We had originally estimated that records would be available on or before today, March 4. However, due to the number of requests currently being processed and the time constraints of the current legislative session, we need additional time.

We now estimate we will be able to provide you with the records or a first installment on or before March 18, 2022.

Please contact my office if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Samina Mays

3. Any calendar entries, memoranda, or powerpoint presentations in the possession of Representative Brad Klippert's office mentioning the key words "HSLDA" or "homeschool".

I am a journalist from VICE asking for these emails as part of a newsgathering process, and ask that they be provided on a rolling basis, as discovered.

The requested documents will be made available to the general public, and this request is not being made for commercial purposes.

In the event that there are fees, I would be grateful if you would inform me of the total charges in advance of fulfilling my request. I would prefer the request filled electronically, by e-mail attachment if available or CD-ROM if not.

We will work with the appropriate Member office and/or department(s) to locate the records you seek and to determine the volume and any costs associated with satisfying your request. We will contact you about the availability and/or provide you with copies of the records in question.

PLEASE NOTE: Washington State's Public Records Act, Chapter 42.56 RCW, does not require a governmental body to create new information, do legal research, or answer general questions. For information about the Washington State Legislature and the legislative process, visit the Legislative Information Center or call (360) 786-7573.

You'll receive an email when your records are available. You can also monitor the progress of your request at the Wash. State Legislature's Public Records Center.

Again, thank you for using the Wash. State Legislature's Public Records Center.

Washington State Legislature
