I like it – let's go with that.

I think I like October 5, 2020... the date on our establishing document. That's really when we came to be a defined thing... a thing recognized by the city, schools and library through the October 5, 12 and 19 resolutions. The series of things that followed since October 5... such as:

- Formally standing up our first Leadership Team, including the original eight, plus Madeline, Leigh Ann and Jeremy.
- Finding Josh and creating our website.
- Finding Merle and obtaining incorporation and 501(c)(3) status.
- Finding Jane and her UD class and creating our logo/branding stuff.
- Conducting our first two membership meetings, and several OIC committee meetings.

I view as building upon what we created on October 5.

Just my thought.

Hmmm...Good question. We held our first public meeting on January 27th, so we could go with that date. Or we could go with the date we approved our establishing document, or the date we received our 501c3 status.

Norb – your thoughts?

What was the inception date for the OIC?
