We recently reviewed the evidence in your Social Security disability claim and find that your disability is continuing. Here is some important information about your claim. We have also enclosed information about working that explains some of the terms we use.

If you are receiving Supplemental Security Income payments, any decision about that claim will be sent to you in a separate notice.

WE WILL REVIEW YOUR CLAIM AGAIN

Your claim will be reviewed from time to time to see if you are still eligible for benefits based on disability or blindness. When your claim is reviewed, you will be contacted if there is any question as to whether your eligibility continues.

THINGS TO REMEMBER

You must tell us right away about any changes that may affect your benefits. If you don't, you may have to repay any benefits you are not due. Let us know if:

- o You went to work since your last report or you return to work in the future (no matter how little you earn); or
- o You already reported your work, but your duties or pay have changed. (Remember to keep records of your work and earnings such as pay statements from your employer.); or
- o You start paying for work expenses related to your disability (for example, you may need special transportation) or the amount you pay for such expenses changes or you no longer pay for such expenses. (Remember to keep proof of payment for any work expenses.); or
- o Your doctor says your condition has improved (even if you don't work now); or
- o You apply for, start getting, or have a change in the amount of worker's compensation or another public benefit.

We will use the information to decide if your health problems still meet our rules, if we must stop payments because of your work, or if we must change your payment amount.

IF YOU DISAGREE WITH THE DECISION

If you disagree with the decision, you have the right to appeal. We will review your case again and consider any new facts you have. A person who did not make the first decision will decide your case.

- o You have 60 days to ask for an appeal.
- o The 60 days start the day after you receive this letter. We assume you got this letter 5 days after the date on it unless you show us that you did not get it within the 5-day period.
- o You must have a good reason if you wait more than 60 days to ask for an appeal.
- o You have to ask for an appeal in writing. We will ask you to sign Form SSA-561-U2, called "Request for Reconsideration". Contact one of our offices if you want help.

IF YOU WANT HELP WITH YOUR APPEAL

You can have a friend, lawyer, or someone else help you. There are groups that can help you find a lawyer or give you free legal services if you qualify. There are also lawyers who do not charge unless you win your appeal. Your local Social Security office has a list of groups that can help you with your appeal. If you get someone to help you, you should let us know. If you hire someone, we must approve the fee before he or she can collect it.
