Re: A-2022-00406-2, Appeal Prima Facie

On January 24, 2022, a Privacy Act correction request was tendered to the DOJ OIG in relation to this FOIA request with a request for them to correct the records. No copies of any response in relation to this request were tendered upon this website directly from the OIG FOIA. The agency has failed to respond to the Privacy Act correction request. As a courtesy a copy of the request is attached.

The item remains in appeal for 'prima facie' obstruction of justice. As you and I are both aware it is a very common tactic employed by the agencies to pretend to send a response via email or mail or otherwise which is subject to 'the dog ate your homework' which prevents the requester from exercising their timely rights to appeal and redress.

Request No. 18-OIG-332
MGS

Dear William Fernandes:

This responds to your letter dated January 12, 2022, which I am interpreting as a request that this Office reconsider its decision on your appeal from the action of the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) on your request for access to records concerning "Case Number: 2005-007639."

After carefully considering this matter, I have determined that this Office's decision, as outlined by this Office's letter dated January 4, 2022, was appropriate, and that this Office enclosed a copy of OIG's August 30, 2019, final response letter to its decision. Nevertheless, to the extent you still seek a copy of OIG response, please find a copy enclosed to this letter.

Sincerely,

Subject: Freedom of Information/Privacy Act Request [18-OIG-332]

Dear Mr. Fernandes:

This responds to your request under the Freedom of Information Act for access to records maintained by the Office of the Inspector General (OIG). Specifically, you are seeking documents relating to “Case Number: 2005-007639.” To the extent that non-public responsive records exist, without consent, proof of death, or an overriding public interest, disclosure of third party records or law enforcement records concerning an individual could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), (b)(7)(C).

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (2012 & Supp. V 2017). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

You may contact our FOIA Public Liaison, Deborah Waller, at (202) 616-0646 for any further assistance with your request. Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, e-mail at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at (202) 741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448.

If you are not satisfied with my response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, 441 G Street NW, 6th Floor, Washington, DC 20530, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://www.foiaonline.gov/foiaonline/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of my response to your request. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Sincerely,

Kim Kochurka
