in the Clutter folder. Just keep using email as usual and Clutter will learn which messages aren't important to you. From time to time, Clutter might get it wrong. You can move the messages we've incorrectly identified as clutter to your inbox, and Clutter will take notice.

Your privacy is extremely important to us. We remove any personally identifiable information from the data we use to make the feature better.

And if you find Clutter isn't for you, you can turn it off any time.

Coach Freeze asked us to forward you any info about violations and not slander your players. Is it considered slander if one of your players admits on national TV that he took money from one of your coaches? I'm no lawyer but I don't think it is. You might want to look into this.

I saw Coach Freeze's tweet a few years ago asking people to report possible NCAA violations at Ole Miss to this email address. One of your former players has announced that he accepted money from a coach while playing for your program. I thought you might want to be aware.

[REDACTED]

In his post-draft press conference, reporters asked him about the texts and whether or not he took money at Ole Miss. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

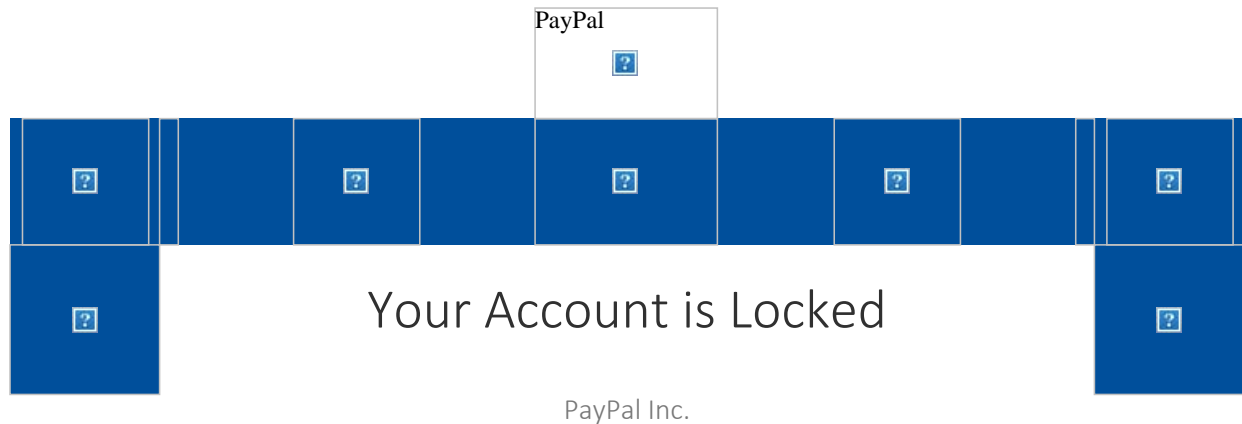

[REDACTED] Then, during another question, a woman abruptly comes onto the stage, insists that [REDACTED] has no more comments, and shuffles him off, where he was briefed behind a door.

Please thank Coach Freeze for letting me know to whom I should report this.
