

Dear Mr Fernandes,

Thank you for contacting INTERPOL.

Please note that in order for a request for documents and data to be admissible, it must come from the person whom it concerns or from that person's duly authorized representative, in accordance with Article 30(1)(c) of the Operating Rules of the Commission for the Control of INTERPOL's Files (CCF).

As an independent international organization, INTERPOL operates on the basis of its own Constitution, rules and regulations and is not subject to any national law including laws concerning disclosure of documents.

Every individual or his/her legal representative has the right to seek access to data concerning that individual recorded in INTERPOL's databases. In accordance with INTERPOL's rules, such requests should be submitted to the Commission for the Control of INTERPOL's Files (CCF) as provided for on the CCF's webpage at <https://www.interpol.int/en/Who-we-are/Commission-for-the-Control-of-INTERPOL-s-Files-CCF>
